POINTS OF ORDER:—
RULINGS OF MR. SPEAKER ON:—
MOTIONS FOR ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE, UNDER 49TH STANDING ORDER:—
That subject was sub judice , overruled, 38.
That a motion respecting the necessity for providing more rolling stock on the railways, and the more expeditious conveyance of wheat, &c., from country districts, was out of order, as it anticipated discussion of a motion on the Notice Paper, 67.
That motion to discuss necessity for protecting witnesses before Royal Commission on Shortage of Labour, &c., was in order, 73.
That motion in reference to the release of John Dixon, convicted of an offence under the Industrial Disputes Law, anticipated discussion on Order of the Day for repeal of Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1909, and was therefore out of order, 79.
That motion contained two definite motions, and was out of order, overruled by Mr. Speaker, 97.
That motion to discuss the further encroachment on the Botanic Gardens by the widening of Macquarie-street was in order, 112.
That motion regarding the Closing of Country Refreshment Shops on Sundays was definite and in order, 212.
That Friday being a day on which Government Business only could be taken a motion was out of order, 212.
That motion regarding congestion of traffic in Sydney streets anticipated discussion on a motion of which notice had been given, and was out of order, 220.
That the decision as to the urgency of a motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order did not rest on the Speaker, 237.
That motion to discuss the electrification of the Illawarra Tramway system was indefinite and out of order, 238.
That a motion was out of order, the Minister accused having unreservedly withdrawn the allegations complained of in such motion, 239.
That no motion being in the box no division could be had on motion "That a second motion for adjournment be entertained," 239.
That motion to discuss the granting of reduced Railway Fares to Police anticipated discussion on a motion of which notice had been given, and was, therefore, out of order, 276.
That motion to discuss the management of the State Brickworks, was definite and in order, although the subject had recently been discussed in Committee of Supply, 282.
That motion to discuss the necessity for expediting the construction of the North Coast Railway did not anticipate discussion on the Government Railways (Duplication Board) Bill, nor on the Loan Bill, 307.

POINTS OF ORDER (continued):—
RULINGS OF MR. SPEAKER ON (continued):—
That he could put a question for postponement of a motion of dissent from his ruling, 8.
That a matter of privilege should take precedence over the Notice for Dissent from Mr. Speaker's ruling, 8.
That a motion to discuss an agreement in reference to the Office of Speaker was out of order, there being no such agreement, 12.
That a motion "That the Speaker's words be taken down" was obsolete, and therefore out of order, 19.
That the House had no cognisance of what appeared in the Press, and therefore a motion in reference to certain statements respecting the Honorable Member for Gordon was not one of Privilege, and was out of order, 19.
That it was not in order to discuss a motion dealing with the conduct of the Speaker, and motion was therefore out of order, 41.
That a motion under privilege that the Speaker in refusing to allow the Honorable Member for Bega to address the House on a motion then before the House depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, 47, 48, 49.
That the Totalizer Bill did not constitute a tax on the revenue, and therefore did not require a Message from the Governor, and was in order, 83.
That a motion which appeared on the Business Paper and had lapsed, could not be moved on the same day as an amendment on the Order of the Day for Committee of Ways and Means, as it had been dealt with, 121.
That it was for the House to determine whether a paragraph which appeared in the Press should be read, 123.
That if the Honorable Member for Gordon ( Mr. Wade ) had denied the statement made in the The Daily Telegraph , headed "Mr. Speaker's Ruling—Mr. Wade's Complaint," the editor of the paper might then have been summoned; but the Honorable Member had owned up to having used the words, and was now making his defence, 124.
That he would not at the then stage direct a Member in reference to whom a charge was being considered to withdraw from the Chamber, although a precedent was being created by his remaining, 124.
That the Public Works and Closer Settlement Funds (Amendment) Bill was properly before the House, although referring to the Sinking Fund Renewals Bill not then passed, and affecting the Government Railways Act without mention in the Title, 161.
That the recognised leader of the House controlled the business of the House, and could at any time direct that a motion be taken, 167.
That the Stamp Duties (Amendment) Bill was strictly in accordance with the Message, and was in order, 174.
That the resolution suspending portion of a Sessional Order to permit of the discussion of a notice of motion of General Business continuing after half-past 7 o'clock did not prevent any other business being proceeded with, 201.
That the practice established might be continued of bringing in a Public Works Bill on the same day as the Resolution was passed that the work be carried out, 222.
That a motion moved by a front bencher needed no seconder, 203.
That a motion to censure the Speaker would anticipate debate on a similar motion, notice of which had been given—that one motion should be withdrawn and the other given precedence of other business, 207.
That the Housing Bill was not at variance with the Public Works Act, and the Public Service Act, and was not out of order, 226.
That the action of the Speaker could not be questioned at any time except by specific motion, but any Honorable Member might move to dissent from the Speaker's ruling, 231.
That a motion to dissent from the Speaker's action in removing the Honorable Member for Darling Harbour was in order, 231.
That the Income Tax (Management) Bill was in order, although it referred to an Act which was not yet passed, 240.
That the State Coal Mines Bill was not inconsistent with the Government Railways Act, was within the Order of Leave, and was in order, 246.
That the State Coal Mines Bill did not amend or contravene the Public Works Act, and was properly before the House, 246.
That the Parliamentary Representatives Allowance Bill was in order, and the point raised that it proposed a pecuniary benefit to every Member, which could not be held to be a matter of State policy, was not tenable, 277.
That the motion "That the Honorable Member be not further heard" could be moved on a Member speaking in reply, 295.
That the Parliamentary Privileges Bill was an exercise of the powers conferred by clause 5 of the Constitution Act, and was in order, 296.
That it was in order to include many Bills in a motion for suspension of Standing Orders to enable them to pass through all their stages in one day, 301.
POLICE:—
Called in to assist Serjeant-at-Arms in removal of Member from Chamber, 33, 151, 285.
RESIGNATIONS FROM THE FORCE:—

PRIVILEGE:—
ELECTION OF SPEAKER:—
Motion made ( Mr. Cohen ), That the prevention of the Honorable Member for Petersham from the exercise of his right to address the House on the election of the Speaker when in the act of proposing a candidate is a gross breach of privilege, and debate adjourned, 6; debate resumed and Motion negatived, 8-9.
CONDUCT OF THE HONORABLE MEMBER FOR GORDON:—
Motion proposed ( Mr. Wade ), That the action of Mr. Speaker in stating that the Honorable Member for Gordon had been guilty of conduct for which he was liable to be suspended for the remainder of the Session and also to be expelled, together with the omission either to take any steps to enable the House to determine whether the Honorable Member was so guilty, or to withdraw the said statements, is a gross breach of, and ruled out of order, 19.
PERRY v. WILLIS AND ANOTHER:—
Speaker acquainted the House that he had been served with a writ of summons in an action brought against him and the Serjeant-at-Arms by the Hon. John Perry, Member for the Electoral District of The Richmond, 15; summons read by Acting Clerk and leave given to Mr. Speaker and the Serjeant-at-Arms to appear and plead, and the Attorney-General directed to defend, 15.
OMISSION OF NOTICES OF MOTIONS FROM THE BUSINESS PAPER:—
Motion made ( Mr. Levy ) in reference to, and ruled out of order, 29 (2).
REMOVAL OF THE HONORABLE MEMBER FOR BEGA:—
Motion made ( Mr. Wood ), That the arbitrary action of Mr. Speaker in refusing to allow the Honorable Member for Bega to address the House on a motion then before the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, is a gross breach of, and ruled out of order, 47, 49.
NEWSPAPER ARTICLES:—
Motion made ( Dr. Arthur ), That paragraph in Sydney Morning Herald be read by Acting Clerk, and negatived, 33-34.
Motion made ( Mr. McGowen ), That the statement made by the Honorable Member Acting-Clerk, and negatived, 47.
Motion made ( Mr. Price ), That extracts marked in Daily Telegraph be read by Acting-Clerk, and negatived, 53.
Motion made ( Mr. McGowen ), That the statements made by the Honorable Member for Gordon ( Mr. Wade ) in a paragraph which appeared in the Daily Telegraph , dated 15th November, 1911, be read by the Acting-Clerk, Point of Order .—Whether the mover was entitled to move motion and assume that the statements were correct,—Mr. Speaker ruled that it was for the House to decide whether the report should be read, 123; paragraph read, Mr. Wade invited to make an explanation, motion made ( Mr. McGowen ), That the statements imputing unfairness to the Chair are a breach of privilege and a gross libel on Mr. Speaker, Mr. Wade heard in his place, Point of Order .—That what appeared in the Press could not be accented as an authority upon which to found a charge against a member.—overruled by Mr. Speaker, Point of Order .—Whether Mr. Wade should not withdraw after his explanation,—Mr. Speaker would not insist on withdrawal at that stage, motion agreed to, 124.

SPEAKER (continued):—
THE HONORABLE HENRY WILLIS:—
Motion ( Mr. Levy ), with reference to Agreement between the Government and, ruled out of order, 12.
Writ issued against, by the Honorable John Perry, 15.
Pleas, &c., in case Perry v. , 219			1	55
DISSENT FROM RULING:—
Decision to leave the Chair, without Question put, after returning from hearing the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech delivered, and negatived ( Mr. Cohen ), 9.
That he can on his own authority postpone a private Member's motion duly set down on the Business Paper, and negatived ( Mr. Cohen ), 13.
That the motion of urgency which the Honorable Member for Darlington was proceeding to move in reference to Notice of Motion No. 32 on the Notice Paper for that day, in reference to an agreement between the Government and the Honorable Henry Willis in reference to the office of Speaker, was out of order, and negatived ( Mr. Levy ), 17.
That a Question asked by the Honorable Member for Darlington, that certain remarks alleged to have been made at Lithgow, as reported in the newspapers of that day, was out of order, because the Honorable Member would not vouch for the correctness of the said reports, and negatived ( Mr. Levy ), 20.
That the motion "That the Speaker's words accusing the Honorable Member for Gordon of prevarication be taken down," was out of order, and negatived ( Dr. Arthur ), 27.
"That it was not in order to discuss a motion dealing with the conduct of the Speaker," and negatived ( Mr. Wood ), 48.
"The Honorable Member is very much out of order in interrupting the Premier in the delivery of his speech; he must not continue to do so," and negatived ( Mr. Brinsley Holl ), 58.
The refusal to place on Business Paper, of 28th September, a notice of motion of dissent from ruling, duly given by the Honorable Member for Darlington, on 27th September, and negatived ( Mr. Levy ), 59-60.
That a motion moved as a matter of Privilege, referring to the action of Mr. Speaker in refusing to allow the Honorable Member for Bega to address the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, but one of order, and negatived ( Mr. Wood ), 60.
That he can postpone a question of Privilege and allow other business to intervene in accordance with Standing Order No. 159—and House counted out ( Mr. Price ), 61.
That the debate on the motion of Mr. Levien should terminate by calling Mr. Levien in reply, although Honorable Members rose and wished to address the House, and negatived ( Mr. Wade ), 225.
DISSENT FROM ACTION:—
Removal of the Honorable Member for Darling Harbour from the Chamber when in the act of addressing the House, ( Mr. Wood ) Point of Order .—That the motion proposed to dissent from an action not a ruling, Further Point of Order .—That the conduct of Mr. Speaker had recently been under review, and that his action could not be again discussed,—ruled against, motion negatived, 231.
RULINGS OF:—
That when there was no Standing Order, resort was had to the Custom and Proceedings of the House of Commons, 8, 13.
That a matter of Privilege should take precedence over the notice for Dissent from Speaker's Ruling, 8, 13.
That a motion to discuss the agreement between the Government and The Honorable Henry Willis, in reference to the office of Speaker, was out of order as no agreement had been entered into, 12.
That the motion given notice of by the Honorable Member for Darlington ( Mr. Levy ), which had been ruled out of order, was still out of order, for the reasons previously given, 17.
That the notice of motion of the Honorable Member for Bega ( Mr. Wood ), which referred to the continued infraction of the law of Parliament, was out of order; a course was provided for dissenting from the rulings of Mr. Speaker, 17.
That a motion "That the Speaker's words be taken down" was obsolete, and therefore out of order, 19.
That the House had no cognisance of what appeared in the Press, and therefore a motion respecting certain statements by Mr. Speaker respecting the Honorable Member for Gordon was not one of Privilege, and was out of order, 19.
That motion ( Mr. Levy ) in reference to expunging notices of motions from Business Paper was out of order, 29.
That it was not in order to discuss a motion dealing with the conduct of the Speaker, and motion was therefore out of order, 41.
That a motion under Privilege referring to the action of Mr. Speaker in refusing the Honorable Member for Bega ( Mr. Wood ) the right to address the House on a motion then before the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, 47-9.
That the Totalizator Bill did not constitute a tax on the revenue, and therefore did not require a Message from the Governor, and was in order, 83.
That a motion which appeared on the Business Paper, and had lapsed, could not be moved on the same day as an amendment on the reading of Order of the Day for Committee of Ways and Means, as it had been dealt with, 121.
That it was for the House to determine whether a paragraph which appeared in the Press should be read, 123.
That if the Honorable Member for Gordon ( Mr. Wade ) had denied the statement made in the Daily Telegraph , headed "Mr. Speaker's Ruling—Mr. Wade's Complaint," the editor of paper might then have been summoned, but the Honorable Member had owned up to having used the words and was making his defence, 124.

That he would not at that stage direct a member, in reference to whom a charge was being considered, to withdraw from the Chamber, although a precedent was being created by his remaining, 124.
That the Public Works and Closer Settlement Funds (Amendment) Bill was properly before the House, although referring to the Sinking Fund Renewals Bill, not then passed and effecting the Government Railways Act without mention in the Title, 161.
That, the recognised leader of the House controlled the business of the House, and could at any time direct that a motion be taken, 167.
That the Stamp Duties (Amendment) Bill was strictly in accordance with the Message, and was in order, 174.
That the resolution suspending portion of a Sessional Order to permit of the discussion of a Notice of Motion of General Business continuing after half-past 7 o'clock, did not prevent other business being proceeded with, 201.
That a motion moved by a front bencher needed no seconder, 203.
That motion to censure the Speaker would anticipate debate on a similar motion, notice of which had been given—that one motion should be withdrawn and the other given precedence of other business, 207.
That the practice established might be continued of bringing in a Public Works Bill on the same day as the Resolution that the work be carried out was passed, 222.
That the Housing Bill was not at variance with the Public Works Act, and the Public Service Act, and was not out of order, 226.
That the action of the Speaker could not be questioned at any time except by specific motion, but any Honorable Member might move to dissent from the Speaker's ruling, 231.
That a motion to dissent from the Speaker's action in removing the Honorable Member for Darling Harbour was in order, 231.
That the decision as to the urgency of a motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order did not rest on the Speaker, 237.
That the State Coal-mines Bill was not inconsistent with the Government Railways Act, was within the Order of Leave, and in order, 246.
That the State Coal-mines Bill did not amend or contravene the Public Works Act, and was properly before the House, 246.
That the Parliamentary Representatives Allowance Bill was in order, and the point raised that it proposed a pecuniary benefit to each Member, which could not be held to be a matter of State policy, was not tenable, 277.
That the motion, "That the Honorable member be not further heard," could be moved on a Member speaking in reply, 295.
That the Parliamentary Privileges Bill was an exercise of the powers conferred by Clause 5 of the Constitution Act and was in order, 296.
That it was in order to include many Bills in a motion for suspension of Standing Orders to enable them to pass through all their stages in one day, 301.
ON MOTIONS FOR ADJOURNMENT UNDER 49TH STANDING ORDER :—
That motion in reference to the agreement between the Acting Premier and the Honorable Member for the Upper Hunter, referred to on 23rd August, was out of order, as the proposal to discuss the subject was in opposition to repeated rulings, 29.
That subject of motion was sub jure , 38.
That motion respecting the necessity for providing more rolling-stock on the Railways, and the more expeditious conveyance of wheat, &c., from country districts, was out of order, as it anticipated discussion of a motion on the Notice Paper, 67.
That motion to discuss necessity for protecting witnesses before Royal Commission on shortage of labour, &c., was in order, 73.
That motion in reference to the release of John Dixon, convicted of an offence under the Industrial Disputes Law, anticipated discussion on Order of the Day, for repeal of Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1909, and was therefore out of Order, 79.
That motion respecting the attitude of the Chief Commissioner for Railways towards Deputations was out of order; a notice of motion referring to this subject being on the Paper, a notice could not be withdrawn and a motion moved on the subject of that motion on the same day 94.
That motion, respecting shortage of railway trucks, was in order, 97.
That motion to discuss the further encroachment on the Botanic Gardens by the widening of Macquarie-street was in order, 112.
That motion in reference to the necessity of making representation to the Federal Government in connection with the operation of the Old Age and Invalid Pensions Act, was not one of urgent public importance, and could not be entertained; the matter could be dealt with in Ways and Means, 174.
That motion regarding the closing of country refreshment shops on Sundays, was definite and in order, 212.
That Friday being a day on which Government Business only could be taken, a motion was out of order, 212.
That a motion regarding congestion of traffic in Sydney streets anticipated discussion on a motion of which notice had been given, and was out of order, 220.
That motion to discuss the electrification of the Illawarra Tramway system was indefinite and out of order, 233.
That the Minister accused having unreservedly withdrawn the allegation complained of, motion was out of order, 239.
That no motion being in the box no division could be had on motion that second motion be entertained, 239.
That motion to discuss the granting of reduced railway fares to Police anticipated discussion on a motion of which notice had been given, and was, therefore, out of order, 276.
That motion to discuss the management of the State Brickworks, was definite and in order, although the subject had recently been discussed in Committee of Supply, 282.
That motion to discuss the necessity for expediting the construction of the North Coast Railway did not anticipate discussion on the Government Railways (Duplication Board) Bill, nor on the Loan Bill, 307.
RULINGS OF DEPUTY :—
That the Income Tax (Management) Bill was in order, although it referred to an Act which was not yet passed, 240.
