Obs., by Mr. Speaker, 752.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE:

Ministerial Statement by Sir George Fuller, adj., 2107.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES:

Acting: Mr. R. B. Walker appointed for one day, 184, 236, 301.
 Mr. R. B. Walker elected, 435.

ASSEMBLY (continued) :CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (ROBERT BRUCE WALKER, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Eight Hours (Amendment) Bill: The discussion on an expediency motion must be confined to the question of expediency, 636; a provision for increasing the working day beyond eight hours was within the scope of the bill; the point that it was beyond the scope of the bill might have been taken on the second reading; if the title did not correctly describe the bill it could be altered, 966; it was not competent at the Committee stage to decide that any clause was out of order, 967.

Real Estate and Stock Agents Bill: An amendment to amend the order of leave to include all commission agents in the City of Sydney could not be accepted, as the Governor's message referred to all real estate agents in the State, 645.

South Coast Towns Transmission Line Bill: An amendment to alter the route of line was out of order, because it would increase the burden on the Crown, 1075.

Standing Orders, Amendment of: All the Committee could do was to agree to and adopt new and amended standing orders and the rescission of certain standing orders; no new matter not contemplated by the original motion, could be introduced, 545.

Sydney Harbour Bridge Bill: An amendment to increase the taxation to be levied under the bill was out of order, 3012; an amendment to extend the area of the impost to cover persons not contemplated by the bill was out of order, 3013; it was not essential that the Governor's message and the order of leave should be absolutely identical, and an amendment to provide for an alternative type of bridge was in order, 3018. A motion for the postponement of the consideration of a clause to a specific date could not be accepted; the motion must be confined to the postponement of the clause, the date being a matter for the Minister in charge of the bill, 3024; an amendment that would alter the area of impost by providing for the inclusion of municipalities which might at some future date be incorporated in the city of Sydney, could not be accepted, 3171; the area of impost could not be altered by excluding the municipality of Manly, 3173.

4 July to 23 November, 1922.

ASSEMBLY (continued):CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY.

Mr. Speaker's warrant, nominating Messrs. D. H. Drummond, R. Greig, E. J. Loxton, R. E. O'Halloran, and J. C. Wilson, laid on table, 33.

DEPUTY-SPEAKER (ROBERT BRUCE WALKER, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

New Railway Carriages: A motion for the appointment of a select committee to inquire into the action of the Railway Commissioners in building new and wider railway carriages, etc., did not touch a matter within the scope of the Railway Royal Commission. Moreover, the commission had been terminated, 900.

DIVISIONS:

New method of recording, 685.

ELECTIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS COMMITTEE:

Mr. Speaker's warrant, nominating members, laid on table, 33; appointed, 236; Messrs. Mark F. Morton, McTieran, Scott Fell, Main, Stuart-Robertson, Gosling, and Bennett, sworn, 236; Messrs. Bagnall and Loxton, sworn, 301.

SESSIONAL COMMITTEES:

Printing Committee: Captain Chaffey and Mr. Molesworth discharged from attendance; Mr. Goldstein and Mr. Gosling appointed, 1682.

Standing Orders Committee: Mr. Walker appointed, 2033.

SESSIONAL ORDERS:

Sitting days, 436.

SPEAKER, MR. (HON. DANIEL LEVY), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Address in Reply: There was no provision for a speech being continued at another sitting, 57.

Adjournment: The fact that a member had been misrepresented did not entitle him to reply by way of personal explanation on a motion for adjournment, 869.

Ballou Soldier Settlers: The discussion on a motion for adjournment must be strictly confined to the specific subject brought under notice of the House, 485.

Bullôt Meat Process: It was customary to allow the Leader of the Opposition to briefly reply to a Ministerial statement, and the Leader of the Progressive Party might also make a short statement, 2315.

Casual Vacancies, Filling of: The matter referred to in a motion for adjournment to discuss the filling of casual vacancies might fairly be said to be embraced in a notice of motion for leave to introduce a bill to provide for the filling of casual vacancies; but under new Standing Order 110A, in determining the question of anticipation the Speaker was required to have regard to the probability of the matter anticipated being brought before the House within a reasonable time. On the assurance of the Premier that there was a probability of the notice of motion coming before the House within a reasonable time the Speaker was bound to rule the motion for adjournment out of order, 3684.

Chamber Clocks: obs., 2472.

Close of Session: obs., 4336.

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Cost of Foodstuffs: A motion for adjournment to discuss the cost of foodstuffs was out of order, as the matter was not a definite matter of urgent public importance coming within the meaning of standing order 49, 519.

Cruelty to Animals: A motion for adjournment to discuss this subject was on all fours with a motion on the business paper, and was therefore out of order, 518.

Day-baking: On a motion for adjournment to discuss the present harassing conditions in the bread-making industry, due to recent prosecutions arising out of day-baking, it was not competent for a member to enter upon a discussion of day-baking generally, 1033, 1036.

Dissent, Motion of: See Eight Hours (Amendment) Bill, p. 1641.

