LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON

RYANS CONDITIONAL PURCHASES AT WAGGA WAGGA.

TUESDAY, 4 DECEMBER, 1883.

Present:—

MR. BARBOUR,
MR. BURNS,

MR. LYNE.

MR. JONES,
MR. LOUGHNAN,

G. C. LOUGHNAN, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Constantine Francis Bolton, Esq., called in and examined on oath:—

1. Chairman.] What are you? I am district surveyor at Wagga Wagga.
2. You are acquainted with the facts in regard to Mr. Thomas Ryan's claim? Yes.
3. Will you state to the Committee what you know in reference to Mr. Ryan's selections? The circumstances are these: Mr. Ryan desired to take up four selections of 640 acres each in the parish of Berrambel, county of Bourke. The land had been previously surveyed in anticipation of the demand, and with a view to the cancellation of the reserve along the line of railway in that locality. Mr. Ryan engaged a solicitor to fill up his descriptions—that is, descriptions of the land required by him, his son, and his two daughters. He did not come to my office to consult me in the matter until about twenty minutes to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The land agent, I think, had asked him if he was sure the land was not on a railway reserve. Mr. Ryan, accompanied by his solicitor, Mr. Thompson, came to my office and spoke to one of the draughtsmen, who exhibited to him a plan of the subdivision. I was engaged at the time with Mr. Surveyor Lipscombe in a room off the draughtsman's office. As I casually passed through the draughtsman's room I saw Mr. Thompson looking over the plan. [Plan shown to the Committee, and Tracing handed in. See Appendix.] The survey had just been completed, and I recognized the plan at once as I passed through the room. I said to Mr. Ryan that the land, although surveyed, was partly within the railway reserve. This led to a revision of Mr. Ryan's descriptions. This plan was not charted on the official maps then, and I inadvertently failed to remember that the first reserve had been gazetted along the trial line, and afterwards extended to the railway itself—along the railway as constructed. In consequence of this the Misses Ryan's selections encroached on the original reserve. I believe that the reserve along the trial line was gazetted when the other line had been finally approved of.
4. Chairman.] So that there were two reserves at the same time, one overlapping the other? Yes; at least one reserve that was put along the abandoned trial line was found not to serve the purpose for which it was designed, and instead of cancelling that reserve the Department simply extended it so as to protect the line that was in course of construction.
5. The ordinary course is to revoke one reserve and substitute another for it? Yes.
6. That was not done in this case? That was not done, although recommended by me on a previous occasion. As to the revision of Mr. Ryan's descriptions, I do not quite remember whether I wrote the descriptions or dictated them to Mr. Thompson.
7. But they were altered? Yes, fresh descriptions were drawn up and read over to Mr. Ryan, and the plan was inspected and pointed out the same time.

S.

- C. F. Bolton, Esq.
4 Dec., 1883.
8. I presume you altered the descriptions in order to save these people from going on to the reserve? What I assumed to be the boundary, that is within a mile of the railway. They had descriptions written which embraced land right up to the railway, and I knew that the land within a mile of the railway was reserved, but I failed to remember about the old reserve. The old reserve was incorrectly shown on the lithographed map; that is, on the parish map the reserve is incorrectly shown. I etched along the lines, and marked the directions which the boundaries of the selections would take.
9. Mr. Jones.] That was by your amended description? Yes.
10. Amended by whom? By me, with Mr. Ryan's concurrence.
11. Mr. Barbour.] And at the time you amended the descriptions you believed you were giving descriptions of land that was open for selection? Yes; those descriptions would have given land to three instead of four selectors; that of Thomas Ryan, junior, would have been left out.
12. Chairman.] It was done with the view of placing the Ryans on land that was open to selection, and to save them from the trouble and annoyance of taking up land that formed part of a reserve? When I suggested the alteration in the descriptions Mr. Ryan said, "No, I think I will take the land; I think I will pay money under protest; I think I have sufficient influence to retain possession of it."
13. Mr. Jones.] But he really did take it under your amended description? Yes.
14. And threw up his own description entirely to take yours? Yes.
15. You have admitted that you were wrong? To a certain extent.
16. And the then Minister for Lands, Sir John Robertson, also admitted that you were wrong, and gave compensation to at least one of the Ryans—in consideration of your mistake he placed one of the claimants in a right position? I do not think any one of them has got the maximum area yet. I know that Sir John Robertson wrote a minute not very complimentary to me; but I think he wrote it under a misconception.
17. He granted what was claimed under a misconception? I do not know that. I do not think any of them have had their claims finally dealt with.
18. Mr. Barbour.] After that, was it discovered that the selections were on a reserve—that is, after the selections were taken up? After the selections had been taken up the Lands Department discovered that they were on a reserve; but there is some ambiguity still as to the position of the reserve.
19. Have the selections been forfeited as a consequence, do you know? At first I think a portion was cut off in accordance with their map, and then it was extended to another line based upon a survey of mine. I had fixed the position for this trial line, which was erroneously shown on their map, which gave Ryan more land and the Misses Ryan more land.
20. Was the reserve fixed by a line on the survey plan or by proclamation in the Government Gazette? The proclamation in the Gazette is rather a peculiar one: it states it was as indicated on a map in the Surveyor-General's Office, and also that there was a mile on each side of the railway line—the trial line.
21. Have you the map you refer to as having been in the Surveyor-General's Office? I have a tracing which is presumed to be a tracing of the map. It shows a reserve of 2 miles on each side of the railway line.
22. Have you the Gazette notice which refers to the trial line as shown in the plan in the Surveyor-General's Office? Catalogue L 243—I exhibit a tracing of that plan.
23. But that plan shows the reserve to be 2 miles wide on both sides of the line, although it was understood that the reserve was to be only 1 mile wide on each side of the line, and although it was notified in the Gazette as being but 1 mile wide? Yes; the trial line on the published lithographed maps is shown out of position.
24. It was this incompleteness of the maps that caused Ryan's selections to be forfeited, or a portion of them? It was in consequence of the line being shown in its wrong position in the first instance. More of Ryan's conditional purchases were excised than subsequently.
25. How much has been taken off altogether? About 73 acres from Anastasia Ryan's 640 acres; about 100 acres from Ellen Ryan's 640 acres.
26. Did Thomas Ryan get his 640 acres or any portion of the land? No, his selection would have been very considerably reduced; I think he finally elected not to take any.
27. Mr. Jones.] You say he finally decided not to take any—why does he claim the whole—you say his portion would have been very considerably reduced: now how is it he claims the whole of the land? I do not think he does. I desire to say one thing: when Mr. Ryan said that he seemed to be very displeased at my telling him that the land within a mile of the line of railway was not open to selection, and when he proposed to stand by his original descriptions and push the matter through—or whatever words he used—I told him that by doing so he might place himself at very great disadvantage, inasmuch as the reserve might be cancelled any day, and he, as the holder of a conditional purchase, would not be allowed to select again until his case was finally dealt with and his conditional purchases disallowed.
28. Mr. Barbour.] What was the consequence of that? He said—"Well, perhaps you are right," and he took the descriptions as suggested by me and as revised by him.
29. Mr. Jones.] With reference to Mr. Ryan's claim at the present time—is it upon the original application, his original description, or upon the amended description which you gave him, that he claims? I rather fancy he has abandoned his own claim, and is now seeking to get the full area for his two daughters.
30. You know that Ryan's original description was altered by you—I want to know whether he is claiming upon his original description or upon the description as amended by you? He claims upon the description as amended by me. The description of Anastasia Ryan's land was not altered.
31. Mr. Lyne.] When Mr. Ryan met you at the Land Office at Wagga Wagga, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon—? We were in a hurry and bustle, and I suggested that he should leave the matter over until the following Thursday.
32. But on the day on which he went to you, you made a pencil-mark across the plan, showing in what direction you considered the reserves went? Yes.
33. And after you had made the alteration he adopted your description? Yes.
34. Mr. Barbour.] We have been speaking of the selections up to the time they were made: have you any information to give to the Committee regarding the selections after they were made? I sent in a report on the improvements made by Ryan on his selections. That report is now amongst the papers belonging to the Lands Department.

35. Mr. Jones.] When the matter came before the then Minister for Lands, did he or did he not approve or disapprove of what you had done—has he ever left any record or minute in his office respecting the matter? Yes, he has. He said, I believe, that through the action—the bungling I think he called it—of Mr. District-Surveyor Bolton, the Department had got into this difficulty.

C. F. Bolton,
Esq.
4 Dec., 1883.

Mr. Thomas Ryan called in, sworn, and examined :—

36. Chairman.] What are you? A farmer.

37. The Committee desire you to give, as shortly as you can, a statement of the case in regard to your own and your daughters' selections? I will commence with the day of selection. I think it was on the 8th December, this month two years, that was in 1881, I was going into Wagga Wagga, and saw a piece of country marked on the ground and on the trees, at Grong Grong. The land had been surveyed; a neighbour was with me; I had a book, and I took down all the numbers of this surveyed land. My neighbour seemed to know the country well, and said there was a railway reserve on it.

Mr. T. Ryan.
4 Dec., 1883.

38. Mr. Lyne.] Did he say it was in the portion surveyed? Yes.

39. You say there was land surveyed—did your neighbour lead you to understand that the reserve was included or went through the blocks that were surveyed? Yes; they were surveyed for the purpose of sale or to be open to selection, at least Mr. Bolton told me that.

40. Did your neighbour lead you to believe that the land of which you took the numbers was under reserve for railway purposes? No, not the land I took the numbers of, but the reserve was surveyed.

41. He did not lead you to believe that the land of which you took the numbers was reserved? No.

42. Go on with your explanation? What my neighbour told me was that there was a reserve, but I did not take the numbers of those blocks at all; the neighbour's name is John Halbish. I did not take the numbers of the land I understood to be a railway reserve, but only the numbers of the land outside; I went in to Wagga Wagga on the following Thursday and took up a section, at least Ellen Ryan applied for a section of the ground; she was with me.

43. Chairman.] Who drew out your application? Mr. Thompson, solicitor, at Wagga Wagga. I made out the four applications, with the assistance of my lawyer. Ellen Ryan took up a section of 640 acres; Anastasia Ryan took up another section of 640 acres; and I took up a section of 640 acres; Thomas Ryan, my son, took up 440 acres, which he got outside of the reserve; but he ultimately withdrew it. He wanted a section of 640 acres, but the 440 was all there was outside the reserve. There was something I wished to be done in regard to it, and I and Mr. Thompson went to Mr. Bolton's office the same day I paid the money. Mr. Bolton said he had selected more land than there was to select in that neighbourhood. He told me that without my asking him. I said to Mr. Bolton that I did not think I had, that the land was all surveyed, and that I could not make a mistake, as I took all the numbers correct off the trees. I argued the point with him. He said "You have, for the railway reserve is included in some of the blocks which you have selected." I said we had left the next blocks to the railway without touching them, and they are about a mile from the railway, and I supposed they were the reserves. "No," he said, "the reserves are included in the other blocks." I said, "Surely they did not survey the reserve as ground open to selection; I suppose they surveyed the reserve, and then the ground that was open to selection." He said, "No, it is mixed up." He showed me on the map where the reserve came up to. He said, "This reserve is to be open to selection in a week or two, and if you take your son's name out, the rest, I think, will be right. It will be thrown open in a week or two, and your son will be clear, and he will be able to come in again for his quantity then." I said, "All right, Mr. Bolton; I have known you for a good while, and I hope you do not take advantage of me, or allow any one else to come in and select the land; if you say we are on the reserve, we will take the reserved land out of our sections; but do not take any land from us unnecessarily, because we want more than we have got." He said, "No fear; I'll not take any land from you but what is reserved land." I said it was useless for me to make any change, as I had paid my money on the land and could not get it back again, and it would be better to let the Government settle the dispute. Mr. Bolton said, "When did you pay the money?" I told him as near I could. He said, "I will see into it; if the money is not gone to the Bank I might be able to get it back for you." He came back from the Lands Office and said the cheque had not gone to the Bank, and that he could give me my money. As nearly as I can say, he took my son's name out altogether, and about 100 acres altogether out of my selection. He got the applications and altered them.

44. Chairman.] And you consented? No.

45. Mr. Barbour.] Did you sign them? I did; but I thought there was no change made except taking the reserve out.

46. Chairman.] Did you sign these applications and take them, believing it would put you all right with the land except with regard to the reserves? Mr. Bolton got the map and showed it to us, and I did not think we were on the reserves at all. He told me after that the line through the reserve did not show.

47. What took place after that; I suppose you went on to your ground? I went home and sold out there, and then came on to the land.

48. Mr. Lyne.] After what you describe had taken place at Wagga, you went home to Howlong and sold the land you had there? Yes, I sold my homestead and the cattle and other things and went on to the land I had selected.

49. How long was it before you began to improve the land? About three weeks; I just went home and advertised my homestead and sold off, and then came on to the land.

50. Chairman.] You went to reside on your land and commenced to make improvements? Yes.

51. How long after that was it that you received a letter from the Lands Office? I think between five and six months.

52. Mr. Lyne.] Did you get any intimation from any person about your occupation of the land before you received the letter from the Lands Office? No.

53. Not from Mr. Devlin? I gave Mr. Devlin notice to keep his sheep off the land. He said he did not acknowledge me at all as a selector—that I was on the reserve.

54. Chairman.] He gave you notice? I went to him, and he told me he did not acknowledge me as a selector.

- Mr. T. Ryan. 55. After you went on to the land, how long was it before you got the first notice from the Government that you were on the reserve? About five or six months; it was over five months.
- 4 Dec., 1883. 56. What did you do when you got the notice? I think I sent a note back to Sydney, stating that I did not see my way clear to give up the land, as I had laid out £1,200 on it—that is on the selections up to that time.
57. What did you do after that? In the letter that came to me and the map, I found that a change had been made in our applications, that Ellen Ryan had applied for portion 134.
58. Mr. Jones.] Were those the applications which you had previously signed? Yes; we signed all the applications, but we did not know there had been any change made in the numbers. Ellen Ryan first applied for portion 135, 131, and portion of 134. She never knew that she signed for any others.
59. Mr. Lyne.] But then you went to Mr. Bolton, and he made an alteration in the applications? Ellen Ryan then applied for 130 instead of 134.
60. Chairman.] Then your application was altered also? I applied for the balance of portion 134, and for all of 130, and that Ellen Ryan should have the portion in dispute, that she should have that without any dispute at all. Then Devlin came in and took this from us. I got all of portion 134, a part of portion 130, and a portion of 129.
61. You said just now that the alteration was made in order that Ellen Ryan could get part of 130 instead of 134? Yes, that was Mr. Bolton's change.
62. You got these applications and found them different to what you thought they were? I thought it was in Sydney that the change was made. I knew that Mr. Farnell was a land agent and acted for Mr. Devlin, and I thought he made the change. I went to Mr. Bolton and asked him if he made the change. He said that he knew that Ellen Ryan could not get more than 1 mile in length. I asked him how he expected she could not get more than a mile the other way. He said that that was his reason for making the change—that he did not expect she would get more than a mile. I told him I thought that was a very strange reason, and that he had better write a note to the Minister for Lands stating that he made the change without our consent. He refused to do so, and said he would not be abused in his own office. I told him I did not go there to abuse him, and that he wanted to rob me or do me out of my land; that he knew that he made the change in the applications without our knowledge. He then asked me what I wanted. I said, "I want you to send a note to the Minister for Lands stating that you made the change without our consent." He said, "I will send a note to the Minister acknowledging that I made a change in Ellen Ryan's application without her consent, but that you knew of it." I said that I did not know of it. He refused to write in any other way. He wrote a note acknowledging that he made a mistake, that Ellen Ryan signed the application, and that I knew all about it. I made a copy of the letter. It reads as follows:—"Surveyor-General's Department, Memorandum, 20th October, 1882. To the Under Secretary for Lands, Sydney. With reference to the revision of the descriptions of Thomas and Ellen Ryan's conditional purchases in the parish of Berrembed, county of Bourke, considered to be necessary in consequence of their clashing with a reserve altering the Hay and Narrandera Railway, I hereby certify that it was at my suggestion that the balance of acreage required over that in portions 131 and 135 was made up from 130 instead of 134, as I deemed it more in conformity with the law relating to form of measurement, and that Miss Ellen Ryan was not present when the description was prepared. The descriptions were handed to Mr. Thomas Ryan. C. F. BOLTON, D.S." The letter was sent on the 25th October, 1882; two affidavits and a letter from me and Mr. Bolton were posted to the Under Secretary, Department of Lands, Sydney.
63. Mr. Burns.] How did you obtain that copy of Mr. Bolton's letter? Mr. Bolton gave me the letter to send to the Minister for Lands, and I copied it. The original must be in the Lands Office.
64. Chairman.] The original of that letter must be in the Lands Department? Yes.
65. You sent the letter to the Under Secretary for Lands? Yes; and two sworn affidavits asking the Minister to allow us to have the land that we first applied for.
66. Mr. Barbour.] You made reference to land being selected by Mr. Devlin? Yes.
67. Was that some of the land you expected to get? Yes; I expected to get 55 acres of it; that was subsequently selected by Mr. Devlin.
68. Who is Mr. Devlin? Mr. Arthur Devlin, the owner of the run.
69. Chairman.] After sending the letter to the Lands Office protesting against your land being taken from you what did you do? I think I sent a letter asking to withdraw my money in favour of my daughter Ellen; I wanted to draw my money off the land in favour of Ellen.
70. That was in order to let the land be void? Yes; that was last December, twelve months ago.
71. You made application for a refund? Yes; I met with Mr. Jones about three weeks afterwards, and he told me not to accept a refund, but to stick to my land, and that I should get it; Mr. Jones dictated a letter withdrawing my former letter, and Mr. Rigby, Mr. Jones's clerk, wrote the letter, and I stood by and signed it; the letter was to the effect that I withdrew my application for a refund and would stick to the land; I posted the letter in the letter receiver near the "Metropolitan Hotel," in Sydney; Mr. Jones was sitting in his private room and sung out to me, "Mind and be careful that you put the letter in so that nobody can take it out"; I looked well to see that the letter had fallen down into the receiver.
72. When was that? In January, 1883; about the 25th or 26th of that month.
73. What happened after that? Me and Mr. Jones went to the Minister for Lands; the Minister promised to see into the matter and give me the land; so I went home, and Mr. Jones was to look after my business like, and see it right for me; some time after I saw that the lessee, Mr. Flavelle, had selected the 55 acres.
74. Mr. Lyne.] He is the lessee of the run? I went in to Wagga Wagga to see how he had got my land; the Land Agent showed me a letter from the Minister for Lands stating that my ground was void; that was about the 10th of May last; no, I was here on the 10th of May when he promised to give me the land all right; I went home a few days after and found that Mr. Flavelle had selected it.
75. I do not quite clearly understand what it was that caused you to sign the letter written at Mr. Jones's dictation, asking to withdraw your application for a refund of your money? I cannot recollect the reason, but I think it was to enable Ellen Ryan to get this 55 acres; I understood that I was putting improvements on my selection; instead of that I was putting them on Ellen's.
76. The reason you sent in your first application for a refund of your money was not knowing you were putting improvements on Ellen Ryan's selection instead of your own? Yes.
77. And it was to withdraw that first application that the letter you signed in Mr. Jones's office was written? Yes.

MR. BURNS,		MR. DAY,
MR. CAMPBELL,		MR. LYNE,
	MR. TARGETT.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Thomas Ryan recalled and examined :—

78. Chairman.] Have you any further explanation you desire to make to the Committee? Yes, I should like Mr. T. Ryan to supplement what I said to the Committee yesterday. I was in with the land agent at Wagga Wagga, and he told me he had received a letter from the Minister for Lands to the effect that my land was void. I went to see the land agent to know how my land came to be re-selected. When he told me about the letter, I said that I was in with the Minister for Lands on the 10th May, and the Minister told me my ground was all right. "Well," he said, "the letter is dated 10th May, and it states that your ground is void." I said, "Surely the Minister would not tell me my ground was all right, and on the same day write a letter stating that it could be re-selected." He said, "I have the letter here, signed by the Minister, and that is all I know about it." So I came back to Sydney on the 24th. Mr. Loughnan was with me on the 10th May when I saw the Minister, and when the Minister told me my ground was all right. When I came to Sydney on the 24th of May, I told Mr. Loughnan about the letter which the land agent said he had received from the Minister, in which it was said that my land was forfeited and cancelled. Me and Mr. Loughnan went to see the Minister. When we told the Minister about the letter the Minister said, "It's false; there is no such letter in the Lands Office at Wagga." I said, "Well, the land agent read the letter to me, and your name is to it." "Well," he said, "it's false. You believe the land agent and won't believe me. I told you and Mr. Loughnan that your ground was all right, and you won't believe me, yet you will believe the land agent. You go back and ask the land agent if he will pay your expenses down here. Go home and work on your selection; it will pay you better than coming down here employing Mr. Loughnan's time fighting against yourself." Mr. Loughnan then said, "Mr. Ryan, what more do you want, are not the Minister's words better to you than the land agent's?" I said, "No, the Minister is working me out of my ground. He gives me everything I want when I come here to see him, and as soon as I go away he works on the other side." Mr. Loughnan said, "I am quite satisfied the ground is yours; the Minister has promised you your land, and his word is as good as if you had it in writing." I wanted the promise in writing, and that led Mr. Loughnan to make the remark that the Minister's words were as good as if it was in writing. I then went home and worked away on the selection.

79. You mean the selection taken up by Flavelle? Yes; it was on the 21st June, I think, that Arthur Devlin re-selected it. That was after Flavelle had selected it. It appears that Flavelle never was up at all. I came down on the 27th June, when I saw he had selected it. I asked the Minister again about the letter he sent declaring that my ground was forfeited or void.

80. Mr. Lyne.] Who was with you? Mr. Loughnan. The Minister denied on the 29th also that he sent any letter forfeiting my ground and taking it from me. He said, "I told you before that your land was all right, that you are getting not only what you want, but more than you want; yet you will keep coming down here fighting against yourself. It will pay you better to go home and work on your selection, than coming down here employing Mr. Loughnan's time."

81. What was the result of your interview? I think me and Mr. Loughnan came back on the next day, on the 27th, and we saw Mr. Farnell and Mr. Oliver. Mr. Farnell promised me on the Tuesday that he would see what he could do on the Wednesday. Mr. Moriarty came into Mr. Farnell's office, and Mr. Loughnan and Mr. Jones were there; I forget whether Mr. Day was there or not. Mr. Jones and Mr. Loughnan came out to the door and told me the Minister had given me all the land all right and taken it from Devlin, and they asked me to get the vouchers and give them up. I refused to have anything to do with the vouchers. I said they never sent me the vouchers, and they must get them from whoever they gave them to. Mr. Loughnan said, "You are getting your ground all right, and this will settle all disputes, and if there is anything to be paid on the vouchers will you pay it, and get out of the bother?" Both Mr. Farnell and Mr. Moriarty promised that if we sent back the vouchers we should get back the land all right, and that instead of getting the 55 acres which we were fighting for we should get 73 acres. I said, all right, I would get the vouchers and give them back. So I went to Mr. Armstrong and gave him my cheque for ten guineas for the vouchers.

82. Chairman.] Who is Mr. Armstrong? He is a land agent.

83. What did you do with the vouchers? I handed them to Mr. Moriarty.

84. What happened after that? Mr. Moriarty said, "Ryan, this is all right; you ought to be well satisfied; there has been great interest taken in your case; you can go home now, and you will find everything right."

85. Then what happened? I went home, and started about fencing the land. I let 3 miles of fencing, by contract, on my own selection. When I took back the vouchers I expected that Mr. Devlin would be allowed to withdraw his money. I had half a mile of fencing on the 55 acres when I received a letter together with the vouchers back again.

86. Did you hand the vouchers to Mr. Moriarty personally? Yes, I gave them into his hands.

87. Mr. Day.] And he sent them back when you had half a mile of fencing done? Yes, three weeks or a month after.

88. Chairman.] What happened after that? As soon as I got the vouchers I stopped the men working; I told them I was not getting the land, and they would have to knock off work. They said, no, they had got the contract, and had left other jobs to carry it out. They afterwards knocked off fencing, but I had to find other work for them. I did not want them, but was obliged to put them on to other work whilst I came to Sydney.

89. What next? When I got to Sydney, Mr. Loughnan went with me to the Minister for Lands to see why he would not keep his word with me. I do not think I went into the Minister's room with Mr. Loughnan. I had the vouchers and handed them to Mr. Loughnan, and he handed them to Mr. Oliver.

Mr. T. Ryan. I think I gave them to Mr. Loughnan, and he proffered them to Mr. Oliver. I either gave them to Mr. Loughnan or had them with me when we went into Mr. Oliver's room. Mr. Oliver said he had nothing to do with them, and told me to take them to Mr. Moriarty. I went with Mr. Loughnan straight from Mr. Oliver's room to Mr. Moriarty's.

5 Dec., 1883.

90. What became of the vouchers? Mr. Moriarty refused to have anything to do with them. Subsequently I posted them to him in a registered letter.

91. Mr. Day.] What did Mr. Moriarty say? He said he had nothing to do with them—that the case was closed.

92. Did you ask him why he told you it was all right when you gave him the vouchers before? Yes, and he said he knew nothing about it.

93. Did he deny what he had said on the former occasion? He only spoke one or two words; he said he had nothing at all to do with it.

94. Are you sure that it was Mr. Moriarty that you gave the vouchers to? Yes, quite certain. He called another man at the same time and handed them to him, and said to him—"Now, get these papers on the records where we can put our hands on them when they are wanted."

95. When you took them back a second time? He said he had nothing to do with them.

96. Mr. Lyne.] How did you get them sent back to you? By post.

97. Mr. Day.] Did you say anything to Mr. Moriarty about your former conversation with him? Not then; he would have nothing to do with me then; he said he had nothing at all to do with my case.

98. Mr. Lyne.] What did you do then? I went to Mr. Farnell's office and gave the vouchers to Mr. Farnell's messenger and asked him to give them to the Minister. Mr. Farnell told the messenger to tell me to step in to him. I went in, and the Minister said to me—"My good man, I don't want these vouchers; I have nothing to do with them; the case is closed against you altogether."

99. He said the case was closed against you? Yes. I left the vouchers on the table for a time, but ultimately took them up, and I subsequently posted them to Mr. Oliver.

100. Is that the last you know of them? Yes.

101. Have you seen them since? No.

102. Did anything else happen at the Lands Office after that—did you get any communication from that office? I got a letter a few days ago.

103. Mr. Day.] Who is in possession of the 55 acres? I am.

104. Mr. Lyne.] I thought you said Mr. Devlin selected it? Yes, but I still keep possession.

105. Mr. Day.] You have possession now? Yes.

106. Have you seen Mr. Devlin about the matter lately? We have seen each other. I have been at his yards for sheep. We don't speak to each other. I never made any remark to him about the land. I am living on it, but he is grazing it.

107. Mr. Targett.] Has he taken any steps to oust you from the land? Not so far.

108. Mr. Lyne.] When Devlin selected it had you your hut on it? Yes.

109. What is the hut worth? I valued it at £20.

110. Mr. Day.] Is there any water-tank or well? Yes, I put a dam on it.

111. What is that worth? £50.

112. Any other improvement? Yes, half a mile of fencing.

113. What is that worth? About £30.

114. You are sure there are £80 worth of improvements on the land? On the 55 acres; some say the dam alone is worth £50.

115. What was the value of the improvements on the land when Devlin selected it? Only the house and the dam.

116. Mr. Lyne.] That is over £40 worth? At the time he selected it there were improvements to the value of more than £100.

117. Mr. Day.] Were those improvements valued by a Government officer? Yes, by Mr. Mulligan, a man who goes about amongst the free selectors.

118. Chairman.] How much did he value them at? £39 and some few shillings; he went within a few shillings of the £40.

119. Mr. Lyne.] When you took up your selection, what was the area of land you applied for besides your son's? Three sections of 640 acres each.

120. What area of land do you hold at the present time out of those three selections that is not disputed? I cannot say—the land is not surveyed yet.

121. Well, about how much? I should have to refer to the map before I could say.

122. Looking at the tracing before the Committee, can you say how much land you hold that is not in dispute? 132 acres were taken from Anastasia's selection; the rest of her selection is not disputed.

123. Then she has 508 acres undisputed? Yes.

124. Then Ellen Ryan? Sir John gave Ellen all of hers.

125. It is undisputed now? I believe she has the whole of it.

126. The whole of your selection of 640 acres is undisputed? Yes.

127. So that you have 1,148 acres out of 1,920 you applied for? Yes.

128. There are 540 acres of your own under dispute? Yes.

129. You are not claiming anything for the loss of 132 acres out of Anastasia's selections? Yes, I am claiming for the 132 acres.

130. You want to get 132 acres in addition to what she has? Yes.

131. Tell us the reason the 132 acres were taken off Anastasia's selection? It was on the railway reserve.

132. That was the reason it was struck off? Yes.

133. You have not received any refund for it? No.

134. Have you applied for a refund? No.

135. Then the Government still holds the money? Yes. There is between £400 and £500 worth of improvements on Anastasia's selection.

136. Ellen's selection is all to be brought under a validating Bill? Yes.

137. Are you claiming for more than 540 acres of your own? That is all.

138. You are not claiming to have more by a validating Bill? Yes, I want the full 640 acres that I first took up.

139. But the whole dispute in this case is with regard to Anastasia's selection and your own, and you want a validating Bill to give you the same number of acres that were taken from you? There is a dispute between me and Mr. Devlin as to 540 acres that is not settled. Mr. T. Ryan.
5 Dec., 1883.

140. But in reference to Thomas Ryan's selection, the balance of 540 acres in dispute, after deducting the 55 acres in dispute between you and Devlin, you want that brought out of the reserve and given to you under a validating Bill? Yes.

141. Chairman.] Do you wish to make any further statement? I said that I gave Mr. Bolton permission to take all the reserve land out of our application, which he did, as far as his knowledge permitted. I did not want to be on the reserve at all.

142. Mr. Day.] You would have been further on the reserve but for him? Yes; I am satisfied that he did not know he was putting me on the reserve. I allowed him to take the application, and take all the reserve land from us. With the little portion we have left we are wasting time and starving. I have been there two years. Mr. Devlin came in and put a fence across and blocked me up; he did not even give me a right of road, but fenced off land that is not in dispute. He has fenced us off it—he has cut down stuff from our ground, and fenced us off it altogether. Mr. Bolton was there and saw the improvements I had made. He told me first that Mr. Devlin had encroached on ground that was not in dispute. Devlin pulled me up to Court for pulling down a fence that crossed my road. There were a number of squatters on the Bench, and gave a verdict against me, and made me pay £2 10s. or go to gaol.

C. F. Bolton, Esq., recalled and examined:—

143. Chairman.] Do you desire to supplement the evidence you gave yesterday? Yes. I omitted to say yesterday that at the time Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Garland subdivided the land under notice he omitted to show the position of the trial-line, and it was not until I visited Mr. Ryan's selections that I found that the line was shown out of position on the published parish maps. In the subdivision a road has been provided for to the west of portions 131 and 135, and that was one reason, and an important reason, why I suggested that Ellen Ryan's additional area should be made up out of 130 instead of 134. It was with the view of suiting the subdivision. A road of access would have to be provided for. C. F. Bolton,
Esq.
5 Dec., 1883.

144. Was it the fact that the trial line was not shown that caused you to put the Ryans on a portion of their selections? I cannot say that; but I think if the trial line had been shown it would have brought back to my memory the fact that there was another reserve along it. As a matter of fact this plan had only just come into the office and was not charted on the published map. The time was so very limited, and we were in such a bustle, that I forgot all about the old reserve, which I think ought to have been cancelled long ago.

145. The general rule is that, before making a reserve overlapping another, to cancel the first reserve and gazette another in its place? Yes. I think, as a matter of fact, the difficulty of getting information from one department to another sometimes occasions delay. They had actually proclaimed the reserve now under notice when the other railway line had been finally approved of.

146. Mr. Lyne.] If you had been in a position to have told Ryan that this was reserved land you would have saved him all the trouble? Yes.

147. Mr. Targott.] Were you aware that these two reserves overlapped? I could not say that I was aware of it at the time. It covers some 60 miles of country: in some places they are identical, other places widen out considerably. As to the first reserve along the trial line I drew attention to it, and recommended that it should be cancelled. I pointed out that the railway was not being constructed along that line at all. They then extended the reserve, so that it would protect the railway that was constructed.

148. But at the time Ryan's applications were made you did not know they were on the reserve? No; I acted from memory instead of searching documents.

149. Chairman.] Did you recommend the cancellation of the trial line reserve before Ryan went there? Yes, the subdivision was made on my recommendation, in anticipation of a demand for land, and in anticipation of the cancellation of the reserve.

150. Mr. Campbell.] You did not wait to know whether your suggestion had been carried out? It was acting under instructions that I caused the land to be subdivided.

151. Mr. Day.] I think you scarcely understood Mr. Campbell's question—the land was taken up that day by Ryan before you knew anything about it? Yes.

152. When you first saw the land that had been selected you knew that it was on a railway reserve? I was going from my office to another room when I saw them looking over the plan. I knew the plan by sight, and I said, "Take care what you are doing there. Anything within a mile of the railway is a reserve. All the land they measured is not open to selection." Then, acting in a hurry and bustle, I altered the descriptions.

153. That was in order to set Ryan right, you put him back off the reserve on to land which you believed he could legally select at the time? I thought anything outside the mile was open, whereas with the other line the reserves overlapped.

154. How far is the reserve line from Ryan's selections? It overlapped Anastasia Ryan's some 15 chains or so. From the actual railway itself it is, according to my line, just a mile.

155. Chairman.] In regard to Ryan's original applications, were the whole of them on the reserve, or would they have been? No; Anastasia's is identical with the original; Ellen's has been altered somewhat.

FRIDAY, 18 JANUARY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. BARBOUR, | MR. DAY.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

A. O.
Moriarty
Esq.
18 Jan., 1884.

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales, called in, sworn, and examined:—

156. Chairman.] Will you tell the Committee what you know of the circumstances connected with Thomas Ryan's conditional purchases, as shortly as you can? In the absence of the papers connected with the case, I can only speak from memory.

157. Mr. Day.] You remember Mr. Ryan's selections near Wagga Wagga? Yes. I can describe in general terms what the case was, without dates and details, which I cannot remember without the papers. I can give an outline of the case from memory, sufficient, I think, for the purpose.

158. Will you inform the Committee the state of the case, as far as you know of it, from the beginning up to the time of the forfeiture of the selections? Thomas Ryan and two of his daughters—Anastasia, I think, and Ellen—selected three portions of land at Wagga Wagga, on a certain day. I do not think they had been approved as measurements, but upon that point I do not now like to speak definitely; but certainly they had been marked. Some little time after the selections had been made it was ascertained and reported, by the Survey Department, that each selection interfered with a railway reserve, leaving in each case, I think, a certain area outside. At that stage there was a great deal of correspondence. It was represented, on behalf of Thomas Ryan, that the descriptions of the lands which he and his daughters had applied for had been supplied to him by the district surveyor, Mr. Bolton. Mr. Bolton, on being referred to, verified that statement, and explained that a certain measurement had not been before him when he gave the descriptions, and that he gave them supposing the land to be outside of any reserve. He also stated that he gave these descriptions to Ryan very hurriedly, having been applied to by him a few minutes before the closing of the land office on that day, and that he gave them to him for his benefit, seeing that the land which Ryan had intended applying for was reserved land, and none of it available for selection. The lands actually selected were, as I say, found to have been reserved to a greater or lesser extent; and it was represented that, relying upon the district surveyor's information, Ryan had made certain improvements on the land selected by his family. The case was investigated. Sir John Robertson was in office at the time, and he decided that the portion that was found to have been improved by the Ryans should be protected, so far as the Government could protect it by legislation. Sir John Robertson promised to include it in a validating Bill—that is to say, the one of the three selections of land on which Ryan had taken up his residence and had made improvements.

159. Were there no improvements on the other portions? It was decided that the selection I refer to should be protected by legislation, but in regard to the other two portions no such course was to be taken, the report showing that no improvements had been made upon them. At that stage the matter came into my hands. It came to me in this form: that Ryan and his daughters should have the option of retaining the available area outside the reserve or of taking refund of the deposit upon the whole area in each case.

160. Was that before any improvements had been made upon the other two portions? That was altogether irrespective of the central portion containing improvements.

161. But was that at a time when no improvements had been made on the other two portions? I will go into that part of the case presently. The matter had arrived at that stage when, in the ordinary routine of business, I intimated to Ryan that if he chose to retain the available part of the land—that which was outside the reserve—he could do so, and sent refund orders for the difference of area. A letter from Ryan, stating that the portion of land available was not worth retaining, and that he preferred a refund of his deposit upon the whole, was subsequently brought under notice, and a refund order for his whole deposit was sent to him, he having returned the previous one. Some time after that Ryan alleged that he had sent to me a letter recalling his request for a refund of the whole of the deposit, and intimating his wish to retain that part of the land that was available. I had a careful search made for the letter, but could not find any trace of it; and I stated once or twice that, so far as could be ascertained, no such letter had been received. At the same time I stated that, if such an intimation had been received, I would not have acted upon the application for refund of the whole deposit. After some considerable delay, I ascertained that Ryan had actually written a letter recalling his request for a refund of the whole of his deposit money. He is an illiterate man, and writes his name in a very peculiar way. The signature to the letter had been written in such a peculiar way that it had been taken to be the signature of a person named "Yan" any one would take it to represent the name "Yan." It was interpreted by the clerks as Yan, and the name was registered as Yan, and passed on to the Charting Branch. It remained in the Charting Branch, and was there when I was making inquiries as to whether a letter had been received from Ryan, and was told there was no such letter. The fact remains, however, that a refund order for the deposit was sent according to the request of the applicant, and in ignorance of the fact that he had recalled that request. In consequence of the cancellation of his application as a whole, another application by another party was made for the available part of the land. Ryan's application had been cancelled at his own request, his change of intention not having been made known, through the mistake that had been made in regard to his letter. In consequence of his action another application had been made for the land. I advised Mr. Farnell not to retrace his steps, and the Minister agreed with me and did not do so. Ryan had represented that the second selection by this other party was invalid, by reason of his having improved the land in the meantime. Inquiry was made by Mr. Mulligan, whose report, I think, will be found among the papers. Mr. Mulligan made a very careful inspection, and his report shows that when the land was selected by Mr. Devlin it had been improved, but that the value of the improvements effected by Ryan, inside and outside the reserve, did not amount to £40 or anything approaching it; but taken in conjunction with certain improvements made by Mr. Devlin, the lessee of the land, before it was selected, there would be over £40 worth of improvements upon the whole portion. In other words, the improvements were Devlin's own, and not Ryan's.

162. Chairman.] Do I understand you to say that the improvements conjointly, that is those made by Mr. Devlin and those made by Mr. Ryan, were of the value of over £40? Yes, the improvements made by Devlin and those made by Ryan, taken together, would amount in value to more than £40, I think, upon the whole portion; but it has never been customary to take into consideration improvements made by

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.

by the selector as against himself. There were not £40 worth of improvements made upon the land by Ryan when Devlin selected it. Of course I have given but a very general outline of the case; and I can do no more than give that from memory. I think, however, that that outline will be found to be correct in all essential particulars. I should state perhaps that I omitted reference to the central portion, which was secured, pending legislation. The side portions have each been selected, and I think that each of the portions outside of the reserve has been obtained by other parties.

163. Mr. Day.] How does the case stand now—has Ryan lost any of his selections? Ryan, or one of the Ryan family, retains the improved portions.

164. What I mean is, taking into consideration the land embraced within the reserve, is that lost? It never has been legally conditionally purchased by anybody.

165. But with regard to the balance that was left, has Ryan lost that? I speak merely of the balance that was left—each of the two portions has been conditionally purchased by other parties, and they hold it.

166. Ryan has lost it altogether? He never gained it.

167. He has lost it? Yes, if you choose to put it that way he has lost it.

168. There were improvements on the land when it was selected the last time—do you recollect who selected it? I think Mr. A. Devlin.

169. When he selected it there were certain improvements on the land? Certain improvements of his own. The bulk of the improvements were his own—improvements belonging to himself as lessee of the land before it was open to selection at all. The bulk of these are inside the reserve still.

170. The bulk of the improvements? Yes; but it will be seen that it is not a fact that Ryan ever put upon these portions of land sufficient improvements to bar selection by any one else.

171. If he says he put £40 worth of improvements upon these selections he says what is not correct? I do not know. Ryan put a little hut and tank on the land selected by himself apart from the portion upon which his family are living, the portion which Sir John Robertson determined to validate for him; but it is certain that the improvements which the inspector has described as existing upon the whole of the resumed portions at the time he inspected it were not of the value of £40.

172. Did the inspector inspect it previous to Devlin making the selection? I think it was subsequent to Devlin's selection.

173. The house that Ryan put up? Is described by the inspector as not worth £10. The inspector's report is a very detailed one, and gives particulars of all the improvements. On that report I advised Mr. Farnell not to disturb the action he had previously taken, and he took my advice.

174. The selection on which the hut and tank are placed is still in dispute between Ryan and Devlin? I cannot say.

175. Ryan is still living on it? I do not know where he lives.

176. Chairman.] I think I can bring it to your mind. There was a portion originally described as containing 55 acres across Thomas Ryan's selection, which was subsequently increased to 73 acres; Ellen Ryan only applied for the block between the other two; T. Ryan and Anastasia Ryan applied for side blocks. With regard to T. Ryan's portion it was supposed there were 55 acres, but a more exact survey increased it to 73 acres; the central portion contains the family home and improvements? Yes.

177. That portion is the portion you are speaking of, and is referred to in the letters of Thomas Ryan in particular, that letter which contains the signature which was supposed to have been written by one Yan? Yes.

178. That is the portion in regard to which he applied for a refund of his deposit, and subsequently wrote a letter to withdraw that application? Yes.

179. In consequence of that letter having been mislaid in the office, there was some action taken by the Department? I cannot say that the letter was mislaid, because it was not mislaid.

180. At all events, it did not appear among the papers, and was applied for frequently? It did not appear among the papers relating to Ryan's case. A letter was received from Ryan, stating that he had written one re-calling his request for a refund of his deposit; and it was for some time denied that any such letter had been received. It was subsequently discovered that the letter had been received, and had been registered in the name of "Yan."

181. At all events, the voidance of the selection took place in May? Ryan's letter, which was supposed to be written by "Yan," had certainly been in the office for some time before the survey recommendation upon it for a refund of the deposit money was made.

182. The selection was declared void at the request of Ryan? Yes.

183. Do you recollect when the voidance took place? About the middle of May—about the 16th of the month, I think.

184. Then what further action was taken by the Department? I think the land has been reserved.

185. I am speaking of the 73 or 55 acres? Another application for that has been received from some one else. Consequent upon Ryan's act—the act as to which he changed his mind—another right has supervened. My idea has been that the action of the Department, having proceeded upon the ground that another right had supervened, it is not open to the Department to retrace its steps.

186. Mr. Barbour.] Is that the portion upon which the £40 worth of improvements have been made? Yes.

187. Was it a surveyed portion? I think it was a surveyed portion, but I doubt whether the measurements had been charted in the Survey Office.

188. If it was a measured portion, and there were £40 worth of improvements upon it, by whomsoever made, would you not esteem that portion not open to selection? It has never been asserted that improvements upon Crown land belonging to the applicant are a bar to his own selection.

189. But in the case in dispute, Ryan says he has more than £40 worth of improvements on the land? It is open to him to show that he had; the inspector reported that he had not.

190. There were more than £40 worth of improvements on the land at the time of the survey of the allotment? I think so. However, Devlin's selection was outside of the reserve, or in other words on a portion of land that was not measured at all. I think it will be seen that there were not £40 worth of improvements, or enough to bar the portion outside the reserve from selection.

191. You would be able to tell us if the papers were before us? Yes.

192. But you cannot answer definitely and unreservedly from memory? I think the Committee will find the

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.

the details of all these matters in the papers. I have not all the facts of the case in my mind, and have not seen the papers for some time. My impression is that the whole portion was in part on the reserve and in part outside the reserve, and that the question as between Devlin and Ryan only applies to the part outside the reserve. The improvements referred to in the inspector's reports relate to the whole.

