Suspended, 79, 922.

SPEAKER, MR. (JAMES DOOLEY, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Address in Reply: The message received from the Governor in connection with the opening of Parliament by Commission was not a "Speech" within the meaning of standing order 39, taken in conjunction with standing order 32 and therefore provision in standing order 39 that "no business beyond what is of a formal character shall be entered upon" before the address in reply has been adopted, did not apply, 36.

Adjournment: A motion of adjournment to discuss "the Destruction of Native Flora" was out of order on the ground that there was on the business paper a bill dealing with the matter; a radical alteration in the system of dealing with adjournment motions was necessary, 439.

Clerk of the House: obs., 1472.

Fitzsimons, the late Mr. W. R.: obs., 16.

Local Government Amendment (Preference to Australian and Empire Goods) Bill: An amendment to bring the Sydney Corporation within the scope of the Bill could not be entertained as it would involve an amendment of the Sydney Corporation Act which was outside the order of leave and would require to be covered by a separate message, 270.

ASSEMBLY (continued):*SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.)

Motion of Censure: obs., 1341.

Privilege: Though a question relating to the seat of a member might be considered one of privilege, the ground of privilege was used only when there was no other proper means of dealing with a question, 6; privilege was expressly limited, but it had been held that the election of a member and matters appertaining to members were questions of privilege, 9.

Questions: Questions without notice should be short and to the point, and members should not endeavour to impart information instead of seeking it, 233; obs. on questions without notice, 294; method of asking questions, obs., 436; the calling of members at question time lay entirely in the discretion of the Speaker, and those who interjected frequently and delayed questions did not get preference, 1008; obs., 1138.

STANDING ORDERS:

Leave for Committee to sit, 521.

Referred to Committee, 521.

Suspended, 17, 79, 92, 922, 1324, 1375, 1426.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (MAJOR HUGH JOHN CONNELL), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Supply Bill (No. 2): A member was entitled on a personal explanation to correct a misrepresentation as to what he had said, but was not entitled to question the accuracy of statements made as to facts, 1423.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (ROBERT EMMET O'HALLORAN, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Local Government (Preference to Australian and British Goods) Bill: An amendment to restrict preference to New South Wales instead of to Commonwealth goods was not out of order on the ground that it would set up a barrier between this State and the other States. It was quite competent for this Parliament to make the provision proposed, 334; the question whether an Act of Parliament was ultra vires, was a legal point which might be raised before the High Court. If there was anything wrong with an amendment to discriminate in favour of New South Wales against the other States the High Court could deal with the matter, 356.

Attorney-General:
