SAME BILL:—

Clauses 17 to 20 having been dealt with,—

1 Clause 21. (1) In this section—

Rates and taxes.

5 (5) Where the Commissioner of Land Tax uses a valuation of the parcel showing the body corporate as owner of the parcel the following provisions have effect:—

10 (a) In a case where a lot consisting of a garage is used exclusively for the purpose of garaging not more than two motor vehicles and is situated upon the same parcel as and used in conjunction with a lot referred to in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph; or in a case where—

15 (i) each of the lots comprised in the parcel forms a complete residence in itself and is occupied for the purposes of residence and for no other purpose. (For the purposes of this subparagraph a lot shall be deemed not to form a complete residence in itself unless it has its own separate cooking and bathing facilities; but shall not be deemed not to form a complete residence in itself by reason only that the common property or a laundry or laundry facilities are used by the occupants of the lot in common with the occupants of one or more of the other lots);

20 (ii) by-laws made under the First Schedule to this Act have during the whole of the twelve months immediately preceding the year for which land tax is being levied contained a provision prohibiting the use of any lot or the common property for any purpose other than residence. (In this subparagraph "year" means the period of twelve months commencing on the first day of November); and

- 1 (iii) each occupier of a lot who occupied the lot during the 5 period of twelve months referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph and the council of the body corporate as and when required by the Commissioner of Land Tax, furnishes to him in the form required by him, a statutory declaration declaring that such proprietor, occupier or 10 body corporate has observed during such period of occupation in that twelve months the provision in the by-laws prohibiting the use of any lot or the common property for any purpose other than a residence ;

then—

- 15 (iv) the unimproved value of the parcel shown in the valuation shall be apportioned by the Commissioner of Land Tax between the lots comprised in the parcel in proportion to the unit entitlement of the respective lots as shown on the registered strata plan or any amendment thereof ;
- (v) the body corporate is not liable in respect of the parcel for land tax ;
- 20 (vi) for the purposes of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, the Land Tax Act, 1956, and any Act amending such Acts, and subject to any concessions or exemptions which may be applicable, each lot shall be deemed to be a separate parcel of land with an unimproved value equal 25 to that apportioned to it under subparagraph (iv) of this paragraph.

(b) In any other case—

- (i) the body corporate is not liable in respect of the parcel for land tax ;
- 30 (ii) subject to subparagraphs (iv), (v) and (vi) of this paragraph, the liability for land tax in respect of each proprietor shall be determined by apportioning the land tax applicable to the unimproved value of the parcel between the lots comprised in the parcel in proportion 35 to the unit entitlement of the respective lots as shown on the registered strata plan, or any amendment thereof ;
- (iii) where the parcel includes lots which are exempt or partially exempt under section ten of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as amended by subsequent Acts, or which are 40 taxable at concessional rates under section four of the Land Tax Act, 1956, then for the purposes of calculating that exemption or concession the unimproved value of a lot shall be determined as in subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subsection ;
- 45 (iv) where subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph applies, then for the purpose of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph—

The unimproved value of the parcel shall be reduced by the unimproved value of any exempt lot, and by the unimproved value of the exempt portion of any partially exempt lot.

50 An exempt lot shall be excluded from the apportionment referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph.

The unit entitlement of a partially exempt lot shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be so much of the whole unit entitlement of the lot as bears to the whole 55 unit entitlement of the lot the proportion which the unimproved value of that part of the lot not so exempt bears to the unimproved value of the lot.

60 The unit entitlement of a lot to which a concessional rate of tax is applicable shall be so much of the whole unit entitlement of that lot as bears to the whole unit entitlement of that lot the proportion which the land tax applicable to the parcel after adjustment for the concessional rate bears to the land tax applicable to the parcel as if no concessional rate was applicable ;

- 1 (v) subject to subparagraph (vi) of this paragraph, the liability for land tax of a proprietor of a lot comprised in the parcel shall be the amount of land tax apportioned to his lot under this paragraph, and the calculation under 5 this paragraph of that amount shall be deemed to be an assessment within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as amended by subsequent Acts ;
- (vi) each proprietor of a lot comprised in the parcel shall in 10 addition, pursuant to subsection three of section twenty-seven of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as amended by subsequent Acts, be assessed and liable for land tax as provided in that subsection, and for the purpose only of that assessment and calculating that liability—
- (a) the proprietors (except those of them whose 15 interests are exempt from taxation under section ten of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as amended by subsequent Acts) of the lots so comprised shall be deemed to be joint owners of the parcel as tenants in common in fee simple in 20 possession, and the interest of each proprietor in the unimproved value of the parcel shall be determined as in subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subsection ;
- (b) the calculation, pursuant to subparagraphs (ii), 25 (iii) and (iv) of this paragraph, of the land tax applicable to the unimproved value of the parcel shall be deemed to be the joint assessment of those joint owners ;
- (c) those joint owners in respect of that joint assess-30 ment shall be deemed to be the primary taxpayer.
- (6) Where the parcel is situated in an area or part of an area in respect of which area or part the Valuer-General has furnished a valuation list to the local council concerned in accordance with the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, nothing in this 35 section prevents the Valuer-General from making and entering on the valuation roll a valuation of any interest in the parcel and all improvements thereon ; but the valuation shall not be included in a valuation list or supplementary list and shall not be used for any purpose of this section.
- (7) (a) A reference in the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as 40 amended by subsequent Acts, to an owner or joint owner shall include a proprietor of a lot.
- (b) A reference in section forty-seven of the Land Tax Management Act, 1956, as amended by subsequent Acts, to land tax 45 shall in its application to a lot be deemed to be the amounts as calculated under subparagraphs (ii) and (vi) of paragraph (b) of subsection five of this section.