193. You cannot say definitely from the plan that that is the case? I feel quite sure it is the case; but I cannot say from memory upon what portion the improvements are situated.

194. Chairman.] It was in consequence of Ryan being notified that a portion of his selection was on a reserve that he applied for a refund of his deposit in the first instance, and that he was informed that the money had been refunded and was to his credit? Yes; his letter was to the effect that the part that was available for him was not worth keeping, and he preferred to have a refund of the whole of his deposit. Upon that request he was sent a refund of the whole. If I had known of any other request of his I should not have sent him a refund.

195. That is, if the letter that was signed in such a peculiar way had been given to you, you would not have sent him a refund of his money, and his selection would not have been voided? I should have sent him again the refund for the area that had been reserved, instead of for the whole.

196. That portion of 73 acres would not have been made void? No, if I had known that he wished to retain it.

197. Mr. Barbour.] Suppose the Minister had been inclined to validate the whole of the portion that was on the reserve, was there any impediment to Ryan's getting the land? Of course his selection on the reserve could have been made legal by Act of Parliament.

198. But was there anything to prevent his getting it—had any claim arisen in the meantime with regard to that portion of land that was on the reserve? I do not know of any. I do not remember what the improvements were upon it; but I do not see how any other claim could have arisen over that portion of the land.

199. Is there any bar to his getting the selections, as taken up by him—the two selections made by Devlin, the one we have been speaking of, the 73 acres, and the other one—you say you understood that a portion of another one was taken up? Yes, there is a bar. I assume that the question relates to the portion inside the reserve. There is a bar, and that bar is the law. The land was not open to selection under the law, because it was reserved land. In regard to the merits of the case, the Government has been of opinion that no merits entitle Ryan to these inside portions. On the merits, as regards Ellen Ryan's selection, the Government has promised to legalize it.

200. With the exception of the legal difficulty, has any interest been created in the meantime? I do not see how any interest could have arisen.

201. On the outside portion—is not a portion of one of them taken up by Flavelle? Portions outside the reserve have been selected by other parties; the selections inside the reserve could not be selected by other parties.

202. Chairman.] What was the reason for throwing open to selection that portion of Anastasia Ryan's selection which had been originally in the reserve? I think it was done for the advantage of Ryan, in order that his daughter might again apply for it.

203. An application was made to withdraw so much of the reserve as was contained in Anastasia Ryan's selection? I think so.

204. And it was done—so much of the reserve was revoked? There has been a great deal of solicitude for the interests of Ryan's family on the part of many persons of influence, and certain portions of the reserve certainly were cancelled for the purpose of enabling the Ryans to make selections. Before the time came when the selections could be made, the same parties in the same interest urged that it should not be done, if I am not very much mistaken.

205. But ultimately? Ultimately the reserve remained as it was, as regards Thomas Ryan's application.

206. Was not a portion of it revoked? A portion was revoked, and again it was reserved.

207. Was not a portion thrown open to selection by ballot? Only the portion of Anastasia's selection within the reserve, I think. Parts of Anastasia's selection and part of Thomas Ryan's selection were outside the reserve; and in regard to the latter, other selections have been made by other parties.

208. Chairman.] Part of Anastasia Ryan's selection was sent to ballot in consequence of voidance: why was that portion of Anastasia Ryan's selection declared void? Because it was within the reserve. The reserve was modified, and fresh selections were afterwards made. A ballot took place, which resulted in favour of another applicant—A. de Berg.

209. Mr. Day.] If Parliament were to validate the selection by Thomas Ryan, the improvements could not interfere with it? That I cannot say.

210. But no one for years has had any right to improve a reserve? Quite so, as regards the right to purchase.

211. Therefore, if any improvements are on it they belong to Government? No one would be entitled to buy improvements on a reserve in virtue of the improvements; but improvements upon reserves have never been actually forbidden.

212. According to the Land Act? According to the Land Act, improvements, unless paid for by the selector, will not be open to selection.

213. Is there any clause in the Land Act allowing a man to take up land that has been improved on a reserve? By paying for the improvements—yes.

214. The Government would get full value for the improvements? Yes.

215. Virtually there are no conflicting interests in the way of Ryan getting the land? Not so far as I know. An Act of Parliament may be passed to give Ryan the land or this house; but Ryan cannot get the land by virtue of the selection he has made; he did not select it, or if he did, it was at a time when it was not open to selection.

216. But if Parliament passed a validating Act it would conflict with other applicants? Not so far as I know, with regard to the land which Thomas Ryan selected inside the reserve.

217. But with regard to the portion which Devlin selected? That was outside the reserve.

218. But in the reserve there would be sufficient land if Parliament gave it him? There is a very large space of land.

219. Considering the whole case right through, with your knowledge of these things, do you not think it would be prudent for Parliament to validate the selections as far as it possibly can, on account of the information information they have in the Survey Office from Mr. Bolton? I am hardly in the position to answer that question.

220. Would not that be a justification? No, I do not think it would be a justification, to speak candidly. Sir John Robertson dealt with the case fairly some time ago. With regard to Ryan, he is seeking—and the Chairman of this Committee said the same in his presence and mine—he is seeking to get more than he is entitled to. I think he is endeavouring to get Crown land to which he has no right—to push an equitable claim beyond its equitable limits. I do not know any ground at all for legalizing any claim of Thomas Ryan upon this reserve. I think that all equitable claims have been fully considered by the Government. Sir John Robertson did everything that was necessary in offering to legalize the selection which contains the improvements and the family residence.

221. But is Ryan not entitled to consideration? I think he has received enough; he received full consideration in what Sir John Robertson proposed to do for him.

222. Ryan represents that portion of the land he has got is of no use to him—that he cannot make a living upon it (The papers relating to the case were at this stage of the inquiry brought from the Government Printing Office)? I have in my hands the inspector's report of the improvements.

223. Does he refer to the 73 acres? He refers to the whole of the land.

224. What improvements does he say were on the land? They are described in Mr. Mulligan's report, No. 91 of the printed papers. (Witness read the report to the Committee.)

225. Mr. Barbour.] Referring to the matter about which Mr. Day asked you a little while ago: if the railway reserve had not been there Ryan would have been entitled to all his three selections? No; they would have been bad selections, owing to the improvements upon them; if they had been measured land, and the measurements had been charted, as to which I am not certain.

226. Is there more than £40 worth of improvements on them—on the whole of them? Regarding the centre one there is no conflict; Ellen Ryan retains it under a promise of the Government to legalize it. As regards Anastasia Ryan's selection, I do not think there is much in dispute; she retains the greater part, and the part cancelled out of the reserve has gone to another applicant through ballot. A part of Thomas Ryan's has been conditionally purchased by another party. The portion, as a whole, was not open to selection at the time Thomas Ryan selected it.

227. What I mean is this: on the day that Ryan went to Mr. Bolton to get him to assist him to make the selections, if there had not been a railway reserve there Ryan would have got his land? I think not. I think the report which I have just read shows that at that date there were over £40 worth of improvements upon the measured portion, as a whole. When Ryan's selection was made, the improvements upon the measured portion, as a whole, were of the value of £62 odd, the property of Mr. Devlin. Mr. Ryan has, since his selection, made £22 worth of improvements in addition, on the part outside the reserve which he selected, which brings the value of the improvements upon the whole portion to £84 3s. 9d. In addition to that, Ryan, since his re-selection, has put £12 10s. worth of improvements upon it altogether; that makes £34 of improvements by Ryan, as against £64 worth by some other party.

228. Has any question ever arisen about the improvements barring selection? Oh yes; all these reports (witness pointing to the papers on the table) deal with that question.

229. But Ryan has never been refused his selection on the ground that it was improved—it was on the ground that it was on a reserve? The ground of cancellation was that it was not open to selection, the land being on a reserve.

230. At the time of Thomas Ryan's original selection, was the portion of land selected a surveyed portion or otherwise—was it a measured portion, irrespective of the reserve? The conditional purchase application was for measured portion 134 and parts of 129 and 130, the measurements of which were accepted on 13th September, 1882.

231. Chairman.] It was in the power of the Government, without doing injury to any one else, to have revoked so much of the reserve and given it to Ryan, considering that he had been put there by the Government's own officer? That is but partly a question of merit; it could not have been done legally; the Government could not have given the land to Ryan without an Act of Parliament.

232. They could have recommended it to the consideration of Parliament? It was open to Sir John Robertson to have included the whole thing in a validating Bill, if he had thought the merits justified him in doing so.

FRIDAY, 1 FEBRUARY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. DAY,
MR. BARBOUR,

MR. W. R. CAMPBELL,
MR. JONES.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Auber George Jones, Esq., M.P., a Member of the Committee, examined in his place:—

233. Mr. Day.] You know something about Ryan's selections at Wagga Wagga? Yes, on the Murrumbidgee.

234. He selected on Mr. Devlin's run? Yes, I believe so.

235. He took up three or four selections on that run adjoining one another? Yes, on a reserve on Mr. Devlin's run.

236. The whole of Ryan's and his daughters' selections were not upon the reserve, were they? The greater portion I understand was.

237. Chairman.] The lesser portion, I think? Well, some portion; I cannot say exactly how much.

238. Mr. Day.] Did not Ryan make an application for a refund of his money when he found he could not get the land he selected himself? About the middle of January, 1883, I think it was, Ryan came to my office and made a statement with reference to his selections. Amongst others he had selected 73 acres, and because he did not get the whole of that selection he had written to the Minister requesting a refund for a portion of the selection, and demanding a refund for the whole. When he came to me he desired to repossess himself himself of the portion which had been allowed to him, but having given notice demanding a refund he said he could not obtain it. Finding the refund had not been paid, I advised him to write to the Lands Department recalling his letter and demanding that portion of the land which they had previously allowed him, and objecting to receive the refund. At his instance or request, a gentleman in my office, writing for me, at my dictation, wrote a letter to the Minister to that effect. The letter was signed and addressed in my presence, and I saw Ryan post it. I afterwards saw the Minister with Ryan; some other Members were with me; and I also saw Mr. Moriarty, the Chief Commissioner of Conditional Purchases. There was some difficulty about it; but subsequently Mr. Moriarty told me he had not received this letter. Had he received it, he said, the land by right would have belonged to Ryan. He also said in conversation that, if I would write to him and make a statement that this letter had been sent to the office, and procure a letter from Mr. Rigbye stating that he had written the letter, he would take the letter as received and act accordingly. The letter to the Chief Commissioner was written by me, and forwarded according to the purport which I have already stated, and a letter from Mr. Rigbye was also sent, accompanied, I think, with a declaration that he had written the letter and that Ryan had posted it. For some reason or other best known to the Minister or Commissioner this promise was not fulfilled, neither was it accepted as equivalent to the receipt of the letter as promised, nor was the land granted to Ryan. The land was subsequently selected by the lessee of the run, or rather, I think, by the mortgagee of the run, who again immediately forfeited it, in order that his son-in-law, the lessee of the run, might select it as an additional original selection of his. Subsequently to this I demanded very strongly that Ryan's letter withdrawing previous letter and refusing to accept the refund should be produced, for I knew it was in the Department. Mr. Garrett was with me on that occasion. The letter was subsequently produced. Upon this letter depended entirely, admittedly by the Chief Commissioner, the right of the man Ryan to this land, and the letter had remained unaccountably undiscovered. When it was found it was too late—the land had already been awarded to Mr. Devlin, the lessee of the run.

239. Mr. Campbell.] Was Ryan in possession? Yes, Ryan was in actual possession, and continues now in possession, and they gave it to the lessee of the run over his head. Upon learning that Mr. Devlin had selected this land, I, in company with my colleague, Mr. Loughnan, waited upon the Minister with reference to it. We stated the case to him as I have now stated it to the Committee, and the Minister assured us that the selection by Mr. Devlin would not be allowed, that it was not because he had selected that therefore he should get possession. The Chief Commissioner was present, and before we left the room or the office of the Minister, he pledged himself that Ryan should have the land—not only the 55 acres which he claimed, but the whole amount of 73 acres. This was said so emphatically that there was no possible room for any doubt in my mind, or that of Mr. Loughnan, that the land would be given to the original selector Ryan. Ryan was in the ante-room, and we advised him of the decision of the Minister, and told him to go home. In collateral confirmation of this, Mr. Commissioner Moriarty remarked to the Minister—“Before we advise the local agent at Wagga Wagga, we must get back the vouchers from Ryan.” I told him they should be returned the next day, and next day they were delivered to the Chief Commissioner. The *Minister in our presence directed the Chief Commissioner to telegraph to the local agent at Wagga Wagga his decision in the matter. We then, I think, left the office. Subsequently Mr. Loughnan and I discovered that nothing of the kind was done, and after all this they refused to give the land to this man Ryan. The Minister, in presence of the Honorable Member for Albury, Mr. Day, subsequently repudiated ever having said anything of the kind. I think you were there, Mr. Barbour, yourself. I, as a matter of course, as any honest man would do, I lost my temper, and asked whether I had been dreaming, or whether he meant to say he did not tell me and Mr. Loughnan what I have stated. He said—“Do not take any notice of what I say—you must have it in writing.” After this occurrence I refused to go into the office any more; and we determined that the case should be brought before the House and should receive the judgment of the House, and to that end Mr. Loughnan made the motion for obtaining the present inquiry.

240. Mr. Day.] Do you know anything about the improvements that were on the land when Ryan selected it? I do not think there were any improvements, except half-a-mile of fencing; that is what I understood.

241. Did you ever read the report of the appraiser? I have read the report of the appraiser, when testing the validity of Devlin's second selection over the head of the original selector.

242. Ryan selected a certain quantity of land for himself on Mr. Devlin's run, on the reserve there: have you ever read the appraiser's report on the whole of the improvements? I do not know of anything beyond half-a-mile of fencing. That is what I am informed. The land was appraised when Ryan objected to Devlin's selection, because it was alleged by Ryan there was over £40 worth of improvements upon it. The Government appraiser valued the improvements at, I believe, £39 5s.

243. This piece of land then that was excised from Ryan's selection and thrown open to selection again had certain improvements upon it? Certain improvements made by Ryan.

244. Were there not some improvements made by the lessee? I think half a mile of fencing.

245. Was that on the 73 acres? Yes.

246. That was put up by Mr. Devlin? Yes.

247. As soon as Devlin selected the land Ryan disputed it, and then an appraiser was sent to value the improvements? Yes.

248. What was the value of the improvements, including Ryan's and Devlin's? Something slightly under £40, as estimated by the appraiser. I believe £39 5s.

249. That would not prevent Devlin from selecting? Of course it would not, by 15s.

250. Was that estimate a fair one? I could not say.

251. Did you ever hear anything about it? Well, yes, but I do not care to repeat it. Ryan's estimate was £60.

252. If the improvements had been of the value of £60, Devlin could not have selected? They would have barred the selection.

253. Mr. Barbour.] There is a little ambiguity, I think, in your reply to Mr. Campbell; you said the Government awarded the selection to Mr. Devlin over Ryan's head, and then subsequently you said the Minister for Lands said that although Devlin had selected, it did not necessarily follow that he would get the land? That is true.

254. Do not these statements appear to be inconsistent? I am not responsible for these inconsistencies. I can

* NOTE (on revision):—He also said to refuse no application of the Ryans.'

can only say what occurred. After pledging himself that Ryan should get the land, he ignored and repudiated altogether having made any such statement to me and my colleague, Mr. Loughlan, and awarded the land to Mr. Devlin, notwithstanding that Ryan had previously selected and made his improvements, and resided eighteen months or two years.

A. G. Jones,
Esq., M.P.
1 Feb., 1884.

255. Mr. Day.] And is resident now? Yes.

256. From what you know of this case, are you of opinion that Ryan has been unfairly treated? I am most decidedly of that opinion; he has been most unfairly treated, and that in favour of the lessee of the ran and for his special benefit.

George Cumberlege Loughnan, Esq., M.P., Chairman of the Committee, examined:—

257. Mr. Day (Chairman pro. tem.) Do you know anything about Ryan's selections at Wagga Wagga? Yes; I have been taking a good deal of trouble and interest in them, because I was convinced by his statement and the statement of Mr. Bolton, the District Surveyor at Wagga Wagga, and by all the evidence I could collect in and out of the office, that Ryan had been, through no fault of his own, unjustly deprived of his rights as a free selector. I have heard the evidence of Mr. Jones respecting the promise which the Minister for Lands made to us respecting Ryan's conditional purchase of 73 acres. On the occasion that Mr. Jones referred to, the Minister said to us—"I am giving Ryan more than he is asking; he asked for 55 acres, and I am giving him 73 acres." Mr. Moriarty was present at the time. Some conversation then took place with reference to the refund vouchers, which had not then been presented at the Treasury, and I said—"Then if we get the refund vouchers and send them back to you the matter will be considered settled." Mr. Farnell, and, I think, Mr. Moriarty, both said "yes"; and Mr. Jones said, "You shall have them to-morrow morning." We then called Ryan and told him what had occurred, and advised him to pay his agent's expenses, £10—his agent detaining these vouchers in order to get the money—and deliver the vouchers to the Department; which I believe he did the next day.

G. C.
Loughnan,
Esq., M.P.
1 Feb., 1884.

258. Mr. Jones.] You remember that I asked why these 500 acres of land had been taken and thrown back into lease again, and the reply was that it was done for the benefit of Ryan? I remember that happening, but I forget whether it was said by the Minister or Mr. Moriarty. One of them said so, but I could not say which.

259. Did he not say—"I did it for the benefit of Ryan; if we leave it open for selection he will have competition and he will lose it"? Now you refresh my memory I believe it was the Minister, but I know it was said by either Mr. Moriarty or the Minister—I believe it was the Minister.

260. He said he would decide positively in favour of Ryan, that he would validate his selection, and then he said—"He is getting more than he asks for"? That reminds me that in Mr. Moriarty's evidence he made a statement that I had said Ryan was getting more than he was entitled to. That is what I understood him to say. If he said so he mistook me—I never made such a statement; what I said was to Ryan in his presence, that the Minister said he was getting more than he was asking for.

261. Mr. Day.] He got nothing at all? He got nothing at all.

262. The promises made by the Minister have not been carried out? They were all broken, every one of them.

263. And Ryan has not got one acre of his land that was promised, to be given to him? Not one—it is all taken away. With regard to the missing letter, I asked for it frequently, and Mr. Moriarty said frequently that he had no recollection of any such letter ever having been in the Department at all, but if it had been there it would certainly be recorded.

264. Do you remember the Minister saying that if the District Surveyor at Wagga wrote a letter saying he had made a mistake in advising Ryan to take up these selections he would deal more liberally with him, in consequence of the surveyor having put him wrong? Yes.

265. Did Mr. Bolton write that letter? I do not know.

266. Mr. Jones.] Do you not remember the Minister acknowledging that he had read the letter? No. I remember the Minister saying he would deal more liberally with Ryan because the surveyor had put him astray.

267. Did you write a letter to the Minister enclosing a letter which the Minister expressed a desire that Mr. Bolton should sign—the Minister having said that if Mr. Bolton signed it he would deal liberally with Ryan? I wrote a letter to the Minister, which he acknowledged having read in his room, and which letter has disappeared.

268. Was it an important letter bearing upon this case? It was an important letter which the Minister asked Ryan to write: I wrote it for Ryan.

Mr. Thomas Ryan further examined:—

269. Chairman.] Do you remember the Minister saying anything about Mr. Bolton writing a letter? You and I were in the office one day, and the Minister said that if what I stated was correct I should get a note written to that effect and send it to him, and he would send it to Mr. Bolton, and if Mr. Bolton signed it he would give me my land all right.

Mr. T. Ryan.

270. Was that letter written? Yes.

271. Who wrote it? I went up with you to the office and said I was not able to dictate the letter the way the Minister wanted it, and would you oblige me by writing the letter for me; you said "Yes," and I went up to your office, and you wrote the letter and enclosed it and addressed it to the Minister. I then came down-stairs from your office, and went up to the Minister's office; the Minister was out, and I asked the messenger to be good enough to leave the letter on his table; he said "Yes," and he took the letter in and laid it on the Minister's table, and I went away. When I went home I went into Wagga, and I asked Mr. Bolton if he had got a letter from the Minister, and he said "No"; I said—"You must have got it, for Mr. Loughnan wrote it, and I laid it on the Minister's table on such a day and date, and if you sign this letter the Minister gave me a promise that I will get all my land." I told him the nature of the letter was acknowledging that he had made a change without my consent. Mr. Bolton said—"I have got no letter in any connection with your case from the Minister for the last three or four months; there is no occasion for me signing any such letter; I have sent in a letter already, which must be in the office, acknowledging

- Mr. T. Ryan. acknowledging that I made the change on Ellen Ryan's selection without her knowledge; so that will do as well as if I signed another letter to the same effect." I came back again to Sydney and told Mr. Loughnan that this letter was never sent by the Minister, and Mr. Loughnan and I went to the Minister again to see why he did not send the letter, and he said he never got such a letter; I said—"I gave it to the messenger here at the door, and the messenger recollects laying it on your table." After some time and some talk over the letter, the Minister stated that he had a slight recollection of reading the letter, but could not find any more trace of it. We never got any satisfaction about the letter up to this day.
272. Mr. Day.] You selected 540 acres of land, and you went on to that land as soon as you selected it? Yes, within a couple of weeks.
273. When you went on to that land, what was the value of the improvements on it? I believe Mr. Devlin valued it himself at £50.
274. Was it all forest land? Yes.
275. Was it ringbarked? Yes; and there was about half a mile of fencing.
276. How long had it been ringbarked? About a fortnight.
277. What was the value of the ringbarking? Mr. Devlin's overseer said I would have to pay 15d. an acre.
278. What was the value of the fence? I think it would be worth about £50.
279. That would be about £83 worth of improvements on it? Yes, with the fencing and ringbarking.
280. Would not that be sufficient to bar selection on a measured portion? It was not measured at the time I selected—it was only marked on the ground. Mr. Bolton told me the improvements had nothing to do with it, as the survey was not approved of. I put that to Mr. Bolton before I selected. I asked Mr. Bolton if the fencing would bar me from selecting, and he said—"No, the survey is not approved of—it is merely marked upon the ground." It was not approved of for about nine months after I selected.
281. Chairman.] On what date did you select? On the 8th December, 1881.
282. Mr. Day.] As soon as this land was found to be on a reserve you were notified not to improve it? Yes.
283. And the portion of your selection on the reserve you lost altogether? Yes.
284. There was some outside the reserve—were you allowed to keep that? Yes.
285. How many acres? The first notice I got from the Government only gave me 55 acres; in the second notice, four or five months after, they told me I could have 73 acres.
286. What improvements were on that when you came to the conclusion to accept the 73 acres? About 10 chains of 6-wire fence.
287. What would be the value of that? Eight or ten pounds. The 73 acres were all ringbarked at 15d. an acre.
288. Are you quite sure there were no more improvements on it when you selected? Yes.
289. How much improvements were on it when Mr. Devlin selected? I valued them at £60.
290. What you really considered them worth? What they were worth to me. There was a house and a dam that had water all last year.
291. Did any of your neighbours appraise the improvements? Yes; two of them did, at £60; and they are prepared to make an affidavit at any time to that.
292. Did any person appraise the improvements on behalf of the Government? Yes, the Government appraiser did.
293. What did he appraise them at? Something under £40.
294. Did you put up any building on any portion of the land you selected first? Yes, on portion 134, on the 73 acres. Of course, the land being in dispute, I did not put up a good place—only one room.
295. Have you lived there ever since? Yes, I have no other home in the world.
296. Are you living there still? I am.

FRIDAY, 22 FEBRUARY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. FARNELL,
MR. LYNE,

MR. JONES,
MR. TARGETT.

GEORGE C. LOUGHNAN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

The Hon. James Squire Farnell, M.P., sworn and examined in his place:—

- The Hon. J. S. Farnell, M.P. 297. Mr. Jones.] You have read my evidence? I have.
298. Is there anything that you object to in it—have I made mistakes, either purposely or otherwise? I have no objection whatever to the statements you have made, but this is what I have to say—it is the first time in the history of Select Committees that a conversation between a Minister and a person who waited upon him has been put in evidence on a Select Committee.
299. Then you consider that if a deputation waits upon you, anything you say is simply to be taken as conversation, and if repeated of no value? I say that if persons wait upon a Minister, the conversations that take place are really not binding upon the Minister at all.
300. If a deputation duly appointed calls upon you and asks you a question, and it is of vital importance that we hear your answer, are we not to have the benefit of the Minister's expression, yes or no, to our request; otherwise what is the use of calling upon a Minister? When people call upon a Minister, if they are people of common sense, they put all matters in writing, and the Minister only deals with the case as so submitted to him in writing. A Minister in any Department in deciding a case decides upon documentary evidence, and not upon verbal representations, either of deputations or anything else; if not he would never be able to carry on the Department. A Minister could not remember what everybody says to him.
301. If a Minister makes a positive promise, does he remember it, or does he forget it? I say that Mr. Ryan's evidence is untrue as regards myself. First of all he says I was Mr. Devlin's agent, which is altogether untrue,* and so is another statement. I never dealt with this case at all as a Minister. My predecessor,

*NOTE (on revision):—When I gave this evidence I had not read the printed papers in the case, and I had no knowledge of it. I have since obtained a copy of the papers, and I find on perusing them that the firm of Farnell & Martin did write to the Department of Lands as the agents of Mr. A. A. Devlin—a fact that I was not aware of when I gave my evidence, because, personally, I know nothing of the case specially that would recall it to my memory.

predecessor, Sir John Robertson, dealt with it; and that is the case as it is presented to me now. The only thing I dealt with was the 55 acres. I say that Sir John Robertson, in dealing with this case, dealt most liberally with these people. This man says he is entitled to this land. I say under the law he is not entitled to a single inch, and I say Sir John Robertson dealt liberally with this man when he gave a decision that he would legalize one selection, where the improvements were, and where the family resided. Sir John Robertson decided that the improvements being on this land it was a fair thing to legalize this selection. We know that the selections were all wrong, because they were on a reserve that came within the exceptions of the law; but under the circumstances Sir John Robertson said he would validate one selection and cancel that part of the reserve included in the other conditional purchases, and that is the decision that has been given in the case; therefore the other selections were all bad. There is some dispute about 75 acres, but that has nothing at all to do with the case. We have it in evidence that this man, who is not so bona fide as some people think, went on this land and took possession of it, whereas his wife and family were living on some other land.

The Hon. J. S.
Farnell, M.P.
22 Feb., 1884.

302. Chairman.] Is it not frequently done, that in cases where selectors have by mistake, by their own mistake, gone on reserves,—is it not a fact that in a great many instances so much of the reserve has been withdrawn so as to allow them to select? Yes; under certain circumstances we have had it measured and thrown open. But he goes before it is thrown open. His first description would have put him more out of Court than the description of the surveyor. What ought to have been done in this case, and what I tried to do for him afterwards, was to revoke that portion of the reserve that embraced his selections, and let him re-select it.* That would have avoided all the trouble: but that was not put before the Minister in the first instance, and when it came before him he did the best he possibly could.

303. Mr. Targett.] Is it too late to do that now? My predecessor said—this is your residence and your improvements; we will validate that. The Minister at present says—this land does not belong to you, and, after the cancellation of the reserve, was open to selection by anybody else.

304. Chairman.] Is it your opinion that that would have been the wisest course in the first instance? Yes, knowing that the land was being measured to throw open to selection. But these things were not represented to the Minister in the first instance, and when the case did come before the Minister he decided it upon its merits.†

305. Mr. Jones.] You say the wisest course would have been to validate the mistakes that were made, especially as they were made under the direction of one of your officers? I do not admit that. I know that Ryan's first application made him in a worse position than he would have been in under the surveyor.

306. Chairman.] Mr. Bolton's evidence has gone further—he says he thought when he was putting them on this land he was saving them from selecting on the reserve, and that Ryan went on the reserve in the full belief that he was going on land open to selection: then do you think it is too late to have Ryan's selections validated? When the case came before me, we were most desirous in the Department to secure this man in his land. Knowing that it was reserved, we knew that the selections were bad. We wanted to have revoked so much of the reserve as to allow him to re-select this land; I did do so. Then of course the land being thrown open it was open to other people as well as to him, and other people came in, and that is where the difficulty is. The 73 acres never were in the reserve.

307. Viewing the fact that this man's letter was mislaid, and that Mr. Moriarty has sworn that had he had that letter he would not have allowed Ryan's selections to be voided, do you not think that under those circumstances something could be done for Ryan, as it was no fault of his that the letter was lost in the office? You are referring to the 73 acres. First of all he applied for a refund; the selections were bad ab initio. Some one advised him to stick to his land and he would get it, and then he fights the Department. If it had been revoked in the beginning there would have been no difficulty. The 73 acres turns out to be something about improvements, so far as I know. I have given no decision in this case myself—the whole thing was decided by my predecessor.

308. Mr. Targett.] I am not very clear as to what he is asking for now—I think he wants more land: is there any land left there? This man takes up selections on a reserve, and they are bad ab initio, and it is all very well this man grounding his claim upon Mr. Bolton. Mr. Bolton tried to serve him, and gave him a description; but Mr. Bolton himself did not know that the description came partly within a reserve and partly out of it. When the case came before the Minister, Ryan said—here is my daughters' selections and my family, and we have got our improvements here. The Minister said—we will validate that, and so you shall have that selection, but the others must take their chance under the law. And these reserves were revoked in order to allow this man to select again, but other people competed and got them under the law, and he could not get them.

309. Mr. Lyne.] If there is reserved land in the neighbourhood that the Government can throw open and let him get it, I do not see why he should not get it? The whole thing will be thrown open by-and-bye, when it is charted!

310. Chairman.] Do you think it is right that Ryan should lose his land and his money in consequence of a mistake of an officer of the Department? He has not lost his money—he has not lost his deposit.

311. It has cost him a small fortune running up and down to see after the matter? There was no necessity for him to run up and down. The man became so desperate that we could not see him in the Department. I re-reserved the land in order to give him an opportunity to prove that the first description that he put in for this land was a better description than the one that was devised by Mr. Bolton, and he never produced anything of the kind.

312. Mr. Jones.] You say that the whole question had been determined by your predecessor, and yet you positively went into a contract with the present claimant: how could it have been settled by your predecessor? No Minister could enter into a contract with him.

313. You say that this question had been wholly determined by your predecessor, and now we are told that you re-opened the case and offered him certain conditions? What conditions?

314. You said that you re-reserved the land in order to give him an opportunity to prove the description; then how could the case have been determined and settled by your predecessor? It was.

315. I say Sir John Robertson did not settle the question at all—he made a concession? They were not entitled to anything at all. I say Sir John Robertson dealt liberally with the man. If that reserve was revoked to-morrow anybody could go and conditionally purchase that land. A Government promise to legalize the thing does not legalize it.

* NOTE (on revision) :—This would in reality be carrying out Sir John's decision of the 9th September, 1882.

† NOTE (on revision) :—See memorandum No. 31 in the printed papers, and minute on same of 9th September, 1882.

The Hon. J. S. Farnell, M.P. 316. Chairman.] There is a letter among these papers: addressed by the Under Secretary to Messrs. Farnell and Martin; and you stated that you were not Mr. Devlin's agent? I was not Mr. Devlin's agent in this matter. Mr. Devlin is a relative of mine. So far as my knowledge is concerned I had nothing to do with the case. I did not know the man, and never heard of the case until it came before me as a Minister.

22 Feb., 1884.

317. Mr. Lyne.] Who was his agent? * How do I know?—All I can say is that I was not Mr. Devlin's agent. †

318. Mr. Targett.] Do you not consider, if it is proved by evidence that Ryan was misled by Mr. Bolton, the surveyor, and that as a matter of fact the whole difficulty since has arisen out of that error,—if Ryan can show that he has lost either land, or money, or the equivalents,—do you not consider in that case that it is within the province of the Department to bring the matter before the House, either in the shape of including certain lands in a Validating Bill, or of compensating him, or in the event of adopting neither of those cases to let him have adjoining land as compensation: one of those three things? If Ryan was misled wholly by the district surveyor in giving this description, then it is a case for the consideration of the Government, either to compensate him or something. There was nobody more anxious than I was to help that man.

319. Chairman.] Is it possible to validate that portion of Ryan's selections which is in the reserve? It is quite possible. ‡

WEDNESDAY, 5 MARCH, 1884.

Present:—

MR. FARNELL,
MR. JONES,

MR. LYNE,
MR. DAY.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., called in and further examined:—

A. O. Moriarty,
Esq.
5 Mar., 1884.

320. Chairman.] You remember the 73 acres in this case being voided and afterwards thrown open to selection—thirty days after the voidance; it was applied for by several people, among others by Arthur Devlin and Ellen Ryan; it seems Ellen Ryan paid in the subdivision fee, but Arthur Devlin did not do so? My impression is that there was no direct competition between the renewed application of Ellen Ryan and the application of Arthur Devlin; my impression is that Mr. Devlin's was the first, and that it was unopposed, but there was an application at a subsequent date from Ellen Ryan for the same land.

321. Mr. Lyne.] The papers state that Ellen Ryan's application was put in six minutes after Mr. Devlin's. Is it usual, when applications are so near as that, not to allow them to come into competition? Certainly it is usual. If one application is clearly made a minute, or even half a minute, prior to another, the earlier applicant is entitled to the land. There have been exceptions to that practice on occasions of unusual rushes for particular areas, when reserves have been thrown open, but such cases have been met by special regulation.

322. Chairman.] Was it necessary that Arthur Devlin should have paid the subdivision fee on that selection at that time? I understand that the portion applied for by both parties was part of a measured portion intersected by a reserve boundary-line. My own view was that it was not necessary; but as it was a technical matter of a character dealt with by the Survey Department, it was referred specially to the Survey officers, who stated it as the practice that, there being a public boundary-line intersecting the measurement, it was not a case for the payment of a subdivision fee by the party making the application; it was not a subdivision in the interest of the applicant, but a subdivision enforced by a public boundary-line.

323. Mr. Jones.] In point of fact, no subdivision line was necessary? The subdivision line was necessary for the purposes of the reserve, but it was a public boundary line, not necessary in the interest of the application. The subdivisions contemplated by the law, where the payment of a fee is required, seem to be subdivisions applied for in their own interest by the parties applying.

324. Chairman.] With reference to the letter No. 43 sent in by Thomas Ryan—the letter that was missing so long—Mr. Harpur writes a long minute (read), but makes no mention of the illegibility of the signature; in fact, he makes no excuse whatever for the letter not having been attached to the rest of the papers? Perhaps that is explained by the fact that this explanation was given, when called for by me, subsequently to its being ascertained that this was Ryan's letter.

325. This alleged illegibility of the signature seems to be a rather poor excuse, because the letter itself is in the handwriting of Mr. Rigbye, Mr. Jones's clerk, who writes a peculiarly legible hand; and the letter speaks of the selection as having been taken up "in the name of Thomas Ryan"? I have no doubt at all that the letter might have been easily identified as being from Thomas Ryan, but the fact is it was entered in the Register-book in another name, and, having been so registered, was sent to the Survey Department. When a question arose about it, it was in their hands, and on the Register being referred to no letter in the name of Ryan appeared, but the letter would appear in the name of "Yan" or "Gan." The letter was registered, but in a wrong name, and could not therefore be traced by means of the Register; in fact, the letter followed in the train of the other correspondence, but never reached that correspondence, by reason of being registered under another name; and when I made inquiries, it appeared from the Register-book that no letter of that date from Thomas Ryan had been received. It certainly showed a letter in the name of "Yan," and the letter was ultimately found in the Charting Branch, not returned with the other correspondence.

326. Mr. Jones.] It was Ryan's usual signature? But unfortunately it was not known to the Record clerks.

327. Chairman.] Why would it be necessary for this letter to pass through Mr. Harpur's hands "on more than one occasion"? It is Mr. Harpur's duty to attach letters as they come in to the former correspondence on the same subject; and when this letter arrived it was Mr. Harpur's duty to search out the whereabouts of the former papers and attach this letter to them. 328.

* NOTE (on revision):—I understood this question to refer to Mr. Ryan, and my answer referred to him.

† NOTE (on revision):—See note in explanation to a previous question.

‡ NOTE (on revision):—I desire to add that I find from the printed papers that the first time the Ryans' cases were submitted to me was on the 30th March, 1883. The case of the Ryans at the present time stands thus:—Ellen Ryan retains 640 acres, as applied for; A. Ryan, 502 acres; and there are 467 acres of T. Ryan's C.P. of 540 acres still reserved.

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.
5 Mar., 1884]

328. Why would it go through his hands on more than one occasion? On account of the papers having to come to him at different stages of the case, with a view to finding the references.

329. It is a peculiar thing that, in giving his explanation, Mr. Harpur never mentions anything about the illegibility of the signature? I really cannot explain Mr. Harpur's explanation. I do know the fact that this particular letter was registered in my department in the name of "Yan," and that the Record clerks repeatedly declared there was no such letter in the name of Ryan; and I found myself that there was no such letter in the name of Ryan registered.

330. Is there more than one register of letters kept in the office—you say in your department it was registered in the name of "Yan": was it registered anywhere else? No; there is only one register of correspondence.

331. And that is Mr. Harpur's? No, not Mr. Harpur's. Mr. Harpur is a clerk in the Record Branch, in which the letters are registered—one of twenty clerks there; his duty is, when papers are registered, to find out what they refer to and to connect them with the other papers in the business.

332. And in this case he did not? He did not attach "Yan's" letter to Ryan's papers.

333. He says there are so many letters in the department—has he more work than he can do? No, he is very well able to do his work.

334. He says, "It is impossible to follow every case through from the date of receipt" (reading from the minute referred to)? If Mr. Harpur were supposed to have personal knowledge of all these cases, no doubt it would be impossible for him to get through the work; but all that he is concerned with is a particular and defined duty—to attach the papers as they come in to those which have preceded them in the same cases. Mr. Harpur does not know, and no person could know, all the stages through which the papers have been.

335. Mr. Farnell.] In fact Mr. Harpur simply mechanically attaches the papers, without knowing their contents? Just so.

336. Chairman.] In your own evidence you said that if this letter had been received it would have induced you to have withdrawn his former letter? I think what I said was this,—that if I had known, when dealing with Ryan's request for a refund, that he had written another letter of later date in the terms of this missing letter, I would not have acted on the previous one.

337. Mr. Farnell.] Will you be kind enough to look at No. 77—you will see there a memo. by Mr. Finch in reference to Ellen Ryan's additional conditional purchase: Mr. Finch points out, first, that the area had been reduced from 640 acres to 345 acres, and then that the whole area of 640 acres was to be legalized for Ellen Ryan; under these circumstances Ellen Ryan could not make an additional conditional purchase, could she, having been already granted the full quantity allowed by law? No person can take up more than 640 acres.

338. You will see by the same minute that the subdivision fee paid by Ellen Ryan was to be refunded? Of course Ellen Ryan was not considered an applicant for the land; her subdivision fee could not have been retained even if chargeable.

339. A further minute on No. 77 says—"Plan of portion No. 134 was accepted on 13th September, 1882. Devlin does not appear to have paid subdivision fee, but it has not been the practice to require its payment in such cases as this where the remainder of the portion is not available for conditional purchase on account of being within a reserve": is that a correct statement of the practice of the Department? Yes.

340. It is strictly in accordance with the law? Yes, I believe it is.

341. Mr. Lyne.] In reference to Mr. Farnell's question—If Miss Ellen Ryan's selection was proposed to be validated, but was not validated, would she not be in a position to select then? It could hardly cut both ways. Either she had no right to make a further selection or she could not have the land already selected.

342. Before the whole selection was actually validated, would she not have a right to select? I presume so, if she had not already exercised her right; but if she acquiesced in the proposed validation of the whole 640 acres I think her right of further selection would be in abeyance until the matter of validation had been settled.

343. In all cases of improved measured portions, where the selector applies for a portion of the block, is it not compulsory by law that a subdivision fee must be paid? I do not think the question applies in this case. The portion outside the reserve was not affected by the improvements—it was affected by the reserve boundary.

344. Supposing there are improvements—we will not say the whole of them, but some portion of them, on the area outside the reserve, would it not then be necessary that a subdivision fee should be paid by the selector who selects that small portion of the land with the improvements on it? I do not think so. When it is bounded on one side by the reserve, I do not think the question of improvements arises at all.

345. Mr. Jones.] The Minister has laid great stress upon the fact that Ryan, when granted 73 acres instead of 55 acres, failed to pay the sum due on the difference of 18 acres: is it not a fact that he had paid the deposit on the whole 540 acres he selected, and that that payment is yet to his credit at the Treasury? I have reason to think that Ryan has not withdrawn his money from the Treasury. At the same time, Ryan has been by myself given to understand that if he did not choose to cash his refund order that was his own concern solely—that if he chose to leave the money in the Bank or the Treasury it could in no regard affect his claim.

346. Mr. Farnell.] So far as the Lands Department was concerned Ryan got his refund voucher for the land within the reserve? Yes; a refund order was sent to him, but I believe he returned it, in fact he insisted upon returning it to me.

347. At what date did he return it? Some time back.

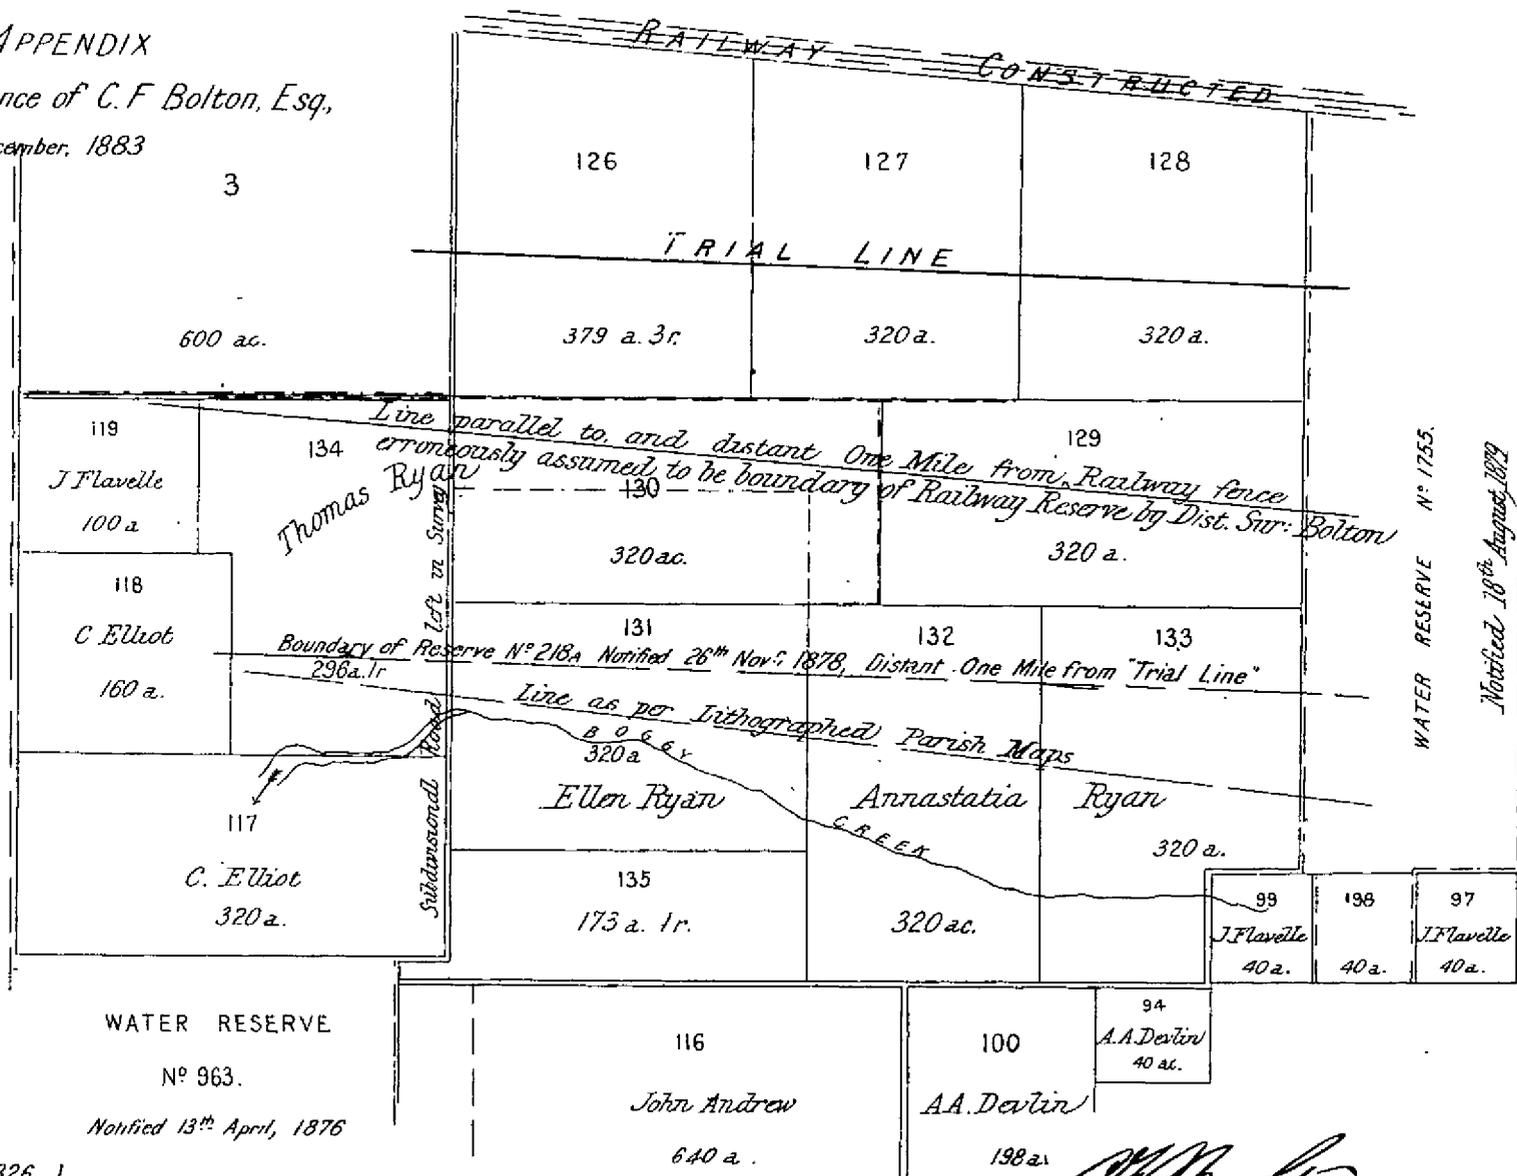

348. Was it only a few months ago? I really am not very clear in my recollection, but my impression is that the refund order went to his agent, Mr. Armstrong, and ultimately Ryan recovered it, and insisted upon forcing it back upon the office.

