Adjournment: Motion for the adjournment of the House under Standing Order 49 must deal with a matter that is urgent and of recent occurrence, 2500-2.

A motion for the adjournment of the House under Standing Order 49 may relate to a matter that has earlier been discussed on the motion for the adjournment of the House, 1389.

A motion for the adjournment of the House under Standing Order 49 may not anticipate a debate on the Loan Estimates, 1390.

Amendments: When a bill is founded on a resolution of ways and means, the motion "That this bill be now read a second time" may be amended because the resolution is comparable to the order of leave in respect of an ordinary bill, 1790.

Censure Motion: The Leader of the Opposition having moved that the estimate of the Minister for Transport be reduced by £1 as a vote of censure against the Government's transport policy, is out of order in moving a motion of no confidence a short time later, 1571.

Denials: Denials given by Ministers and hon. members must be accepted, 808.

RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS

Divisions: An hon. member may not call for a division after a question has been decided, 990.

After a question had been decided a division was allowed, lest there be undue criticism, 1753.

Federal Parliament: It is competent for the House to discuss a motion criticising actions of the Commonwealth Parliament, 611.

Felicitations: Adjournment, 2543.

Governor-General: It is disorderly to make slighting references to the occupant of this high office, 176.

Hon. Member for Gordon: 234-5.

Hon. Member for Tamworth: Resignation from Public Accounts Committee, q., 2492:

Inaccurate Statements: Inaccurate statements, if relevant, are in order, 190.

Innuendoes and Insinuations against hon. members and persons outside the Chamber are disorderly, 262-3, 387.

Notice of Motion: Must be couched in regular and becoming language and reflect the aim of the mover, 2007.

Personal Explanation: In making a personal explanation an hon. member may refer briefly only to the matter upon which he claims that he has been misrepresented, 489, 796.

Volumes 1-3.

May not be made on a general implication, 796.

May relate only to alleged misrepresentation, 1318.

Petitions: May be read only with the unanimous concurrence of the House, 2362.

Press Representatives, 86.

Questions without Notice: An hon. member may ask whether a lag in the release of statistics has been deliberate, 87.

May not contain comment, 1318, 1950, 2008.

Must be concise, 2008.

Must elicit additional information to that sought by a question on the Questions and Answers paper, 2494.

Replies must be heard in silence, 156, 1118, 1221; a Minister is entitled to reply in his own way, 314.

Supplementary questions must be closely related to substantive question, 106, 900, 1218, 2161.

If the substantive question is placed on the notice paper the supplementary question must be treated similarly, 2492.

When a Minister probably through a slip of the tongue, refers to a non-existent government in answering a question without notice, he may proceed and correct his reference, 1760.

Quotations: An hon. member may not refer to Hansard reports of the current session, 1278.

Letters may be read only if the writers' names are given, 1309.

Reflections: An hon. member may not reflect upon a vote already taken, 387.

An hon. member may not reflect on the Chair, 809, 1411.

Remarks Ruled to be "Parliamentary" (See also "Unparliamentary Remarks"): "The wicked curtailment of funds by the Commonwealth Government," 1219.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

Reply: The Minister has priority of call and when he speaks in reply he closes the debate. However, this is not regarded as a desirable way of closing a debate, 1087.

Road Hauliers' Deputation: Hon. member for Mudgee, q., 157, 194.

Royal Commission: Terms of reference are a matter for the consideration of the Governor and not of the House, 266.

Sub Judice: The dismissal of a police officer who has lodged notice of appeal against his dismissal may not be discussed, 108.

The exact matter before a legal tribunal may not be discussed, 88, 259, 386, 1759, 1762, 2235.

The imposition of increased penalties for an offence in respect of which an information has been laid is out of order, 601.

Urgency: No general debate is permitted on a motion of urgency, 804.

A motion of urgency may be moved on a matter that is to be covered by Loan Estimates if the Loan Estimates are not before the Chamber, 1043.

A motion of urgency must be decided by the House before a point of order can be upheld against the substantive motion, 1569, 2095.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, m., 513, 1723, 2538.