Eight Hours (Amendment) Bill: A motion that the Minister, who was speaking in reply, "be not further heard" could not be accepted in view of the fact that the House had a few minutes before negatived a similar motion, 863, 864. A point of order that the bill was beyond the order of leave could not be entertained at the stage of the motion for the adoption of the report of the Committee upon the consideration of the Legislative Council's amendments, 1561; motion of dissent from foregoing ruling, obs. 1641.

Female Employees' Basic Wage: A motion for adjournment to discuss the lowering of the basic wage for woman workers was out of order, seeing that the Estimates were before the House, and the matter might be discussed within a reasonable time, 2404. A motion for adjournment to discuss the same matter after the Estimates had been disposed of could not be permitted to be moved because an opportunity had been afforded to discuss it on the Estimates, 2934.

FitzGerald, Hon. J. D., Death of: obs., 46.

High School Fees: The question of urgency and public importance in connection with a motion for adjournment under standing order 49 was not a matter for the Speaker; the fact of five hon. members rising in their places alone decided the question, 1256.

Immigration and Land Settlement: A motion for adjournment to discuss immigration and land settlement was out of order, because such motions must be restricted to a single specific matter of recent occurrence, and the motion did not comply with this requirement,

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

754; where a motion was ruled out of order before it was actually proposed, the Speaker drew another motion from the box, but in this case the motion ruled out of order had already been proposed, 755.

Ministerial Statements: Question Time: obs. 1449: A motion for adjournment to discuss "the action of the Government in making Ministerial statements during question time, etc.," did not come within the well-known rule of definiteness under standing order 49, and was therefore out of order, 1782.

Motions for Adjournment: A member was not entitled to place more than one notice in the box, 752.

Motor Buses, Overcrowding of: "The recent imposition of fines upon motor omnibus drivers for overcrowding" was a definite matter within the meaning of Standing Order 49, 3199.

Murray Lands Settlement: The debate on an adjournment motion to discuss the suppression of reports on the Murray lands settlement scheme must be confined to the matter of the suppression of the reports; if the mover did not know whether or not the reports had been suppressed he had acted improperly in making the suppression the subject of his motion, 574, 575.

Newcastle Tramway Electrification: A motion for adjournment to discuss the loss sustained owing to the failure of the Government to proceed with the electrification of the Newcastle tramways, was not out of order on the ground that the question could be discussed when the Estimates were before the House; the Estimates had not yet been laid on the table of the House, 1643; the debate must be restricted to the subject of the motion, which was a specific matter of recent occurrence, and could not be allowed to range over the loss sustained by the State for a long time, owing to the tramways not having been electrified, 1645.

New Northern State: On a motion for the creating of a new State in the northern portion of New South Wales, it was not competent to move an amendment striking out the original proposition and substituting one for the remodelling of the Commonwealth Constitution to enable the Federal Parliament to delegate certain powers of government, 1610. The objection that the amendment was not relevant to the original motion also applied to an amendment affirming the desirability of an Australian Convention considering the question of the further subdivision of existing States, &c., 1612. An amendment to the effect that the time had arrived for a subdivision of New South Wales as incidental to the subdivision of the Commonwealth into more scientific areas was relevant to the original motion, 1614; an amendment to the effect that the formation of the proposed new State should be considered by a Federal Convention, and that the resolution should be communicated to the Federal Government, dealt substantially with the creation of a new northern State, and was in order, 1964.

4 July. to 22 November, 1922.

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Parliamentary Employees, Wage Reduction: obs., 435, 813.

Parliament, Opening of; Accommodation for Wives of Members: The arrangements for the accommodation of members' wives in the other Chamber were in the hands of the President, 45.

Personal Explanation: Although a member might wish to make a personal explanation it was not necessarily a personal explanation within the meaning of the rule, 924.

Personal Misrepresentation: obs., 3197.

Petitions: It was open to a member to move that a petition be read, but members should not abuse their privilege, and take up the time of the House by asking that petitions be read when they actually knew the terms of them, 2077.

Postponement of Business: A motion for the postponement of Government business and certain orders of the day of general business could not be accepted. Government business was in the hands of the Government, and could be taken in whatever order the Government pleased, but the House itself had decided that certain orders of the day should be taken on an appointed day, and the way out of the difficulty was to get the orders of the day postponed by the members in charge of them or to suspend the standing orders, 1267.

Printing of Public Documents in Gaols: obs., 2737.

Public Works Committee: The proceedings for the appointment of the Public Works Committee having been initiated in the first session of Parliament, and the prorogation having intervened before they were completed, there seemed to be no provision for the election of the committee in any other than the first session of each Parliament, 33.

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Questions: The Premier having intimated that pending the decision of a motion of censure questions without notice would not be answered by Ministers, Mr. Speaker would give effect to the statement as it would obviously be futile to ask further questions, 93, 184. Under the standing orders the printed questions the answers to which were deferred would have to be reprinted day after day, 236; standing order 77 must be strictly observed, 570, 661, 748, 2111; questions could only be asked for the purpose of obtaining information, 609, 2469; members had repeatedly been asked to address questions in an audible tone, but the rule could not easily be enforced, 664. The half hour allotted to members to enable them to ask questions was not granted for the purpose of permitting them to exhibit facetiousness, 750. A question was disallowed on the ground that the subject matter was sub judice, 752; members must not indulge in circumlocutory embellishments or argumentative intercalations, 811; a question when answered whether orally or in print could not be renewed, 881. A question addressed to a private member regarding an alleged threat to the Government in relation to a payment to wheatgrowers did not come within standing order 76, 1023; obs. re inaudible questions, 1633; A Minister could not be prevented from making an answer that was partly in the nature of a Ministerial statement, 1777; the Speaker had no discretion in regard to extending the time allowed for asking questions without notice, 1778; a member should not ask two questions on different subjects when he was called by the Speaker, 1936.

Reckless Motor Driving: A motion for adjournment to discuss this subject was out of order for the reason that the matter could be discussed on a motion of which notice had been given, 435.

Refreshment-room Bar: Mr. Speaker was not aware of the reported practice of members to buy bottles of liquor, have the corks drawn, and leave the bottles with waiters to be requisitioned, as desired, after the bar had been closed, but he would have inquiries made, 236; the rule laid down during the war for the closing of the bar at 6 o'clock had been strictly observed, but one or two members had bought bottles of whisky and left them in the custody of waiters, who could not very well refuse to do as requested, 473.

Volumes 87, 88, 89, 90.

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER, Mr., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Speaker, Mr., Offensive Letters to: In regard to a member repeating a private conversation, the Speaker could not enforce any rules other than those that came within the standing orders, 667.

Speakers of the House: obs., 1932.

Standing Orders, New and Amended: obs., 665. It was not necessary to refer a motion for the amendment of the standing orders to the Standing Orders Committee, 1512.

Sturt Electorate Vacancy: obs., 2111, 2183.

Sydney Harbour Bridge Bill: It was against the rules of the House to read a letter which was not a public document, 2447; the bill being before the House must be discussed on its merits, and a member would not be allowed to go fully into the details of some alternative scheme, 2449. It might appear anomalous that the Committee should not be able to define the area of taxation, but there was no doubt that the rule had been laid down clearly, that the amount of a tax proposed by the Crown could not be augmented, and no alternation could be made in the area of imposition, 3017. The scope of the bill had not been exceeded by an amendment providing for an alternative type of bridge, 3187; it was open to the Government to introduce bills in a different way from that provided for in the Public Works Act, and to that extent to amend the Public Works Act; it was not necessary to set out in the order of leave the specific amendments of the Public Works Act, which were contemplated, 3188.

Thompson, Dr. George S.: A motion for adjournment to discuss the failure of the Government to honor a promise to meet legal expenses incurred by Dr. George S. Thompson in bringing a case under section 99 of the Lunacy Act before the Equity Court was in order; the matter could not be said to be sub judice, because lunacy administration was being inquired into by a Select Committee, and Dr. Thompson's case might be brought before the Royal Commission which was to continue the inquiry, 3760.

Wright, The late Mr. Jabez: obs., 1757.

Wrightville Municipality Abolition Bill: The certificate of the Temporary Chairman of Committees that the bill had passed all its previous stages could not be accepted as being a compliance with the standing orders. The certificate should have been given by the Chairman of Committees, 1535.

ASSEMBLY (continued):STANDING ORDERS:

Amendment of, ms., by Mr. Oakes, 519, 1335, 1651, 1844, 1861; m. by Mr. Jaques, 1512.

Obs., by Mr. Speaker, 665.

TELLER:

Member declining to act, 3515.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (EDWARD JAMES LOXTON, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Eight Hours (Amendment) Bill: The discussion must be confined to the clause before the Committee, 941; an amendment to substitute "Forty-four" for "Eight" in the title of the bill was out of order, 943; an amendment to substitute the word "abolition" for "amendment" in the title was out of order, 943; an amendment to alter the title to "The Unlimitation of Hours Act" was out of order, 944.

Sydney Harbour Bridge Bill: A motion that the Chairman do now leave the chair, &c., was of an obstructive character and out of order; a motion of dissent could not be accepted, 3021.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (JAMES CHAPLAIN WILSON, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Supply: When an amendment for the reduction of an item was moved the discussion must be confined to the amendment, 2581.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (ROBERT GREIG, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Supply: An amendment to reduce a vote which had already been reduced could not be accepted, 2276.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (THOMAS DAVIES MUTCH, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Sydney Harbour Bridge Bill: There was nothing in a point of order that the Temporary Chairman had not been appointed by the House to act in that capacity. Standing order 309 clearly provided for the appointment by the Chairman of a Temporary Chairman, 3007.

PRESIDENT, THE (THE HON. FREDERICK FLOWERS), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Eight Hours (Amendment) Bill: While it was unusual to debate the motion for the first reading of a bill coming from the other House—the procedure almost amounting to a practice—there was nothing in the standing orders to prevent a debate from taking place, 1038, 1042.