349. Will you look at the memorandum on No. 101? I know I gave him clearly to understand that if he chose to leave these orders in the office it would in no way affect the case. The memorandum you refer to is that of the office registering the return of the papers to the office.

350. Mr. Day.] Was there not an understanding between the Minister and yourself and Ryan, that if he brought back these vouchers it would be all right? No, certainly not.

Application by Archibald M'Kellar for the conditional purchase, without competition, of 640 acres unimproved Crown Land.

Received by me, with a deposit of £160, this 7th day of April, 1881, at 10 o'clock,—

B. S. LEVICK,

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Hillston.

Sir,

7 April, 1881.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 14th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 640 acres; and I herewith tender the sum of £160, being a deposit at the rate of 5s. per acre on the area for which I apply.

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Hillston.

Description.

The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston, to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Crown Lands Office, Hillston, 19 April, 1881.

Referring to the enclosed letters from Mark Duffy and Thomas Bishop respectively, I have the honor to explain that on Thursday morning, 7th instant, three conditional purchase applications were simultaneously lodged in this office, from Duncan Erskine M'Kellar, Archibald M'Kellar, and Christopher Davis respectively. Duffy and Bishop, previously referred to, were also present, but stood passive and did not offer any application. On examining those presented, and finding that they did not conflict and were otherwise correct, I issued receipts for them, meanwhile Bishop had withdrawn to the door and was about to leave. I inquired if he were an applicant, he replied, "No." On examining Duffy's application, I found it to be identical with that of D. E. M'Kellar's. I told him that M'Kellar had just taken it up; he at once seemed to acquiesce in it, and retired without making any reference to ballot or otherwise objecting. Had I not been misled by the apathy of Duffy and Bishop, I would have examined all applications previous to any further action, and availed myself of the provisions of the 6th section of chapter II of the Regulations under Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880, by referring the decision to the ballot. I would now respectfully suggest that I be instructed to avail myself of the provisions of section 8, chapter II, of the Regulations under the Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880, with a view to a settlement of the matter by referring the decision to ballot.

I have, &c.
B. S. LEVICK,
Crown Lands Agent.

[Enclosure A to No. 6.]

Mr. M. Duffy to The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston.

Sir,

Wooyeo, 11 April, 1881.

I beg to draw your attention to the fact that I attended at the Land Office, Hillston, on Thursday last, for the purpose of taking up an additional conditional purchase to my original conditional purchase upon the Wooyeo Run.

I was at the door of the office when it was opened, and entered at the same time as the other applicants for land, but Mr. A. McKellar was given the preference for the land I wished to obtain, and I was informed that I could not get it, and denied the right of ballot, which I can claim under the Act of Parliament.

I write now that you may give me some explanation of my treatment, as I have determined, should I not receive satisfactory reason for Mr. McKellar having been given a preference over me, to lay my case before Mr. McElhone, who I am satisfied will have the matter thoroughly sifted and see that I get my rights in the matter. Awaiting an answer by return of post, before I forward a letter containing my grievance to Mr. McElhone,—

I have, &c.,
MARK DUFFY.

[Enclosure B to No. 6.]

Mr. T. Bishop to The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston.

Sir,

Wooyeo, 15 April, 1881.

On Thursday, 31st March, 1881, I went to the Hillston Land Office to select a conditional purchase upon the Wooyeo Run, and came into the office at the same time as the other persons applying for land. My application was not asked for until the other selectors had got their land, and the consequence was that Mr. McKellar got the piece of land for which I intended to apply, so that McKellar got the preference to which he was not entitled. I want an explanation of the matter per return mail, as I intend to lay it before McElhone and have the matter looked into, if I do not get a satisfactory explanation. I must also state that there were three persons applying for the same piece of land, and should therefore have gone to a ballot, whereby I should have had a chance of getting it, and also have had fair play, which in the present instance I have not had.

I have, &c.
THOMAS BISHOP.

No. 7.

Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co. to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, 2 May, 1881.

We beg to draw your attention to the fact that on the 24th March last one Mark Duffy selected 54½ acres of land, as per margin, being measured portions Nos. 5 and 8, containing respectively 224 acres and 320 acres, in the parish of Lachlan, county Dowling.

We beg to protest against this selection, on the following grounds:—

- 1st. That portions 5 and 8 are improved to the extent of £76 17s. and £459 respectively, which is sufficient to bar selection.
- 2nd. That Duffy has not paid the amount of subdivision fee necessary, which omission is, we submit, sufficient to prove the illegality of his application.
- 3rd. That he has applied for the land under the 14th section of the Act of 1801, as being on a gold-field, which is not the case, instead of making such application under the provisions of the Act of 1880.

The improvements consist of a wool warehouse, wool-press, pressing-room, tramway and drainage, stages for wool, &c.; and we ask that you will caution the selector against improving the land pending an investigation into the affair.

Trusting the matter may receive special attention,—

Sir,

I beg to apply that I may have the improvements upon my selection, allotments 5 and 8, situated upon Wooyeo Run, re-appraised, as the valuation put upon them by the surveyor who valued them is out of all reason. I can show, and I am perfectly satisfied that any unprejudiced person can see at once, that the improvements are not, at the outside, worth more than half what they are valued at. I can also bring witnesses to prove the correctness of what I say.

Trusting that you will give the matter your consideration,—

Mr. Curry,—Submitted (as in previous case) that the district surveyor be requested to report upon the correctness of the statements made in the communication.—W.H.H., 6/5/81. Recommendation for approval.—H.C., 7/5/81.

By the Under Secretary for Lands:—Under the 36th section of the Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875 a pre-lease does not take effect until approved of by the Minister. This being the law, it is quite possible, although I do not in any way allege that it will be so in the present case, for improvements to be placed on land between the date of the application and that on which a surveyor is able to inspect and report, and thus defeat the lease. In view of this being possible, I think a statutory declaration should be required giving the date of the construction of the improvements, their nature and value, and unless furnished within a fortnight the lease should be gazetted, leaving the question of improvements to be afterwards determined, the person in whose favour the lease is gazetted being informed that it is granted subject to the alleged improvement of the land being inquired into. Should the protest against the lease be supported by a declaration, the gazetting of the lease may be deferred pending a report being obtained, and the applicant informed.—C.O., 9/5/81.

By the Secretary for Lands:—I concur with the Under Secretary, that a statutory declaration should be sent to this Department, with the complaint that the land embraced in a pre-lease has been improved prior to such pre-lease having been applied for, or otherwise—as the Under Secretary remarks, the land may be improved after the application for a pre-lease has been made—and then the papers may be sent to a local surveyor for report.—J.H., 11/5/81.

Shall the case be specially gazetted?—H.C., 31/5/81.

Memorandum.

M'Kellar improvement purchase v. Duffy conditional purchase at Lake Cargellico.

Surveyor-General,

On the 17th February, 1881, the lessee of the Wooyeo Run (D. M'Kellar) applied under improvement purchase 81-14 (Hillston) for portion 8, parish Lachlan. 350 acres were applied for, but the land had been previously measured as portion 8 of 320 acres.

The application is made in virtue of a wool-scouring establishment, then valued by the lessee at £350, but when the survey was made, between June and August, 1880, at £193 8s., it was then however incomplete.

The lessee's right of purchase depends firstly on the decision of the Secretary for Lands (on Miscellaneous 80-18,032), as regards selling in right of improvements made during the time the Cargellico Gold-field was reserved from conditional purchase, and secondly on the action taken on improvement purchases 80, 33, 34, 35, Hillston, with above quoted paper.

On the 24th March, 1881, Mark Duffy conditionally purchased portions 5 and 8, parish Lachlan, paying a sum of £19 6s. 10d. on account of the improvements on portion 8 effected under circumstances above-mentioned, Conditional Sales* 81-18,674. Duffy has applied for an appraisal of the improvements, not being satisfied with Surveyor Carter's valuation; through this course, however, the case would have to go. * See No. 8.

The lessee, per H. H. Brown & Co., has protested against the conditional purchase (81-17,915* * See No. 7. Conditional Sales), but the latter two grounds are not, it is submitted, valid objections, and the first perhaps valid only so far as regards the improvements effected since the gold-field was thrown open to conditional purchase. This, however, depends on the decision mentioned in paragraph 3 of this minute.

There is no report on the value of the improvements on portion 5 other than Surveyor Carter's (Alienation 80-8,189), when they consisted of wire fence, £21 17s.; dog-log fence, £15; total, £36 17s.

In view of the above, it is recommended that the case be referred at once for appraisal of the value of the improvements on both portions at the date the gold-field was thrown open to conditional purchase and at the date of selection by Duffy.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor E. J. Burgess, of Hay, who is well acquainted with the circumstances surrounding the improving and opening of the gold-field, may be appointed to act as appraiser.

By the Under-Secretary for Lands:—The appraisal of the improvements on the land in question at date of the revocation of the reserve and at date of conditional purchase may be made at once. Duffy should be fully apprised of his position as regards the possible effect of the proceedings on his conditional purchase. As to Messrs. H. H. Brown's protest against the conditional purchase on the ground that the land was erroneously selected under the 14th clause, they should be apprised that the clause is correct. The necessity for a subdivision fee is not yet apparent.—C.O., 2/7/81.

Sir,

21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, 17 June, 1881.

We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 17th ultimo, advising us that it would be necessary for our client, Mr. D. M'Kellar, to lodge a declaration showing the date of commencement and completion of improvements made by him prior to application for a pre-emptive lease of 1,600 acres by Mark Duffy, in the parish of Lachlan, county of Dowling. We herewith beg to enclose the declaration as required.

We

We have been unable to lodge a declaration within a fortnight as requested, in consequence of our client having left by steamer for Queensland mid-day on the 17th ultimo, and only returned to Sydney yesterday, whereas your letter was not delivered us until the 18th ultimo. Hoping that this explanation will be satisfactory,—

Submitted whether, in view of the enclosed declaration, the case be withdrawn from the present Gazette and forwarded for the early report of the surveyor.—H.C., 20/6/81.

By the Under Secretary for Lands:—It is very evident that the improvements mentioned are upon Duffy's conditional purchase and not on the land applied for as a prelease. The conditional purchase, was made under the provisions of the 12th clause of the Act of 1880.—C.O., 21/6/81.

[Enclosure to No. 16.]

I, DUNCAN M'KELLAR, of Wooyeo, do solemnly and sincerely declare that fencing to the value of over £70 was effected prior to the notification of the reserve, and in the year 1880, prior to the application for pre-emptive lease by Mark Duffy, a woolshed, with pressing room, hut, and tramway, to the value of £423 12s., was put up by me. This is used as a wool-scouring establishment, and is of the utmost importance for the working of the station. In 1881, cottage and fencing have been erected costing £75, making total value of improvements £568 12s. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and in virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

The Under Secretary for Lands to Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co.

Gentlemen,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 22 June, 1881.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th instant, enclosing a statutory declaration made by Mr. D. M'Kellar as to the value of certain of his improvements, and to state that, as they appear to be situated upon the conditional purchase made, under the provisions of the 12th clause of the Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880, by Mr. Mark Duffy, and not on the lands in the parish of Lachlan, county of Dowling, which he on 25 March last applied for as a pre-emptive lease, it is thought undesirable to defer the usual notifications of the recognition of his claim to the lease in question.

I have, &c.,
CHARLES OLIVER,
Under Secretary.

No. 19.

The Under Secretary for Lands to The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 29 June, 1881.

I am directed to forward for your information, and in order that the necessary entries may be made in your registers, a copy of a notice published in the Government Gazette of the 21st instant, setting forth that certain claims to pre-emptive leases in your district have been approved; and I am at the same time to transmit tracings which show approximately the position of the leases, and which, though they are forwarded you for public inspection, you must not allow to pass out of your keeping into other hands.

The amount required for the tenure of each lease up to the end of the current year (being the annual rental) is specified in the Gazette notice. In any instance in which the money deposited at the time of application is less than this the balance must be paid, on or before the 21st August next, subject, in default, to a penalty of 10 per cent. upon the sum due; and if the rent, together with the penalty, shall remain unpaid on the 21st September following, the lease will be forfeited and be liable to be offered for sale by auction. If tendered after the latter date the money must not be accepted, but you will be good enough to advise the lessee not to forward it to Sydney, but to write to the Secretary for Lands with a view to your being authorized to receive it.

It

It is perhaps desirable to mention that a lease does not commence until notification of approval in the Government Gazette, and that, as occupation prior to this date is not authorized, no rent is required for the interval between the date of application and the date of acceptance of the claim.

In your receipts you will be expected to insert the number and area of each lease, the date of notification of approval, the amount paid as rent in distinction from that paid as fine, and the year or period for which payment has been made; and as special importance is attached to these instructions, and frequent opportunities will be afforded of perusing your receipts, you are to understand that any omission upon your part will be brought under the notice of the Head of the Department.

In the preparation of vouchers the greatest precision must be shown; and, as any error is calculated to lead to most embarrassing complications, special care must be exercised in writing the correct number of the lease, the name of the lessee, and the other necessary particulars mentioned in the preceding paragraph. By adhering strictly to these instructions, and by accurately noting all transactions in your registers, no difficulty should arise in regard to lease matters; and in order that you may be fully aware of the arrangements made with respect to payments on the leases specified in the attached notice, and have no difficulty in understanding what sums are required for completion of the rents, a schedule is forwarded you which exhibits clearly how the money has been applied.

I have, &c.,

H. CURRY,

(For the Under Secretary).

No. 20.

The Under Secretary for Lands to Mr. M. Duffy.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 29 June, 1881.

I am directed to inform you that pre-emptive lease No. 81-38 of 1,600 acres, in the District of Hillston, notified in the Government Gazette of the 21st June, 1881, as approved in your favour, has been granted in satisfaction of your application of the 25th March, 1881, for a corresponding area.

A tracing showing approximately its boundaries has been forwarded to the local Crown Lands Agent, which, in order that you may clearly understand the position occupied by the lease, you will find it very desirable to inspect. As the lease has been charted in the absence of local information, it is to be understood that you are at liberty to occupy only such land as is available for lease, i.e., such as is not barred from lease by improvements or has been purchased, &c.; and it is also to be understood that this Department reserves the privilege of modifying or amending the lease, should it be considered necessary or desirable to do so. In the event of any question arising as to its boundaries, you are strongly recommended to communicate with this Department previously to taking any action against any person who may encroach upon the land, or previously to your defending any action that may be instituted against you. Should you, or the holder of the lease at the time, fail in this respect, no consideration in any way whatever will be allowed for any loss that may be sustained.

The annual rent will be £5, and this sum, which is in part covered by the money (£5) deposited at the time of application, is required for the tenure of the lease up to the end of the current year.

For 1882 the rent must be paid during the month of September of this year, or, if tendered after this date, must be paid with the incurred penalty, on or prior to the 31st December.

Having regard to the delay and the complications which frequently arise through money being forwarded to Sydney unaccompanied by precise information as to the leases to which it is intended to be applied, I am strongly to recommend you to make all payments through the Land Agent, who will transmit the amounts to the Under Secretary for Finance and Trade, with a voucher containing such particulars as are known by him to be required by the Head Offices; and in the event of his declining, under instructions from this Department, to receive sums which you may tender, you should, without forwarding the money to the Treasury, apply to the Minister for Lands for permission to pay it, when, if your request be acceded to, a communication will be made to him, and you will be at liberty to make the necessary payment, subject to such conditions as will then be explained. While pointing out the desirability of your adopting these suggestions, I am to mention, assuming they may not be followed, that the Department will not, unless fully satisfied of the correctness of the action, direct the appropriation of amounts to leases the numbers of which have not been supplied, but will take steps for their return, without accepting any responsibility for difficulties or conflicting interests which may arise through their non-acceptance.

In any matter of dispute you will be called upon to produce your receipts, in which, at the time you obtained them, you should insist upon the Land Agent entering the numbers and particulars of the leases, the sum received on each, and the period for which the several amounts have been paid.

From the last section of the 12th clause of the "Crown Lands Occupation Act" it will be seen that, should any part of your lease be absorbed by conditional purchases or other alienations, no other land can be allowed in place of it, and that the remaining area can be held only on payment of the rent charged for the lease as originally granted.

As you will be expected when writing to this Department to state the number of the lease, its area, and the date of notification of approval in the Government Gazette, you will find it expedient to carefully preserve this letter, on account of its containing the information required.

Telegram from Chief Commissioner to Crown Lands Agent, Hillston.

I UNDERSTAND that Duffy and Bishop did not lodge any conditional purchase applications on deposits at all; you will therefore postpone the ballot, pending further inquiries and instructions.

WM. BLACKMAN,

No. 22.

Messrs. Iceton & Faithfull to The Secretary for Lands.

Re M'Kellar & Duffy, and Bishop.

Sir,

141 (late 183), Pitt-street, 5 July, 1881.

We are instructed, on behalf of Messrs. D. E. & A. M'Kellar, to request that you will be good enough to postpone a certain ballot which is appointed for the 17th July instant, at Hillston.

We are instructed that the Messrs. M'Kellar made application and paid deposit on the same day as one Duffy made his application, but some time previously to him.

A man named Bishop also claims to be entitled to ballot, but he has not, we are informed, made an application up to the present day, nor ever tendered application or paid deposit.

On these grounds we contend that neither Duffy nor Bishop have any right to a ballot, and we have therefore the honor to request that you will postpone the ballot until inquiries can be made into the matter.

We have, &c.,

ICETON & FAITHFULL.

Minutes on No. 22.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The Land Agent, in his letter of 19th April, asks to have instructions sent him to carry out a ballot, but it is not by any means clear that there should be a ballot. Three applications were tendered simultaneously—Messrs. M'Kellars' and Davis's; but these, according to the Agent, do not conflict. If Duffy and Bishop seek to ballot, they must prove that they tendered their applications and deposits simultaneously, or were ready to do so, being solely prevented by the Land Agent having necessarily to attend to the others before he could take up their prepared and completed applications with deposits. Of course if any applications made by them were not made or ready to be made until after the M'Kellars' and Davis's were disposed of they would be out of Court. Then if Bishop and Duffy did not lodge their applications and deposits, they would so far not be entitled to claim a ballot now. I make these remarks, not as absolutely decisive, but in order that the Land Agent may be able to furnish me with a more precise and detailed report of all the circumstances of the case, in order that the Minister may be in a position to give a decision thereon. Inform Land Agent and send letter of Messrs. Iceton & Faithfull for any observations he may wish to make.—W.B., (for Chief Commissioner), 8/7/81.

I consider that Thomas Bishop has no shadow of a claim to a ballot as against D. E. M'Kellar, as he made no pretence to the lodging of an application, evidently through a misapprehension of the requirements of the case. Duffy lodged his application and deposit, but too late to entitle him to a ballot on that day. As a matter of equity, I think Duffy's case should come under the 8th clause of the 2nd chapter of the Regulations under the Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880, as he seems to have entered the office with the others, but being illiterate and apathetic he failed to apprehend the necessities of the case.—B. S. LEVICK, Crown Lands Agent, Hillston, 16/7/81.

[Urgent.]

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 9 July, 1881.

With reference to your letter of the 19th April last, forwarding communications received by you from Mark Duffy and Thomas Bishop, respecting the conditional purchase noted in the margin, and requesting that in the circumstances of the case, as set forth in your letter, you may be instructed to carry out a ballot for the land. I am directed to point out that it is not by any means clear that there should be a ballot. Three applications were tendered simultaneously by Messrs. D. and A. M'Kellar and C. Davis, which, according to your letter referred to, do not conflict.

If

If Messrs. Duffy and Bishop seek to ballot, they must prove that they tendered their applications and deposits simultaneously, or that they were ready to do so; being solely prevented by your having necessarily to attend to the others before you could take up their prepared and completed applications with deposits. Of course, were their applications not made or ready to be made until after those by the M'Kellars and Davis were disposed of, they would be out of Court.

It may further be pointed out that, if Messrs. Duffy & Bishop did not lodge their applications and deposits, they would so far not be entitled to claim a ballot now.

The foregoing remarks are not, however, to be taken as decisive, but with a view to your furnishing a more precise and detailed report of all the circumstances of the case, in order that the Minister may be in a position to give a decision thereon.

The accompanying letter* from Messrs. Icton and Faithfull, on behalf of Messrs. M'Kellar, is forwarded for your information, and for any observations you may have to make with respect to it.

The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston, to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Crown Lands Office, Hillston, 16 July, 1881.

In reply to your letter, dated 9th July, 1881, calling for a detailed report of the circumstances under which Mark Duffy and Thomas Bishop claim a ballot for the portions of land noted in the margin, I have the honor to state that on Thursday morning, the 7th April last, a number of applicants, with their friends, came to the office. After allowing ample time for all applications to be lodged, I proceeded to deal with them in the order of their lodgment. On finding that they did not conflict I issued receipts for them, each applicant retiring as his transaction was completed. On going to that part of the counter opposite where Bishop stood (he being the next in order) he withdrew to the verandah. I asked him if he were an applicant; he replied by a shake of the head, implying, as I understood, a negative. I then observed Duffy standing at the furthest end of the counter; it appears that, being a short-set man, and standing behind the other applicants, he was hidden from my view; he tendered his application, which, on examination, I found to conflict with that just received from Archibald M'Kellar. I inquired why he did not lodge it with the others. He replied—"It cannot be helped." I may observe that, with the exception of Duffy, all were alike strangers to me.

A short time afterwards I received from Bishop & Duffy the letters which I forwarded with my communication of 19th April ultimo.

Duffy is a bona fide applicant, but a victim to apathy and lack of energy and intelligence.

Minutes on No. 26.

I do not see that anything further can be done than to inform Duffy that his selection is bad to the extent of area commensurate to the value of the lessee's improvements at the date of selection, the Minister for Lands having decided not to forfeit them. As there is no later report on their value than that of August, 1880, it is recommended that a fresh report be at once obtained.

If Duffy wishes, he can have a formal appraisalment by paying the usual fee, £6 6s.—M. A. McLEAN, 22/7/81. Submitted.

N.B.—Improvement purchase 81-14 cannot at present be granted, as applicant has exhausted his right under previous applications (Nos. 80: 31, 33, 34, 35, Hillston) it should, I think, be refused.—M. A. McLEAN.—22/7/81.

By Under Secretary for Lands:—Submitted for approval of Survey Office memorandum.—C.O., 26/7/81.

By Secretary for Lands:—Approved. At the same time I must remark that, as the lessee has exhausted his right to purchase in virtue of improvements under the provisions of the Act of 1880, his claim or application cannot be entertained; at the same time no person could select the land on which the improvements have been erected—that is to say, an area measured according to the regulations. Therefore an intelligent and reliable surveyor should report, after inspection and inquiry, the nature and value of the improvements on these portions at the date of conditional purchase, and whether they can be embraced in an area measured in conformity with the regulations.—J.H., 28/7/81.

No. 29.

Mr. M. Duffy to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Euabalong, 3 August, 1881.

In reply to your favour of the 23rd July, in reference to my claims to ballot for a portion of land applied for by me at the Hillston Land Office, upon the 7th of April, 1881, I now beg to give the following reasons for claiming same:—

First—That my application for said portion of land was actually filled up by the land agent himself the day before, which proves that he must have been perfectly aware, when he saw me in the office, which portion of land I wished to select.

Secondly—That I entered the office at the same time as the other applicants, and tendered mine immediately upon entering. Upon my doing so, amongst others, the land agent remarked "one at a time," and pushed the papers back; he then, without opening my papers, immediately proceeded to deal with Mr. M'Kellar's application; having done so, he then opened others, amongst them being mine. I may mention, that upon opening C. Davis's paper, he made the remark—"There is no competition here"; upon coming to mine, he informed me that he was very sorry, but that I was too late, as the portion had already been selected by Mr. M'Kellar. I wish also to state that Mr. M'Kellar was in the land office with the land agent for at least two hours the previous evening.

I wish to point out that we were all waiting at the door of the land office for at least fifteen minutes before it was opened, and all entered at the same moment; this fact alone should have been enough to cause the land agent to open all the papers before he dealt with any one of them.

I was subsequently sent a notice to attend at the land office upon the 7th July, but upon arrival there I found that the ballot had been postponed. All these journeys, I beg most respectfully to point out, cost a lot of money, which, being but a poor man, I can ill afford.

Taking all these facts into consideration, I feel that I am justly entitled to a ballot, and feel sure that you will admit that my case is a very hard one.

I have, &c.,

MARK DUFFY.

B. S. LEVICK,

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Hillston.

Sir,

29 September, 1881.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 81 acres 2 roods, which adjoins my conditional purchase or freehold property of 544 acres, upon which I am now residing, or upon which I have resided for three years; and I herewith tender the sum of £20 7s. 6d., being a deposit at the rate of five shillings (5s.) per acre on the area for which I apply.

This is the first selection made by me in virtue of my conditional purchase or freehold of 544 acres.

Description.

County of Dowling, parish of Lachlan, 81½ acres, across the road from my conditional purchase, being western portion of No. 13, being balance of Archibald McKellar's application, dated 7th April, 1881. My original conditional purchase being embraced in Nos. 5 and 8.

Minute on No. 33.

The applicant was informed that the land now applied for was already under application by Archibald McKellar (81-35). He replied that Archibald McKellar's application could be satisfied from the eastern side of the portion. I then received it, subject to the approval of the Minister.—B.S.L.

The Crown Lands Agent, Hillston, to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Crown Lands Office, Hillston, 1 October, 1881.

I have the honor to state that, in accordance with instructions contained in your letter, dated 2nd September, 1881, I notified Mr. Mark Duffy and Archibald McKellar that the conflicting claims to portion portion No. 9, parish of Lachlan, county of Dowling, would be submitted for decision to the ballot on Thursday, 29th ultimo. In compliance with that notification, both Duffy and M'Kellar appeared in this office on the day appointed, when, on the matter being put to ballot, Archibald M'Kellar became the successful balloter.

Mark Duffy then lodged an application, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Amendment Act of 1861, for the western part of portion No. 13, parish of Lachlan, county of Dowling. I then pointed out that the land in question formed part of Archibald M'Kellar's application No. 81-35. He replied that M'Kellar's application could be satisfied from the land on the eastern side of the portion 13, so as to enable him to avail himself of the provisions of the 21st section. I then received it, subject to ministerial approval.

Mr. Mark Duffy to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Euabalong, 3 October, 1881.

I beg to draw your attention to the manner in which Mr. A. M'Kellar has applied for his land situated upon the late Cargellico gold reserve, and which he has only done to prevent my taking up the balance of my land.

His application is for allotments 9, 12, and part of 13, parish of Lachlan; allotment 13 to be divided by a line running east and west, thus preventing my getting any more land by cutting me completely off; whereas if allotment 13 were divided by a north and south line he could still get his complement and allow me to get mine also. A glance at the chart will at once show you what I am saying is correct, and only fair and reasonable.

The numbers of the allotments which form my selection are 5 and 8, parish of Lachlan.

Trusting that you will favour me by giving my representations your consideration,—

No. 37.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Burgess to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Hay, 30 November, 1881.

I have the honor to report that, on the 10th instant, in accordance with your instructions, No. 55, of 22nd August, I carefully inspected and took measurements of the various buildings and other improvements situated on portions Nos. 8 and 5, parish of Lachlan, county of Dowling, which were selected by Mark Duffy (who at the time of my visit was absent from home), particulars of which are given hereunder.

Mark Duffy has been residing in the large shed and hut on portion No. 8, with his wife and family, since the date of selection, pending the settlement of the subject now in dispute. From what I could see and also learn, these improvements have scarcely if at all been used as a "wool-wash," the land being selected just about the time they would be commencing to work; and many of them have since been removed by the lessee or his manager, more particularly the wool-press and pressing gear, staging, and working plant, the latter valued by the lessee at about £160. They were removed to a site on the Lachlan River, on portion No. 2, about 2½ miles distant, at which place they are now in use.

The sketch* on opposite sheet shows the position of the various improvements; also gives some particulars as to the mode and materials used in building. I will, in addition, here make a few remarks. Large shed marked A is built of new materials, without any particular finish, the boards just used as from the saw-mill. Hut marked B is built of very old material—pine horizontals, with bark roof. Draining stages marked C are also of old material. Tramway (50 yards) composed of old posts for sleepers, with wooden rails. Whim to lift lever for wool-press out of repair. The cottage on No. 5 is all of new material, and said to have been erected for the use of a carpenter who was at the time working on the station; it has not hitherto been occupied by any one. Mark Duffy has erected fencing along west boundary of portion No. 5, also posts, ready for wiring, on the south and west side of No. 8. (See sketch.)

As to the form of measurement to embrace these improvements, I would beg to recommend that an area of 180 acres be cut off from portions Nos. 5 and 8, as shown by dotted red lines. This would be represented as follows:—

I

Mark Duffy, Hillston, 24 March, 1881, portions 5 and 8, improved to £500 at date of conditional purchase.

See enclosure

I would beg to draw attention to the fact that, should this area of 180 acres be cut off from Mark Duffy's selection, it will make the balance comparatively worthless, owing to its dividing the selection and reducing the area, which he is now unable to increase, the surrounding land being alienated; and from my knowledge of the soil, climate, and general capabilities of the land for pastoral purposes, a living could not be made off it.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD J. BURGESS,
Licensed Surveyor.

N.B.—I was under the impression that the land was selected in November, 1880; hence the error made in stating that the wool-wash could not have been used, or but little, as such. It is most probable that all of the wool from the 1880 clip that required washing was done here.—EDWARD J. BURGESS.

Distance travelled to make inspection from and to nearest work, nearly 40 miles.—E.J.B.

With reference to the instructions which issued to you on the 25th August last, for the appraisalment of the value of the improvements on a portion of land conditionally purchased by Mr. Mark Duffy, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to furnish your award in the case without any further delay.

Report furnished; letter of 30th November, 1881.—E. J. BURGESS, 10/12/81.

No. 39.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

The plan of portions Nos. 5 and 8, parish of Lachlan, included in Mark Duffy's conditional purchase 81-28, was accepted on the 13th October, 1880. At date of survey—June to August, 1880—portion 8 was improved by wool-wash, wool-house, &c., to the extent of £193; present value, £106. The enclosed report by Licensed-Surveyor Burgess goes to show that, prior to the date of conditional purchase, portion 5 was improved to the extent of £50 by a weather-board cottage and fencing. The portions formed part of a reserve from conditional sale within the Cargellico Lake Gold-field, proclaimed on the 22nd May, 1873, and thrown open to conditional purchase under the 14th clause of the Act of 1861, on the 25th October, 1880.

As it has been decided already by Mr. Secretary Hoskins that the provisions of the 12th clause of the Act of 1880, under which applicant made his claim, and stated his willingness to pay for the improvements, do not apply to lands withdrawn from reserves of the character above-named, there appears to be no alternative but to declare the conditional purchase void, as being for measured land improved to the extent of over £40.

£19 16s. paid as 10 per cent. deposit on the supposed value of the improvements should, it is recommended, also be refunded.

If this recommendation is approved of, conditional purchase 81-142, on the 29th September, 1881, by Mark Duffy, for 81½ acres under the 21st clause should also be declared void; and in any case it should be declared void, being for land on the opposite side of a frontage road to the original conditional purchase.

Mr. F. Cumming to The Chief Commissioner.

[Urgent.]

Dear Sir,

105, Pitt-street, Sydney, 13 March, 1882.

I forward herewith a letter from my client, Mark Duffy, explanatory of his case, and request that I may be furnished with a voucher for refund of 10 per cent. on value of improvements, £230 5s., paid on application by him.

The land having been improved by my client to the extent of £400, and the fact of his having been threatened with legal proceedings by the lessee, necessitate very prompt action; I have therefore the honor to request that you will deal with the matter with as little delay as possible.

I have, &c.,

FREDERICK CUMMING,
Agent for Mark Duffy.

[Enclosure A to No. 40.]

Mr. Mark Duffy to Mr. F. Cumming.

Dear Sir,

Lake Cargellico, New South Wales, 2 March, 1882.

I have been strongly advised to place the matter of my conditional purchase (my right to which is disputed by the lessee of the run) in your hands, and as you will see the question is one of vital importance to me, having already expended £400 on the land, the loss of which would simply mean ruin to me; and from the character you bear with several of the leading business people here, I feel I can leave the matter with confidence in your hands. The facts of the case I will give as clearly as possible. The parish of Lachlan, as per plan D 122, 1841 roll, formed part of the Lake Cargellico Gold-field Reserve, and which reserve, so far as the above parish was concerned, was revoked in December, 1880.

On

Hillston,
C.P. 81-28, 544
acres, 24th
March, 1881,
Mark Duffy.

On the 24th March, 1881, I selected at the Hillston Office 544 acres, being measured portions Nos. 5 and 8. The former was improved (according to the valuation on the plan) to the amount of £36 17s., and the latter to £193 8s., together £230 5s. The agent told me that these being improved blocks I would have to pay a deposit of 10 per cent. on the value set down, and the balance, whatever that might be, when the true value was decided by appraisement, as provided by the 12th section of the Lands Act of 1880. I accordingly paid the amount, as per copy of receipt herewith. On the 1st March (yesterday) Mr. D. E. M'Kellar, who is manager for his uncle, served me with a written "notice to quit my selection and all improvements thereon. I have received no notice of any kind either from the Department or the agent at Hillston that my conditional purchase is or is likely to be voided. How is it possible for the Government to cancel it? The land was gazetted as open for any one to select. The improvements were put on while the land was a "gold-field reserve." The regulations of the Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880, published in the Government Gazette of 29th May of that year, distinctly state that improvements made by lessees upon reserves from lease or from conditional sale shall not confer a right to purchase in virtue thereof. From this it is plain the lessee can have no claim whatever either to the land or improvements. With reference to selecting improved lands, the 12th section of the abovementioned Act specially provides that when the temporary reservation of any lands shall be revoked, the land upon which any improvements not less than 20s. per acre in value are made may, notwithstanding their existence, be conditionally purchased, and that 10 per cent. of the supposed value shall be paid on application, and the balance within three months of the Gazette notice of the appraised value of same. This I am willing and prepared to do. I have paid my money on the land in good faith, and have expended, I may say, my all on it; and now in the eleventh hour the lessee tells me to clear off.

*As per copy enclosed.

Be good enough to let me hear from you as soon as possible, as I am very anxious about it. I will pay any charge you like to make, in meantime enclose £1 note.
I have, &c.,
MARK DUFFY.

[Enclosure B to No. 40.]

Mr. D. E. M'Kellar to Mr. Mark Duffy.

Sir,

Wooyeo, 1 March, 1882.

Having been instructed that, by the authority of the Minister for Lands, your selection on this run has been declared void, I have to request that you will at once give up possession of all the land included in your application, as well as the buildings and other improvements thereon, belonging to the owner of this station, Mr. Duncan M'Kellar.

I am also further instructed to inform you that, should you neglect to comply with this notice, legal steps will at once be taken to eject you, and recover heavy damages for wilful trespass.

I have, &c.,

The Chief Commissioner to Mr. F. Cumming.

Sir, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 15 March, 1882.

With reference to your letter of 13th instant, relative to Mr. M. Duffy's selections noted in the margin, I am directed to apprise you that, in view of a report from the Survey Office showing that, under a decision of the late Minister for Lands, the provisions of the 12th clause of the Act of 1880, under which Mr. Duffy made his claim and stated his willingness to pay for the improvements, do not apply to reserves from conditional sale within gold-fields, subsequently thrown open to selection under the 14th clause of the Act of 1861, Sir John Robertson has decided that the selection 81-28 must be declared void, as being for measured land improved to the extent of over £40, and that the additional selection 81-142 must also be declared void, as being dependent thereon, and as being for land on the opposite side of a frontage road to the original conditional purchase.

Refund vouchers for £136 and £20 7s. 6d.

Consequent upon the foregoing decision, I have to send you the accompanying refund vouchers for the deposit money paid on the selections referred to.

The Treasury has been instructed to refund the amount paid as deposit on the value of the improvements.

Mr. F. Cumming to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir, 105, Pitt-street, Sydney, 31 March, 1882.

I have honor to acknowledge receipt of your favour informing me of the voidance of Mark Duffy's conditional purchase noted in the margin, on account of the land having been previously improved by the lessee.

I crave your earnest consideration on behalf of my client Duffy, who has erected improvements, principally fencing, clearing, and building, to the value of £500 at the least; and in view of this fact I now submit an amendment upon the design of the surveyor, for the measurement of the 180 acres in virtue of improvements, whereby justice will be done without sacrificing the interests of either party, each being allowed the land upon which his improvements stand, or very nearly so.

The enclosed rough tracing has been made from the design forwarded to the department by the surveyor.

437—C

The

The whole of the fencing surrounding portions 5 and 8, which form the conditional purchase of Mark Duffy, is his property, having been erected by him, and he is now anxious to secure the balance of portion 8, and also the balance of portion 5, which he could do were the design of the surveyor slightly modified, that is to say, that if instead of the proposed portion of 180 acres for improvements being measured 75 chains back from the river, as shown by red broken lines on tracing, that it be measured only 60 chains back from the river (which will be in strict accordance with the regulations), as shown by black broken lines on tracing, and that my client be allowed to apply for the balances of portions 5 and 8 (paying subdivision fees), which he will then be able to hold on account of the 5-chain strip which will make them adjoin.

I am sure the advantage to both parties will be apparent to the Department, which I feel sure would be unwilling to ignore the claims of the selector, whose case is a very hard one.

My reasons for considering that my client should receive special and favourable consideration are, that since 16th March, 1880 (over twelve months) he had never been warned by the Department not to proceed with improvements, the consequence of which is that the selection is wholly fenced. In the second place, when he applied to the local land office he was told that he might purchase the improvements, and his deposit of 10 per cent. was accepted, and his occupation of the selection, with the buildings thereon, was in every way bona fide, as the Department was not prepared to accept a subdivision fee, as the land was sold to Duffy under the provisions of the 12th clause.

If the land agent made an error which was liable to lead to so much trouble and annoyance, it is reasonable that some compensation should be afforded the selector, at all events it would be a gracious act on the part of the Department to afford the applicant the small reparation which I have suggested, namely, to allow him to select the balance of portions 5 and 8 with the strip of 5 chains to make them adjoin.

The treatment that Mr. Duffy has experienced at the hands of the Government, and the manner in which he has been misled for twelve months is, I must say, anything but creditable, and if his purchase had been made from a private vendor, legal proceedings would have long ere this been taken to enforce a performance of the contract.

I am averse to advising any client to go to law, but am perfectly certain that if this case were taken to the Supreme Court, the selection of Mark Duffy would be upheld. When he made application for these portions and paid 10 per cent. on supposed value of improvements, he contracted a title thereto which cannot be annulled in this arbitrary manner. Had applicant been met, at time he selected the land, with the objection that as the land was improved to over £1 per acre he could not select the improved part, he would have paid subdivision fee and applied for the unimproved part at once. Whether the object of the land agent was to favour the squatter I will not say, but what opinion would an impartial judge form, when the effect of this wrong information is to ruin the selector, and prevent the squatter from losing any part of his run? The surveyor seems to have inhaled the adverse atmosphere, and where he could perfectly well have forwarded a design of a portion of a 180 acres in virtue of the improvements, to extend only 60 chains back from the river, he accommodates the lessee by proposing that it be measured some few chains further back, on purpose to cut the selector off from his improvements on each side.

It is too bad that a selector should be allowed to purchase improved land and then told twelve months after that he cannot have it, and then that he should be cut off from that which he could have.

FREDERICK CUMMING,

Agent for Mark Duffy.

Mark Duffy v. D. M'Kellar.

* See No. 47.

THE enclosed letter (Conditional Sales, 82-2,506 *correspondence), on behalf of M. Duffy, requests that an area embracing the lessee's improvements on portions 5 and 8, as shown by blue edging on tracing enclosed, may be measured with a depth of 60 chains, so that the balance of those portions may adjoin, and that thus M. Duffy may be able to apply for such balance as one conditional purchase.

In view of the fact that Duffy conditionally purchased these portions under the provisions of the 12th clause of the Act of 1880, but his conditional purchase was afterwards declared void (clause 12 not applying in this case—See decision on Miscellaneous, 81-23,049, enclosed), and that he has apparently made improvements on the land which he now seeks to be allowed to conditionally purchase, it is submitted that the measurement to embrace the lessee's improvements should not exceed 60 chains in depth, and that upon payment of £7 2s. 6d., cost of subdivision, he be allowed to conditionally purchase the land, as shown by pink tint, if then available.

The case referred to in the attached telegram is one of great hardship to the selector, Mark Duffy, who requests that the land now in dispute may be withdrawn from lease on account of the lessee having served him with a Supreme Court writ.

Duffy applied for the land in perfect good faith, and paid the usual 10 per cent. deposit on supposed value of improvements, but his purchases were recently voided, and he now begs that the Department will protect him from the loss he is likely to sustain in the present action with the squatter.

Mr. F. Cumming to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

105, Pitt-street, Sydney, 3 June, 1882.

On behalf of Mark Duffy, I have the honor to request that the area embraced by his conditional purchase application may be withdrawn from lease, on the following grounds, viz., that the reserve was revoked and thrown open to conditional purchase, and the applicant's deposit, together with a further deposit of 10 per cent. on the supposed value of improvements, were received by the land agent.

Secondly: That at the date of Duffy's application the reserve upon which he selected was held to be one which came under the provisions of the 12th clause of the Act of 1880, which is proved by the fact that Mr. Secretary Hoskins' opinion that such was not the case was given subsequently to the date of my client's application.

Thirdly. That, although the Minister decided that the application was a bad one so many months ago, the said application was only declared void on 15th March last, and that between the date of his application and the date of voidance of his conditional purchase no intimation was sent him to the effect that his application was or might be a bad one, consequently he fenced in the greater part of both portions (i.e. 5 and 8), which together made up his conditional purchase.

As the lessee has issued a writ against the selector in this case, and he has already lost time and money over this land, and his losses are likely to be still greater in consequence of this Supreme Court action, I most respectfully request that the Minister for Lands will use the power vested in him and withdraw the disputed area from lease, to prevent the squatter from having things all his own way as he has had up to the present time.

Petition by the Inhabitants of Cargellico.

Presented by Mr. Henry H. Cooke, M.L.A.

WE the undersigned selectors, merchants, hotel-keepers, and inhabitants of the township of Cargellico and the surrounding neighbourhood, having heard with regret that upon representations made to you, you have been pleased to declare void certain selections made upon the late Cargellico Gold-field Reserve, in consequence of certain improvements said to exist thereon, and that acting upon such voidance the lessee of the run has issued Supreme Court writs against the selectors, your petitioners would urgently pray that you may be pleased to annul such voidance, or withdraw the areas in dispute from pastoral lease until a thorough inquiry has been made, both with reference to the value of improvements and the general merits of each case, for the following reasons:—

- 1st. That if the voidance of the areas in question is confirmed, and the actions at law continued, it must inevitably ruin the selectors, some of whom have large families dependent on them.
- 2nd. That the selectors above referred to are bona fide men, who paid their money to the Government in good faith, with a view of making homes for their families, and that in nearly every case your petitioners believe the improvements to be under the value of £40, as per particulars of each case, as contained in the memoranda attached hereto.
- 3rd. Your petitioners would further respectfully urge, in the interest of the Colony, the necessity existing for a special and searching investigation as to the way in which the Land Laws of the Colony have been employed or applied in regard to the Lake Cargellico Gold-field Reserve, recently thrown open for selection, and would further point out the fact, that since the date of revocation there has been nearly 7,000 acres selected by station employes, i.e., D. E. McKellar, A. McKellar, Thomas Hanly, Thomas Duffy, John Bowman, E. Bowman, Edward Townsend, Barnard Gormly, William West, P. Reynolds, and Allen M'Innes. These selectors, who are known to be in the employ of the lessee of the run, occupy together with pre-emptive leases nearly 20,000 acres of the best land contained in the reserve above referred to, the survey of which alone cost the country some £2,000.
- 4th. Your petitioners would further respectfully urge that you may be pleased to exercise the powers conferred by the 13th section of an Act of Parliament, 43 Victoria No. 29, in refusing to sell any lands by virtue of improvements contained within the late Cargellico Gold-field Reserve, until you may be satisfied that such improvements were constructed for the purpose contemplated by the Act. Your petitioners have no hesitation in stating positively that such improvements were placed upon the choicest spots with a view of barring selection and stopping settlement. In proof of this statement, your petitioners would refer you to the fact, that while the reserve was actually being surveyed previous to revocation, no less than eight tanks were hurriedly put down, not more than 1 mile intervening between each, and all within a distance of 3 miles of the lake.
- 5th. That in view of the difficulties explained in the preceding paragraphs with which the bona fide selector has to contend, intimidates many from taking up land here, retarding settlement, thus not only injuring the neighbourhood but also affecting the revenue of the Colony.
- 6th. In view of the facts stated in the foregoing petition, your memorialists earnestly pray that, in justice to themselves and to the general public, you may be pleased to grant their request; and your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

PORTIONS 9, 12, and part of 13, parish of Lachlan, applied for by Archibald M'Kellar, under the 14th clause (conditional purchase 81-35 of 7th April, 1881), are situated on both sides of the main road from Hillston to Forbes.

It is therefore recommended that applicant be allowed to hold portion 9 of 328 acres, with a refund on 312 acres (portion 12 and part of 13); or his application may be allowed for 312 acres (portion 12 and part of 13, with a refund on portion 9 of 328 acres, or are fund on the whole conditional purchase.

If the conditional purchaser decides to accept the second course suggested, the form of subdivision of portion 13 as shown by red broken lines on tracing enclosed is submitted for approval.

The cost of subdivision of portion 13 (if required) is £3 2s. 6d.; £2 15s. only has been paid.

CHARLES E. FINCH,
(For Surveyor General).

24 October, 1882.

Minutes on No. 61.

By Surveyor General:—Since the foregoing memorandum was written the accompanying letter (Conditional Sales 82-6,805, correspondence), asking for refund on the grounds of improvements, has been received, though there is nothing but applicant's statement to show the existence of such improvements beyond a log fence, valued at £15 by the surveyor, on portion 9. There is little doubt that he will avail himself of the refund on the whole conditional purchase to be offered, on the ground stated in previous memorandum. It is therefore recommended that the conditional purchase be declared void.—CHARLES E. FINCH, for Surveyor-General, 24/10/82. Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales.

By Chief Commissioner:—For refund as recommended.—A.O.M., 21/11/82.

Voiding noted; papers may be put away at present.—R.M., 15/1/83. Conditional Sales Branch.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 22 December, 1882.

Referring to your letter of 28th August last, applying, on behalf of Mr. McKellar, for refund of deposit on his selection noted in the margin, on the ground that the land applied for embraces valuable improvements, I have to inform you that the only improvements on the land mentioned in the surveyor's report are represented by a log fence, valued at £15, on portion 9.

I have however to state that, as the selections applied for are situated on both sides of the main road from Hillston to Forbes, consequently the whole area desired is not available, the request for refund of deposit is now acceded to.

Enclosed is a refund voucher which, when properly signed and forwarded to the Treasury, will enable the applicant to obtain refund of the deposit money.

No. 73.

Messrs. Jones & Co. to Mr. J. McElhone, M.P.

Dear Sir,

Post Office Store, Lake Cargellico, 9 January, 1883.

Having for many months noticed the policy pursued by you in Parliament with reference to the land question, as well as having had the privilege of hearing you address the electors of East Sydney some five weeks ago, we feel that you are the man to whom we may safely refer what we consider one of the hardest cases, and where the greatest amount of injustice has been perpetrated under the present land laws that has ever been brought to light. In bringing this matter under your notice, we wish it to be understood that it is not out of any disrespect for our local Member, Mr. Loughnan, who is held in the highest esteem here, and is our own personal friend, but we feel it is scarcely fair to bring him in direct opposition to his neighbours if it can be avoided; and we are sure he will be only too glad to give you all the assistance in his power.

The case to which we now specially refer is that of Mark Duffy, who, together with his wife, had, after many years hard toil on the stations in this district, succeeded in scraping together some £600 or £700; but who now, by the decision of the Supreme Court last month, in the case of M'Kellar v. Duffy, is turned off his selection, with his wife and children, a ruined and broken-hearted man, with nothing but the Insolvent Court before him, and this after he has expended £400 and two years labour in improving the land, and making, as he thought, a home for his family.

The circumstances under which Duffy selected are as follows:—A large tract of rich agricultural land, some 80,000 acres, was reserved in 1873 as a gold-field. In 1880 the Government decided to revoke the reserve. While it was being surveyed the lessee hurried on a lot of improvements—huts, tanks, yards, &c.—to prevent selection (as his late manager, Mr. Brewer, swore in the Supreme Court, and offered to produce M'Kellar's own letters in verification). It would appear that at this time the Government were of opinion, in common with the public, that land so improved, that is, while the land was reserved, and after the passing of the Act of 1880, could be conditionally purchased, and from this view gazetted the blocks so improved on the Cargellico Gold-field Reserve as being open to selection. The result of this was that Duffy selected two of these blocks, i.e., portions 5 and 8, parish Lachlan, county Dowling. The Department not only were aware that improvements of the alleged value of £190 odd existed at the date of selection, but also actually sold these identical improvements to Duffy, and demanded a deposit of 10 per cent., i.e., £19, which Duffy paid. The issue is that M'Kellar served Duffy with a writ for trespass, with the result we have stated. The question is, will the Government do anything to compensate this man's family for the wrong done them? If a business man enter into a contract, will not the law compel him to carry it out? In this case the Government have allowed Duffy to acquire a title or right to occupy certain land, which turns out bad in law, why should they not compensate him? There were two other cases of a similar kind decided against the selector at the same time, but as in both cases the selectors are single men, we do not now refer to their cases. There are three other cases by the same plaintiff, M'Kellar, lessee of the Cargellico Run, which stand adjourned till March. These are cases which have been encouraged by an excessive valuation of the lessee's old improvements by the surveyor, Mr. Carter.

We trust you will see your way to bring the case before Parliament, and we feel sure both Mr. Loughnan and Mr. Coonan, to whom we are writing, will support you in every possible way.

Trusting you may long live to enjoy the confidence and esteem which your love of justice has won for you throughout the length and breadth of the Colony,—

We have, &c.,

With reference to your letter of the 9th ultimo, addressed to Mr. M'Elhone, by whom it has been presented to the Minister for Lands, urging on behalf of Mr. Mark Duffy that he should be compensated by the Government for losses which he has sustained consequent upon the action taken with respect to his conditional purchases noted in the margin, I have the honor, by direction of the Minister, to inform you that it is not apparent that any steps for reimbursing the selector's losses consequent upon his having made an illegal selection can be taken by the Government.

THE CASE OF MARK DUFFY.

REPORT.

THE SELECT COMMITTEE of the Legislative Assembly, appointed on the 28th November, 1883,—“with power to send for persons and papers, to inquire into and report upon the case of Mark Duffy, a selector in the Hillston Land District,” and to whom was referred on the 5th February, 1884, “the Return to Order, ‘Mark Duffy’s Conditional Purchase’,”—have agreed to the following Report:—

1. Your Committee having examined the witnesses named in the List,* *See List, page 5. whose evidence will be found appended hereto, find as follows:—

- (1) That Mark Duffy applied at Hillston, on the 24th of March, 1881, to conditionally purchase 544 acres of unimproved Crown Lands, being measured portions 5 and 8 in the county of Dowling, parish of Lachlan, but at the same time paid to the Land Agent nineteen pounds six shillings and tenpence on account of improvements on the said land, being ten per centum on the value of such improvement at his estimation.
- (2) That on the 25th of March, 1881, he applied for a pre-lease of 1,600 acres, in virtue of the above-mentioned conditional purchase.
- (3) That in reply to Mark Duffy’s inquiry as to whether he could legally select the before-named improved land, the Land Agent at Hillston informed him that he could do so.
- (4) That Mr. Hoskins, Secretary for Lands, subsequently decided that the selection was bad ab initio, being made on a cancelled mining reserve, on which class of lands improvements do bar selection.
- (5) That between the time of the selection being made and the time of the Minister’s adverse decision, Mark Duffy had expended a sum of over four hundred pounds on the land.
- (6) That after a long and expensive lawsuit, Duffy lost his selection and all he was worth, in his endeavour to prove his right to the land.

2. Your Committee are of opinion that a great hardship has been caused to Duffy, through the mistake of the Government Land Agent at Hillston, who unintentionally misled Duffy, by receiving his money and informing him that he could legally select land which was not open for selection. Your Committee therefore, under the circumstances, recommend this case to the favourable consideration of the Government.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON

THE CASE OF MARK DUFFY.

FRIDAY, 25 APRIL, 1884.

Present:—

MR. LOUGHNAN,

MR. SPRING,

MR. STOKES.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

William T. Coonan, Esq., M.P., called in and examined on oath:—

1. Chairman.] You are solicitor for Mr. Mark Duffy, I believe? No; Mr. J. T. Dunn, of Forbes, is Mr. Duffy's solicitor, and I am acting as Mr. Dunn's agent in the matter. I have the whole of the conduct of the case, and know all about it. W. T. Coonan, Esq., M.P.
25 April, 1884.
2. Will you give the Committee a history of the case, as far as you can? It appears there was a reserve called the Cargellico Mining Reserve; this reserve was notified in the Government Gazette on the 22nd May, 1873; it was revoked and gazetted as open to selection on the 25th October, 1880. Before it was thrown open to selection the Lands Department had it surveyed into measured blocks. Before the date of the revocation they sent surveyors there and had it cut up into blocks of from 640 acres each downwards. From the facts of the case, as borne out by the evidence, and pretty well admitted by the plaintiff, the lessee—that is, Mr. M'Kellar—it appears that as soon as the portions were incasured by the surveyor, the lessee of the run caused improvements to be placed upon those measured portions. After the revocation, on the 24th March, 1881, Mark Duffy, under the 14th section of the Act of 1861, took up a measured portion of 544 acres. I may mention that this land, after it had been divided under the 12th section of the "Lands Acts Further Amendment Act of 1880," Mark Duffy lodged his application. Under ordinary circumstances he would have had to pay only 5s. per acre deposit; but in addition to that sum, which he did pay, he had to pay the sum of £19 6s 10d., at the request of the land agent, as a deposit at the rate of 10 per cent., according to the provision of the 12th section of the Act, the value of certain improvements which were stated to be upon the portion of land which he had selected. This amount was paid by Mark Duffy. Duffy's selection consisted of portions 5 and 8, on what was known as Lake Cargellico Gold-field Reserve, in the land district of Hillston, parish of Lachlan, county Dowling. Duffy remained in peaceful possession from March, 1881, the date of his selection, until the 10th of May, 1882, when a writ was issued against him, at the suit of Duncan M'Kellar, the lessee of the run, for trespasses on Wooyeo Station, on which the selections were made. Portions 5 and 8 consisted of 514 acres, and were selected on the 24th March, 1881; and 81½ acres, in the same parish of Lachlan, county Dowling, were taken up under the 21st section of the Act, on the 29th September, 1881. There were two lots. The one of 544 acres was the original conditional purchase, and the 81½ acres was an additional conditional purchase. Portions 5 and 8 formed two of the measured portions. An action was then brought, on the 10th May, 1882, against Mark Duffy, in the Supreme Court. The Court held that the improvements having been put on before the actual revocation of the reserve, the 12th section of the Act did not apply, and that the Government had consequently made a mistake in throwing this land open to selection, selection, which they knew was improved to the extent of £1 an acre. The result of the action was that a verdict of 40s. was, by consent, entered for the lessee. This carried costs. The lessee's costs were taxed and allowed at £315 7s. 5d.; the defendant's costs were not taxed, but could have been if necessary, and they amounted to about £120. This was one of six cases brought by the lessee of the run against selectors who had taken up land, under the 12th section of the Act, under precisely similar circumstances as Mark Duffy took up his. The lessee, of course, rested his whole case upon the fact that the selection was barred by reason of improvements. In three of the cases the verdicts were for the selectors. In two of these the lessee consented to a verdict for the selectors; in the other case the Jury found for the selector. In Duffy's case, Duffy had not, in the opinion of the Court, and in the opinion of his counsel, a leg to stand upon, for this reason—that his paying the £19 6s. 10d. showed that there were improvements on the land to the value of over £40. But the land was thrown open to selection, and advertised as open for selection by the Government. The Government opened a land office there and sent a land agent; and this land agent, as Mr. Duffy will tell you, told Duffy, on being asked the question, that the land was open to selection; and after Duffy had paid the 5s. deposit the land agent asked him for £19 6s. 10d., being 10 per cent. of the value of improvements. I may mention, for the information of the Committee, that I can swear that Mr. Levick, the land agent, was subpoenaed by me, and was in Sydney at the trial, and his evidence was verified by me. In his evidence he informed me that he was quite aware, under instructions from the Government, that this land was improved, and that he made up the percentage himself, and asked Duffy for the amount.

WEDNESDAY, 21 MAY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. ROSS, | MR. SPRING.

G. C. LOUGHNAN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Mark Duffy called in and examined on oath:—

- Mr. M. Duffy. 3. Chairman.] You are the applicant in the case which has been referred to this Committee for inquiry? Yes.
- 21 May, 1884. 4. You free-selected some land at Hillston, on the Cargellico Mining Reserve, on the 24th March, 1881? Yes.
5. Were there any improvements on the land when you selected it? Yes, they were valued on the map to be worth £193, and I paid a deposit upon them equal to 10 per cent. of that amount.
6. Did you ask the land agent of the district if the land was open to selection? Yes, and he told me it was, and that I could take it up by paying 10 per cent. of the value of the improvements on it.
7. I suppose you considered the improvements to be worth that amount? They were not worth all that; many of them were taken away by the lessee.
8. But at the time you selected were the improvements worth that sum? I do not think there was quite that amount of improvements on the land. I wanted to have them appraised again, and was willing to pay the balance.
9. Did you consider there was £40 worth of improvements? Yes.
10. And you paid a deposit of £19 6s. 10d., being 10 per cent. of the estimated value of the improvements on the land? Yes.
11. Are there any circumstances you would like to bring under the notice of the Committee which you consider entitle your case to consideration? My grass right was gazetted. I went in to Hillston to see the plans—to see that it was all right.
12. On what date did you take that up? On the day following the selection. He told me he would give me a copy of the map after paying 5s.; I gave the money to Mr. O'Donnell, and he paid the land agent. The copy was sent to me.
13. You took up 116 acres as grass right, adjoining your original selection? Yes.
14. And after all this had taken place, there was some communication made to you to the effect that the improvements on the land barred selection? Not by the Government.
15. Was it made by any one? No; I paid for the improvements.
16. Did you pay for the whole of the improvements? No, I paid only at the rate of 10 per cent. I had to fence the land, on account of M'Kellar giving me notice that my stock were trespassing on his land, and he would have me up.
17. Mr. Ross.] Was that the pre-emptive portion? No, the conditional purchase.
18. Chairman.] It was a measured portion? Yes.
19. When did it first come to your knowledge that there was any dispute about the selection you had taken up? When I was served with a writ by Mr. M'Kellar.
20. How long was that after you had taken up the selection? Close upon two years—better than eighteen months, I know. During that time I was making improvements. I put up a fence, brought some of the land under cultivation, and made a garden.
21. Taking into consideration your own labour and that of any one else you employed, what amount of money do you consider you spent on the selection, from the time you took it up until you received the writ? When I went there I had about £700 in money; besides money I had 600 sheep, 12 horses, and 15 head of cattle.
22. Out of the money I suppose you paid your deposits when taking up the selection and the grass right? Yes; I lost a great deal of time in running about; I paid as much as £30 per ton for wire.
23. At all events you had the amount of money and stock when you first went to select? Yes.
24. Did you lose all that? Yes.
25. Stock and all? Yes, I had to sell the stock for little or nothing, to see if I could get the ground.
26. Was much of the money spent in paying law expenses? A great deal of it went in law expenses. I made three trips to Hillston; I had to come to Sydney, and was delayed five weeks waiting for the trial.
27. After the service of the writ, there was a Supreme Court action in Sydney? Yes.
28. What was the result of that action? The Supreme Court ruled that £40 worth of improvements barred selection, and I had to clear out; I had two months given me to clear out. 29.

29. Did not Mr. Hoskins, who was then Minister for Lands, first of all decide that £40 worth of improve- Mr. M. Duffy.
ments barred selection? There had been a case tried before that, and it had become law.
30. Mr. Ross.] Did Mr. Hoskins decide in your favour or against you? It was Judge Windeyer who 21 May, 1884 decided my case.
31. But was the Minister's decision against you or for you? I cannot say.
32. On what block of land were the improvements made? On No. 8 principally.
33. What was the value of the improvements placed on No. 8? £193.
34. There were two blocks included in your selection, one of 324 acres and one of 224 acres, making 544 acres in all? Yes.
35. What was the value of the improvements on No. 5? There were no improvements on No. 5 at the time.
36. Were the whole of the improvements made on No. 8 only? What were shown on the map were, but they were erecting a cottage on No. 5.
37. What I want to know is this: on what block were the improvements when you took up the land?
On block No. 8.
38. And what was the value of the improvements on that block? £193.
39. Then in reality there were no improvements on No. 5? Yes, but they were not valued on the map; there was a cottage which was not finished.
40. A memorandum by the Surveyor-General, which is numbered 39 in the printed papers, says that portion 5 was improved to the extent of £50, by a weatherboard cottage and fencing? Yes, but that improvement was not shown on the map when I took the land up.
41. You mean that they put the improvements on after the land was surveyed? No.
42. After you selected it? No, before I selected it.
43. Chairman.] You had a ballot about this land, had you not? Yes, that was over portion 13.
44. The additional or conditional purchase? Additional.
45. You lost that? Yes; the ballot was for portion No. 9, and after I lost the ballot I selected portion No. 13, which was left, 81½ acres; it was left by Duncan M'Kellar.
46. Mr. Ross.] When you first took up the land you say the land agent told you there was no objection to your conditionally purchasing it? Yes, he did.
47. On that ground he took your money? Yes.
48. How did he happen to take from you the 10 per cent. deposit, the £19 6s. 10d.? That was 10 per cent. of the supposed value of the improvements.
49. When you took up the ground you must have known there were improvements on it which would bar selection? No, the land agent told me I could select by paying for the improvements. It was a gold-mining reserve which had been revoked.
50. It has been elicited in evidence or in the correspondence that the improvements consisted of a cottage and a woolshed—they would be necessary for carrying on the work of a station? M'Kellar did not wash there; he put those improvements on to secure the ground; he washed 4 or 5 miles higher up the river.
51. You paid £19 6s. 10d. deposit on the estimated value of the improvements, and on that ground you believed that your conditional purchase was correct? Yes, he told me distinctly that I could not get the ground without paying for the improvements.
52. Was any application lodged with the land agent for the purchase of the ground by virtue of the improvements on it? No, I am not aware that there was.
53. Did you hear that such an application had been put in? I heard so many things.
54. But can you not say whether or not you heard that such application had been put in? I cannot say that I did hear it.
55. Do you know there is an application in now? No.
56. How far is the station where the lessee resides, the head station, from this land? About a mile.
57. Do any of his paddocks, his purchased property, adjoin the land which you took up? I suppose the station is purchased.
58. Does that purchased property adjoin the piece of land in dispute? Yes.
59. You say the station is about a mile from the land you selected? Yes, about a mile.
60. Is there any fence dividing the properties? Yes, I put up a dividing fence.
61. Where you selected there was no fence? There was a fence.
62. That was there when you selected? Yes, and many years before.
63. Is it there now? Yes.
64. Is it a good fence? It never was a good fence.
65. How much per mile would you value it at? It is worth very little, because it is rotten.
66. Suppose it were your own, what value would you put upon it? About £15 per mile.

A. O. Moriarty, Esq., Chief Commissioner for Crown Lands, called in and examined on oath:—

67. Chairman.] Will you give the Committee, as concisely as you can, and as nearly as you possibly can, your knowledge of the case that has been referred to this Committee for inquiry? Yes, I think I can state it A. O.
in few words. A gold-field on the Lachlan River was revoked, I think, in the year 1881. Soon after Moriarty, Esq.
the revocation several conditional purchases were made within the revoked area; among others, a 21 May, 1884.
conditional purchase was made by Mr. Mark Duffy. The portion selected by Mr. Duffy contained some improvements, and Mr. Duffy, on the assumption—an assumption that was probably shared in by the local land agent—thought the case came within the provisions of a section of the Act passed in 1880, under which cancelled reserves on which improvements had been made were open to selection on a deposit being paid to cover the value of the improvements. He paid a deposit with respect to all the improvements on his portions. The case came before the Minister,
Mr. Hoskins, who decided—in fact it hardly admitted of question—that the clause of the Act of 1880 did not apply at all to such a case as this. About the same time an action was brought in the Supreme Court by the lessee of the run against Mr. Duffy, and either immediately after, or at the period of the action,
Mr. Duffy's agent applied to me for a refund of his deposit, stating that his case was not a tenable one, and he wished to get his deposit back. The refund was given him at his request.

A. O.
Moriarty, Esq.
21 May, 1884.

68. Is that shown in the printed papers? I am not sure, but it is unquestionably a fact. Probably the papers do show it, but I have not made myself familiar with them in the order in which they are printed.
69. Was Mr. Cumming Mr. Duffy's agent? Yes; I referred to the original papers before coming here, and I do not think I am mistaken as to this being the case referred to—it is just as I described it.
70. Mr. Duffy states that he asked the land agent if the land was open to selection, and the land agent told him he could take it up by paying 10 per cent. of the value of the improvements? I think I stated that I believed the land agent acted under the impression that the 12th section of the Act did apply in this case.
71. Mr. Spring.] Was the usual course taken by the Department on this application? I think it was; the usual routine course was observed.
72. In fact it went on in the usual way until an objection was made by M'Kellar, the lessee of the run? I think not; I think the objection on which the application was cancelled came from the Survey Department; the Survey Department had to report on the selection, as to whether it was good or bad, and submitted the facts of the case to the Minister. The other parties went to law about the case.* On turning over the printed papers I find they contain a request from Mr. Mark Duffy for a refund. Paper No. 40 is a letter from Mr. Duffy's agent to the Chief Commissioner, in which he says, "I forward herewith a letter from my client, Mark Duffy, explanatory of his case, and request that I may be furnished with a voucher for refund of 10 per cent. on value of improvements, £230 5s., paid on application by him."
73. That is for improvements? Yes.
74. I suppose that at the same time he would have made application for a refund of the purchase money of the land? The agent wrote on the 13th March, and the survey report was then in hand. The authority had then really been given for the refund of the money paid on selection, consistently with this request.
75. Had the subdivision fee been paid would it have made any difference—You see what Mr. Duffy's agent says in one of his letters to you, on page 18 of the printed papers, "I am averse to advising my client to go to law, but am perfectly certain that if this case were taken to the Supreme Court the selection of Mark Duffy would be upheld. When he made application for these portions and paid 10 per cent. on supposed value of improvements, he contracted a title thereto which cannot be annulled in this arbitrary manner. Had applicant been met, at the time he selected the land, with the objection that as the land was improved to over £1 per acre he could not select the improved part, he would have paid subdivision fee and applied for the unimproved part at once?" Had the application been made for the unimproved part, it would have become a good application in the event of the Minister upholding the selection. No doubt, under another clause of the law, if an application had been made for the unimproved part of the measured portion, and the subdivision fee paid subject to the Minister's approval, the application would have been accepted.
76. Was there any application made after that to have a subdivision if he gave up portions of his original selections? There may have been another application for part of the land, which may not have been included in the printed correspondence, as that correspondence relates specifically to the application made in 1881.†
77. I think there was another application made, in which Duffy asked to have the land measured back 60 chains instead of the full depth, so as to enable him to take his selection up, but the Minister refused to allow it? That particular form of measurement was taken exception to. I do not think the Minister disapproved of any specific application. It was asked that a greater depth should be allowed in one case than in the other, so as to surround the improvements.
78. Mr. Ross.] Do you remember whether Duffy was permitted the privilege of taking the balance of the land after allowing 100 acres for improvements—he took 544 acres, and 180 acres were all owed by virtue of improvements—was he allowed the option of taking the balance of the land? I do not think so. The application was a bad one, and a lawsuit was pending against him. I am quite certain that his agent saw me and applied for a refund of the money he had paid.
79. Mr. Spring.] I think you said the application to purchase was refused because it was a greater distance than 60 chains back? No; I said it was not refused, but that the particular form of measurement that would have had that effect was not approved. I submitted that it would be a wrong thing.
80. Mr. Ross.] When a discrepancy occurs, is not the option allowed the conditional purchaser of taking the balance? But such action would not have benefited the party, inasmuch as it would have left him with a bad title. At the same time his object might possibly have been gained by another application in a proper form.

Mr. Mark Duffy recalled and examined:—

- Mr. M. Duffy. 81. Mr. Ross.] How long were you in possession of the ground after you had selected it until you received notice from the Government that it was void? About a year and nine months.
- 21 May, 1884. 82. During that time what amount of improvements did you put on the ground? I fenced it and made a cultivation paddock, and made a garden.
83. What do you estimate the value of those improvements at? £400. M'Kellar kept giving me notice that my stock trespassed on his ground, and that he would bring an action against me. I had to get a man to draw stuff for the fence and work hard.
84. How long after you had selected was it that you were served with a writ? I suppose about a year and nine months.
85. Was that prior to or after the notice you had received the ground was void? I got the writ before I got the notice from the Lands Department. M'Kellar came to me and told me that I had better go, as I knew I had no right to the ground.
86. Did he ever warn you not to make improvements? When I first went up, I got the stuff to put up my portion of the fence, and he told me he would not fence.
87. He did not give you warning after you had made the selection? Yes, some time afterwards.

88.

* NOTE (on revision):—The agents of the lessee protested against the selection soon after it was made, on the ground of improvements, but not on the particular ground which rendered it invalid.

† NOTE (on revision):—I cannot find that any such re-selection was made, though the applicant appears to have contemplated applying afresh in this way.

88. How long afterwards? Twelve months afterwards, I should say.
89. By the end of twelve months what value of improvements had you put on the ground? I had all the fencing pretty well done by that time. There was a cultivation paddock cleared, and I had some trees to put in the garden.
90. What was the value of the improvements you had put on the ground by the end of twelve months? About £300 worth I suppose. I am no scholar, and never kept an account as I ought to have done.
91. Chairman.] What did you value your sheep and cattle and horses at? Some of the horses were worth £30 each—I had to sell them for £15. I had a good team of horses. The sheep were an average lot for a selector.
92. You had twelve horses? Yes.
93. What were they worth all round? I suppose £15 all round, taking one with another.
94. Mr. Ross.] How many cattle had you? Fourteen or fifteen head.
95. How much per head did you value them at? About £8.
96. And the sheep, what were they valued at? I suppose they were worth 8s. a head at the time.
97. How many sheep had you? 600.
98. Chairman.] You had to sell off all your stock? Yes, I had to sell everything.
99. Mr. Ross.] What did you lose by selling off? I did not get half the value of the stock—I had to sell them at any price I could get for them.
100. How much did you get for the sheep? 6s. 6d. for some; some I was not allowed to take, because it was said they were not my brand.
101. Chairman.] What did you get for the horses? I sold them to Mr. Pryor; I really forget what I got for them, but I think it was £10 a head. They were worth at least £15 a head.
102. And the cattle, what did you get for them? £6.
103. Mr. Ross.] When you went there you say you had £700—did you expend that money on the land? Not all on that ground; I had other ground.
104. How much did you spend? I spent about £400 in improving the ground I took up on the Cargellico Run.
105. Chairman.] That would leave you £300? Yes.
106. What became of that? I never made any money on the ground; it took the other money to keep my family and pay the expenses and lawyers; I was always running about.
107. Mr. Ross.] For what length of time did you reside on the land altogether? About two years, or close upon it.
108. Did you get any crop or anything off the land? I had a bit of a crop one year, but it was dry—I did not get much off.
109. Mr. Spring.] Did you derive any profit from the expenditure of money on the land—did you draw any wire and sell it for anything—did you sell a portion of a house, or the material of a house? No; I sold a bit of hay, the first crop I had, for £13.
110. The improvements you put up were of no money value to you, as you had to leave the ground? No; I asked the Court if I should be allowed to have the value of the improvements, and they said not.
111. Has the amount of your pre-lease deposit money been returned to you? Yes.

No. 12.

Mr. W. M'Ilveen, junior, to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir

Goran Lake, 26 November, 1874.

I, Wm. M'Ilveen, junior, selected 320 acres of land at Tamworth Land Office, on 30th April last. Alexander M'Ilveen also selected on the same day at the same office. The descriptions of the selections are as follows:—No. 373, William M'Ilveen, junior, 320 acres, county of Pottinger, parish of Goran, on Trinkey Downs, to the north of Colly Blue Mountain, to take in a small clump of apple-trees. No. 374, Alexander M'Ilveen, 320 acres, on Trinkey Downs, north of and adjoining part of Wm. M'Ilveen, junior's, conditional purchase of 320 acres. Mr. Surveyor Higgins told me that my selection must be cancelled, simply because I had taken a measured piece containing 121½ acres, which it appears was taken by one M'Namara since I selected the land. If so, there has never been any such person residing on it since I selected. I am bound to take the piece referred to, as I have not sufficient land without it. I am bound on the east by No. 23, a piece containing 60 acres; on the north by No. 1 conditional purchase of Melville's, containing 320 acres; on the west by a selection that Mr. Surveyor Higgins surveyed for one John Williams. He, Mr. Surveyor Higgins, also informed me that Alexander M'Ilveen's would also be cancelled, because he had not described his selection as measured. When we selected here we were not aware that any of this land was measured, and could not see any of the surveyor's pegs on account of the long grass. There was not any map of this land at Tamworth Land Office. No. 24 is piece containing 121½ acres; Nos. 25 and 26 are the two pieces taken by Alexander M'Ilveen. If they are to be cancelled, I would be very much obliged to you if you would let me know as soon as convenient.

I remain, &c.,

WM. M'ILVEEN, JUNIOR.

No. 17.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Higgins to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

19 March, 1875.

In accordance with your instructions No. 75-4 of the 2nd February, 1875, I have the honor to report that the land applied for by Alexander McIlveen had been previously surveyed in two portions of 160 acres each by Mr. Goodwin for auction sale, of which fact applicant was not aware. The same land has since been, I understand, selected by one M'Namara, and his applications are I believe in Mr. Capper's hands. Extract made and C.P. with it 74-4,927

With reference to the conditional purchase of 320 acres by William McIlveen, I have the honor to inform you that there was not a sufficient area of vacant Crown Land for this applicant. The only vacant land in the locality consisted of portion 53, parish of Howe's Hill, containing 72½ acres, which I measured for auction sale on the application of T. and W. Vivers, and the plan of which was transmitted to headquarters with my letter of the 1st December, 1874. Applicant had however effected improvements on this portion by sinking a well worth £40, and I would therefore respectfully suggest that his application for 320 acres be cancelled, and that he be allowed to select the portion No. 53 (on which his well is situated) as now measured, if he expresses a wish to do so. The plans transmitted with letters of the 27th October, 1874, will show the locality of this portion. The position of the well referred to is north-east about 15 chains from the south-west corner of the portion. I have since found out that this well was made at the time of survey; I could not, however, definitely fix its position, as I did not see it at that time. I inspected the ground for the purpose of fixing the position and reporting on the value of the well on the 7th of March, 1875.

I would respectfully suggest that, before any action be taken in the matter, this letter be forwarded to Mr. Capper, who is surveying at present in the neighbourhood, for additional information as to whether M'Namara has fulfilled the conditions of the Act as to residence and improvements.

I have, &c.,

J. J. HIGGINS.

Minutes on No. 17.

Papers 74-27,304 and 75-3,222, if connected with this conditional purchase, should be placed herewith. The description in the conditional purchase application 74-4,926 is so indefinite that this report cannot be checked.—F.W.R., 28/4/75.

Under this report the conditional purchase application (74-4,926) should be declared void, as there is not sufficient land available. The conditional purchaser should be informed that he may make another application for the only available land, viz., portion 53 of 72½ acres, parish of Howe's Hill (county of Pottinger), which land is withheld from sale (for three months) pending his reply and application.—J.S.A., 28th April, 1875.

I, JOHN ECCLES, of Breeza, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the lawful owner, by conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described, and that improvements consisting of house and shepherd's hut, and to the value of £50, have been made on such land; and I declare further, that the said land has been the bona fide residence, continuously, of myself, from the period of selection and first occupation to the present date (and that no alienation of the land has been made by me). And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial oaths and affidavits."

I am not aware of any objections likely to be made, and have sunk a well some 50 feet on rock, and made other improvements, but do not like proceeding further until I receive a reply from your Department.

I should therefore feel obliged by your causing the substance of Mr. Higgins' report to be sent to me with as little delay as possible, in order that I may know in what position I am placed in regard to the land in question.

[Enclosure to No. 23.]

William M'Ilveen, junior, to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Lake Goran, Gunnedah, 6 July, 1875.
 With reference to your letter to me of the 15th January last, relative to the conditional purchases made by my brother, Alexander M'Ilveen, and myself, and also to my letter of May last, requesting to be informed whether our applications had been approved of, we have not as yet received any reply, although we have now been more than fifteen months in occupation of the land, consequently we are unable to proceed with our improvements as we would wish to do, having everything ready on the grounds. We would therefore earnestly pray for an answer. No objection has been raised to our occupying the land by anyone. We may mention that Mr. Melville, Messrs. Vivers' superintendent at Trinkey Station, selected these portions for two men in his employment, named Michael M'Namara and Charles Collins. These men never took possession, and Mr. Melville applied to the Government for refundment of the money, evidently giving up all claim to it. We selected before them. There are two men named M'Namara and Collins now selectors on the Trinkey Station in Mr. Melville's employment, but whether they are the same persons who selected before we cannot say.

Being very awkwardly situated in every way, we would be very grateful if you will give our case your attention and grant us a reply.

I have, &c.,

WILLIAM M'ILVEEN, JUNIOR.

(For Self and Brother).

Mr. M'Ilveen should be apprised in accordance with minute on 75-6,878 A.n., and that the application of A. M'Ilveen will be dealt with in accordance with the surveyor's report.—W.B., 23/8/75.

Yes; but why was this not done when action was being taken on 75-6,878?—A.O.M., 30/8/75.

The clerk who took the action in declaring the C.P. void should have noted the papers, so that all remaining action should have been taken.—C.N., 2/9/75.

Alexander M'Ilveen, 13 section, Tamworth, 30 April, 1874, 320 acres.

With reference to your letter of the 6th July last, making inquiries respecting the conditional purchases noted in the margin, made respectively by yourself and brother, Alexander M'Ilveen,—I am directed to apprise you that the purchase made by you was declared void on account of there not being sufficient available land in the locality described to satisfy your application, to which effect you were apprised by my letter of the 20th July last, which enclosed a voucher for the refund of your deposit money.

2. I am, however, to inform you that you are at liberty to make another application for the only available land in this locality, which is comprised in portion 53 (72½ acres), parish of Howe's Hill, county of Pottinger, which was withheld from auction sale in order to afford you an opportunity of selecting it.

H. Bennett, Esq., M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Tamworth, 19/10/75.

William M'Ilveen, Trinkey Downs, Colly Blue.

I am requested by the person noted in the margin to state for your information that the applicant did, on the 13th of April, 1874, select 320 acres, under the 13th section of the Alienation Act of 1861, county of Pottinger, parish Howe's Hill. At the time M'Ilveen made the conditional purchase the grass at that season of the year was of such abundance and long it was impossible to see any peg marks, that is, if these were at that time in the ground; besides, M'Ilveen had no maps or any other means of ascertaining if the land had been taken up previously or otherwise disposed.

The facts are as follows:—The lessee of the run, finding that M'Ilveen had selected land that was measured, but omitted to state so in his application, or the number that was said to have been on a peg fourteen days subsequent to M'Ilveen taking up the land, went to the Land Office, Tamworth, and took up the same land, which on comparing the applications of M'Ilveen and Mr. Melville, it will identify the same block of land. M'Ilveen informed me that he has sunk a well at considerable cost, besides having erected a dwelling-house.

Therefore, under the circumstances detailed, I trust his case will receive your early attention, and oblige,—

Yours, &c.,
HANLEY BENNETT.

On or about 30th August last I addressed a letter to you relative to a petition forwarded to you by Messrs. W. & A. M'Ilveen, of Colly Blue, as to their selections or land taken up by them. I have received no reply to my communication.

The M'Ilveens are young men just beginning life, and have made improvements on the land intending to make it a home. They are anxious to know if their title to the land is secure, so as to be able to go to work with confidence.

Be good enough to have the papers connected with the case looked up, and kindly let me know without delay if these parties are really safe in their holding.

No. 33.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Higgins to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

3 January, 1876.

I have the honor to forward you the following report in accordance with your instructions issued to L.-S. Capper, September 10, 1875.

On the 30th April, 1874, Alexander M'Ilveen selected at Tamworth 320 acres, in the parish of Howe's Hill, and described it as "north of and adjoining part of William M'Ilveen's conditional purchase of 320 acres made that day." At the time of making this selection the land was surveyed, and Mr. M'Ilveen was not aware of the fact. The approximate position of this land is that occupied by measured portions Nos. 25 and 26, 160 acres each, in the parish of Howe's Hill.

On the 7th of May, 1874, Charles Collins selected at Tamworth 320 acres, and described it in "the parish of Howe's Hill, Nos. 25 and 26, land applied for as measured, but not offered for sale." These portions were identical, or nearly so, with the land selected by Alexander M'Ilveen on the 30th April, 1874.

Both men took possession of the land, and Collins built a small hut on No. 25, worth £1, and on finding out that M'Ilveen laid claim to the same land he was under the impression that his selection was illegal, and abandoned the selection in favour of M'Ilveen, and wishes to have his deposit money returned.

M'Ilveen, on finding that he had not described the land as measured, was under the impression that his selection was illegal, and that preference would be given to Collins, declined to make any improvements upon it, and appears to have abandoned the selection in favour of Collins.

Both parties are now willing to have their deposit money returned to them, and the land submitted to auction. I would suggest that this course might be adopted. See also my letter of January 3, 1876.

No. 34.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Higgins to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

3 January, 1876.

I have the honor to forward you the following report, in accordance with your instructions issued to L.-S. Capper, Sept. 10, 1875. On the 30th of April, 1874, at Tamworth, William M'Ilveen made a selection of 320 acres. On his taking possession he found that the land in the locality had been already measured, of which he was ignorant when he made the conditional purchase which comprised Nos. 22, 23, and 24, in the parish of Howe's Hill, county of Pottinger, and a piece of vacant Crown Land, since measured as No. 53 of 73 acres, in the same parish. The united areas of those portions do not amount to 320 acres, and there is no other land available for selection in the locality.

On the 7th of May, 1874, Michael M'Namara selected, under the 13th clause, No. 24, containing 121 acres 2 roods and 16 perches, describing the land as numbered and measured, and on the same day (under the 21st clause) selected 198 acres 1 rood 24 perches. This additional selection included No. 22 of 40 acres and 23 of 60 acres 3 roods, already measured, and the vacant Crown Lands now 53 of 73 acres. The measured portions were not described in the additional selection, nor would their joint area together with the vacant available land amount to 198 acres 1 rood and 24 perches. The land included in these two selections is identical with that selected by William M'Ilveen a few days before, and in neither case was the area selected available. M'Ilveen has improved portion No. 53 to the extent of £40, by making a well on it; and he subsequently abandoned the selection, being under the impression that his purchase was illegal; and M'Namara has acted in a similar way from the same motives. I would suggest that both applicants might have their deposit money returned, and the land put up for auction, and the value of the well, £40, noted on the tracing at the time of sale.

William M'Ilveen's application, conditional purchase No. 74-4,926, was returned by me to headquarters, on the 19th of March, 1875, an extract from which report is forwarded herewith.

I have the honor to refer you to my letter of January 3rd, 1876, in which I have reported on a similar case in the same locality.

Minutes on No. 38.

The within applicant stated that he had conditionally purchased 320 acres, on the 30th April, 1874, at Tamworth, and tendered this application. His name does not appear in my register at all. He says that he has resided upon and improved his selection of 320 acres, and has never heard that it was forfeited or declared void, and, under the circumstances, I thought it best to accept this application.—T. No. 39.

Mr. H. H. Brown to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir, 21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, Sydney, 26 April, 1876.

I have the honor, on behalf of William M'Ilveen, junr., of Colly Blue, to bring the following case under your notice for your most favourable consideration.

On the 30th April, 1874, my client selected 320 acres, parish Howe's Hill, county Pottinger, on the boundaries of Trinkey and Mooki River runs. Subsequently he received notice intimating that there was not sufficient land to meet the requirements of his application.

I may state that when his application was made there was ample land available, but a portion of it has since been sold by auction, and I would therefore ask that he may be permitted to receive balance of portions from said auction sale, to make up the number of acres applied for, viz., portion 24, 121½ acres, portion 53, 73 acres, and portion 22, 40 acres.

As my client has continuously resided on the land, and laid out a considerable amount of money in improvements, I would ask that said forfeiture may be revoked, and that he may be allowed to hold the land, as his application was lodged prior to the auction sale.

I have, &c.,
H. H. BROWN.

Minutes on No. 39.

If the auction sales took place subsequently to the conditional purchase application, I think the latter should be satisfied. If the deeds have not issued, stop them till case is decided.—T.G., 1/5/76.

Can it be said in Charting when the land referred to was offered for auction sale.—C.N., 1/6/76.

These papers should be sent to Mr. Thurlow to stop the preparation of deeds, and then return.—F.W.R., 6 June, '76.

No. 52.

Messrs. Hoskins & Blomfield to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Sydney, 13 December, 1876.

Messrs. W., J., S., & G. Clift received a notification from the Department of Lands, dated 30th October, 1876, to which the signature of Mr. W. W. Stephen is appended, apprising them that their purchase of lot C, portion 48, of a sale at Gunnedah, on 7th September, 1875, was cancelled in consequence of the land in question forming part of the conditional purchase of William and Alexander M'Ilveen; and Messrs. Clift Bros. received a communication from the Treasury, dated 21st November last, apprising them that a refund of the sum of £81, being the amount they paid for the above portion of land, was awaiting payment to them at the Treasury.

We have been instructed by Messrs. Clift Bros. to protest against lot C, portion 48, in the county of Pottinger, parish of Goran, being included in the conditional purchase of William or Alexander M'Ilveen, for reasons which we will proceed to adduce:—

First. Because of the date when Messrs. Clift purchased the said portion of land at auction, and indeed for some time afterwards, the said William M'Ilveen, junr., gave no proof by his residence or occupation of portion 48 that he intended to include the same in his conditional purchase; indeed, William M'Ilveen's claiming the said portion as part of his conditional purchase appears to have been the result of an afterthought on his part.

Secondly. We are instructed to protest against the conditional purchase of the said William M'Ilveen on account of the vague and indefinite description of the land he applied for, which is as follows:—"320 acres, county of Pottinger, parish of Goran, on Trinkey Downs, to the north of Colly Blue Mountains, to take in a small clump of apple-trees."

We think that a perusal of this attempt at a description will prove that either W. M'Ilveen, junr., never took the trouble to inspect the land he intended applying for previous to his making the application of 320 acres, under the 13th section, at the Land Office, Tamworth, on 30th April, 1874 or otherwise that the description was made intentionally vague and indefinite with the view of being afterwards used in obtaining any land in the locality which might, after inspection by the conditional purchaser, be considered the most advantageous for his interests.

We beg to call attention to the circumstance that no definite starting point is given for this conditional purchase, but merely that the land applied for is on Trinkey Downs, to the north of Colly Blue Mountains; and we beg to point out the distance across the Trinkey Downs from Colly Blue Mountains is between 4 and 5 miles, and that the Trinkey Downs are about 8 miles across in the other direction. We likewise beg to point out that the small clump of apple-trees cannot in any way fix with any precision the locality of the land applied for, as there are twenty or more clumps of apple-trees on the Trinkey Downs.

We beg to further illustrate the indefinite nature of the description of the land applied for by W. M'Ilveen, junr., by adverting to the fact that Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Higgins reported that there was not sufficient land available to satisfy the application for his conditional purchase; and, as further evidence on the point, a refund voucher authorizing the payment of the refund of the deposit to W. M'Ilveen, junr., was forwarded to that person on the 30/6/76.

We are particularly requested to point out, as a third reason why the application of W. M'Ilveen ought not to be allowed—indeed, it appears to us that Alexander M'Ilveen's 320 acres, made on 30th April, 1874, is in the same position and as objectionable, inasmuch as it is stated to be "on Trinkey Downs, north of and adjoining part of W. M'Ilveen, junr.'s, conditional purchase of 320 acres," made this day—that as neither of the said parties gave a definite starting point, nor specified measured portions *, 320 acres, or measured portions 25 and *, of 160 acres each, which these parties now claim or wish to include in their conditional purchases, they have omitted to comply with the condition requiring intending conditional purchasers to specify in their applications that the area of land applied for includes measured portions, giving the numbers and area of the same.

We trust that, for the reasons adduced in this letter, the conditional purchase of William M'Ilveen, junr., may be declared void, or, at all events, that he may not be allowed to keep portion 48 as part of the same, and that the sale by auction to Messrs. Clift Brothers of the same portion will stand good and not be reversed.

We have, &c.,
HOSKINS & BLOMFIELD.

W. M'ILVEEN's conditional purchases, portion 53 of 72½ acres, portion 24 of 121 acres 2 roods, and parts of portions 25 and 48 acres, as shown on enclosed tracing, to make up the area of 120 acres.

Minutes on No. 53.

H. H. Brown (for W. M'Ilveen, junr.), for revocation of cancellation of his conditional purchase. As the required papers are not forthcoming, the case is submitted as to whether Messrs. Hoskins & Blomfield should be apprised that the conditional purchase of W. M'Ilveen, junr., remains void; that a duplicate voucher for refund of deposit was sent to him on 30th June last; and that no definite action has yet been taken in regard to the purchase of Alexander M'Ilveen, on which the surveyor's report has now been received.—C.N., 20/12/76. The

The selections of McIlveen having been declared void, and that of A. McIlveen now reported on by the surveyor, the enclosed representations in reference to the Survey Branch, with a request that it may be stated whether there are still any grounds of objection to the sale by auction made to Messrs. Clift.—A.O.M., 8/1/77.

It would not be safe to take action on this letter without former papers, the recommendation on which (it is believed) is to the effect that both the McIlveen's conditional purchases ought to stand,—H.T., 29 January, '77.

No. 54.

The Inspector of Conditional Purchases to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Hy. Burke, made at Tamworth, 14th May, 1874.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 26th January, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing, and comprises forty (40) acres, is not occupied and used by any one, and the selector, who follows the occupation of _____, had, at the time of my visit, made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—nil.

From the appearance of the land, and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has not been continuously resident upon the selection.

This selection is unoccupied, and there are no improvements on it.

The adjoining portions, No. 41 and 42, are also unoccupied, and not improved.

No instructions to inspect these.

I have, &c,

HARRY V. GEARY,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Minute on No. 54.

By Chief Commissioner:—The adjoining portions in the same name are, I presume, additional selections. The papers should be appended to these; see within.—A.O.M., 3/5/77.

No. 55.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Capper to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Currabubula, 23 February, 1877.

I have the honor to transmit herewith the plan of seven portions of land, containing from 40 to 136 acres, numbered 129 to 135, in the parish of Brothers, county of Pottinger, applied for by W., J., S., and G. Clift, under the 23rd section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and surveyed in accordance with instructions dated 30th April, 1875, being District Surveyor's No. and date.

There are not any improvements on any of the portions.

The instructions for this survey transmitted to the Surveyor-General with my letter of the 21st February, 1877.

I respectfully submit, in consequence of the number of old portions surrounding and the small area surveyed, that no reduction may be made on the scale of fees.

I have, &c.,

JAMES F. CAPPER.

Minute on No. 55.

To the Surveyor-General,—The reduction as agreed to must be enforced. Mr. Capper's returns are very large, and surveys generally easy.—A. DEWURST, March 30/77.

[Alienation Act.]

Declaration of Conditional Purchaser, under the 18th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

WE, WILLIAM, JOSEPH, SAMUEL, and GEORGE CLIFT, of Breeza, do solemnly and sincerely declare that we are the lawful owners, by conditional purchase, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described, and that the improvements consisting of fencing and a yard, and to the value of £285, have been made on such land. And we make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

WILLIAM CLIFT,

For and on behalf of William, Joseph, Samuel, and George Clift.

Taken and declared at Gunnedah, this }
6th day of March, 1877, before me,— }

T. K. ABBOTT, P.M.,

Description.

County of Pottinger, parish of Brothers, 280 acres, at Breeza, being conditional purchase No. 26 of 1874, in the district of Murrurundi, made on the 15th January, 1874.

Minutes on No. 56.

Will the Land Agent be good enough to obtain a fresh declaration from Mr. W. Clift on the purchase, as corrected in pencil on the incorrect declaration herewith, and return both documents to this office without delay. For the Chief Commissioner.—V.H., Lands Department, C.S. Division, B.C., Sydney, 9th July, 1872. The Land Agent at Gunnedah.

A fresh declaration herewith, as requested.—A. P. D. HAMILTON, C.L.A., 17/7/79.

No. 57.

Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co. to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

On behalf of our client, Mr. Wm. McIlveen, junior, we have the honor to request that a refund may be made him of part of his deposit money on conditional purchase noted in the margin, he having paid for 320 acres, whilst there are but 314.

We have, &c.,

H. H. BROWN & CO.

Minutes on No 57.

With reference to Messrs. Hoskins & Blomfield's letter, Aln. 76-44,173, there does not appear to be any reason to disturb the decision given in this case, the action denoted on which should probably be completed, the land sold at auction to the Messrs. Clift being, according to the surveyor's report, part of the land applied for by the conditional purchaser.—ROBT. D. FITZGERALD (for Surveyor-General), 25 July, 1877.

I am not prepared, at the present stage, to suggest that the action under the decision above referred to, which has not, it appears, been completed, should be arrested, although had the question been an open one I should have thought that there was room for a different view.—A.O.M.

I cannot see any reason for interfering with the decision already given.—R.D., 8/8/77.

Description.

County of Pottinger, parish of Brothers, 162 acres 3 roods, being measured portions Nos. 129, 130, and 134 in said parish, advertised for sale 1st August, 1877.

The Crown Lands Agent is requested to furnish the correct date, area, and any other particulars connected with applicant's first conditional purchase, whereby it may be traced.—W.B. (for the Commissioner), Lands Department, August, 1877.

The correct date is given, the conditional purchase is not in my register, and the applicant states that he originally selected 320 acres, but this was reduced on measurement to 274 acres. He also alleges that, although the original conditional purchase was declared forfeited, he holds letters from the Department informing him that the forfeiture had been reversed, and insisted upon his right to make these conditional purchases.—T. No. 94.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Goodwin to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Breeza, 2 June, 1879.

I have the honor to forward herewith a plan showing 46 acres of land, numbered 20, in the parish of Howe's Hill, county of Pottinger, applied for under the 13th clause of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861 by William M'Ilveen, and measured by me, in accordance with your letter dated 28th February, 1878, to Mr. District-Surveyor Dewhurst.

The applicant resides on portion No. 24, and has made the following improvements on that portion: A house, £65; garden, worth £10; horse-yard, worth £5; fencing, worth £66. On No. 48 the improvements consist of fencing, worth £90. On No. 53, fencing, worth £75; well, worth £75. On No. 20, fencing, worth £11 10s.

Portion No. 20 was originally part of portion No. 25. The subdivision has not been made in accordance with the sketch sent me with the instructions, but I have made the survey as directed. The applicant would have lost more than half his improvements on portion No. 48, and would have taken improvements on No. 25—that were made by another person.

The total length of the applicant's conditional purchase slightly exceeds a mile in one direction, but as it gives him no undue advantage over the adjacent alienated lands, I trust the survey will meet with your approval.

The land consists of rich black soil suitable only for grazing purposes. The instrument used was a theodolite, and the date of survey 21st May, 1879.

I have, &c.,

THOMAS H. H. GOODWIN.

[Enclosure to No. 94.]

Description.

320 acres, county of Pottinger, portions Nos. 20, 24, and 53, parish of Howe's Hill, portion No. 48, parish of Brothers: Commencing on the eastern side of a road 1 chain wide, at the north-western corner of portion No. 1 of 320 acres; and bounded thence on the west by that road bearing north 40° 14' east 19 chains 82 links west 3 chains 51 links, and thence north 42 chains 90 links; and bounded thence on the north by the southern boundary of portion No. 25 of 114 acres, parish of Howe's Hill, bearing east 40 chains; again on the west by the eastern boundary of that portion bearing north 40 chains; and again on the north by part of the southern boundary of portion No. 130 of 116 acres 3 roods, parish of Brothers, bearing east 20 chains; on the east by the western boundary of portion No. 49 of 82 acres 3 roods, parish of Brothers, bearing south 40 chains; on the south by a road 1 chain wide bearing west 20 chains; again on the east by a line crossing that road and the western boundaries of portions Nos. 23 and 22, of 60 acres 3 roods and 40 acres respectively, both in the parish of Howe's Hill, in all bearing west 51 chains and 36 links; and again on the south by part of the northern boundary of portion No. 1 aforesaid, bearing westerly 36 chains and 57 links to the point of commencement. Exclusively of a road 1 chain wide passing through this land in a westerly direction, the area of which has been deducted from the total area.

No. 95.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Goodwin to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Breeza, 2 June, 1879.

I have the honor to forward herewith a plan showing alteration of portion No. 130, parish of Brothers, county of Pottinger, applied for under the 23rd clause of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861 by W., J., S., and E. Clift.

After making the subdivisions shown on plans forwarded with my letters Nos. 79-35 and 36, dated 2nd June, 1879, I found it necessary to make the alteration shown on plan herewith, or else a portion containing 36 acres would have been left south of No. 129, which probably would now have been bought, as the area was under 40 acres, and it could not have been selected.

There are no improvements on the land.

The land consists of rich black soil suitable only for grazing purposes.

The instrument used was a theodolite, and the date of survey 22nd May, 1879.

I have, &c.,

THOMAS H. H. GOODWIN.

No. 96.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Goodwin to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Breeza, 2 June, 1879.

I have the honor to forward herewith a plan showing alterations made in portions Nos. 25 and 129, parishes of Howe's Hill and Brothers, county of Pottinger, applied for under the 13th clause of the Crown Lands Amendment Act of 1861 by Alexander M'Ilveen, and measured by me in accordance with your letter of instructions, M, returned to Mr. District-Surveyor Dewhurst.

The applicant does not reside on the land.

The improvements on portion No. 25 consist of fencing worth £28; on No. 26 they consist of two wells worth £125 each, and fencing worth £110; on 129, nil.

This subdivision is not made in accordance with the sketch sent to me with the instructions. If the subdivision had been made as suggested the applicant would have lost improvements on and near the northern boundary of portion No. 26 worth £180. He would also have lost improvements on portion No. 28—a considerable amount—and taken improvements on the part of No. 48. You suggested giving him what were made by another person. I therefore trust you will approve of the action I have taken in the matter.

The land consists of rich black soil suitable only for grazing purposes.

The instrument used was a theodolite, and the date of survey 22nd May, 1879.

I have, &c.,

THOMAS H. H. GOODWIN.

I, WILLIAM CLIFT, do solemnly and sincerely declare that William, Joseph, Samuel, and George Clift, of Breeza, are the lawful owners, by conditional purchase, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described; and that improvements consisting of fencing and a yard, and to the value of £285, have been made on such land. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

REPORT of an Inquiry held at Breeza on the 19th of May, 1880, by John Delaney, Commissioner for the North-western Division, respecting the conditional purchase of John Eccles, made at Murrurundi on the 18th January, 1872, 15th January, 1874, P. 849 and 1,736, 1,781; plans noted.

Sir,

I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the consideration of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, minutes of evidence taken at an inquiry under the Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875, held by me in pursuance of the reference notified in the Gazette of the 3rd February, 1880, in the matter of the above-described conditional purchase.

The claimant having been duly served with notice of the time and place of holding the inquiry was present thereat.

The following facts bearing upon the fulfilment by the selector of the conditions of purchase were elicited in evidence, viz.:—William Clift states, John Eccles transferred to Messrs. William, Joseph, Samuel, and George Clift, on the 13th of May, 1875, 40 acres, taken at Murrurundi, January 8th, 1872, and 280 acres, taken also at Murrurundi, on the 15th of January, 1874, both lots situate county Pottinger, parish of Doona; that John Eccles (who is now dead), within one month from the date of selection, resided on the land land and made it his home for more than three years on the 40-acre conditional purchase, 13th section. In improvements—a hut, £40; a sheep-yard, £10 (this is on the 40-acre conditional purchase); on the 280 acres, 21st section: 2½ miles 5-wire fence, posts mortised for top rail, £247 10s., and an iron house, a fixture, £40. That the whole of these improvements were on the conditional purchase within three years and three months from the date of selection. Value of improvements, £337 10s.

I have therefore to report that I find such conditions, viz., residence and improvements, to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be allowed.

I have, &c.,
JOHN DELANEY,
Commissioner.

Minute on No. 109.

This report also covers C.P. 78-15. The total amount of improvements on a total of 606 acres being worth £354 10s., C.P. approved. Declan. on C.P. 78-15 for approval.—W.N., 21/10/81.

The Chief Commissioner to Messrs. Clift.

Gentlemen,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 15 November, 1880.

The Colonial Treasurer having forwarded to this Department the declaration made by John Eccles, at Werris Creek, on the 12th April, 1875, with reference to the conditional purchases described at foot hereof, and having reported that interest on the balance of purchase money has been received at the Treasury, I am now directed by the Minister for Lands to notify to you that he is satisfied, after due inquiry, that the conditions as to residence and improvement prescribed by the 18th clause of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861 have been completed in respect of the said conditional purchase.

The deed of grant may be obtained at any time hereafter by payment of the balance of the purchase money, with the interest, if any, then due; but should such payment be deferred, interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum must be paid between the 1st January and 31st March in each year until the balance, inclusive of interest as prescribed by law, shall have been duly paid, otherwise the selection will be forfeited.

I have, &c.,

A. O. MORIARTY,

Chief Commissioner.

Conditional purchase No. 72-163 and 74-161; district, Gunnedah; dates, 18 January, 1872, and 15 January, 1874; county Pottinger, parish Brothers; No. of portions, 26 and 115; area, 40 and 280 acres; present holders, William, Joseph, Samuel, and George Clift.

[Enclosure to No. 112.]

The Surveyor-General to The Chief Commissioner.

William M'Dveen's conditional purchase.

According to decision C.P. 74-4,926 was to include portions 53, 24, and part of portions 25 and 48, but the surveyor has not subdivided portion 48 as intended, or subdivided portion 25 as shown on tracing that was submitted. In explanation he states that applicant would have lost half his improvements on portion 48 and have taken improvements erected by another applicant on portion 25. It is therefore submitted that the land measured and shown by blue edging be accepted in satisfaction of the conditional purchase.

The Inspector of Conditional Purchases to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by John S. O'Hara, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Edward Williams, made at Gunnedah, section 13, portions 29, 30, 31, at Brothers.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 11th October, 1880, and that I found the alienee then resident upon her selection.

The land, which consists of plain and bush, and comprises 120 acres, is now occupied and used by selector's mother as her home; and the selector, who follows the avocation of selector, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz.:-

Slab house, bark roof, sawn floor-boards, four rooms and verandah...	40	0	0
Well, 17ft. 4in. by 4ft.	10	0	0

From the appearance of the land, and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

Alienee (selector's mother), who is a widow, now resides upon the land, and apparently making it her home.

I noticed the house is well furnished, and presents the appearance of having been used as a homestead for a number of years.

I have, &c.,

The Chief Commissioner to Messrs. Cohen & Nathan.

Gentlemen, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 7 January, 1881.

The Colonial Treasurer having forwarded to this Department the declaration made by Annie Williams, at Gunnedah, on the 23rd May, 1879, with reference to the conditional purchase described at foot hereof, and having reported that instalment of the balance of purchase money has been received at the Treasury, I am now directed by the Minister for Lands to notify to you that he is satisfied, after due inquiry, that the conditions as to residence and improvement prescribed by the 18th clause of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, have been completed in respect of the said conditional purchase.

The deed of grant may be obtained at any time hereafter by payment of the balance of the purchase money, with the interest, if any, then due; but should such payment be deferred, an instalment at the rate of 1s. per acre must be paid between the 1st January and 31st March in each year until the balance, inclusive of interest as prescribed by law, shall have been duly paid, otherwise the selection will be forfeited.

No. 120.

Mr. J. Delaney, Commissioner, to The Chief Commissioner.

Report of an inquiry held at Colly Blue, on the 22nd of June, 1880, by John Delaney, Commissioner for the North-western Division, respecting the conditional purchase of Alexander M'Ilveen, made at Tamworth, on the 30th of April, 1874.

Sir,

I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the consideration of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, minutes of evidence taken at inquiry under the Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875, held by me in pursuance of the reference notified in the Gazette of the 3rd February, 1880, in the matter of the above-described conditional purchase.

The claimant having been duly served with notice of the time and place of holding the inquiry was present thereat.

The following facts, bearing upon the fulfilment by the selector of the conditions of purchase, were elicited in evidence, viz. :—Alexander M'Ilveen states, on the 30th of April, 1874, he selected at Tamworth 320 acres of land, 13th section, county of Parry, parish of Howe's Hill; that within one week from the date of selection he resided on the conditional purchase, and made it his home for three years and six months. Improvements made by him on conditional purchase: a hut, one mile and a half of 6-wire fence, a well, another well, 120 feet of troughing, a whip for the purpose of raising the water; that they were all on the conditional purchase within three years from the date of selection. Value of improvements, £400 12s.

William M'Ilveen, junr., agrees with the evidence of Alexander M'Ilveen as to residence and the time that the improvements were completed; in his value the improvements are £401 12s.

In this case there is no inspector's report.

I have therefore to report that I find such conditions, residence and improvements, to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be allowed.

I have, &c.,

JOHN DELANEY,
Commissioner.

Improvements: a hut, one room, built of bark, worth £5; one mile and a half of 6-wire fence, cost £75 per mile, worth £112 10s.; one well, 126 feet deep, slabbed from top to bottom, at 21s. per foot, £132 6s.; another well, 116 feet deep, slabbed from top to bottom, at 21s. per foot, £121 16s.; 120 feet of troughing, at 4s. per foot, £24; a whip, £5—that is for the purpose of raising the water. No. 121.

The Auditor-General to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Department of Audit, 4 May, 1881.

Interest upon the conditional purchase, as per margin, having been paid upon 274 acres only, and no notification of reduction of area having been received from the Lands Department, a query was addressed to the Chief Commissioner on 25th October, 1879, to which a reply was received, dated 6th August, 1880, stating that a survey had been received which was not in accordance with the manner in "which it was approved of," and that the "case would therefore have to be submitted as to area." By letter of 1st November following, inquiry was made as to whether any decision had been arrived at as to the correct area, and although reminders have been repeatedly sent, no reply has been furnished.

I have now the honor to request that the Minister may be moved to cause the matter to be inquired into, and a reply forwarded without further delay.

It having recently come under notice that you have been paying interest upon 274 acres only of your conditional purchase of the 30th April, 1874, 320 acres, I am to inform you that the latter is the correct area of the purchase, and that it will be therefore necessary that you should at once pay over to the Land Agent the arrears of interest due upon the difference of area, 46 acres.

With reference to W. Sir,

Crown Lands Office, Gunnedah, 23 May, 1881.

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of 16th instant, having reference to the conditional purchase of W. M'Ilveen, junior, as per margin.

There appears to be some doubt with regard to this conditional purchase and that by Alexander M'Ilveen of same date. That by the former does not appear at all in the Conditional Purchase Register, and also neither are shown on parish maps lately provided as the portions which appear to be embraced by these conditional purchases, being left apparently open to selection.

I should be glad to know what measurements are attached to each purchaser in virtue of their original and additional conditional purchases.

Minutes on No. 128.

By the Surveyor-General:—No further action is necessary as regards the numerous query reminders of the Auditor-General, who has been informed by letter, dated 4th July, 1881.

Probably the action suggested in the memo. covering 81-21,841 C.S. should be taken, unless the information has already been conveyed to the Land Agent by letter of 16th May, 1881, referred to.

C.P. 74-4,926, William M'Ilveen, dealt with in Charting Branch.

These papers may be separated from 81-23,169 C.S. after decision shall have been given and action taken on that case.—CHARLES E. FINCH (for Surveyor-General), 27th July, 1881.

Submitted that C.P. 74-4,926 may be accepted without reference to inspector. Surveyor (five years after C.P. was taken up) states that the applicant is resident, and improvements are valued at £397 10s.; area 320 acres.—W.B., 30/11/81.

No. 129.

Messrs. Brown & Co. to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, 3 June, 1881.

On behalf of our client, Mr. William M'Ilveen, we have the honor to inform you that on the 12th and 26th July, 1877, he applied by conditional purchases 77-96 and 77-101, at Gunnedah, for portions 134, 129, 130, and 131, and part of portion 135, respective applications of 162½ and 163½ acres.

These applications were declared void on the ground that the lands did not adjoin the original selection. This is, however, a mistake, as portion 34 immediately adjoins the within boundary of portion 48, the original C.P., as per sketch enclosed, hatched yellow.

There can be no question or doubt that this land was open to conditional purchase, as it was gazetted for sale on the 1st August, 1877, by the same numbers of portions and areas as applied for, consequently no error has been made by our client.

We find that your Department have accepted an application of Messrs. W., J., S., and G. Clift, C.P. 77-102, made a week later, for the same land, so that therefore, if our statement is verified by facts, viz., that our client's application was a perfectly legal and valid one, that you will be pleased to reinstate it and reverse the voidance.

We have, &c.,

No. 130.

Memorandum by Mr. W. D. Armstrong.

W. M'ILVEEN'S application was made on the 30th April, 1874, and forwarded to surveyor for measurement, 12 May, 1874, and reported on by Mr. L.-S. Higgins, March, 1875. This report was submitted with a recommendation for voidance of the conditional purchase, 28th April, 1875, as there was not sufficient land available, and approved 7th May, 1875. On the 7th September, 1875, part of the land said to be applied for was sold at auction on the 14th August, 1876. It was again submitted that the voiding be reversed, and that the auction sale be cancelled, and that M'Ilveen should have the land as shown on a tracing which embraced portions 53, 24, and part of portions 25 and 48. This was approved 15th August, 1876. The case was again submitted on account of a letter from Messrs. Blomfield and Hoskins, advocating the claims of Messrs. Clift Brothers, the purchasers of the auction portion. It was decided on the 8th August, 1877, that the original decision should be adhered to. On the 28th February, 1878, Mr. District-Surveyor Dewhurst was instructed to measure the land as shown on tracing, that was submitted with 76-13,347. This was sent to Mr. L.-S. Goodwin, who reported on and measured on the 2nd June, 1879, but not according to instructions.

On the 25th October, 1879, the Audit Office requested to be informed if the area of the conditional purchase was altered, as only 274 acres had been charged interest. It would appear that the Audit Office memo. was sent to Charting Branch for former papers, but the number quoted was 79-24,600 conditional sales, sales, instead of 79-24,604 conditional sales. Charting Branch stated that 79-24,600 conditional sales was dealt with. This memo. is dated 2nd December, 1879. On the corner turned up another note, in pencil, occurs, which gives the correct number of the papers, with a request for papers dated 10th December, 1879, which are stated to be herewith and sent to Records, 23rd December, 1879. These papers were returned to Charting Branch 5th February, 1880. They were asked for by Conditional Purchase Issue Branch (Survey), and forwarded 30th April, 1880. On the 19th July, 1880, the papers were forwarded to Records to have them connected, and that as the survey was not in accordance with instructions that the case would have to be submitted.

The Auditor-General was informed 6th August, 1880, and papers forwarded to Charting Branch, 10th August, 1880. On the 23rd November, 1880, the case was submitted for approval as measured, which was approved 22nd December, 1880, and forwarded to Charting Branch, 24th December, 1880. The case was dealt with in Charting Branch on the 22nd March, 1881, and forwarded to Conditional Sales Branch.

The greatest delay would appear to be between the 27th July, 1879, and 23rd November, 1880, during which time the case would appear to have been sent to Records, returned and sent to Conditional Purchase Issue Branch (Survey), and again sent to Records, when the Auditor-General was informed that the case would have to be submitted, which was carried out on the 23rd November, 1880.

The case has been in four different draftsmen's hands. This was occasioned by the changes that took place in the Branch at that time, and the Auditor-General's memo. would appear to have got into a wrong channel. These circumstances combined may account for the delay which has taken place in answering the Auditor-General's memo.

W. D. ARMSTRONG,
3 June, 1881.

Minute on No. 130.

By the Surveyor-General:—Returned to Under Secretary for Lands. It is one of those cases which appear to have been unfortunate at any stage. I am happy to say that nothing of the kind need happen again in the Department.—P.F.A., 8 June, 1881.

No. 131.

Memorandum.

MR. M'ILVEEN'S purchase herein referred to was originally taken up at Tamworth, but in December, 1874, transferred to the Gunnedah District, which apparently has been lost sight of, and thus the omission in the register for that district.

An extract from Conditional Purchase Register should be made and forwarded to the Land Agent.

In virtue of this purchase an additional area of 40 acres was selected on 2nd March, 1876, viz., conditional purchase 76-30, which stands void in consequence of the original conditional purchase being void, but the cancellation of this conditional purchase has been revoked, but that of the additional overlooked, consequently it still appears to stand void. Papers should now be looked up with a view to the revocation of the cancellation.

Paper finally to the Charting Branch as to the Land Agent's statement with regard to the parish maps provided him.

Deputy Surveyor-General,—A recommendation with a view to revoking the voiding of conditional purchase 76-30 has now been made on its own papers, 79-14,758 conditional sales, with which the application has now been placed.—C. E. FINCH, 27 July, 1881.

No. 132.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

W. M'Ilveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, and Alex. M'Ilveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927.

WM. M'ILVEEN and Alex. M'Ilveen having selected 320 acres each, and the descriptions being indefinite, it was decided on 76-13,347 Aln. that they should be allowed the land shown by red band on tracing marked A.

The surveyor, on visiting the ground, found that the decision on 76-13,347 would cut off part of Wm. M'Ilveen's improvements on portion 48, and deprive Alex. M'Ilveen of improvements on portion 25; he therefore measured according to tracing B, and suggested that the whole of portion 48 should be given to Wm. M'Ilveen.

The papers in Wm. M'Ilveen's case came into the Charting Branch 27th July, 1879, and were delayed until 22nd March, 1881, before action was taken, during which time, I have ascertained, repeated applications were made at Records for the papers of Alex. M'Ilveen, but they were stated to be with Mr. Commissioner Delaney, and could not be obtained; it was therefore decided to deal with Wm. M'Ilveen's case without these papers, and it was recommended that the suggestion of the surveyor should be adopted, as it would not interfere with Alex. M'Ilveen's improvements.

This recommendation was approved 22nd December, 1880, and papers dealt with 22nd March, 1881.

The papers of Alex. M'Ilveen were forwarded to the Charting Branch, 4th June, 1881, when it was found that they contained not only papers connected with Alex. M'Ilveen's case, but also those of Wm. M'Ilveen's additional conditional purchases, which had been declared void on account of not adjoining Wm. M'Ilveen's first conditional purchase.

The decision on 76-13,347 Aln. having cut off the northern part of portion 48, necessitated the voiding of the additional conditional purchases (coloured pink on tracing marked C), but the decision on 80-46,712 made W. M'Ilveen's conditional purchase include the whole of portion 48, thus making the additional conditional purchase to adjoin the first conditional purchase.

It was not known why the additional conditional purchases were declared void at date of dealing with first conditional purchase, as the papers were not forthcoming. On the 2nd August, 1877, W., J., S., & G. Clift made additional conditional purchase 77-102, including the land selected by W. M'Ilveen as an additional conditional purchase, viz., portions 135, 131, 130, and 129, the latter portion being part of Alex. McIlveen's conditional purchase. This application was received by the Land Agent on account of the voidance of W. McIlveen's first conditional purchase (the action taken not having been noted in his register), which would also void the additional conditional purchase of W. McIlveen. The voidance of the first conditional purchase was revoked 15th August, 1876, but the additional conditional purchases were again voided, on account of not adjoining first conditional purchase, November, 1877. This would legalize Clift Bros.' conditional purchase, but the decision on 80-46,712 will make W. McIlveen's additional conditional purchase adjoin his first conditional purchase.

It is pointed out that Wm. McIlveen's additional conditional purchases should not have been with Alex. McIlveen's papers, but should have been with W. McIlveen's case. If this had been so, the case could have been more fully considered when dealing with Wm. McIlveen's conditional purchase.

No other land was available for W. McIlveen to select under the 21st clause than that to the north of portion 48, excepting portion 73, to the west of portion 24, which has since been selected.

It is therefore submitted whether the voiding of William McIlveen's conditional purchase under the 21st clause should be maintained. The land was measured at the *date of his selecting, in which case the application of Clift Bros. would have to be declared void, although they have been in undisturbed possession for over three years, and have sent in the declaration of residence and improvements.

No. 136.

The Under Secretary for Lands to The Auditor-General.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Ministerial Branch, 4 July, 1881.

Adverting to your letter of the 3rd ultimo and previous reminders in reference to an Audit office query addressed to the Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales respecting the supposed reduction of area of the conditional purchase noted in the margin to 274 acres, upon which area only the interest has been collected by the Land Agent at Gunnedah, I have now the honor to apprise you that Mr. Hamilton has been informed that the correct area of the conditional purchase in question is 320 acres, and instructed to make the necessary notation in his books, in order that in future the proper amount of interest may be collected by him.

2. I may remark that this is one of those cases which appear to have been unfortunate in every stage. The delay in replying to your letters was caused by the detention of the papers in the Survey Office, but precautions will be taken to prevent a recurrence of the irregularity.

I have, &c.,

CHARLES OLIVER,
Under Secretary.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

Wm. M'Ilveen, additional conditional purchase 76-30, Gunnedah.

ADDITIONAL conditional purchase 76-30, Gunnedah, was declared void on account of the first conditional purchase in virtue of which it was made having been declared void. Subsequently, it having been ascertained that the voiding of the first conditional purchase had taken place upon incorrect grounds, it was revoked ; but the fact that the voiding of the additional conditional purchase should also have been revoked was overlooked, probably through the application having been placed with other papers, from which it has now been removed for action.

In view of the above, it is recommended that the voiding of additional conditional purchase 76-30, Gunnedah, be revoked, the purchase being unobjectionable.

From the fact that applicant has made declaration on this conditional purchase, and has never protested against its voiding, it is presumed the notice never reached him, and that he has not withdrawn the deposit from the Treasury.

The Chief Commissioner.

No. 138.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

William M'Ilveen's conditional purchases 77-96 and 101 ; Messrs. Clifts' conditional purchase 77-102. At the request of the Minister for Lands, I have investigated the case of William M'Ilveen's claim under void additional conditional purchases 77-96 and 101 to portions 129, 130, 134, 131, and 135, which, with the exception of portion 134, at present stand as Messrs. Clifts' conditional purchase 77-102, and now submit the following facts for consideration :—

The claim depends for the most part upon action taken in Wm. M'Ilveen's original conditional purchase and on A. M'Ilveen's conditional purchase, the papers relating to which are temporarily herewith.

W. M'Ilveen

W. McIlveen (by 74-4,926) and A. McIlveen (by 74-4,927) applied for 320 acres respectively under indefinite descriptions. Under Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision of the 15th August, 1876 (which is with W. McIlveen's first conditional purchase case), these conditional purchases were located in the positions shown by red edging on tracing A herewith (green edging on tracing C), and the surveyor was instructed to adjust the measurements of portions 48, 25, &c., which had been measured for auction sale, but not accepted at date of conditional purchases in accordance with that decision.

By additional conditional purchase 77-96, Wm. McIlveen applied for portions 129, 130, and 134, and by conditional purchase 77-101 for portion 131 and part of 135. These applications were declared void on the 23rd February, 1878, as the land applied for did not adjoin the original conditional purchase as located under Mr. Garrett's decision. (These conditional purchases had previously been declared void on the erroneous supposition that the original conditional purchase was void.) The voiding of these conditional purchases left the land applied for by Messrs. Clift available for that conditional purchase, except so far as it was covered by A. McIlveen's conditional purchase.

The surveyor who measured A. and W. McIlveen's conditional purchases did not carry out Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision, and represented that, if the approved form of measurement were adhered to, W. McIlveen would lose half his improvements. It was thereupon decided that W. McIlveen's conditional purchase might be located as measured and shown by blue edging on tracing B (blue tint on C). This involved a corresponding alteration in the boundary of A. McIlveen's conditional purchase. Besides, the alteration of the boundary between the conditional purchases, the surveyor has altered the boundaries of conditional purchase 74-4,927 from those approved by Mr. Garrett to those shown by brown edging on tracing C. The survey of conditional purchase 74-4,927 has not however been accepted. By the alteration last referred to (i.e., in conditional purchase 74-4,927) the available part of the area covered by additional conditional purchase 77-96 is left adjoining W. McIlveen's original conditional purchase 74-4,926 as modified under decision on 80-33,761 C.S. On this latter fact is based the claim made by Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co., on behalf of W. McIlveen, in letter of the 3rd June, 1881.

When the concession was made with respect to the boundary of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, under decision on 80-33,761 C.S. it could not have been intended that it should affect the voiding of additional conditional purchases 77-96 and 101, and thereby prejudice the claims of Messrs. Clift under additional conditional purchase 77-102.

Irrespective of what may have been the intention, and even supposing that W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926 had been located from the first as per blue tint on tracing C, it may be pointed out—

- 1st. That A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927, as located under Mr. Garrett's decision (which decision has not been altered, excepting as regards the common boundary between A. & W. McIlveen's conditional purchases), extends along the whole of the north boundary of conditional purchase 74-4,926 to the north-east corner of portion 48, and embraces portion 134, now cancelled (see red lines, tracing C); consequently the available part of the area covered by additional conditional purchase 77-96 would be separated from W. McIlveen's original conditional purchase by A. McIlveen's original conditional purchase 74-4,927 as it is at present located.
- 2nd. Even if A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 may be located as measured by the surveyor (brown edging on tracing C), the land immediately north of portion 48 may be considered as having been "unmeasured" at date of conditional purchase application 77-96; for although that land was measured as portion 134 at that date, the measurement must be looked upon as invalid, seeing that the land was partly if not wholly within A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927, made prior to date of such invalid measurement. Consequently, if the land immediately north of portion 48 was unmeasured, additional conditional purchase 77-96, in order to embrace any of the land applied for, would extend over "unmeasured" land, and with the previous conditional purchase beyond the 80 chains limit. Without such extension over "unmeasured" land, additional conditional purchase 77-96 could not embrace "measured" portion 130.

Additional conditional purchase 77-101, which is embraced by the area subsequently applied for by Messrs. Clift as additional conditional purchase 77-102, is dependent, upon additional conditional purchase 77-96 for connection with the original purchase; but even if additional conditional purchase 77-96 be considered valid, additional conditional purchase 77-101 would stand only for portion 131, as the application embraces part only of portion 135, and no subdivision fee has been paid.

CHAS. E. FINCH,
(For Surveyor-General),
28 July, 1881.

Minutes on No. 138.

By the Secretary for Lands:—The minute of Mr. Finch places this difficult case in a clear light, and enables me to arrive at a decision. A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 extends, by Mr. Garrett's decision, along the whole of the northern boundary of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, and that decision, as regards A. McIlveen's conditional purchase, has not been set aside, consequently the whole of the southern part of portion 134 forms part of A. McIlveen's conditional purchase; hence the land available for additional conditional purchase 77-96 does not adjoin the original conditional purchase of W. McIlveen 74-4,926, and therefore was correctly voided, and such voidance must stand good.—J.H., 30/7/81.

By Mr. W. D. Armstrong:—Mr. L-S. Goodwin has been instructed to measure A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 according to above decision.—W. D. ARMSTRONG, 24 Dec., /81.

Memorandum.

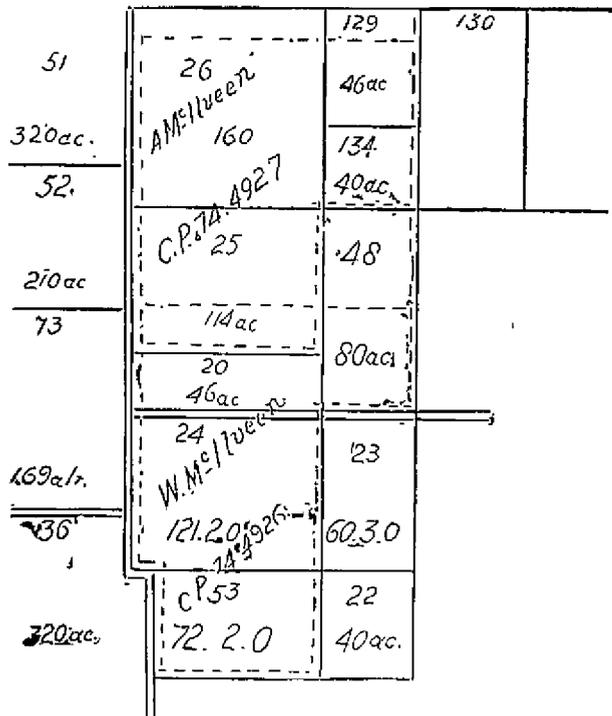

Statement of the case of Alexander McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927, Gunnedah.

NEARLY all the former papers of this case are with those of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, from which the accompanying papers have been removed for separate action.

W. McIlveen's case is 80-33,761 C.S., carried on to 81-3,941 Minl.

The

The following are the particulars as far as they affect A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927.

Certain land was applied for by A. and W. McIlveen under conditional purchase 74-4,927 and 4,926, the descriptions being rather indefinite. Before the purchases were located, certain portions covering the land intended to have been applied for were measured for auction sale, and one of them (portion 48) was sold at Gunnedah on the 7th September, '75, as lot C, to Messrs. Clift. The case having been submitted to the Minister on 76-13,347 Alm., it was decided (15/8/76) that the conditional purchases should be located as shown by red edging in annexed diagram, that the subsequent conditional purchases of Michael McNamara (74-5,129) and C. Collins (74-5,127) should be declared void, and that the sale of lot C to Messrs. Clift should be cancelled. Action was taken accordingly.

Subsequently, on representations made by Messrs. McIlveen, it was decided on 80-33,761 C.S. that the boundaries between the conditional purchases should be modified, as shown by blue line. The surveyor, by survey transmitted with 74-24,605 C.S., has made other modifications in the boundaries of conditional purchase 74-4,927. This matter will be for consideration after a decision has been given on a question submitted on C.S. 81-23,169, relative to W. McIlveen's void additional conditional purchase 77-96.

In reply to your application of the 3rd June last, on behalf of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 extends, by Mr. Garrett's decision, along the whole of the northern boundary of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,936, and that decision, as regards A. McIlveen's conditional purchase, has not been set aside, consequently the whole of the southern part of portion No. 134 forms part of A. McIlveen's conditional purchase; hence the land available for additional conditional purchase, 77-96, does not adjoin the original conditional purchase of W. McIlveen, 74-4,926. The voidance must therefore stand good.

Memorandum of Instructions.

Surveyor-General's Office, Sydney, 22 December, 1881.

SUBJECT.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor T. H. H. Goodwin is requested at his early convenience to re-survey Alexander McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927, as shown by brown tint on accompanying tracing, in accordance with the Minister's decision on 81-23,169 conditional sales, which is as follows:—A. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 extends, by Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision, along the whole of the northern boundary of W. McIlveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, and that decision, as regards A. McIlveen's conditional purchase, has not been set aside, consequently the whole of the southern part of portion 134 forms part of A. McIlveen's conditional purchase.

ROBT. D. FITZGERALD,
(For Surveyor-General).

24th Dec., 1881.

REPLY.

I have seen Mr. W. McIlveen, who represents his brother in this matter, and he has asked me to re-submit this case for consideration. He is desirous of having 46 acres measured, as shown by heavy broken blue lines on tracing herewith, and offers the following reasons for making such request:—

1st. That his brother has now had possession of portion No. 129 for the last seven (7) years, and during that period he has made valuable improvements on the western and northern side of that portion, which he will lose if Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision is enforced.

2nd. As Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision has been departed from in granting the whole of portion No. 26 (so as to embrace valuable improvements), it is now suggested to make a similar departure to save the applicant unnecessary loss.

3rd. At the time Mr. Secretary Garrett's decision was given the portion of the improvements made by W. and A. McIlveen was unknown, therefore he considers the case is worthy of re-consideration.

4th. If the proposed form of measurement of A. McIlveen's conditional purchase is enforced, will sever W. McIlveen's additional conditional purchase of 320 acres from his original conditional purchase of 320 acres.

I

I may add that the form of survey Mr. M'Ilveen is desirous of procuring will make his property more compact than that suggested by the Department, therefore more valuable; it will also reduce his loss of fencing to ten (10) chains, whereas the Minister's decision, if carried out, will cause a loss of (40) forty acres; it will also make a very much better design. Therefore I respectfully suggest that the case be recommended.

THOMAS H. H. GOODWIN.

16th February, 1882.

P.S.—May I ask that this case be dealt with at once, as I expect to be working in the parish of Howe's Hill within two months, and would like this instruction returned so that the field work could be done.—T.H.H.G.

Minutes on No. 148.

By the Surveyor-General:—The case has again been submitted to the Secretary for Lands, who has decided that the original decision, which located Alexander M'Ilveen's south boundary along the whole of W. M'Ilveen's north boundary, should not be set aside. The instructions of the 24th December, 1881, should at once be carried out.—RBT. D. FITZGERALD (for Surveyor General), 25 Oct., /82.

The paper received from Lands this day, 21st Feb., 1883, is now forwarded to Mr. L.S. Goodwin, to carry out the instructions of the 25th Oct., 1882. Attention is drawn to the reminder of the 16th Feb., 1883, on the same subject.—W.D.A. (for Sur.-Genl.), 21 Feb., 1883.

No. 149.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

William and Alexander M'Ilveen's conditional purchases 74-4,926 and 74-4,927.

The within case, which has been fully considered by Mr. Secretary Hoskins before giving his decision on 81-32,169 C.S., was intended to allow Alexander and William M'Ilveen the land improved in 1879, but not to validate William M'Ilveen's additional conditional purchases 77-96 and 77-101, which were declared void, as they did not adjoin applicant's previous conditional purchase. The proposal of the surveyor to give Alexander M'Ilveen a strip of land along the entire east boundary of portion No. 26 is evidently intended to re-establish W. M'Ilveen's claim to his additional conditional purchase.

As the original decision located Alexander M'Ilveen's south boundary along the whole of Wm. M'Ilveen's north boundary, and as that decision has not been set aside, and as the departure proposed by the surveyor would prejudice Clift Brothers' claim under additional conditional purchase 77-102, it is submitted that Mr. Secretary Hoskins' decision be maintained.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 21st September, 1882, and that I found the selector then not resident upon this selection.

The land, which consists of plain, and comprises 120 acres, is now occupied and used by Williams Brothers as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of ———, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz.:—87 chains 6-wire fence, £60.

From the appearance of the land, and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The original C.P. is well improved, and appears to have been used as a residence for a number of years.

No. 154.

Messrs. Blomfield & Dickson to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

139, Pitt-street, 25 January, 1883.

We have been instructed by Messrs. Clift Brothers to apply for the issue of a certificate of conformity for the conditional purchase noted in the margin, all conditions having been fulfilled, and as it is important that they should have this certificate, we have the honor to request that you will cause same to be issued without delay, as at the present time they are being annoyed by one W. McIlveen, who selected the same land, but whose selection has twice been declared void by two different Ministers, and yet he refuses to leave the land, and it is for the purpose of enabling the Messrs. Clift to take the proper legal steps that the certificate is now asked for. We therefore hope that you will cause the certificate to be prepared at once.

We have, &c.,
BLOMFIELD & DICKSON.

Minutes on No. 154.

From Survey Branch memorandum it appears measurement of McIlveen's conditional purchases has not yet been made, and as Clifts' conditional purchase 77-102 conflicts with McIlveen's, certificate cannot issue for the present. Writers should be informed.—W.A., 15/3/83. Inform Mr. Clift that his conditional purchase 77-102 application is now in the hands of the surveyor for measurement, and that a certificate cannot issue until survey has been approved.—W.B., 29 March, 1883. Mr. Brown,—Any report received, please.—E.W.P., 15/8/83. No report.—C.D., 20/8/83.

No. 155.

No. 155.

The Surveyor-General to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Goodwin.

Sir, Surveyor-General's Office, Sydney, 16 February, 1883.
I beg to invite your attention to my letter of the 28th day of July, 1882, whereby you were directed to measure Messrs. W. and A. M'Ilveen's conditional purchases, in accordance with the decision of the Secretary for Lands, and I have to request that you will carry out the instructions above referred to with as little delay as possible, and report on this memo. when the instruction will probably be carried out.

I have, &c.,
R. D. FITZGERALD,
(For the Surveyor-General).

No. 156.

The Chief Commissioner to Messrs. Blomfield & Dickson.

Gentlemen, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 30 March, 1883.
Replying to your letter of the 25th January last, urging, on behalf of Messrs. Clift Brothers, that certificate of conformity may be issued for their selection noted in the margin, I have the honor to inform you that the application for the selection in question is now in the hands of the surveyor for measurement, and that a certificate cannot issue until the survey has been approved.

I have, &c.,
A. O. MORIARTY,
Chief Commissioner.

No. 157.

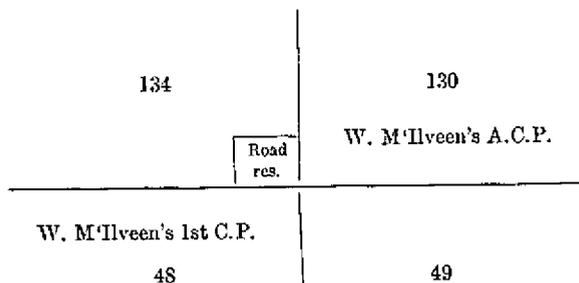

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Turner to The Surveyor-General.

Sir, Gunnedah, 31 July, 1883.
I have the honor to enclose herewith instruction, 21st February, to Mr. L.-S. Goodwin, transferred to me on 2nd April, and to report as follows:—

On the 26th of the present month I went on to the ground to carry out survey, as instructed, but William M'Ilveen (applicant's brother) so strongly objected to the form of survey, and his case seems so hard, that I came to the conclusion that it would be better to more fully represent the case to you, with a view to further instructions.

William M'Ilveen has applied for portion 130, as additional conditional purchase to the part coloured blue on tracing, his first conditional purchase, but as the Minister has decided that Alexander M'Ilveen's land must extend as far east as his brother's, William M'Ilveen is cut off from his additional conditional purchase, as portion 48 would adjoin it at a point only, and I believe this is held to be not adjoining.

If the Minister's ruling may not be modified, even to the extent of a chain, &c., I would suggest that a square chain of road be introduced; thus:

To enable William M'Ilveen's selections to adjoin each other through the road.

On the tracing the land the subject of M'Ilveen's applications seems to be held by Clift Bros., but it will be seen by enclosed copy of conditional purchase that M'Ilveen's conditional purchase is anterior.

The value of the land the subject of M'Ilveen's additional conditional purchase is £600, and it is improved by him by fencing. He has been in undisturbed possession of it for seven years, and is evidently a bona fide selector.

I have, &c.,
E. W. TURNER.

[Enclosure to No. 157.]

Be good enough to let Mr. John Gill, M.P., see the papers in reference to the applications of William M'Ilveen for conditional purchases made at Gunnedah or Tamworth.
J. P. ABBOTT, 29/9/83.

Minutes on No. 157.

The Minister directed me to request that the accompanying case may receive early attention.—A.O.M., 2/10/83.

Charting Branch,—At the request of Mr. M'Ilveen, the case may be re-opened, and both parties may be heard on Tuesday, the 27th November. Mr. Clift to be informed.—J.S.F., 9/11/83.

To the Surveyor-General, 3rd August, 1883.—COLIN J. M'MASTER.

Mr. Armstrong,—In connection with papers C.S. 83-594 correspondence.—J. G. ROBINSON, 31st August, 1883.

By the Surveyor-General:—By the decision of the Ministers, Mr. Garrett, Mr. Hoskins, and Sir John Robertson, it has been decided that Alexander M'Ilveen's conditional purchase 74-4,927 is to be bounded on the whole of the south by William M'Ilveen's conditional purchase 74-4,926, and upon those decisions it would appear to me that no action remains for the Surveyor-General except directions to the surveyor to carry out the instructions already given ; but it appears necessary, before so directing, to invite attention to the wording of Alexander M'Ilveen's description, which states his land to be bounded on the south in part by William M'Ilveen's conditional purchase, an item in the description to which sufficient attention has not been directed.—R. D. FITZGERALD (for the Surveyor-General), 7th September, 1883.

By the Chief Commissioner :—This case has occupied a good deal of attention, and has been the subject of concurrent decisions by several Ministers on survey report, dealing in detail with the respective claims. The decision of Mr. Hoskins in particular, on survey report on 81-32,169, was re-affirmed by Sir John Robertson, in accordance with the survey report 82-6,288, enclosed. It would, it appears to me, be dangerous and undesirable to re-open such a case upon a single point, and I would suggest that, if it be considered advisable that it should be reconsidered, the case as a whole should be fully set out.—A.O.M., 13/9/83.

By the Minister for Lands :—Approved.—J.S.F., 19/9/83.

Mr. Turner instructed to carry out the amendment as directed on 82-1,277 conditional sales ; number of instruction, 133, 8th October, 1883.—W. D. ARMSTRONG, 20 November, 1883.

Telegram to delay acting on instructions until further advised.—W. D. ARMSTRONG, 23 Nov., 1883.

As no reply has been received from Mr. J. Gull, M.P., on behalf of Mr. M'Ilveen, or from Messrs. Blomfield & Dickson, on behalf of Messrs. Clift Brothers, in answer to letters addressed to them on 20th November last, according to notation, the case is submitted as to what further action should be taken. Mr. Wiseman, before submitting the case, see whether any reply has now been received.—C.N., 3rd January, 1884.

No reply.—G.P., 10/1/84.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON

M'ILVEEN & CLIFT'S CONDITIONAL PURCHASES.

WEDNESDAY, 17 SEPTEMBER, 1884.

Present:—

MR. FREMLIN, | MR. GILL,
MR. LEVIEN.

JOHN GILL, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

William M'Ilveen, junr., called in, sworn, and examined:—

1. Chairman.] You remember selecting 320 acres of land? I do.
2. What time ago? On the 30th April, 1874.
3. How long was it after you selected until you went to reside there? Three days afterwards. I went to reside there on May 3.
4. How long did you reside on this land before you received notice that your application was cancelled? It was some time afterwards—I could not tell you the exact date.
5. But it was cancelled? It was declared void.
6. How long after that did you receive notice that the cancellation was revoked and the purchase allowed to go? I cannot tell you for a certainty—it was about six months.
7. Do you remember your brother making a selection? I do.
8. Your brother Alexander M'Ilveen? Yes.
9. Was it on the same day that you selected? It was.
10. Did your brother select after you, or before? After my selection was made.
11. Immediately after? Some two or three minutes after.
12. Did your brother select any portion of the land that you had selected just before; did your applications clash in any way? No. If he had got it according to his application it would not have clashed.
13. Was your land surveyed to you according to your description? A portion of it was surveyed before I selected it.
14. I mean finally? By Mr. Surveyor Goodwin.
15. Did Mr. Goodwin also survey your brother's land? Yes.
16. As he applied for it? No. I may explain better by the plan (referring to Enclosure C, 132, in the printed papers).
17. Did Mr. Goodwin give any portion of your land to your brother? Yes, he gave him portion No. 129, as shown on this plan.
18. Did this land surveyed by Mr. Goodwin embrace portions 48, 20, 54, and 53? Yes.
19. And on the same day after you had made your selection, your brother Alexander selected 320 acres, described as Nos. 74, 4,927, north of and adjoining part of your conditional purchase of 320 acres made the same day? Yes, that is correct.
20. Was this land measured to him as he selected it, according to the description? Not according to the description.
21. Did they not give him the land north of your selection? It was north, but it adjoined the whole of my northern boundary, instead of part of it.
22. Was there enough land north of your selection to make up his 320 acres? There was plenty.

W. M'Ilveen,
junr.
17 Sept., 1884.

- W. M'Ilveen, jun.
17 Sept., 1884.
23. What was the effect of that land being measured in that manner, embracing the whole of your northern boundary? It cut me off from my additions. I had taken up additions previous to the survey.
 24. Before this land was surveyed for you, you had taken up additional selections? Yes.
 25. And by the change of the measurement in your brother's land you were cut off from the additional selections, and consequently could not get them? Yes.
 26. The other description cut you off? Yes.
 27. By whom was that made? By Mr. Garrett.
 28. Who was the surveyor? Mr. Goodwin.
 29. And he measured it according to the description from the Lands Office? He objected to measure it as they sent it up—he objected to cut me off.
 30. And then Mr. Turner was sent? Yes. Mr. Turner measured portion 129 for Alexander M'Ilveen.
 31. Mr. Goodwin would not and did not measure it, as it was afterwards done by Mr. Turner, who was sent up to do it? Yes, and Mr. Turner objected to measure it unless they left a road for my additions.
 32. But he did measure it without leaving a road? No, he left a road.
 33. In consequence of the surveyor not being allowed to measure the land as it was selected, your additional selections were cancelled? Declared void.
 34. And had your brother's description and your own been strictly adhered to you would have had the whole of the land? Yes.
 35. Was there plenty of vacant land at that time, or was it selected all round when you took up the additions? There was not much at that time.
 36. Was there at the time you took up the original selections? There were thousands of acres.
 37. I think the surveyor, Mr. Higgins, said in his letter that there was not? I positively swear there were thousands of acres, all open for selection.
 38. Did Mr. Goodwin propose to measure land including portion 129? Mr. Goodwin measured portion 129 for my brother Alexander M'Ilveen, but he was instructed to measure portion 134, adjoining me.
 39. What was the name of the Minister who cancelled this measurement of 129? I never knew anything about that.
 40. Did Mr. Goodwin measure land for your brother embracing that portion 129? Yes, he did.
 41. Was that survey adhered to, or was it cancelled by the office? It was adhered to for two years.
 42. What was done then? It was cancelled after my brother having it two years, and after having been measured by the surveyor.
 43. Did Mr. Garrett decide that Alexander M'Ilveen's land should embrace the measured portion 134, and thus join the whole of your northern boundary? I never saw Mr. Garrett's decision.
 44. Did the surveyor measure it in that manner? Not Mr. Goodwin.
 45. His measurement was cancelled, and your brother's is so made as to go along the whole of your northern boundary, which cut you off? Yes.
 46. This was contrary to your description and to your brother's description. Yes.
 47. Mr. Levien.] Have you read a memo. from Mr. Finch, at page 44 of the printed papers—You will see he says—“By additional conditional purchase 77-96, Wm. M'Ilveen applied for portions 129, 130, and 134, and, by conditional purchase 77-101, for portion 131 and part of 135”—Is that correct? That is correct.
 48. He then says—“These applications were declared void on the 23rd February, 1878, as the land applied for did not adjoin the original conditional purchase as located under Mr. Garrett's decision”—Now, what do you say to that—was the land available at the time? It was, at the time I selected the conditional purchases.
 49. He says—“These conditional purchases had previously been declared void, on the erroneous supposition that the original conditional purchase was void; the voiding of these conditional purchases left the land applied for by Messrs. Clift available for that conditional purchase, except so far as it was covered by A. M'Ilveen's conditional purchase”—Is that so? Yes.
 50. Do you say the land was available at the time you applied by virtue of your conditional purchase? It was gazetted for sale as adjoining Wm. M'Ilveen, jun.
 51. You have no doubt it was gazetted for sale at that time? Not the slightest.
 52. Did the surveyor come on to the land after that date? Yes.
 53. Who? Mr. Goodwin, and Mr. Turner too.
 54. Did you point out to them that the land was available? Yes.
 55. What did Mr. Turner say to you? He said it was a very hard case, and refused to survey it according to the instructions sent to him from here.
 56. Do you know what those instructions were? It was to survey it contrary to our applications.
 57. Did Mr. Turner, when he refused to measure it, tell you that the land was available? It was after I had selected that Mr. Turner came.
 58. Chairman.] On what date did you select? On the 12th and on the 26th July, 1877.
 59. Mr. Levien.] Mr. Turner came up on your application? The Government sent him up there.
 60. And he told you that the land, when you applied for it, must have been available? I do not remember what he said.
 61. Did the auction blocks adjoin? Yes, and were gazetted as adjoining Wm. M'Ilveen's selections.
 62. Was the land available at the time Mr. Goodwin surveyed it? I had it selected when Mr. Goodwin surveyed it.
 63. Was the land available then? They were measured portions—they were not available for selection again. I had them selected as measured portions.
 64. Chairman.] Were they put up for auction after you had selected on them? No—previously.
 65. They could not have been put up for auction unless they were surveyed? No.
 66. Did Mr. Goodwin alter the survey? Yes, he included portion 129 for my brother, Alexander M'Ilveen. That was part of my conditional purchase.
 67. Then he included a portion that you had selected in your brother's selection? Yes.
 68. Did you want that done? Yes, I wanted it included in his, in place of 134.
 69. And you had been in undisturbed possession for seven years? Yes.
 70. This land was gazetted for sale after you had selected it? No—before.
 71. To be sold at Gunnedah? Yes; I heard it was to be sold, and I selected on the last Thursday previous to the day of sale. Mr. Clift selected it on the Thursday afterwards.

72. Do you remember what his description was? Portions 130, 131, and 135.
73. Mr. Fremlin.] When you selected this additional land did the Land Agent say that it was all clearly defined on the map? I know it was in the Gazette.
74. Did you furnish a plan? No, only described the portions.
75. Can you tell whether there was any difference in the description of the land you applied for and the same application made by Mr. Clift? No difference whatever, with the exception that I selected two portions more than he did. I described part of portion 135, and he took the whole of it.
76. How many acres did that lose you? I cannot tell you for a certainty; about 176 acres.
77. Mr. Levien.] Both your applications are dated prior to his? Yes.
78. Chairman.] What time did you receive notice that your conditional purchases were cancelled—did you receive any letter of the cancellation? I received a letter that they were declared void, and I received another that the voidance was revoked.
79. When did you receive another notice saying that they were cancelled? I never received any until I went in to pay my interest.
80. When was that? About two years and six months afterwards.
81. Was it at the latter end of 1880? Yes.
82. They would not receive your interest? No.
83. And told you they were cancelled? Yes; that was the first notice I had after the revocation.
84. Mr. Fremlin.] Who was John Eccles? He was a dummy for the Messrs. Clift.
85. Was he a servant of the Clifts? Yes; he originally selected and transferred to the Clifts.
86. Chairman.] Did Eccles reside on that land? Yes.
87. The whole time? The whole time after I was there.
88. What was Eccles doing on that selection? He was shepherding for the Clifts.

W. M'Ilveen
jun.
17 Sept., 1884.

Alexander M'Ilveen called in, sworn, and examined:—

89. Chairman.] You remember selecting 320 acres on the 30th April, 1874? Yes, at Tamworth.
90. And your brother William selected 320 acres of land on the same day? Yes, 320 acres.
91. Did your brother select after you, or before you? Before me. I took mine adjoining his; partly adjoining on the north end; that was my description.
92. You did not select any portion of the land that your brother had selected? No.
93. Your description did not clash with his? No.
94. Is this your description:—"County of Pottinger, parish of Howe's Hill, 320 acres, on Trinkey Downs, north of and adjoining part of William M'Ilveen's conditional purchase of 320 acres made this day"? Yes, that was my description.
95. When was that land measured to you? I cannot rightly say. Some months after that. It had been a measured portion before we took it up.
96. Part of it was? Some of it—not all. I believe mine was a 320-acre block.
97. It was a measured block of 320 acres? There were two parts that amounted to 320 acres altogether.
98. And both those parts were measured? Yes.
99. Did you know that when you took them up? No, I did not know that they were measured.
100. Did those measurements stand good? Yes, and I put the improvements upon mine as it was.
101. Was there any change made in the measurement? Yes, soon.
102. Did you apply for any change to be made? No, I did not.
103. And you did not want any change? No, I only wanted it as I took it up.
104. If you had got that land according to your description, would it have cut your brother off from his additional purchases? No, it was adjoining me on the north end.
105. Would it have cut him off? In the old original survey there was a corner peg that my brother started from. I did not in any way encroach upon my brother's land.
106. What surveyor came and changed that measurement, and made it run the whole way along the northern boundary of your brother? It was done lately. I was away at Ben Lomond.
107. Was the boundary measured during your absence, and about how long ago? I suppose about twelve months since the first measurement—I cannot be exactly sure.
108. How long were you in occupation before your ground was measured? Some five or six years.
109. And no one interfered with you? No one interfered at all.
110. Do you still own that selection? Yes.
111. And that is your residence? It is the only home I have got.
112. Mr. Fremlin.] Were your selections passed and approved? Yes.
113. And how long were you in occupation after they were approved? Some two years.

A. M'Ilveen.
17 Sept., 1884.

Thomas M'Clelland called in, sworn, and examined:—

114. Chairman.] You remember William M'Ilveen, junior, selecting some land at Tamworth? I do.
115. Where was the land? It was at Goran, under Colly Blue Mountain.
116. Do you remember whether William M'Ilveen, junior, went to live there shortly after he selected that land? In three days after; I was with him.
117. You believe that he has been residing there continuously ever since? Yes; he has no other home.
118. He is married? Yes.
119. And his family are with him? They are there now.
120. Are you aware that, at the time he selected that land and went to live there, that there was plenty of vacant land all round it? There were some thousands of acres round it; there were no habitations within 2 miles of it when we went on to the ground. I took up some land there myself at the same time.
121. Mr. Levien.] And there was plenty of land available for additional conditional purchases? There was at that time, and no appearance of anything else on the map. We tried the map in Tamworth.
122. Mr. Fremlin.] Then there was no occasion for one selection to overlap another? None whatever.
123. Chairman.] At the time he took up the additional selections was there any vacant land? I cannot tell.

T.M'Clelland.
17 Sept., 1884.

John Kelly called in, sworn, and examined :—

- J. Kelly. 124. Chairman.] You reside at Goran? Yes.
 125. You know the selections taken up near your place by William M'Ilveen, jun.? Yes.
 17Sept., 1884. 126. Do you reside near him? Yes.
 127. Are you aware of what time he selected that land? Yes; it was in 1874.
 128. Do you know if he was on the ground and commenced his residence shortly afterwards? Yes, I know he did—within two months. I was there at the time he selected.
 129. He may have been there within three days from the time he selected? Yes, I know he left Tamworth to go down.
 130. At that time was there any vacant land round him? Yes, there was plenty of Crown land vacant.
 131. Was there any residence near him at that time? There was no residence when I went—several came afterwards. There was plenty of available land, both measured and unmeasured.
 132. Mr. Levien.] At the time he took up the additional purchases, was there plenty of land? No; those additions were the only available land at the time that he could take.
 133. At the time he selected, was there any occasion for one selection to overlap another? No, there was no occasion, for there was plenty of land available.

Present:—

MR. LEVIEN,	}	MR. TARGETT,
MR. LYNE,		MR. FREMLIN.

JOHN GILL, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Edwin Woodward Turner, Esq., called in and examined :—

- E. W. Turner, Esq. 134. Mr. Levien.] You are a licensed surveyor? Yes.
 7 Oct., 1884. 135. Chairman.] Do you remember surveying some land for William and Alexander M'Ilveen? Yes, I surveyed land for one Alexander M'Ilveen, and William objected.
 136. Was William M'Ilveen's land surveyed at the time? It had been. I went to survey for Alexander M'Ilveen. Mr. Surveyor Goodwin had surveyed for William M'Ilveen.
 137. You did survey that land? I did, for Alexander M'Ilveen.
 138. At that time? Yes.
 139. Did your survey hold good, or was it cancelled? Well, I surveyed it, but I did not send in the plan; I reported on the case instead.
 140. Was Mr. Goodwin's survey for Mr. William M'Ilveen cancelled by the Department? Not that I know of.
 141. Mr. Levien.] In your letter on page 49 of the papers you say:—"On the 26th of the present month I went on to the ground to carry out survey, as instructed, but William M'Ilveen (applicant's brother) so strongly objected to the form of survey, and his case seems so hard, that I came to the conclusion that it would be better to more fully represent the case to you, with a view to further instructions."—Whose case did you refer to as being "so hard"? Wm. M'Ilveen's. I surveyed for Alexander, but it was William's case that seemed so hard.
 142. William made the protest? Yes.
 143. You say, "It would be better to more fully represent the case to you, with a view to further instructions"? Yes.
 144. Did you further represent the case? This, it seems to me, is the letter in which I represented the case. It is the only thing that I did—I sent this letter in.
 145. This is the only thing that you did? Yes.
 146. What did you mean by saying that William's case was very hard? That the survey of Alexander M'Ilveen, if carried out according to instructions, would cut off William's original from his additional purchase.
 147. That is to say, that Alexander M'Ilveen's selection would have spoilt his brother's? Yes, it could not adjoin the original.
 148. You know that their object was to keep all their selections together? Yes.
 149. I am going to put a straightforward question, and I want an answer—Was the land available at that time, in your opinion as a surveyor? As far as I know it was.
 150. Could you as a surveyor, acting upon your own opinion, apart from any instructions from the Minister, have carried out the survey of Alex. M'Ilveen if you had liked—I know the position you are in with regard to the Minister, but I want an answer to that question? I do not exactly understand it.
 151. If you were acting apart from any instructions whatever from the Minister—acting upon the dictates of your own conscience—could you have joined both these selections? Certainly, I could have measured them so that William M'Ilveen's selection would have joined.
 152. As they desired? As they desired.
 153. Then why did you not do so? Because the instructions were definite.
 154. That is, the instructions from the Surveyor-General? A decision had been given by Mr. Garrett, who said that both the selections must join along the whole of their boundaries, and I could not survey the land so as to suit the applicants.
 155. But you could have surveyed to suit the applicants? Yes, if I had had no instructions.
 156. You know that the applicants had applied to join their selections? Yes.
 157. You say you could have surveyed according to their desires and their descriptions? Alex. M'Ilveen applied for a block adjoining the north boundary of his brother's. I could show it best on a diagram. On the diagram in Appendix B, Wm. M'Ilveen's land is blocks No. 20 and No. 48 partly, and Alex. M'Ilveen applied for a piece of land north of and adjoining his brother's.
 158. That is the application you are speaking of now? No; I mean Alexander M'Ilveen's first application.

E. W. Turner,
Esq.
7 Oct., 1884.

159. That is described on page 5 :—"County of Pottinger, parish of Howe's Hill, 320 acres, on Trinkey Downs, north of and adjoining part of William M'Ilveen's conditional purchase of 320 acres made this day." The point I wish to draw attention to is this—that it was north of and adjoining part of William M'Ilveen's land? I did not know that the word "part" was in it; but be that as it may, Mr. Garrett held that the whole of Alexander M'Ilveen's conditional purchase must adjoin the whole north boundary of his brother's; it was not sufficient to join a part of it. William M'Ilveen's land would not join except at one point.

160. But it would if it had been surveyed according to their wishes? Yes.

161. And there was plenty of land to do it? It adjoins nearly the whole of it.

162. So that actually his application was correct? This word "part" makes it perfectly correct, and leaves no foundation for Mr. Garrett's decision.

163. That is what I want to get at—You could have pleased the applicant without doing any injury to anybody else's interest; if you had been acting apart from any instructions from a superior officer you could have surveyed the land to suit their wishes? Yes.

164. Mr. Fremlin.] You say that this land ought to have adjoined all along the northern boundary? No.*

165. Was that the usual thing? I have made many surveys, but I have never considered it necessary to join the whole. I know it has been held so. I maintain that it is sufficient if the additional purchase adjoins part of the original purchase.

166. Chairman.] Then this was not surveyed according to the description? No, it was not.

167. If it had been surveyed according to the description both these brothers would have got their land? Both would have been satisfied.

168. Mr. Levien.] Are you aware that this land was advertised in the Gazette for sale, and that William M'Ilveen took it up after it had been advertised? I do not know anything about that.

169. Do you know of your own knowledge that this addition had been taken up, and that no bother arose until afterwards? No, not of my own knowledge. I believe that M'Ilveen's applications were anterior to any sent in by Clift Bros.

170. You got no instructions whatever from the Surveyor-General that the descriptions of the land applied for in the first instance, the original C.P.s, were wrong? No. When I reported on this I got a telegram from the Surveyor-General to stop the case; then a month ago I got another telegram to go on with it as originally instructed.

171. Are you in that district now? Yes.

172. When did you receive that telegram? The one stopping action, if I remember right, was in November last year, and the one to continue the work must have been within the last three months—about August, I should think.

173. You think it a hard case? I think it a most absurd thing.

174. And you think that these people have been hardly dealt with? I think that the M'Ilveens have.

175. Mr. Fremlin.] Did you ever know a selection forfeited in a similar manner before? Never. Even if the words "part of" had not been in the description, it seems to me that the Minister would have had power to amend the description, there being no legally conflicting interest.

176. Chairman.] Are you aware that William M'Ilveen, although selecting on the same day, selected before his brother Alexander, and that Alexander followed him? That must have been so, because Alexander referred to his brother's application, his (Alexander's) description.

177. And by Alex. M'Ilveen's description being altered to take the whole north line of Wm. M'Ilveen's land, it cut off his brother's land entirely from his additional purchase? Yes.

178. And although his brother selected after him, his land was allowed to be measured so as to cut Wm. M'Ilveen's off? Yes, that is so; but I expect that Wm. M'Ilveen's additional purchase was selected after Alexander M'Ilveen's original purchase.

179. Chairman.] I think you will find that both were on the same day? There were two selections by one brother and one by the other. William M'Ilveen's selection would come in between the other brother's two in point of date.

180. They did not give Alexander M'Ilveen the land he selected—his description was altered? Yes; I think they both got approximately what they applied for.

181. And the additional purchases? William never got his at all.

182. Mr. Levien.] I know that William made his selection on July 20th, 1877, and then selected on the following Thursday, the 26th.

183. Chairman.] However, the brothers' descriptions did not interfere with one another—there was plenty of land for both? Yes, if the Minister had not ruled in that peculiar manner.

184. Mr. Levien.] You surveyed them according to the Minister's instructions, and not according to your own conscience? Yes, and I maintain that I did right in doing so.

185. Chairman.] Did you write to the office and point this out before you carried out the survey? I carried the survey out in one way, but inasmuch as I never sent in a plan, it is no survey.

186. You wrote to the office before sending in your plans? Yes.

187. And explained the matter? I would not send in a plan because I did not think it fair. I could have sent a plan in—I am simply a servant of the Surveyor-General, and I said (as the instructions are definite and explicit, and I can throw no new light on the subject, Mr. Surveyor Goodwin having said all that could be said) I shall most likely be getting a snubbing for my pains, but I will try to do something for you.

188. You got a telegram telling you to stop all action: what were your instructions afterwards? About August I received another telegram telling me to go on with the case; I said that I could not throw any light upon it, and that Mr. Goodwin had reported in his favour; I promised to report again, however, and a happy thought struck me, which was that I might introduce a square chain of road. We have power to introduce as many roads as we like. We have no power to interfere with instructions, except for making roads and affording access to water, and I thought it within my province to introduce a small piece of road, by means of which William M'Ilveen should join his selection.

189. Mr. Levien.] You were following up the principle adopted by Mr. Goodwin? No, he did not think of that.

190.

* NOTE (on revision). Mr. Garrett's decision said it should adjoin the whole of the boundary, and my instructions from the Surveyor-General were to measure accordingly. My reply to Mr. Fremlin's question would be "No," as far as I am capable of judging the point, which is law, not surveying.

- E. W. Turner, Esq.
7, Oct., 1884.
190. Chairman.] That road would have enabled you to carry out the Minister's instructions? Yes, and the applicants' wishes. I have sent in a plan of it.
191. Mr. Fremlin.] Do you know whether Clift Bros. employ a land agent in Sydney? I do not know.
192. Do you know whether the M'Ilveens do? M'Ilveen told me that he employed Mr. Brown. I sent a plan of the survey according to the Minister's instructions with 1 chain of road through which the applicant could join. That carries out the Minister's decision and suits all legally concerned, i.e., both brothers, but not the Clift Bros., who appear to have no legal status.
193. Mr. Lyne.] Would it not be a most unusual thing to reserve a chain of road to part two portions of land? Very unusual, but it is within the instructions.
194. Mr. Levien.] Have you made another survey this year? That is only a design; I have measured the land since.
195. Then you went on the 31st July to make a fresh survey, and you followed up your previous one of the 31st July, 1883? Yes, what I recommended in 1883.
196. So that if they had carried out this plan and what you stated in 1883 it would have averted all the difficulty which has now arisen? It seems so to me. Every one would have been pleased except Clift Bros., and the Minister's decision would not have been upset.
197. Chairman.] The decision might have remained? Yes, it was an artifice to satisfy the applicants' wishes, irrespective of the Minister's decision.
198. Mr. Lyne.] Did I understand you to say that only on some occasions you measure portions of land adjoining the whole of the boundary described? On some occasions. I do not consider it necessary when a selection is described as adjoining a boundary of another selection; it does not appear to me necessary to adjoin along the whole length of such boundary. I was not aware of the existence of the words "part of" before appearing before the Committee.
199. It is not competent for the Department to join an additional purchase at one point? Not at one point.
200. Suppose it is only for a distance of half a chain? Yes, they can do that. There were special instructions issued about that a year or two ago, with diagrams showing that very thing.
201. Chairman.] Have you seen Mr. M'Ilveen's original description? No; I have only seen copies sent by the Charting Branch.
202. The description of William M'Ilveen says: County of Pottinger, parish of Goran, 320 acres, on Trinkey Downs, to the north of Colly Blue Mountain, to take in a small clump of apple-trees—Did you notice that there was a clump of apple-trees? Mr. Goodwin surveyed that.
203. Have you been on the land? Yes.
204. Did you see a small clump of apple-trees? I might—I am not sure.
205. Was this north of the Colly Blue Mountain? There are a lot of mountains there, and there is one large one, which may be the Colly Mountain.
206. Was it north or west? I do not know.
207. Then Mr. Goodwin is answerable for that survey? Yes.

WEDNESDAY, 8 OCTOBER, 1884.

Present:—

MR. DAY, | MR. FREMLIN.
JOHN GILL, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Robert D. Fitzgerald, Esq., called in and examined:—

- R. D. Fitzgerald, Esq.
8 Oct., 1884.
208. Chairman.] You are Deputy Surveyor-General? Yes.
209. Do you remember a conditional purchase made by Wm. M'Ilveen? Yes.
210. Do you remember Mr. M'Ilveen's description? Yes, I think I do.
211. Do you remember giving orders to Mr. Higgins to survey that conditional purchase? I cannot say that I do remember giving the order, but I believe that he received the order.
212. Do you remember a letter of Mr. Higgins' stating that there was no vacant land there? Yes, I think there was a letter of Mr. Higgins' to the effect that there was not enough vacant land.
213. Two letters, were there not? I believe there were.
214. Do you remember the dates? No, I do not. I have not seen the case for years; I know the history of it, but I cannot give you such particulars as dates.
215. Do you remember the Minister for Lands altering the descriptions of the M'Ilveen Brothers? I do not think he altered the descriptions, but he located the claims.
216. How could he locate the portions without altering the descriptions? In this way: William M'Ilveen's description was altogether indefinite; it was fixed, if I remember rightly, by a clump of trees. There was vacant land, but there was nothing to show that it was the land M'Ilveen wanted; the Minister placed the selection there because the land was the only vacant land in the supposed locality; he located it as a description which was undefined—as a description which was at first recommended to be declared void.
217. Are you aware that there was land there? There was land.
218. And that the Minister took it upon himself to alter the selection, giving William M'Ilveen land which he never applied for, that he was cut off, and that his selection was given to Clift Brothers? I should hardly put it in that way.
219. How would you put it? There was an indefinite selection made by William M'Ilveen; the Minister located it, and he afterwards altered the location at the desire of M'Ilveen. Subsequently an alteration was made by the surveyor in surveying without authority.
220. Did the surveyor without authority measure this land according to the description of the Brothers M'Ilveen? It could not be said what the description amounted to, because the first one was indefinite; the second one was described from the first. Alexander's was described from William's, and William's was indefinite.
221. How was it indefinite? It was described from a clump of trees.
222. Was there another clump of trees within miles of the place? I do not know.

223.

R. D.
Fitzgerald,
Esq.

8 Oct., 1884.

223. You think the description directly south of Colly Blue Mountain—a very particular mountain—and of a clump of apple-trees, an indefinite description? I think it was indefinite.
224. How many descriptions do you receive—how many go through your hands which are definite—are 10 per cent. of them definite? More than that a great deal.
225. Is not the description a really good one, having regard to the descriptions which go through your office? I do not think so. It was recommended to be declared void in the first instance.
226. Who recommended it? I think it was Mr. Adams, late Chief Draftsman. I am not at all certain now that the land did embrace a clump of trees.
227. Mr. Fremlin.] Is it not the usual practice, when a selector sends in a description, for the surveyor to have the selector present when the land is surveyed? Yes, it is; but in very many cases it never goes to the surveyor on account of the indefiniteness of the description.
228. But this did, Mr. Fitzgerald—if it is the usual practice for the selector to be present, do you think it would be definite if the selector pointed out a particular clump of trees? The description was indefinite even in other respects, because embracing a clump of trees and bearing south of a certain mountain does not locate the land very much.
229. You would not know the clump of trees, but the surveyor being on the spot with the man's description in writing of the physical features, pointing out the exact portion of the land, would you not think that sufficiently definite? I know that many selections are made of such a kind, but I do not think them definite; a clump of trees may be in this corner or that corner, in another corner, or in the middle. There is no definiteness. Great latitude is given in cases in which there is no clashing with a second party.
230. If there is only one clump of trees, would not that have been a definite description? I know that many measurements are made with no more definite descriptions, but I do not consider it was a definite one; it was the Minister who established it by his location.
231. Chairman.] Is it usual for a Minister to take it upon himself to alter a description of two brothers, or any descriptions, so as to give the parties land which they never selected? I can hardly say that in this case there was an alteration of the description—I would not define it as that; it is a locating by the Minister of an indefinite description.
232. Do you think that giving to a man land which he has never selected is not an alteration of the description? If the applicant stated that it was not the land he intended to select I do not think the Minister would force the location upon him; but the Minister was at this time undoubtedly doing what he thought best for the two M'Ilveens in giving them the land which was vacant, whether it embraced the clump of trees or not.
233. Do you think that selections adjoining at a corner or at a point would hold good? It has been decided on many occasions that to touch a corner is not to adjoin.
234. Mr. Fremlin.] Suppose a selector applies for a selection in this shape (exhibiting diagram), say something in this form lapping over 5 chains, would that be right? It would be.
235. Would it be usual for the Minister to demand that that additional selection should run the whole length of the boundary? Oh no, he would not require that.
236. Are you aware that as regards this particular application the Minister decided that the additional selection* should run the whole length of the northern boundary? He did, but it was under peculiar circumstances.
237. Will you describe them? The first application was indefinite; the Minister located it, and he located the second application which was made by the brother on the north of it. The indefiniteness of the first caused the difficulty.
238. But if there was abundant vacant land, as has been repeatedly sworn, why should any indefinite description debar a selector from that portion of ground which he actually wanted? I do not quite follow you.
239. The statement has been made here that the reason that this selection was measured in this form was owing to there not being sufficient land? I think the land was measured all round—that is my recollection of it. That accounted for the Minister giving the vacant land.
240. Chairman.] Are you aware that when M'Ilveen selected this land, he selected it as a measured portion?† No, he did not.
241. But when the Clift Brothers selected —? They selected some as measured—I think all as measured, but I am not sure.
242. Are you aware that portions of this land were advertised for sale in the Gazette? Yes.
243. And that the M'Ilveen Brothers selected the land before it could come to sale? I think it was gazetted for auction sale.
244. Mr. Fremlin.] Do you remember seeing the letter of Mr. Turner to the Surveyor-General in connection with this matter? Yes, I remember it.
245. It is No. 157 on the papers—I will ask you to read it? I remember that.
246. Chairman.] Do you not think that William M'Ilveen having made his selection before his brother, his selection should have been measured before Alexander's was measured? Yes, as he made the selection first.
247. Why was the other measured first to run along the whole of his boundary—is it usual? I do not know that it was measured first. I suppose the surveyor received the two instructions at the same time.
248. But the two men were there and pointed out the land which they had selected: is it usual in such a case for both descriptions by direction of the Minister to be altered, and for the man who selected second to have his selection measured first? I am not aware that Alexander's selection was measured first.
249. What stopped William M'Ilveen's survey? His first selection was measured at the same time as Alexander's, so far as measurement has been made for Alexander. It was an additional selection after Alexander's which was stopped. It was the additional selection which was cut off, by only adjoining at a point. That was the second application of Wm. M'Ilveen.
250. Did he not ask to have a selection on a part of a line running along his brother's boundary? They both asked for an alteration from the Minister's directions to the surveyor. The surveyor measured in accordance accordance with true measure, and not in accordance with the Minister's location. If the measurement as he made it had been left, William M'Ilveen would have had his second selection, but the Minister adhered to his decision as to the location of his brother's selection, and thus William M'Ilveen could not have the second selection.

* NOTE (on revision):—I understood this question to apply to Alexander's selection, and not to William's additional selection.—R. D. F.

251. How do you account for the arbitrary location of this selection along the whole boundary? At one time when the case came to me I pointed out definitely to the Minister that inconsistency, and I said that I thought that the matter perhaps had not been fully before him; but you must remember the indefiniteness of M'Ilveen's first description. It made it impossible to say whether the thing overlapped in part or as a whole. The location was arbitrary, and therefore the location of No. 2 must be arbitrary. If you cannot tell where No. 1 plot is situated, you cannot tell where No. 2 overlaps it.

252. Mr. Fremlin.] But the only indefiniteness was in the description sent to you in writing: when the surveyor on the spot is satisfied with its definiteness, ought not that to be satisfactory to the Department? No, it may be indefinite except so far as the Minister makes it definite by its location, because embracing a clump of trees cannot make it definite. It can do it in so many different ways that there is an immense indefiniteness in such a description; it may be on the north-east corner, the south-west corner, or any other corner. It would be very indefinite except so far as the Minister located it.

253. That could only be an arbitrary location on the map—it could not be the result of personal knowledge? I believe it was a location to give the ground to M'Ilveen.

254. Who surveyed the ground first? I cannot remember; I think Turner and Goodwin.

255. How many years elapsed from the time of the selection of the ground to the date of the survey? I do not remember.

256. Chairman.] Did Higgins positively refuse to survey it, and send in two lying reports saying that there was no vacant land? I do not remember that part of it.

257. Is Higgins in the Survey Department? *Yes.

258. Can we get him here? Yes.

259. Mr. Day.] Have you any recollection whether at the date of the application any land was open to selection around the clump of apple-trees? I do not know where the clump of trees is.

260. Have you any recollection whether there was land available where M'Ilveen wished to select? I think there was.

261. Was there any objection to measure his land? I do not remember whether the surveyor objected or not, but I believe that he transferred his instructions to another surveyor.

262. Suppose we postpone the case, will you be able to give us further information? I may if I can look over the papers.

263. What we want to arrive at is whether the man could get the land when the surveyor went to measure it? I do not know whether if this portion embracing the clump of apple-trees was measured it would enable M'Ilveen to take up his second selection. The two M'Ilveens were quite content with their selections at first; they even had the boundaries between them altered. That was an alteration which the Minister made in his first location—he changed the boundaries on account of some fencing which the two brothers had put up. It was a departure from that which was made by the surveyor when he went on the ground.

264. They might be satisfied from compulsion? They asked themselves to have it altered, so as to have the fence for their common boundary.

265. That is the very point that we want to get out clearly? The Minister made that alteration, but in such a way that Alexander's land would still be measured wholly on the north of William's.

266. But William's was measured before Alexander took up his? No; you must not confound William's first with William's second selection; his additional selection was subsequent to Alexander's, but not subsequent to Clift's.

Present:—

MR. LYNE, | MR. DAY.
JOHN GILL, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. John Macdonald called in and examined:—

Mr. J.
Macdonald.
16 Oct., 1884.

267. Chairman.] You have been a land agent at Tamworth? Yes.

268. About how long? About twenty-five years.

269. You were land agent there at the time the Land Act of 1861 became law? Yes.

270. When that law came into operation, what kind of maps had you at the office? They were county maps—mere skeleton maps—particularly the map of the County of Pottinger.

271. Could you fix the exact locality in which this selection took place? I could not, as regards this particular selection.

272. Are you aware of the kind of country in which the selection was made? It is a plain.

273. Looking at the description, and in the absence of the maps which have been recently furnished to the land agents, would you consider it a fair average description? I think so.

274. The description to a mountain called the Colly Blue Mountain, and it refers also to a clump of apple-trees, there being no other clump of trees within a distance of some miles; do you consider that a good description? I understood at the time that the clump of apple-trees fixed the land which Mr. M'Ilveen applied for.

275. Did you understand that he included this clump of trees in his description? I did—I took the description from him myself.

276. Had you any maps to show that the land had been measured? I had no possible means of knowing that it had been measured.

277. Is it a fact that at the time the land was selected there was a land office at Gunnedah for auction sales only, and not for the purpose of conditional purchase? Yes.

278. Have you ever known a case in which land that was selected was afterwards selected at the Gunnedah land office? No. I have known cases in which land has been sold at the Gunnedah land office by auction

* NOTE (on revision) :—This answer I find should be, not now.

Mr. J.
Macdonald.

16 Oct., 1884.

auction selection, without the sale being reported to me, and the land has been conditionally purchased at Tamworth after it had been sold by auction selection at Gunnedah.

279. Are you quite certain that it was not conditionally purchased first and sold by auction afterwards? I am certain of that.

280. Do you consider that the description of M'Ilveen's selection was a fair average description, in the absence of a map or plan? I think that the selection being on a plain, it would be most difficult to make a description. There were no natural features, no starting-point; it was not bounded by roads or rivers.

281. Mr. Lyne.] Did the clump of apple-trees define what direction the selection should take—was it to be the north or east or any other direction; or, to put it more clearly, was the clump of trees to be in any one corner of the selection, or was it to be in the centre? I could not say; all I know is that the selection was to include the clump of trees.

282. But it might have been in the centre, or at one of the four corners? It might have been so. My own impression was that the clumps of trees fixed where the selection was to be.

283. Would it precisely fix the position of the land with reference to the boundaries? I thought the surveyor would find the land on going to the clump of trees. I had never seen the country myself, but I knew there were no natural features, and that it was difficult to make a starting-point.

284. Mr. Day.] Were there any other selections on the plain at that time? To the best of my recollection there were none; that is, there were none near this selection.

285. The two applications were to be made on the same day, I believe, and the land was to be adjoining? Yes.

286. Was there any purchased land on the plain at that time? To the best of my recollection, and I can only speak from my recollection of the map, there was not. The auction land was sold at Gunnedah—not at my office.

287. Then you could not say whether the selection was covered by purchased land or not at the time of the selection? I could not.

288. Chairman.] Do you remember any conversation with Mr. M'Ilveen upon the subject of this clump of trees—did you understand that this clump was the only clump of trees near that particular portion of land to the north of the Colly Blue Mountain? Yes, that is what I understood.

289. From what you understood him to say, you thought the description was a fair average description? Yes.

290. As good as he could possibly make at the time? I do not know that it could be made better unless he put stakes in the ground and measured it; he could not very well measure the distance from the mountain to the clump of trees.

291. You have heard that there is a Colly Blue Mountain? I have always heard it called the Colly Blue Mountain; I cannot speak of it from my own knowledge; I do not know that there is more than one mountain there; I have always heard it called the Colly Blue Mountain.

292. You had no tracing in your office to show the position of this land? No.

293. And it was only until years afterwards that the Government furnished maps and plans showing where you could allow selections? I do not remember the year in which the parish maps were supplied.

294. Was it not quite possible for the Government to sell by auction, at Gunnedah, land which might at any time be taken up by conditional purchase at Tamworth? If there was any measured land, it was the duty of the Gunnedah land agent to report to me.

295. But could it not happen? Such a thing is possible.

296. Is it the custom, when the land agent at Gunnedah has held an auction sale, to send a report to the Tamworth office, to inform you that certain land had been sold? That was the practice. There were one or two instances in which the land agent neglected to make the report.

297. Mr. Day.] It seems strange that the land applied for in this particular instance should be given to another man long after M'Ilveen had selected it? I am not aware that the land selected at Tamworth was given to another man.

298. But the surveyor measured it for another man? It was measured for sale, and it appears that M'Ilveen selected it.

299. Had you any means of telling M'Ilveen when he selected the land that it had been measured? I had no means of telling him.

300. There was no possibility of his knowing otherwise than by finding the pegs? Not as far as my office is concerned.

301. Are you aware that on this plain the grass grows to a great height—so that it is almost impossible for a man to find the pegs unless he knows something of their position? I know that in good seasons the grass is very high.

302. If a measured portion were embraced in the application would the application be voided? The regulation at that time was that the land should be taken as measured. When I knew that the land had been measured, it was my duty to inform the selectors of the fact.

303. If a man's selection embraces a measured portion the application would be bad, and the land might be given to some one else afterwards? I do not know that that would be the case. The matter would be dealt with by the land office in Sydney. I think the first applicant would be entitled to the land.

304. Chairman.] Of course you as land agent could not give any information as to land like this which was so far away from the office? No; it is about 70 or 80 miles away.

305. At this particular time were there many selections in the county of Pottinger? I do not think there were any at this particular spot; there were a few, but I cannot just now remember their position.

[Alienation Act, section 13.]

District of Murrurundi.

No. 7 of 1868.

Application by Ambrose Gallagher for the conditional purchase, without competition, of 100 acres unimproved Crown Land.

Received by me, with a deposit of £25, this 30th day of January, 1868, at 10 o'clock,—

G. G. BRODIE,

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Murrurundi.

Sir,

30 January, 1868.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 100 acres; and I herewith tender the sum of £25, being a deposit at the rate of 5s. per acre on the area for which I apply, and on which it is my intention to reside.

I have, &c.,

AMBROSE GALLAGHER,

(Per JAMES GALLAGHER, Agent),

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Murrurundi.

Murrurundi.

Description.

County of Buckland, parish of Towarri, 100 acres, on the east side of Jack's Creek, adjoining the Australian Agricultural Company's south boundary line.

Minute on No. 1.

Mr. Darby to measure if unobjectionable.—W.R.D., B.C., 24/2/68.

No. 2.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Darby to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Cattle Creek, 29 December, 1868.

I have the honor to forward herewith my plan of 100 acres of land conditionally purchased by Ambrose Gallagher, on the 30th January, 1868, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

Survey made under B.C., 24th February, 1868/17.

I have to report that Ambrose Gallagher is a bona fide resident on this portion.

Improvements are—Hut, yard, and wool-shed, £60.

I have reserved and marked out a road through this portion to allow of access to the A. A. Company's station, situated on Jack's Creek, 1½ mile southerly from their south boundary.

On this plan I have shown a connection with the measured portion No. 4.

I beg to call attention to the difference of bearing as shown by compass at the present time and that of the Australian Agricultural Company's southern boundary line; it amounts to 2' 15". I had some trouble in determining the average north line on this creek, local attraction being frequent and very variable. I, however, adopted the course of taking a mean of all the bearings and laying off my work thereto.

I have, &c.,

F. W. DARBY,

Licensed Surveyor.

Minute on No. 2.

In consequence of a road (R 1217-1603) recently surveyed from the Merriwa and Gunnedah Road to the Oaks passing through this conditional purchase, it is now recommended that the necessary refund of deposit money on the area of 7 acres 1 rood embraced by the road should be given to the present owner of the conditional purchase, the area being now 92 acres 3 roods.—See 75/112.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign

No. 5.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Darby to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, August, 1873.

I have the honor to forward herewith plan of 40 acres of land conditionally purchased by John Alexander Martin, on the 28th November, 1872, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

Survey made under blank cover, January 22nd, 1873, No. 3.

J. A. Martin, a bona fide resident. Improvements, hut and stockyard, value £30.

This portion being near the source of Warrah Creek, I did not consider it of sufficient importance to form a frontage here, and therefore have made the measurement square.

I have, &c.,

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.
Charting Branch.

MEMORANDUM of subjects requiring explanation or completion in connection with the survey and plan of portion No. 64 of 40 acres, parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, transmitted by Mr. Licensed Surveyor Darby, letter No. 73-47, of 31st July, and on which Mr. Darby's report in explanation is requested.

Subject.

The position of the improvements is not shown on the above plan.

Mr. Darby will be good enough to say what the nature of the connection shown on the above plan is, whether a feature survey, &c., &c.
20 February, 1874.

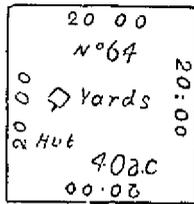

P.F.A.

Report.

I regret the omission. They should be shown as below.

The connection was made to a marked stringy-bark tree having \uparrow over 34, which I find to be at or near the north-west corner of measured portion No. 34. I could not at the time find a corner stake, otherwise I should have connected to it. The survey of No. 34 was, I believe, made by Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham.
27 February, 1874.

F. W. DARBY.

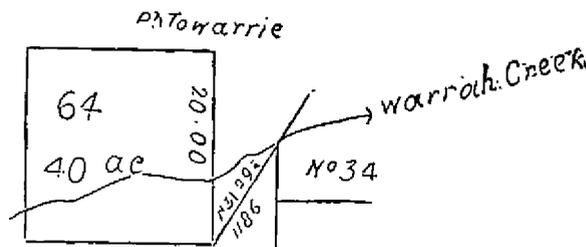

Minutes on No. 6.

By the Surveyor-General:—The reply to this memo. is not satisfactory; the connection is useless unless given to the corner of the portion. A surveyor is instructed before undertaking work in any district to supply himself with all necessary information, such as copies of previous surveys, &c.—P.F.A., 20/4/74.

If the corner could not be found, it should be determined by intersection of boundary lines, and the traverse should connect with the actual corner, and not with the tree near the corner. Mr. Darby should obtain copies of all surveys, &c., as required by paragraph 1 of Surveyors' Instructions.—C.E.F. The corner referred to above is on a creek, and could not be found by an intersection as proposed.—F. W. DARBY, 23/6/74.

I beg to submit below connection of No. 64 with portion No. 34. I find I made an error in my report of 27th February, 1874, in stating connection was made to a stringy-bark tree; it should have been noted as on an oak tree.

No. 7.

The Surveyor-General to Mr. Licensed Surveyor Darby.

Sir,

Surveyor-General's Office, 3 November, 1874.

I have to refer you to my memorandum, dated the 17th day of February, No. 74-13,070, respecting your survey of J. A. Martin's conditional purchase, portion No. 64, at Towarri, county of Buckland, and to request that the matter may receive your early attention.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Loder to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Tamworth, 14 August, 1876.

I have the honor to transmit the plan of two portions of land, containing 50 and 150 acres, numbered respectively 120 and 121, in the parish of Yarramanbah, county of Buckland, applied for by Samuel Irwin, under the 13th and 21st sections of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and surveyed in accordance with instructions dated 21st September and 10th June, Nos. 75-128 and 76-46.

2. Both the portions consist of land suitable for pasture, and are timbered with box and apple.

3. Applicant resides on his first conditional purchase, No. 120, of 50 acres, the improvements on which consist of a gunyah and ringing, value £3 10s.; on No. 121, fencing and ringing, value £23 10s.

4. I did not measure No. 120 in the usual way, as I thought it would be better to extend it on the back of 121, so as to interfere as little as possible with W.R. 935, and proposed extension. I have made a special report on portion No. 121.

No. 23.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Loder to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Tamworth, 14 August, 1876.

In accordance with your memo. dated the 8th June, I have the honor to inform you that when I went on the ground to measure Samuel Irwin's conditional purchase, after inspection, I decided to measure the 50 acres, No. 120, at the back of 121, leaving a road for access, and then to measure the remainder of applicant's second conditional purchase of 554 acres (including two conditional purchases of John Leard's, Nos. 66 and 67, of 214 and 140 acres respectively), leaving the balance 200 acres. As will be seen by plan, and with the consent of applicant's agent, I only measured 150 acres, exclusive of a road 1 chain wide for access to Jones Creek. The reason of my doing so was so as to interfere as little as possible with reserve 935 and its proposed extension; (2.) I would have left road more than 1 chain, but as there was little or no water in Jones Creek, and I was informed that the most water was up the gully from No. 120, I then thought the better plan would be to recommend extension of reserve 935, say 10 chains wide, as shown on plan, extending in to water reserve 961, so that by this means good access could be got to Jones Creek.

I have, &c.,

GEORGE LODER,

Licensed Surveyor.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 27 November, 1876.

I have the honor to transmit to you herewith the plan of the two portions Nos. 89 and 90 in the parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, applied for as a conditional purchase, under the 13th and 21st sections of the Crown Lands Alienation Act, by Rebecca Glass, which I have surveyed in accordance with your instructions of 21st September, 1875, Nos. 252 and 253.

When I measured the land the applicant was not residing thereon. Her improvements consisted of a hut, value £4, and ringbarking, £5. The portions also include some 8 chains fencing, value £7, the property of the lessee of the run.

The date of the survey was 18th October, 1876.

I have, &c.,

EDWD. S. WYNDHAM,

Licensed Surveyor.

[Enclosure B to No. 24.]

Description.

50 acres, county of Buckland, parish of Towarri, portion No. 89 : Commencing at the north-eastern corner of portion No. 90 of 50 acres; and bounded thence on the south by the northern boundary of that portion bearing west 31 chains and 63 links; on the west by a line bearing north 15 chains and 81 links; on the north by a line and a road 1 chain wide, dividing it partly from part of portion No. 88 of 100 acres, in all bearing east 31 chains and 63 links; and on the east by a line bearing south 15 chains and 81 links, to the point of commencement.

[Enclosure C to No. 24.]

Description.

50 acres, county of Buckland, parish of Towarri, portion No. 90 : Commencing at the south-western corner of portion No. 89 of 50 acres; and bounded thence on the north by the southern boundary of that portion bearing east 31 chains and 63 links; on the east by a line bearing south 15 chains and 81 links; on the south by a line bearing west 31 chains and 63 links; and on the west by a line bearing north 15 chains and 81 links, to the point of commencement.

No. 25.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 27 November, 1876.

I have the honor to transmit to you herewith the plan of one portion, No. 91, in the parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, applied for as a conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act, by John McIntyre, which I have surveyed in accordance with your instructions of 20th August, 1875, No. 296.

When I measured the land the applicant was not residing thereon. His improvements consisted of a hut, value £4, and ringbarking, £16. Part of the ringbarking was done by the lessee of the run prior to date of this application.

The date of survey was 24th October, 1876. A considerable discrepancy will be observed to exist between the length of E to F as given by me and the lengths given in the old surveys. I have, however, measured measured the line twice, and am satisfied that I am correct. There is also a slight difference in the lengths F to G and G to H, as compared with those given by Mr. Darby. The north-east corner of portion No. 27 is 12 links within the A. A. Company's line as claimed by them and fenced, so I thought it best to allow for reserve No. 499 3 chains from the fence, as it is quite impossible to prove one survey to be more correct than the other.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD S. WYNDHAM,
Licensed Surveyor.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of John McIntyre, made at Murrurundi, 14th June, 1875.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 30 November, 1877.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 27th May, 1877, and that I found the selector then resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of one conditional purchase, 13th section, and comprises 320 acres, is occupied and used by the selector as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz.:—Small, strong, slab hut, galvanized-iron roof, £10; some clearing being made; part of timber sapped.

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The man whom I found at work on the land, and who said he was the selector, gave a very straightforward account as to his compliance with the conditions of residence, from within three weeks after the purchase of the land.

The hut was comfortably furnished, and the place generally indicated continuous occupation by some one. I believe the selection is a bona fide one, and that the selector is a hard-working industrious man.

Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Rebecca Glass, made at Murrurundi, on 22nd July, 1875.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 30 November, 1877.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 27th May, 1877, and that I found the selector then resident upon the selection.

The land, which consists of one conditional purchase 13th section, and one conditional purchase 21st section, and comprises 50 and 50, or 100 acres, is occupied and used as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Slab hut, with galvanized-iron roof	£10	0	0
80 acres sapped	8	0	0
	£18	0	0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection. Rebecca Glass was in the hut on the land when I visited it; the hut was very comfortably furnished. The selector informed me that she had continuously resided in the hut, and that a lady who is governess at Mr. James Glass' (near the conditional purchase in question) is in the habit of staying with her at night in the said hut. I see no reason whatever to doubt Miss Glass' statement, or to think that the selection is other than a bona-fide one.

I have, &c.,

Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of John Alexander Martin, made at Murrurundi, 28th November, 1872.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 10 February, 1878.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 17th January, 1878, and that I found the selector then non-resident upon the selection. See remarks at end of report.

The land, which consists of one conditional purchase, 13th section, and comprises 40 acres, is occupied and used by the selector as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Slab hut, with bark roof	£15	0	0
Two large sheep-yards	15	0	0
Well, 15 feet deep, with whip and bucket	12	0	0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The appearance of the hut and of the selection generally indicated to me that some one had occupied the place for a considerable time. I found the selector at his father's residence, a short distance from his conditional purchase; he gave me very satisfactory answers to the questions I put to him as to his compliance with the residence condition. He said he had continuously resided in the hut referred to for three years after he purchased the land. From the statements made and appearances generally, I am of opinion that the law has been complied with. The period within which the conditions were to have been observed had expired at date of my visit.

No. 75.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Samuel Irwin, made at Murrurundi, on 22nd July, 1875.

Sir, Murrurundi, 18 April, 1880.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 23rd February, 1880, and that I found the selector then non-resident upon the selection.

The land, which consists of one conditional purchase, 13th section, and comprises 50 acres, is occupied and used by the holder of Miller's Creek as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz:—

60 chains 6-wire fence	56	5	0
								£96	5	0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The selector was not residing on the land when I inspected, which was however long after declaration was made.

There are those residing in the neighbourhood who would give evidence that the selector complied with the conditions. I did not see the selector Irwin.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Darby to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Quirindi Creek, 17 March, 1869.

I have the honor to forward herewith plan of 50 acres of land conditionally purchased by Thomas Hayes, junior, on the 1st February, 1866, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861. Survey made under letter, 23rd July, 1866, 868.

I have to report that I found Thomas Hayes, junior, and his mother in occupation of this portion.

Improvements are—hut, barn, garden, and wheat-field, valued at £45.

I did not consider it necessary to mark a road through this portion, as the main road passes along the western side of the creek, to which access can be easily had.

Connection made with old traverse work, plan, and letter of February 18th, 1865-4.

No. 4.

Declaration by Thomas Hayes, junior.

I, THOMAS HAYES, the younger, of Miller's Creek, near Murrurundi, in the Colony of New South Wales, bullock-driver, do solemnly and sincerely declare—1st. That on the 1st day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, I conditionally purchased, at the office of the Land Agent at Murrurundi aforesaid, under section 13 of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, 50 acres of land in the county of Buckland, situated on a branch of Onus Creek, and about a mile above its junction with the said creek, nearly opposite William Seivl's selection of 320 acres. 2nd. On or about the 6th day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, I took possession of the said land, and the same was my bona fide residence continuously for the period of three months or thereabouts from the last-mentioned date, at the expiration of which time Mr. James Seivl, then of Yarraman, the present owner of the run upon which the said land is situate, came to me and told me that he wanted a bullock-driver, and asked if I would go to him. I said that I had selected some land, and that I did not know whether I should be doing right or wrong in going to him. The said James Seivl then said to me, "Nobody can hurt you for going"; whereupon I engaged with him to do the work he required, as my parents were dependent upon me for support. I remained in the said James Seivl's employ, to the best of my belief, about fourteen months. My parents were living upon the land from the said 6th day of February, 1866, and during the whole time that I was in Mr. Seivl's employment, and were supported by what I could spare for them from my own earnings, which enabled my father to cultivate a portion of the said land and otherwise to make improvements thereon. I regarded the said conditional purchase as my home, and I returned thither as often as the nature of my employment would permit. 3rd. At the expiration of the fourteen months, or thereabouts, before mentioned I left Mr. Seivl's employment and returned immediately to my conditional purchase aforesaid, which I have from that time made my bona fide residence continuously up to the present date, with the exception of the shearing seasons, when I was absent occasionally, but returned to my said conditional purchase on every Saturday and remained there until Sunday night following. 4th. On the 11th day of June, 1868, I alienated the said land to my father, Thomas Hayes, which alienation was notified to the Land Agent of the district within one month of its having been made. 5th. Improvements consisting of a hut, barn, pole fence, and the clearing and cultivation of 8 acres of ground, and to the value of £80, have been made upon the said land, and were so made previously to the 1st day of February last. 6th. My father, Thomas Hayes aforesaid, has resided on the said land from the date of alienation to him up to the present time, with the exception of about about seven months, during which he was absent shepherding, but my mother resided there all the time that my father was so absent. My father is now residing on the said land. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial oaths and affidavits."

Taken and declared at Murrurundi aforesaid, this 12th day of } May, 1869, before me; and I certify that the said declara- } tion above written was read over to the said Thomas }
 Hayes, the younger, and that he appeared to understand } the nature and effect thereof,— his

ALEXANDER BRODIE, J.P.,

Minutes on No. 4.

The attached declarations are forwarded to the Under Secretary for Lands for his decision. The interest on the selection has in the meantime been placed in Suspense Account.—The Treasury, B.C., 18th May, 1869. To be returned.

By the Under Secretary for Lands:—Alluding to the present ruling, temporary absence from a conditional purchase on business, especially if the residence be carried on through other members of the family, is considered residence within the meaning of the Act.

This has been done in the present instance, and the purchaser was reported by the surveyor as resident and improving.

If these declarations be deemed satisfactory, it will be more convenient for another declaration to be furnished in the present form for application in the usual way by the Minister.—W.W.S., 14th Aug., 1869.

By the Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—W.F., 16th Aug., 1869.

No. 5.

Declaration by Thomas Hayes, senior.

I, THOMAS HAYES, the elder, of Miller's Creek, near Murrurundi, in the Colony of New South Wales farmer, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the lawful owner, by conditional purchase, of the land hereunder described, and that improvements consisting of a hut, barn, pole fence, and the clearing and cultivation of 8 acres of ground, and to the value of £80, have been made on such land, and were so made previously to the 1st day of February last. I further declare that the said land has been my bona fide residence from the 11th day of June, 1868 (being the date on which the same was alienated to me by my son, Thomas Hayes), up to the present time, save and except about seven months during which I was employed as a shepherd, but I verily believe that my wife and said son, Thomas Hayes, resided on the said land while I was so employed. I am now residing thereon.

2. The alienation above referred to was notified to the Land Agent of the district within one month after the same was made.

3. Before the expiration of three years and three months from the date of the purchase of the said land I attended at the office of the Land Agent at Murrurundi for the purpose of making the declaration required by the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and to pay the interest on the balance of purchase money, and was informed by the Land Agent that Mr. James Seivl had reported to him that my son, Thomas Hayes, had not resided on the land, and that I had been away from it for about six months, in consequence of which the Land Agent told me that he could not give me his certificate. I was afterwards told by various persons that it would be of no use for me to try to get the land, and therefore I allowed the three months from the day on which the balance of purchase money became due to elapse without doing anything further, when I was advised to lay before the Government the facts relating to the occupation of the said land by my said son and myself.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial oaths and affidavits."

Description

County of Buckland, 50 acres, situate on a branch of Onus Creek, and about a mile above its junction with said creek, nearly opposite William Sevil's selection of 320 acres, being conditional purchase No. 23 of 1866, in the district of Murrurundi.

[Enclosure to No. 5.]

At the time that this declaration and the accompanying one made by Thomas Hayes, junr., were drawn it was not known exactly how long Thomas Hayes, senr., had been away from his selection, and a blank was left for the time. When the parties came to make the declarations and the duration of absence was ascertained, there was not time to state the fact differently from the way in which it appears in the declarations. This explains the mention of so large an exception.

Minute on No. 5.

The enclosed declaration is forwarded to the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands, Murrurundi, in order that another may be furnished on the proper printed and prescribed form, the Minister for Lands having approved of the residence clause being considered satisfactory in this instance.—M.F., B.C., Department of Lands, Sydney, 19/8/69.

Amended declaration of conditional purchaser under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, in cases where there has been alienation of the land.

I, THOMAS HAYES, the elder, of Miller's Creek, near Murrurundi, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the lawful owner, by conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described, and that improvements consisting of a hut, barn, and the clearing and cultivation of 8 acres of ground, and to the value of £80, have been made on such land; and I declare further that the said land has been the bona fide residence continuously of Thomas Hayes, the younger, and myself, respectively, from the period of selection and first occupation to the present date, and that no alienation of the land has been made by any of the abovenamed holders until after the residence thereon of such holder for a period of one whole year, each alienation having been notified to the Land Agent of the district within one month of its having been made. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial oaths and affidavits."

Mr. J. P. Abbott to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 3 February, 1870.

Mr. John Hall has placed in my hands yours of the 25th ultimo to him, informing him that "the application made by him at Murrurundi, on the 13th May, 1869, for the conditional purchase of 50 acres of land has been cancelled, as embracing improvements the property of the lessee of the run"; and, in reply, ho he has instructed me to point out to you, for the information of the Minister for Lands, that when he made the selection referred to he marked out a certain piece of land which did not embrace any improvements of the lessee of the run, and subsequently Mr. Seivl, the lessee, assisted to mark out the selection, and still it embraced no improvements the property of the lessee. Some time however after this Mr. Wyndham, the Government surveyor, measured the land, and ran the boundaries down towards the junction of two creeks, and thus embraced a well, the improvements referred to. My client then protested that Mr. Wyndham altering the boundaries and taking in the well might lead to annoyances with Mr. Seivl; but he said that it would not, as the well would not be regarded as improvements. Mr. Hall has made improvements on the land as originally selected by him, and has now a crop upon it, and it will indeed be hardship to him if through no fault of his he should lose his land and the benefit of his toil in improving it. A similar case might occur any day to any person. By the surveyor altering the boundaries of a selection he might make the selection take in some improvements on the run where the same was made, and thus invalidate the selection.

I would respectfully urge upon the Honorable the Minister for Lands that if the intention to forfeit the free selection referred to is carried out, it will be a great hardship upon my client and opposed to the true spirit of the Land Act, as Hall never did select any land embracing improvements, and Mr. Wyndham had no right in surveying the selection to make it embrace the improvements which it now does. I trust therefore that Mr. Wyndham will be directed to resurvey the land as originally selected by Mr. Hall.

I have, &c.,

JOSEPH P. ABBOTT.

Minutes on No. 7.

Submitted with reference to decision conveyed to Hall, 69-14,984. Enclosed. Mr. Abbott urges that there should be a resurvey, as the surveyor did not measure the land as described.—25/2/70. I think the surveyor should at any rate explain why the land should have been measured so as, contrary to the applicant's wish, to embrace improvements.—25/2/70.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 11 March, 1870.

Your letter of the 3rd ultimo, on the subject of the variation in the boundaries of John Hall's cancelled conditional purchase of 50 acres at Murrurundi, has been referred to Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham for report.

A. O. MORIARTY,

(For Under Secretary).

No. 9.

Mr. E. S. Wyndham to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 4 April, 1870.

In reply to your B.C. memo. of the 18th March last, No. 70-49, requesting me to explain why in the measurement of the conditional purchase above mentioned I included improvements to the value of £31, the property of the lessee of the run, contrary to the wish of the applicant, it appears to me that I had no other course left open to me; that the land I have measured agrees with the description given in the application does not admit of dispute.

As originally marked out by Hall the north boundary of his selection was placed at the point where the two creeks approach each other, about 30 chains from their junction, leaving a small portion of Crown Land between the creeks, containing about 25 acres. I refused to measure it in that manner, as being against the usual practice to leave portions of less than 40 acres of Crown Land. If, on the other hand, I had left 40 acres Crown Land at the junction of the creeks and measured the selection further to the south, I should not have included Hall's improvements, neither would it have agreed with the description.

Again, in the printed regulations for the guidance of Licensed Surveyors, page 6, section 14, I am instructed that improvements of a less value than £40 are not to be considered as improvements under the Act, and will not be a bar to conditional purchase.

If however Mr. Seivl is entitled to anything in virtue of the improvements in question he can claim to purchase 31 acres, which area, it will be seen from the plan, would include Hall's residence and improvements.

Under these circumstances it appears to me that the course I adopted was the only one left open to me.

I have, &c.,

EDWD. S. WYNDHAM.

Minutes on No. 9.

By the Surveyor-General:—From this report it appears that Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham acted in accordance with general instructions to surveyors and the practice of the Department, which is not to leave portions of vacant Crown Lands of less area than 40 acres; however, in this case it would have been advisable for Mr. Wyndham to have submitted the case, which is a special one, before making the survey. Under the circumstances it is submitted that a resurvey of the conditional purchase (the cancellation of which, it is presumed, should be revoked) should be made, excluding the 25 acres (about) on which the lessee's improvements stand. This will involve a resurvey of Jas. Seivl's conditional purchase, papers 69/14,511. The 25 acres can then be measured for sale by auction, or for disposal otherwise, as may be determined on.—J.S.A. (for Surveyor General), B.C., 4 May, 1870. The Under Secretary for Lands.

By the Secretary for Lands:—According to recent decisions, although the lessee or alleged owner of improvements cannot peremptorily insist on being allowed to purchase in virtue of improvements valued under £40, such improvements may and have been generally held to exempt the land containing them from conditional purchase. In this case there must be a resurvey to exclude the improvements.—W.F., 16 May, 1870.

By

By the Surveyor General :—John Hall's conditional purchase, 69/1,684. Instructions for resurvey have issued this date ; steps should now be taken to revoke the cancellation of the conditional purchase.—J.S.A. (for Surveyor General), B.C., 27 May, 1870. The Under Secretary for Lands.

Should not either a fresh conditional purchase be made, as if the cancellation of a conditional purchase is revoked it then stands as originally made?

Revocation of cancellation is certainly the more simple course, if there is no objection. 3 June, 1870.

By the Chief Commissioner :—I see no reason for insisting on reselection. The selector did not wish to include the improvements, and the error of survey will be corrected.—A.O.M., 6 June, 1870.

By the Secretary for Lands :—Approved.—W.F., 7 June, 1870.

No. 10.

The Surveyor-General to Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham.

Memorandum of Instructions, to be returned with reply.

Subject :—

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham is requested at his early convenience to remeasure John Hall's conditional purchase of 50 acres on Miller's and Jones' Creeks, parish of Yarramanbah, county of Buckland, it having been decided by the Honorable the Minister for Lands that the lessee's improvements, although not worth £40, should not be included.

This resurvey will necessitate the remeasurement of J. Seivl's conditional purchase of 40 acres, portion 22, an amended plan of which will be required.

Should the lessee desire it, the "improved" land may be measured and a plan submitted for auction sale. Copies of applications herewith.—J.S.A. (for Surveyor-General), B.C., 27 May, 1870. Mr. Licensed Surveyor E. S. Wyndham.

Mr. J. Gray to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 15 October, 1870.

I beg to inform you that Mr. Wyndham, surveyor, resurveyed on the 6th ultimo my conditional purchase of 50 acres on the right bank of Miller's Creek, taking away 31 acres from the original 50 on account of the improvements thereon belonging to the lessee of the run being valued at £31. Mr. Wyndham has now surveyed 50 acres adjoining the south side of the above-mentioned 31 acres. I should feel obliged if you would send some assurance that the present survey is correct and undisputable. I have already expended a considerable amount of time and labour, which has been all lost. I should also wish to know whether whether whether the time allowed for putting the improvements on the land to the amount required by law dates from the present survey, or from the original date, as all my improvements have been taken away by the present survey.

I am, &c.,

J. GRAY (Pro JOHN HALL),
Miller's Creek, county Buckland.

No. 15.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 10 November, 1870.

I have the honor to transmit to you herewith an amended plan of 50 acres of land in the parish of Yarramanbah, county of Buckland, applied for as a conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act, by John Hall, which I have resurveyed in accordance with your instructions of 27th May, 1870, No. 71.

The original plan was transmitted with my letter No. 69-56, of November 24th, 1869.

Applicant resides on the portion as previously measured, but his hut is not included in the present measurement. This portion includes log fencing, value £4, the property of the lessee of the run.

I have, &c.,

EDWD. S. WYNDHAM,
Licensed Surveyor.

Minutes on No. 15.

In reply to Jno. Hall's letter, 70-12,687.—The remeasurement, which is correct, was made so as to exclude the land improved by the lessee of the run, and which was embraced by the first measurement contrary to the wish of the applicant, as will be seen from Mr. Abbott's letter 70-1,642 (on behalf of Jno. Hall). The term of three years, at end of which applicant should make declaration as to residence and improvements, must, I presume, date from 13th May, 1869, the date of the conditional purchase, and not from the date of either survey, as Hall would seem to suppose. Applicant's hut is excluded from the present survey, but under the circumstances he should perhaps be given credit for residence up to date.—J.S.A. (for Surveyor-General), 6 Decr., 1870. Submitted with respect to last paragraph of above memo.—O.R., 16 Decr., 1870. Approved.—J.B.W., 20 December, 1870. The Under Secretary for Lands to Mr. J. Hall.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 29 December, 1870.

With reference to your letter of the 15th October* last, inquiring whether the resurvey by Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham of your conditional purchase of 50 acres at Murrurundi is to be allowed, I am directed to inform you that the remeasurement of the land, which was made to exclude the land improved by the lessee of run on which the selection was made, being correct will stand, and that the declaration required by law will have to be sent in at the end of three years from the date of your application, and not from the date of either survey, as you would seem to suppose.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

Charting Branch, 7 February, 1871.

MEMORANDUM of subjects requiring explanation or completion in connection with the survey and plan of portion No. 23, parish of Yarramanbah, county Buckland, transmitted by Mr. Licensed Surveyor Wyndham, letter No. 124, of 10th November, 1870, and on which Mr. Wyndham's report in explanation is requested.

Subject.

Why has the position of the reserved road, 1 chain wide, running from east to west of the above portion, been altered from that shown on the original plan of this position? The original position appears to render more available access to the crossing on the road from Gunnedah to Merriwa.

The distance from the tree to the corner at C is given as 44 links, and from tree to corner D is 26 links, but on plan of portion 22 adjoining the distances to these same corners are reversed.

Mr. Wyndham will be good enough to furnish a fresh traverse in lieu of No. 17, which is at too great a distance from the creek.

Report.

I altered the position of the road because (as it would no longer serve as a boundary) it seemed desirable to bring it about opposite to the road on the other side of Miller's Creek. The access to the Gunnedah and Merriwa road is sufficiently good in either case.

The distances to trees, as given on this plan, are correct, the plan of No. 22 being consequently wrong in this particular.

I annex a tracing* showing two fresh traverse lines in lieu of No. 17.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of John Shanahan, made at Murrurundi, on September 23rd, 1869.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 4 April, 1880.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 1st April, 1880, and that I found the selector then non-resident upon the selection (see remarks at end of report).

The land, which consists of one conditional purchase, 13th section, and comprises 80 acres, is occupied and used by the alienee as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz:—

Strong slab hut, bark roof	£10	0	0
71½ chains 6-wire fence...	71	10	0
									£81	10	0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

Ample proof can be obtained that the conditions of purchase were complied with on this conditional purchase. The declaration was made years before I inspected, and original selector had transferred to Matthew Shanahan.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Kelly to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 30 May, 1879.

I have the honor to transmit herewith the plan of one portion of land, containing 161 acres, numbered 138, in the parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, applied for by John M'Intyre, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and surveyed in accordance with instructions dated the 30th May, 1879, No. 342, issued to Mr. District Surveyor Dewhurst.

I measured 161 acres, instead of 200, in the endeavour to keep applicant's land, together with the original, within the 80-chains limit.

Good pastoral land, timbered with box; situated in the Bobadil Run; improvements, nil.

I have, &c,

J. M. KELLY,

Licensed Surveyor.

Minutes on No. 4.

By the Surveyor-General:—Only 161 acres have been measured for conditional purchase, 77-202, as the full area would have extended, with applicant's previous conditional purchase, beyond the usual limits. It is therefore submitted that the survey be accepted, and as the area ought to have been 200 acres, a refund of 39 acres should be made, unless it be considered that, inasmuch as he could not increase his selection beyond 431 acres without exceeding the 80-chains limit, he is entitled to exceed that distance. If this be the case, the present survey might be accepted, and applicant informed that other applications would be received up to 640 acres of adjoining land if vacant.—ROBT. FITZGERALD (for Surveyor-General), 28 June, 1880.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The survey made in May, 1879, has not been complained of by the applicant, and it is submitted that it is not necessary to suggest a further application.—A.O.M., 30 July, 1880.

By the Secretary for Lands.—I concur.—J.H., 6 August, 1880.

Sir,

Yarraman.

I have been informed that a conditional purchase was taken up in my name at Murrurundi Land Office, No. 77-202, 161 acres, and purporting to be transferred by me to the Mercantile Bank. I beg to inform you I never transferred the said conditional purchase to the Mercantile Bank, nor ever did I reside upon the said conditional purchase, and any declaration the Lands Department may have has never been signed by me as to residence.

No. 13.

H. Levien, Esq., M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Sydney, 4 April, 1884.

I, in accordance with my desire, and at your request, on Wednesday last, when the Estimates for your Department were under discussion, now beg to ask for an inquiry into the matter mentioned in the margin.

I forwarded you a letter from M'Intyre, enclosed with one of my own, addressed to the Under Secretary, on the same subject, on the 28th February last. I now enclose you another from M'Intyre, asking for an inquiry. £10 was enclosed for the purpose of inquiry; but in view of the extraordinary circumstances of this case I have withheld the £10. I feel convinced that inquiry should be granted without any expense to the applicant, but should you require the same I will forward it to you on your request.

I have, &c.,
HENRY LEVIEN.

[Enclosure to No. 13.]

Sir,

Yarraman, March, 1884.

I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to grant me an inquiry with reference to the ownership of certain lands which it has been alleged I have selected at the Land Office, Murrurundi, and taken up on the Miller's Creek Run, and afterwards transferred by me to the Mercantile Bank. I have already stated to you, in a letter, this has never been selected by me, or transferred by me; and the signature to any application or transfer purporting to be mine is a forgery. I have the honor herewith to enclose you £10, as required for an inquiry.

I have, &c.,
JOHN R. M'INTYRE.

Sir,

13 September, 1877.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 240 acres, which adjoins my conditional purchase of 400 acres, upon which I am now residing; and I herewith tender the sum of £60, being a deposit at the rate of five shillings (5s.) per acre on the area for which I apply.

This is the first selection made by me in virtue of my conditional purchase of 400 acres.

I am, &c.,

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Murrurundi.

Description.

County of Buckland, parish of Towarri, 240 acres, on the east and adjoining my selection of 400 acres, and including John A. Martin's, late Fleming's, selection of 140 acres, declared void on the 5th instant, conditional purchase 76-51, Murrurundi, 1st March, 1876.

Notification by Denis Shanahan.

H. [Alienation Act, sections 13, 14, 19, 21, and 22.]

Notification of alienation of conditional purchase by Denis Shanahan in the district, of Murrurundi.

I HEREBY notify to you, as the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands for the district of Murrurundi, that I have (after a residence thereon of at least twelve months) this day alienated to James Glass, of Gara, the 400 acres of land, situated in the county of Buckland, parish of Towarri, which I selected at Murrurundi as a conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, on the 16th March, 1876, as also the following additional purchase:—240 acres, 13th September, 1877.

Dated at Murrurundi, this 14th day of March, 1879.

DENIS SHANAHAN,

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Murrurundi.

Murrurundi.

I have duly registered the above notification of alienation in the records of this office.

GEO. R. EVANS,

District of Murrurundi, Land Office, 7 April, 1879.

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands.

Minute on No. 2.

By the Chief Commissioner:—Submitted that this notification of transfer be rejected, and the Land Agent and parties interested be so informed, as at date of transfer, 14th March, 1879, the alienance was the holder of an incomplete conditional purchase under 13th section, 76-67, and the conditional purchase herein sought to be transferred required two days for completion.—J.R.Y., 21/4/79. A.O.M., 6/6/79.

No. 3.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Kelly to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 10 June, 1879.

I have the honor to transmit herewith the plan of one portion of land, containing 181 acres, numbered 147, in the parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, applied for by Denis Shanahan, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and surveyed in accordance with instructions dated the 18th March, 1878, No. 196, issued to Mr. District Surveyor Dewhurst.

Very steep stony ridges, running down from the main Liverpool Range.

Improvements: Fencing and clearing, £25; timbered with gum, apple, and forest oak. I have measured 181 acres instead of 240, as the latter area would cause applicant's land to extend considerably beyond the 80-chains limit. The measurements, Nos. 146 and 147, even now extend considerably more than 80 chains; but I thought it better to make part of eastern boundary of 147 identical with western boundary of portion 49 than allow a narrow strip to intervene.

I have, &c.,

J. M. KELLY,

Licensed Surveyor.

Minutes on No. 3.

Conditional purchase, 77-209, if taken with applicant's previous conditional purchase, will extend about 4 chains beyond the usual limits. On account of previous alienation, no less objectionable form could have been measured. The survey has therefore been accepted. The area measured is 176 acres, instead of 240 acres; the deposit on 64 acres should therefore be refunded.—W. D. ARMSTRONG.

Survey may be received.—R.D.F., 23rd November, 1880.

Declaration by James Glass.

E.

[Alienation Act.]

Declaration of conditional purchaser under the 18th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861. I, JAMES Glass, of Glasston, on behalf of the Mercantile Bank, do solemnly and sincerely declare that they are the lawful owners, by conditional purchase, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described, and that improvements consisting of fencing, sapping, clearing, and and artificial grasses, and to the value of £240, have been made on such land. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial oaths and affidavits."

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by Thomas Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Denis Shanahan, made at Murrurundi, 13th September, 1877.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 4 April, 1880.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 1st April, 1880.

The land, which consists of one additional conditional purchase, 21st section, and comprises 240 acres, is occupied and used by the holder of Miller's Creek as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz.:—

200 chains 2-rail and 3-wire fence	£212	10	0
				£258 10 0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

There is the clearest proof that the conditions of purchase were complied with on the additional conditional purchase in question, as also upon the original conditional purchase adjacent thereto and connected therewith.

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Murrurundi.

Description.

County of Buckland, parish of Yarramanbah, 89½ acres. Situate to the west of portion No. 120 of 50 acres. In virtue of 50 acres conditionally purchased by me on the 22nd July, 1875.

Minutes on No. 1.

Submitted that this application should be declared void, as the area already held by applicant with this additional (77-210) will exceed the area allowed by the Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875 by 3½ acres.—J.P.C., 10/10/77.

Applicant should be informed to the effect of the above memo., and requested to state whether he is willing that the area of the last purchase (C.P. 77-210) be reduced by 3½ acres, so as to allow his purchases to be included within the maximum area of 640 acres, otherwise the purchase will be declared void. Referred to Charting Branch to ascertain whether the 89½ acres applied for is a measured portion.—20/10/77.

Referring to the enclosed letter from Crown Lands Agent, Murrurundi, in re transfer by Samuel Irwin of his conditional purchase to me, will you be so good as to order that the last additional conditional purchase, 89½ acres, which has not yet been surveyed, be reduced to the extent of 3½ acres, and allow the transfer to pass to me at once. Time is nearly up for making declaration on the first additional conditional purchase, 504 acres; the original conditional purchase, 50 acres, has had all conditions complied with and interest paid.

JAMES GLASS.

Minutes on No. 2.

If the application, conditional purchase 77-210, is not for a measured portion there is not apparently any objection in Charting Branch to a refund of the deposit on $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres of that application, which must otherwise be declared void as exceeding the maximum area allowed. The surveyor has been instructed to return the application.—T.S., 4 December, 1878.

Mr. Tindale, make copy of application.—C.N., 18 December, 1878.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 80 acres, which adjoins my conditional purchase of 40 acres, upon which I have resided for three years; and I herewith tender the sum of £20, being a deposit at the rate of five shillings (5s.) per acre on the area for which I apply.

Description.

County of Buckland, parish of Towarri, 80 acres, at the head of Warrah Creek, starting from the south-east corner of measured portion conditional purchase 72/7,687, No. 64, and running east till it joins the western boundary of M. Shanahan's conditional purchase 77/179; then south along said boundary towards big scrub; then west; then north; and then east, back to starting point.

I certify that the abovenamed James Glass is over the age of sixteen years.

G. G. BRODIE, Land Agent.

Minutes on No. 1.

* Conditional purchase 77/175, 26/7/77, of 40 acres, seems to have been omitted from the above. The total area, including that now applied for, is therefore 240 acres, instead of 200.—J. M. KELLY, Licensed Surveyor, April, 1879.

No care seems to have been exercised by the Land Agent at Murrurundi in the preparation of the tabulated statement giving particulars of conditional purchases in the margin of application.

I cannot identify conditional purchase 77/159, 12/7/77, quoted on this application. In another application, by J. A. Martin, it is omitted altogether, and conditional purchase 77/49, 22/2/77, substituted. (See C.P. 77/166.)

I am of course anxious to have description of conditional purchase 77/159, as it may clash with the present one.

Conditional purchase 77/175, 26/7/77, appears to have been omitted from present form at margin of this application.

Replied to by letter 79/89 of 10th June, 1879.—J. M. KELLY, Licensed Surveyor.

No. 2.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Kelly to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Murrurundi, 10 June, 1879.

I have the honor to transmit herewith the plan of one portion of land, containing 80 acres, numbered 144, in the parish of Towarri, county of Buckland, applied for by James Glass, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and surveyed in accordance with instructions dated the 25th November, 1878, No. 57.

Stony ridges, timbered with box, gum, and forest oak; value of improvements (fencing), £25; situated in the Warrah Run; stony ridges, timbered with box, gum, and apple.

The south-west corner of this portion falls within a dense scrub, consisting of cedar brush, cedar trees, "stinging trees," and wattle, all of which are closely interwoven with strong vines. So closely are the trees bound together by these vines that, in order to fall one tree right to the ground, it is sometimes necessary to fall a dozen others. I was occupied the whole of one day in running part of the west boundary through this scrub, in some cases having to take sights of from 50 to 70 links in length. I could see corner "d" from corner "a." The water does not appear permanent in this part of the Warrah bush. It may however be so, as in the state of the weather which existed at the date of survey it was difficult to tell.

There

There is no appearance of any grass within the scrub.

I have not measured this application in strict accordance with the description used. It will be noticed that a vacant area is left between the northern boundary of portion 144 and the reserve 615, notified 12th May, 1874; but I did not think it desirable to embrace it by portion 144.

I have recommended that it be made an extension of reserve 615.

I have, &c.,

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON

CONDITIONAL PURCHASE ON MILLER'S CREEK RUN.

WEDNESDAY, 9 JULY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. DAY,
MR. GILL,

MR. LEVIEN,
MR. MACKINNON,

MR. S. SMITH.

ROBERT HENRY LEVIEN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Creagh, of the firm of Messrs. Creagh and Williams, appeared as Solicitor on behalf of Mrs. Glass, and Mr. Heydon appeared as Counsel on behalf of the Mercantile Bank.

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales, called in and examined on oath:—

1. Chairman.] Do you produce the original application of a person named John M'Intyre for a selection and an additional selection, and all papers in connection with a conditional purchase on Miller's Creek Run? I produce the papers in connection with a conditional purchase of John M'Intyre, near Murrurundi.
2. Mr. Day.] Was the original purchase taken up on the 24th of June, 1875? On the 24th June, 1875.
3. Mr. Creagh.] What is the name of the land agent at Murrurundi? George Brodie.
4. Was he the land agent there on the date of the first application? On the 24th June, 1875, the original application was received, endorsed by George Brodie.
5. What would be Mr. Brodie's duty on receiving the application, that is in reference to the identity of the party—I believe Mr. Brodie was a great many years in that district? Yes.
6. And was well known in Murrurundi? Yes.
7. For many years? Yes.
8. Would it be his duty, if there were any doubt about the identity of the person lodging an application for a conditional purchase, to make inquiries? Certainly.
9. Have you ever heard there was any objection by Mr. Brodie in this case? The application came down to the head office in the ordinary routine of business; there is nothing to indicate there was any objection; on looking at the papers, I observe that the name and signature to the application are written over erasures; the name of Esther Ann Pickering is written at the head of the application in the first instance, and in each case it is erased, and the name of John M'Intyre is inserted. The date, I observe, is also altered.
10. Is Mr. Brodie in the Government Service now? I think he is—I am not quite sure.
11. As land agent? I think so.
12. Mr. Day.] Was that selection made by John M'Intyre in person or by an agent? On reference to the papers I see it was taken up by an agent.
13. Mr. Creagh.] It would be Mr. Brodie's duty to make inquiries and satisfy himself? It would.
14. Did the application come to the head office in the usual course from Mr. Brodie? Yes, it came in the ordinary course of routine, without any question arising.
15. I find on the papers having reference to an additional conditional purchase there is a certificate that John M'Intyre is over the age of sixteen years, and that is signed by Mr. Brodie; the application was made on the 6th September, 1877? That would be explained in this way—in the interval between the first and second application the law was changed, obliging the applicants to be over the age of sixteen years; it was the duty of a land agent, when an application was made through an agent, to satisfy himself that the applicant was over sixteen years of age.

Moriarty, Esq.

16. The application was tendered through an agent? The second application of September 7th was tendered through an agent.

17. And it was Mr. Brodie's duty as land agent to give a certificate that the applicant was over sixteen years of age? It is his duty to see that all applications are made by persons in accordance with law.

18. Mr. Day.] Was it under the law of 1861 or that of 1875? That of 1875.

19. The first application, that for the original selection, was made under the law of 1861; under the law of 1861 selections could be taken up by an agent, but under the law of 1875 an applicant had to appear himself, but it was not necessary that an applicant should appear in person when an additional selection was applied for? It was so held in 1877; the lawyers were of opinion that, in regard to an additional selection, the applicant need not appear himself.

20. Mr. Creagh.] As John M'Intyre did not appear, it would be Mr. Brodie's duty to make inquiries to see that the conditions of the law were being complied with? He would be required to certify that the applicant was known to him to be above the age of sixteen years, and I see he has done so in this case.

21. Would he be satisfied on the mere assurance of an agent? Under his instructions he should not have been satisfied with any such assurance; the routine was that an application made through an agent could be received when the land agent was personally aware that the applicant was over sixteen years of age. In this case the land agent has certified that the applicant was over sixteen years of age.

22. In the ordinary routine the land agent was instructed or supposed to satisfy himself in some other way than by the mere statement of an agent, that is, through some independent means, that the conditions of the law were being fulfilled? The instruction was—I will not undertake to say that it was a general one—but the instruction was that a land agent must be personally aware of the fact.

Mr. John Robert M'Intyre called in and examined on oath:—

Mr. J. R.
M'Intyre.
9 July, 1884.

23. Chairman.] Where do you reside? On Yarraman Creek.

24. How long have you resided there? About sixteen years.

25. Do you know Miller's Creek Run? No, I know nothing about Miller's Creek Run.

26. Are you known as John M'Intyre or John Robert M'Intyre? I am mostly known as John M'Intyre.

27. Were you ever employed on Miller's Creek Run? Never employed; I was there for about a week once, shearing.

28. Who were you employed by then? Mr. James Glass.

29. He was the proprietor of Miller's Creek Run? Yes.

30. During the time you were on Miller's Creek Run—during the time you were shearing there (you say you were shearing there for a week)—did you ever hear or know of anybody named John M'Intyre or John Robert M'Intyre, excepting yourself? No, I never did.

31. In the district—either on the Yarraman or at Miller's Creek—in the whole of the surrounding district—did you ever hear of anybody of that name living there? No, I did not.

32. Do you recollect where you were on the 24th of June, 1875, or in the month of June, 1875? On Yarraman, I expect.

33. Did you ever authorize Mr. James Glass, the proprietor of Miller's Creek Run, to take up any selection for you on that run? No, I never spoke to him about any such thing.

34. Did you ever know a person of the name of J. Crombie Gray? No.

35. Do you know a man of the name of Gray? Well, I knew a man of the name of Gray; he was living at Yarraman Creek.

36. Do you recollect what his Christian name was? No, I do not know what his Christian name was.

37. Did you ever authorize that Gray, or a person of the name of J. Crombie Gray, to take up land for you on Miller's Creek Run? No, never.

38. Did you ever authorize any one to do it? Never in my lifetime.

39. So that if any land has been taken up in your name it was without your authority? Yes.

40. Did you ever authorize any person to take up for you an additional selection on Miller's Creek Run? No.

41. Do you know Mr. William Brooke, of Murrurundi? Yes.

42. Did you ever authorize him to take up any selection, additional selection, for you in your lifetime? Not on Miller's Creek.

43. You knew Mr. James Glass? I knew him, but was not very well acquainted with him.

44. Did he ever have any conversation with you at all about any selections? Never; he spoke to me once or twice about shearing, but never about selections.

45. Never having taken up an original conditional purchase, you never authorized any one to take up an additional conditional purchase? No.

46. Do you know a man named John M'Carthy? No.

47. Did you ever sign any transfer of this land, the original selection or additional selection, to James Glass, in presence of a man named John M'Carthy, at Murrurundi? No, I never did.

48. Did you sign that document which I now show to you, marked "K" (Appendix A), and bearing the signature "John M'Intyre x his mark," at Murrurundi, before a man of the name of M'Carthy? That is not my signature at all.

49. You can read and write? Yes.

50. And can write your own name? Oh yes.

51. You have written letters on this subject to me? Yes.

52. You do not know any man of the name of M'Carthy? No.

53. Did you ever sign a declaration before J. W. Knowles, at Murrurundi? Never in my lifetime.

54. Do you know Thomas Argent, an Inspector of Conditional Purchases? I have seen him.

55. Did he ever have any conversation with you at any time in reference to any selections at Miller's Creek? No, he never did.

56. Did he ever see you on any selection at Miller's Creek? Never in his life, not that I am aware of. I was only there one week, and I never saw him.

Mr. J. R.
M'Intyre.
9 July, 1884.

57. You do not know whether he knows you or not? No, I do not.
58. If Mr. Argent has sent in various reports—here is one on page 15 of the printed papers, which I will read to you, and then you will understand better. He says in this report: "From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection. The man whom I found at work on the land, and who said he was the selector, gave a very straightforward account as to his compliance with the conditions of residence from within three weeks of the purchase of the land,"—did any such conversation ever occur between you and Argent at that or at any other time? It never did.
59. Mr. Argent says further—"the hut was comfortably furnished, and the place generally indicated continuous occupation by some one; I believe the selection is a bona fide one, and that the selector is a hard-working industrious man": you say that you never had a hut there? Never.
60. You do not know anything about Miller's Creek? No.
61. You know Yarraman pretty well? Yes.
62. You see on the plan produced (plan handed in by Chairman—see Separate Appendix) there are two selections marked, one of 138 acres, the other 91 acres, in the name of John M'Intyre—did you ever occupy either of those pieces of land? No, I never did.
63. Were you ever on them at any time? Never to my knowledge.
64. Did you ever have any conversation with Mr. Argent, the Inspector of Conditional Purchases, at any time, on the piece of ground marked 91 acres, or on the one marked 138? Never.
65. Nor did you ever authorize any person to erect improvements and use your name? No, I never did.
66. Or to represent you by name in any way? Never.
67. You see this letter asking for an inquiry into this matter (Appendix B); it bears your signature, does it not? Yes.
68. You see there is a second letter asking for an inquiry; that bears your signature also? Yes. (Appendix C.)
69. The letters are in my handwriting, but are signed by you? Yes.
70. Mr. Day.] You are quite satisfied that you know nothing about any selection or additional selection that was taken up in your name? No, I know nothing at all about it.
71. You never consulted any one about it? No.
72. And never transferred it to any one? No.
73. And never authorized any one to take it up? No.
74. Mr. Mackinnon.] Were the selections, after they were taken up, advertised in the papers published in the district? I was about 30 miles from Mitchell's Creek district.
75. But you see the local papers? Yes, I used to get them.
76. Did you notice in any of them that land had been taken up in a name the same as your own? I noticed the name.
77. You did not make inquiries as to whether it was taken up for you? No; I was holding a selection of my own at the time. I was a conditional purchaser, and completing the conditions of residence on my own selection.
78. How long was it before you found out there had been a selection taken up in your name—when did you first find out that a selection had been taken up in your name? Through Mr. Levien's letters.
79. You are sure there was no other M'Intyre in that district? I did not know of any one of the name.
80. If there had been any other person of the same name as your own you think you would have been sure to have heard of it? I was 30 miles from Miller's Creek.
81. How long had you held your selection on the 24th June, 1875? I cannot say how long.
82. Somewhere near two years? It may have been about two years—I am not certain.
83. And had another year to do before you could possibly go and reside on another selection? Yes.
84. Mr. Gill.] Is your other selection in the name of John M'Intyre or John Robert M'Intyre? I think it is in the name of John Robert M'Intyre.
85. What is your right name? John Robert M'Intyre.
86. That is the name you were baptised in? Yes.
87. So that in reality these selections referred to on the plan ought to have been in the name of John Robert M'Intyre if they were yours? Yes.
88. Mr. S. Smith.] Have you ever signed your name with a cross? Never in my life.
89. You have never been asked to do it? No.
90. Mr. Heydon.] I understand that you do not swear there is no other John M'Intyre in the district that has been referred to? No, I cannot swear there is no other.
91. But simply that you do not know any one else of that name? That is all.
92. You write and sign your name as John Robert M'Intyre? Yes.
93. One of the documents produced is signed with a cross in the name of John M'Intyre—that is not you? No.
94. You sign your name John M'Intyre, and sometimes John Robert M'Intyre? Yes.
95. You can write, and always did sign your name? Yes.
96. You say that you cannot swear there was no other person in the district of the name of John M'Intyre? I cannot swear there was no other.
97. How did you first come to hear about these selections? I saw it first in the Murrurundi Times.
98. Can you tell me when that was? I do not remember exactly when it was.
99. Can you tell me how long it was after the selections had been taken up? The paper generally comes once a week; it must have been fully a week after that I heard of it.
100. And you then assumed that the selection had been taken up by some other man of the name of John M'Intyre? Yes.
101. And you paid no particular attention to it? No, I did not.
102. How long after you saw this in the paper was it that you first moved in the matter with the view of getting an inquiry? How long was it after I first moved?
103. You say you saw the selection notified in the paper about a week after it was taken up, and you paid no particular attention to the occurrence, assuming that it was taken up by some one of the same name as yourself;—now how long after that was it that you first moved in the matter of getting an inquiry? Nine or ten years after, I should say.
104. It is only lately then that you have moved in the matter? Yes.

105.

Mr. J. B.
M'Intyre.

9 July, 1884.

105. What was it that made you move in the matter? I received a letter from Mr. Levien.
 106. Have you got that letter? I saw it just now. [The letter referred to is marked Appendix B.]
 107. There was no letter with that from Mr. Levien? No.
 108. And you had no conversation with Mr. Levien about the matter before that? No.
 109. Simply that a document came to you in an envelope—do you know from whom it came? I do not know who it came from.
 110. How did you know where to send it back? The party who brought it to me took it back.
 111. Who was the party that brought it? Arthur Gore.
 112. Did he tell you anything about it? He only gave me the letter and asked me to read it and see whether there was anything in it I would not sign. I read it, and told him it had nothing to do with me, and I signed it.
 113. What did he say—I did not catch your answer? He asked me to read it, and if there was anything in it I did not wish to sign, for I was not to sign it.
 114. Who is Arthur Gore? He is a selector, living at Yarraman Creek.
 115. Is that all that passed between you and Arthur Gore? I do not recollect anything else.
 116. That is all you knew about the document when you signed it? That is all.
 117. And all you knew about the whole matter of the inquiry? Yes.
 118. Nobody had spoken to you before about it? No, not to me.
 119. Then you knew nothing about who wanted you to sign it except Arthur Gore? No.
 120. Did he tell you why he wanted you to sign it? He did not.
 121. There is no mistake about it—at the time you signed it you knew nothing more about any inquiry than what you have told us—you had no conversation with anybody? No.
 122. You had no other conversation with Gore than what you have told us, and you signed the letter? Yes.
 123. That being the whole state of your knowledge at the time? That is all.
 124. How long have you known Arthur Gore? A few years; five or six years, I expect, off and on. I was not particularly acquainted with him until lately. He took up a selection on Yarraman Creek.
 125. Far from you? I am living about a mile from him; I was living there at the time he took up a selection.
 126. You know him very well? I have often seen him, off and on.
 127. Are you intimate with him? Not intimate.
 128. Did it not strike you as a peculiar thing that a man you did not know intimately should come and ask you to sign a letter of that kind? I did not think it would come to anything like this at the time.
 129. Why? Because I was not the party.
 130. Can you not give any other reason why you signed the letter? Because I was not the party; I did not give my consent for any one to take up the ground.
 131. But what made you sign this document at the request of Arthur Gore—you cannot explain more than you have done? No.
 132. How far do you say your selection is from the Miller's Creek Run? It is about 30 miles from Yarraman to Miller's Creek.
 133. What district is Miller's Creek Run in? Quirindi is the nearest town.
 134. Arthur Gore brought you both those letters which have just been shown to you? Yes.
 135. And that was all that passed between you and any one else about this matter until you were subpoenaed to come down and give evidence? Yes, that is all.
 136. Mr. Mackinnon.] Would you have signed such a letter as that asking for an inquiry if any stranger had brought it to you? Yes.
 137. Mr. Heydon.] Was the letter read over to you, or did you read it yourself before signing? I read it over myself.
 138. You saw that it asked for an inquiry? Well, I did not understand what kind of inquiry it was to be.
 139. You saw in the letter that it asked that an inquiry should be granted you? Yes.
 140. Mr. Creagh.] Do you recollect what the second letter was about? Whether I had taken up any land at Miller's Creek—that was what I understood it to be.
 141. You were told that it was what? I read it, and I understood it to ask whether I had taken up any land at Miller's Creek.
 142. That is what you understood it to be, and that is why you signed it? Yes, because I had not taken up any land at Miller's Creek.
 143. You say you read the letter, and understood it to say that you had never taken up any land on the Miller's Creek Run? Yes.
 144. And that is the letter which you believe you signed? Yes.
 145. In what land district is your selection? Murrurundi.
 146. You are on Yarraman Creek? Yes.
 147. Are you up or down the creek from this land that has been pointed out to you on the plan? It is a different creek altogether—Yarraman Creek. Miller's Creek is 30 miles from Yarraman.
 148. You selected on Yarraman? Yes.
 149. But the selection pointed out on the plan is on Miller's Creek? Yes.
 150. Do you know Mr. Manchee up there? No.
 151. Are you near his run? No, he lives on what is called Phillips Creek.
 152. You say it is about 30 miles from your selection on Yarraman to the selection referred to on Miller's Creek? Yes, that is what they call it.
 153. But to the particular selection referred to? I do not know where the selection is.
 154. You do not know anything about it? No.
 155. When you say 30 miles, do you mean 30 miles generally from where you live to Miller's Creek? Yes.
 156. But taking the ordinary road, you do not know how far it is from your place to the selection on Miller's Creek? No, I do not know where the selection is, whether it is close to the main road or not.
 157. Had you any business that took you in the neighbourhood of this selection at any time? Never.
 158. It was altogether out of your way? Yes.
 159. And when you saw the name "John M'Intyre" in the paper in connection with a selection on Miller's Creek, you conceived that it was a matter that did not concern you at all, being such a distance from you? Yes.

160. And you never made any inquiry about it? No.
161. In fact for aught you know there may have been more than one John M'Intyre on Miller's Creek? There may have been.
162. Was there constant communication of persons passing to and fro between Miller's Creek and your place? Not from Miller's Creek; there was a road from Murrurundi.
163. In fact there was no highway or common road between the selection on Miller's Creek and your place? No.
164. It was not the ordinary course of traffic to pass by it? No, it was out of the way.
165. And when you saw the announcement in the paper you conceived that there might be a man named John M'Intyre, other than you, and that it had nothing to do with you? Yes.
166. Then your evidence simply amounts to this,—that you know nothing about the selection spoken of, that you never signed any document in connection with it,—and that you never were on the selection at all? That is my evidence.
167. I understood you to say that the first you heard of the selection was seeing the announcement in the Murrurundi Times, and you heard nothing more about it until you received the letter which is now before the Committee? No; I was holding land on the Yarraman at the time, and I knew that I could not hold land in two places.
168. The signature to the letter produced is Mr. Alfred Gore's signature? Yes.
169. He is also a selector? He is a selector on Yarraman Creek.
170. Is he a man of education? I do not think he is.
171. I understood you to say that Mr. Gore said nothing about having been sent by anybody? He did not say he had been sent by anybody.
172. Did he give you to understand that he came to you of his own accord? Yes, he came to me with the letter where I was working.
173. Did he say he came of his own accord, or that he had been sent by anybody? He did not say.
174. And the first letter that was brought to you was brought to you in the same way? Yes, in the same way.
175. You are quite sure you were on your own selection in 1875? Yes.

Mr. J. B.
M'Intyre.
9 July, 1884.

Mr. George Simms called in and examined on oath :—

176. Chairman.] What are you? A carrier.
177. Where do you reside? At Miller's Creek.
178. How many years have you been residing there? I cannot say rightly—about fourteen or fifteen years.
179. Do you know the Miller's Creek run very well? Very well.
180. You see Mr. M'Intyre, who has just been examined before this Committee? Yes.
181. Did you ever see him on Miller's Creek, or know of his having a selection there? Never.
182. Did you know any person of the name of John M'Intyre having a selection on the Miller's Creek Run? No, I did not.
183. You see on the plan lying before the Committee there are two selections marked as being in the name of Macintyre—you know Mr. James Seville? Yes.
184. You know where he had a selection? No, I do not.
185. You know Mr. George Forrester? Yes.
186. Do you know where he had a selection on the Miller's Creek run? No, I do not.
187. Do you know Mr. Glass's conditional purchases? I may have known them, but I did not know whether they were selections or not.
188. Do you know the boundaries of Miller's Creek Run? I think I know the boundary.
189. You know that portion of the run which adjoins the A. A. Company's estate? Yes.
190. Did you ever hear of any person by the name of John M'Intyre having selections adjoining the A. A. Company's estate on the Miller's Creek Run? No, I did not.
191. Did you know any person in the district of the name of John M'Intyre? No; but there may have been a person there of the name.
192. But you never heard of one? No.
193. And you never knew of a John M'Intyre, or heard of a John M'Intyre owning a selection on Miller's Creek Run? No, I did not.
194. I suppose you know pretty well all the selections on the Miller's Creek Run? I know all the old hands like, those who have been there a long while, but I do not know all who have taken up new selections.
195. Do you know Irwin and Martin? Yes.
196. They have selections there—they are old hands, are they not? If they had selections I cannot tell where they were.
197. At all events, you never heard or knew of a man named John M'Intyre there in your lifetime, or any person of that name in the district? Never about Miller's Creek; I cannot say about the district, but I never heard the name.
198. Mr. S. Smith.] You stated just now that you knew the selectors on the Miller's Creek Run with the exception of the new hands—what would you call a new hand? A man might come and say, "Did you hear about so-and-so having a selection on Miller's Creek?" he would be a new hand.
199. Who would you call an old hand there? Mr. Clay is one of the old hands.
200. How long has he been there? Fifteen or sixteen years.
201. Do you think if a person had selected there eight years ago that you would know him? Well, I dare say I would if he was on the ground personally, but if I only just heard mention of him like I should not.
202. If he was there for a bona fide purpose, if he was a bona fide selector, and took up land in 1875, and resided on it for the term specified by the Act, and made the necessary improvements to the extent of £400 or £500, do you think you would have known him? I must have done.
203. You have no doubt that if a man named John M'Intyre took up land in 1875, and fulfilled the conditions of the Act by residence and improvements, you would have known him? I must have known him.
204. If a selection was taken up in the name of John M'Intyre in 1875, on the 24th of June in that year, you would have known him? I should have known him.

Mr.
G. Simms.
9 July, 1884.

Mr.
G. Simms.
9 July, 1884.

205. You have no doubt about that? No; I may have seen some one named John M'Intyre, but I was not acquainted with any one of that name.
206. And if a man named John M'Intyre had taken up land in 1875, and complied with the conditions of the law in regard to residence and improvements, you would have known him? If he had resided on the selection for any time I must have known him.
207. Mr. Mackinnon.] Are you in the employ of Mrs. Glass now? No.
208. You were a carrier on the station? Yes.
209. Were you working on your own account or for Mr. Glass? I took contract work; I had my own team.
210. You took contracts from selectors on the land, for moving, fencing, and other things? Yes.*
211. You generally had the privilege of doing work for them? Yes.†
212. And if Mr. Glass wanted you to move fencing and stuff you did it? Yes.
213. You would not know whose ground the fencing was wanted for? No.
214. You would see the men on the ground, and they would help you to unload? I did not know Mr. Glass's men when I saw them.
215. But have you not carried fencing and stuff on the selections supposed to belong to John Robert M'Intyre? No; I have done work on the selection, what I am now told they call M'Intyre's.
216. You were working on the selection? I have worked on one selection; I drew some building stuff there.
217. Did you meet any one there of the name of M'Intyre? No.
218. You know as much about the selections there as most people? No, I do not.
219. All your agreements were with Mr. Glass to deliver timber at so much a hundred, at a certain place? That is all.
220. And whilst working about the selection you never heard of a man of the name of M'Intyre? No, I did not meet with any such man personally.
221. Did you know most of the other selectors there? I have been living there a good many years, and I know there is ground taken up as a selection, but I know nothing about it personally.
222. You know where the old hands' land is? It is Hall's, whom old Mr. Glass bought out.
223. Do you think there could have been a man there complying with the conditions of residence without your knowing him or seeing him? I could not say; I never saw him; I see Mr. M'Intyre, who is now before this Committee, but I do not recollect ever seeing him there, though he may have been there and I not known it.
224. But did you ever meet a man there named M'Intyre? No.
225. You met the other men? They are my neighbours; M'Intyre could have gone there and I not known of it.
226. You think a man named M'Intyre might have resided there for three years and you not know it? No; M'Intyre could not have resided there three years without my knowing it; I never called him M'Intyre by name.
227. Are you still doing contract work for Mrs. Glass? I am working now for the Bank.
228. Mr. S. Smith.] Do you know the selection they call M'Intyre's? I cannot say for certain.
229. You could not say for certain if you heard any one mention M'Intyre's selection? Not lately.
230. Have you ever been on the place known as M'Intyre's selection? I cannot tell you that; only what they said lately about the selection—some selection at the back of Mr. Clay's paddock; I do not know how much.
231. Chairman.] There was no selection with £340 worth of improvements that you know of? No, I do not think there could have been.
232. Mr. S. Smith.] You see on the plan there is a selection adjoining the A.A. Company's land—is that the selection? I think it is on the east side of Miller's Creek.
233. That is the only M'Intyre's selection that you ever heard mentioned? Yes.
234. Have you been on that selection? Yes; I have put some building on the selection, but I did not know who it belonged to.
235. Did you ever know any one to reside upon it? No.
236. How often, do you think, have you been across that selection? Well, I cannot say, because sometimes I might not be on it for a month.
237. Is it likely that you would not be on it for six months? Yes; I was away for five months on one occasion; on another occasion I was away for some time.
238. Between 1875 and 1876 can you say what was the longest interval that elapsed between the times you crossed that selection? I cannot say.
239. Do you think it was a month? The time is so far back I do not recollect; riding about you do not think of the time.
240. Can you give any idea of about a month or two months—do you think six months elapsed? No, I do not think that time elapsed; I was on it often enough, because there is a road three chains wide going across it.
241. How far was it you said you carried timber for the building? It might be half a mile; I cannot say the distance for certain, because it is away off the road.
242. How long is it since you carried the timber? It is eight or nine years ago.
243. Is there any place erected there? Yes, I erected a place there.
244. On this very selection? Yes; I don't know whether it is the same or not.
245. But is it the selection known as M'Intyre's? Yes.
246. On the eastern side of the A. A. Company's grant? Yes, on the eastern side.
247. And no one resided in the house which you erected, so far as you know? I cannot say whether they did or not, but they did not reside there so far as I know.
248. Mr. Day.] How long did it take you to build the house? Somewhere about a week.
249. It was not a very extensive house then? Not a very large one.
250. Did you draw the stuff on the ground for it? Yes.
251. How long were you drawing the stuff to build the house with? From the time I commenced I cannot say

* ADDED (on revision) :—The only contract work I have done on Miller's Creek was for Mr. Glass.

† NOTE (on revision) :—Not selectors, but Mr. Glass.

Mr.
G. Simms.
9 July, 1884.

- say exactly ; I had to go to Pine Ridge for the stuff ; it would be somewhere about 40 miles from the Pine Ridge to the place where I put up the house, but I did not notice the time.
252. Mr. Gill.] Do you recollect what you got paid for it ? I cannot say rightly now what I got.
253. About how much ? There was some other work adjoining, and it was all put together.
254. What did you get altogether ? I cannot give you any idea.
255. Did you do any fencing ? Yes.
256. On that land ? No.
257. Is it fenced ? No ; it is paddock-fenced.
258. Was there no fence put on the selection ? No.
259. Mr. S. Smith.] Was the run cleared, or any part of it ? Some of it was rung.
260. Were there 40 acres cleared ? I cannot tell you ; I had nothing at all to do with the clearing.
261. Was there any portion of the land cleared ? I never noticed any.
262. Do you think you would have noticed if it had been cleared ? I must have done.
263. Mr. Gill.] Are you sure that it might not have been cleared without you noticing it ? I should have noticed it, I think.
264. Are you sure it could not have been cleared ? I am sure it was not cleared where I put up the place, but it may have been cleared in other parts.
265. Do you think there could have been 2 miles 30 chains of six-wire fencing put up without your noticing anything of it ? No, I must have known of it if it had been up.
266. You did not draw any wire for the purpose of fencing ? Not on the selection we are talking about.
267. Mr. Heydon.] What sort of a house did you put up ? It was a skillion place.
268. What was it constructed of ? Pine slabs.
269. What sort of roof had it ? Pine roof with a zinc top.
270. A two-roomed place I suppose ? I think it was.
271. I understood you to say you drew some fencing stuff there ? Not there ; I was asked if I ever drew fencing on Miller's Creek, and I said yes.
272. You say the ground was fenced as a paddock ? It was a boundary paddock, where they made paddocks for sheep.
273. But the place itself was not defined by a fence—it was included in a piece of ground ? Yes.
274. Mr. Gill.] The A. A. Company's fence was on one side of it ? Yes.
275. It was separated by a road ? Yes.
276. Mr. Heydon.] Did you not know that the place was a selection when you drew the stuff ? I cannot say for a certainty.
277. You cannot say for a certainty whether you knew it was a selection or not ? No, I cannot.
278. When you saw it being rung, did you not know it then to be a selection ? All the place is rung there ; there are hundreds of acres of Crown lands there.
279. Have you not heard it spoken of as a selection ? Yes ; but whether it was a selection or not I did not know.
280. You heard it spoken of as a selection and understood it to be a selection ? Yes.
281. But you did not know the name of the man in whose name it was taken up ? I did not.
282. I suppose there are other selections taken up by men whose names you have not heard ? I dare say there are.
283. You are a carrier, and I suppose you were away a good deal carrying goods—carrying home material for instance ? Yes, I go out into the back country sometimes with the teams.
284. You have been away a good deal in carrying on your business ? During the last few years I have been away a good bit.
285. Between 1865 and 1868 you were away a good deal ? No ; it is only within the last four years I have made up a team and been away much.
286. What were you doing then ? I was a contractor for fencing and that like.
287. And resided at Miller's Creek ? Yes.
288. No great distance from the homestead ? About a quarter of a mile, adjoining the Company's boundary.
289. Anywhere near this particular place we are speaking of ? About three-quarters of a mile from it ; it may have been a mile. My selection ran back three-quarters of a mile.
290. You took up a selection yourself ? My missis did.
291. And you resided on it ? Yes.
292. When did you take up your selection ? Somewhere about fourteen years ago.
293. Mr. Gill.] Did you ever know of any person residing on this selection where you put up this skillion house ? No, I did not ; there might have been, but I cannot say.
294. Mr. Heydon.] You cannot say that any one did reside there ? No.
295. You cannot say that the conditions of residence were not carried out in regard to this land ? No, I cannot ; all I can say is that I never saw any one residing on it.
296. Did I understand you to say that if there had been a man of the name of M'Intyre residing there for three years you would have heard of him ? Yes.
297. But you cannot say that the conditions of residence were not complied with by somebody ? No, I cannot say that.
298. Mr. S. Smith.] You have been over the place frequently and resided near it, and you know what a bona fide selector is,—one who fulfils the conditions of the law ; now, suppose in this instance the conditions of the law had been fulfilled as regards residence, and that the necessary improvements were made and other work conducted there, would the general appearance of the place warrant you in saying it was the residence of a bona fide selector ? He could not have been there without my knowing it.
299. You do not think the place was conducted in the way a bona fide selector would conduct it ? It is hard to say.
300. Do you think if M'Intyre—if there ever was such a man—worked his selection in such a way as to be able to make a living from it, you would have known him ? I'm blest if I can tell.
301. Chairman.] If this man M'Intyre had been a carrier or a bona fide selector on that supposed selection, no doubt you would have seen him from time to time ? I must have seen him.
302. And if £340 worth of improvements had been put upon this selection, and there had been workmen employed about the place, you would have noticed them ? I must have noticed them.
303. But you did not notice them ? No, I did not.

- Mr. G. Simms. 304. Mr. Day.] Have you any recollection as to who employed you to put up a hut on this selection Mr. Glass.
- 9 July, 1884. 305. Mr. Gill.] Did Mr. Glass pay you for it? Yes, he did.
306. Mr. Day.] You did no other work on that selection than put up the house? No.
307. You never saw a man named M'Intyre there? No.
308. He never paid you money for the work you did? No.
309. Had you an opportunity of seeing whether any stock grazed on that land? There were sheep and cattle and horses.
310. Whose stock were they? I cannot tell you that; some of them were ours and some were Mr. Glass's.
311. Did you see any strange stock belonging to anybody else on it? No; but when store cattle were coming down they might sometimes straggle on it.
312. Mr. S. Smith.] Was it in 1875 you carted the timber on the ground? I cannot say rightly, the time is so long ago.
313. It was Mr. Glass who paid you for the timber and carting? Yes.
314. Mr. Creagh.] You do not identify the selection at all that has been pointed out to you? I cannot say for certainty looking at the plan.
315. Do I gather rightly from what you have been saying, that you cannot swear whether the evidence you have been giving has reference to the particular selection that has been pointed out to you on the plan? I do not know.
316. You are talking about a selection, but you cannot swear whether the selection pointed out on the plan is the one you are talking about or not? The selection which the Chairman mentioned as being at the eastern side of Miller's Creek Run is the one I am talking about.
317. Chairman.] You heard that it was called M'Intyre's? Yes.
318. Mr. S. Smith.] There was no other selection called M'Intyre's on the run? Not that I am aware of.
319. Mr. Creagh.] In the year 1875 could any person of the name of M'Intyre have gone on the station, taken up a selection, remained there a year, and then have sold it without you knowing anything about it? Well, he may have done that.
320. If he had remained two years you would have heard of him? Well, I may not, do you see.
321. Or three years? You may be on a station twenty years, and live on it, and not know anything about their business or what they are doing on it.
322. Then I understand you to swear that a man of the name of M'Intyre may have taken up a selection on Miller's Creek Run, have been there three years, have transferred it and gone away altogether, without your being aware of the fact that there was a man of that name there at all? He may have been there, and I not know it.
323. Chairman.] If there had been a man there of the name of John M'Intyre residing upon land within a mile of your place, and putting £40 worth of improvements upon it, and residing there three years, would you not have known him? I should have known him.

Mr. William Clay called in and examined on oath:—

- Mr. W. Clay. 324. Chairman.] What are you? I am a selector.
- 9 July, 1884. 325. Where do you reside? On my selection on the Miller's Creek Run; the ground is my own now.
326. How many years have you resided there? I was there before selection came up at all.
327. How many years do you think altogether? Four and twenty or five and twenty years altogether.
328. Do you know the Miller's Creek Run very well? Yes.
329. Know all the boundaries of it? Yes.
330. You see Mr. M'Intyre in this room, the gentleman who has just been examined before this Committee; did you ever see him residing at Miller's Creek? No.
331. Did you ever hear of his having a selection there? No, I never saw him until the other day, when I met him at the train coming down to this inquiry.
332. Did you ever know of a man named M'Intyre residing on Miller's Creek? Never.
333. I suppose you knew pretty well all the settlers there? Yes.
334. Did you ever hear of a man named M'Intyre being employed or living on the station? I never did.
335. How far do you live from the eastern boundary of the A. A. Company's estate? Not half a mile from the southern boundary.
336. Did you ever hear of any selections being called M'Intyre's selections on Miller's Creek Run? I never did until a few days ago I heard there was some dispute about some M'Intyre.
337. And that was the first time you ever heard the name of M'Intyre? That was the first time I heard the name.
338. Whose selection adjoins yours? Mr. James Seivl's 160-acre grant or purchase.
339. What is the number of your selection? I think it is No. 2.
340. Look at the plan on the table—you see there is a selection there adjoining yours which is in the name of John M'Intyre—did any selection in the name of John M'Intyre ever adjoin yours that you know of? Never that I know of.
341. Did you ever see a man on the land of the name of John M'Intyre? Never; I only knew of one John M'Intyre in the Colony, and I thought it might have been him; I was surprised when I saw this man now before the Committee.
342. But you never saw the M'Intyre now present residing on Miller's Creek Run or holding a selection there? Never.
343. Did you ever see any improvements on that selection adjoining yours? Never; I saw a hut on it.
344. How much would you value that hut at? Well, I cannot say—it is not worth a great deal.
345. But what do you think would be its value? It might be worth £10.
346. Could there have been 2 miles 30 chains of six-wire fencing on the land without your seeing it? No, because it must have come and joined mine.
347. If there had been such a man would you have seen him? I think so.
348. Has there been any fencing round the selection to your knowledge? No, but it is fenced in in paddocks.
349. But is the selection itself fenced in? No, it is not.

Mr. W. Clay.

9 July, 1884.

350. Have you ever noticed any clearing upon the land? No, I have not.
351. If 40 acres had been cleared would you have noticed it? Well, I would, because it is so near mine.
352. Have you been frequently on the land? I have often been on it.
353. Have you ever seen any person residing on it? No, I have not.
354. Did you ever see any one living in the hut at any time? Never.
355. You know Mr. Argent, the inspector of conditional purchases—did he ever go to inspect the selection to your knowledge? I never saw him there; I have seen him at Miller's Creek.
356. Did Mr. Argent ever come to you and make any inquiries about anybody living on the selection by the name of M'Intyre? He never did.
357. Is it not usual for inspectors to come and ask adjoining selectors who lived on the next selection? I do not know.
358. You never knew of a man named M'Intyre residing upon any selection adjoining yours? I did not.
359. But upon this selection, the one that purports to be M'Intyre's, you never saw any one living in the hut? There may have been some one living there, but I never saw any one.
360. Mr. S. Smith.] Supposing a person to have lived in the hut and resided there for (say) twelve months, do you think it possible for you not to have seen him? I should have seen him if he had lived there; if anybody had resided there I must have seen him.
361. Must have seen him, you say? Oh yes; I do not think the hut is half a mile from my ground.
362. How frequently have you visited the hut or passed it? Sometimes I might go up occasionally looking for cows or something of that sort, but it was very seldom I got in to look at the hut inside.
363. Did you ever notice any cattle or sheep grazing on the land? Oh yes.
364. Whose were they? They belonged to the Bank, I think.
365. Was that piece of land adjoining yours known as Mr. Glass's property? Well, it was Mr. Glass's, but now I believe it belongs to the Bank.
366. What do you think is the value of the improvements made upon the land? Well, I am sure I don't know; I do not think the hut is worth above £10.
367. All the improvements upon the place known as M'Intyre's selection? Yes.
368. Have you any doubt as to the land that is being referred to? Oh, I know the land to which you refer.
369. And you have no doubt that, so far as you are able to judge, £10 is the value of all the improvements put upon the selection? Yes; Mr. Simms ought to know better than I do, for he is the man who put up the hut.
370. Did you see Simms erect the hut? I was there now and again.
371. You saw him at the time he was erecting the hut? Yes, I was at home at that very time; I don't know whether I did not draw some of the stuff to some of the huts, but I know I was there and saw some of the huts put up.
372. Mr. Gill.] Have you been inside the hut? Well, I have gone in occasionally at odd times.
373. Had there been a fire there, or any appearance of people having lived there? No.
374. Did you see any bedding there? No.
375. At any time? At no time at all.
376. Merely a hut, put up and not used? That is all.
377. If there had been a fire made in the hut, and the hut had been used, you would have known? Yes; I think anybody would have known.
378. Mr. Mackinnon.] Did Inspector Argent inspect your selection? I never saw him.
379. Mr. Day.] How long is it since you took up your selection? I do not recollect exactly how many years ago it is; it was an early selection.
380. Mr. Gill.] Did the inspector come to inspect your selection after you had taken it up? No, I went and gave in the improvements as I made them.
381. Mr. Mackinnon.] You never made any additional selections? No.
382. Did any of your family? No.
383. None of your friends you know of at all had selections which Mr. Argent inspected at that time? No.
384. You never saw Mr. Argent? Oh yes, I have seen him.
385. You never saw him on that selection of M'Intyre's? No.
386. Do you think anybody could go and value the improvements there and examine the hut without your seeing him? Yes, they could.
387. You do not see everybody that may come? No.
388. You are sure they could not make up the improvements on the selection to £340? No.
389. Is the selection ringbarked? Yes.
390. Does not that increase the value of the improvements? Yes.
391. What is the value of the ringbarking? Tenpence.
392. Mr. Gill.] Have you noticed any land cleared for crops—the trees taken out? None of it.
393. Might there not be some cleared and you not know? It would be impossible.
394. And there is absolutely no clearing? No clearing at all.
395. And no fencing other than the A. A. Company's fence? Only the Company's fence.
396. Which is not on the land? Yes.
397. Would it be possible for any selector to be living there without you knowing it? I do not think he could.
398. Mr. S. Smith.] Can you see the hut from your place? Yes, I can see it from my place.*
399. If there was a light in the hut do you think you could see it? It lies in a gully, and I do not think I could.
400. It was not cleared land—simply dead timber—and even that has not been gathered up? It has not.
401. Did you notice a log sheep-yard on the selection? No.
402. Mr. Argent, the inspector of conditional purchases, states in his report that there is a log sheep-yard on the selection worth £10? I don't know of one.
403. Do you think there could be one without you knowing it? I don't think there could.

404.

* NOTE (on revision):—Cannot see the hut—the roof of it, but can see the greater portion of the ground.

- Mr. W. Clay. 404. Mr. Gill.] Were Mr. Glass's sheep shepherded at the time the hut was built? Yes; the sheep were running there, and I have even seen Mr. Glass shepherding himself, keeping the sheep on that part—some sheep that he was going to send away, or some that he did not want to mix with the others.
- 9 July, 1884. 405. Mr. S. Smith.] Was that at the time the hut was erected? I cannot swear that.
406. Mr. Gill.] Is this land in an enclosed paddock, or is it inside an enclosed paddock which belonged to Mr. Glass? It is in a large paddock.
407. Of Mr. Glass's? Yes.
408. Mr. Heydon.] Then, so far as you can say, the hut was put up without any purpose at all—there was no use made of it whatever? I never saw it used.
409. It was put there without any apparent object, so far as residing there is concerned? Yes.
410. Was it not used by the shepherds at all? No, I never saw any.
411. There were no shepherds there at all? There were some old shepherds some distance from it, but not on the place you refer to.
412. I suppose you were asked about this matter before you came down? No; I did not know that I was coming until the constable brought me the summons.
413. Who was Mr. Seivl, who had a selection alongside yours—do you know him? Yes.
414. Was he a neighbour of yours? At one time he was.
415. Before he sold out? Yes.
416. Is Mr. James Seivl going to be a witness in this case? I saw him outside.
417. That is the same Mr. Seivl who had the selection close to yours? Yes.
418. On the plan there is a selection marked alongside yours in the name of James Seivl—do you recollect that being taken up? I think that selection has been taken up a good many times.
419. Who was resident on No. 1 when you took up No. 2? Mr. Seivl.
420. But at the time you took up the selection? There was nobody living there.
421. How long was it vacant? No time; I forget who took it up.
422. Who resided on it when it was taken up? Well, I think it was Mrs. William Seivl who lived there for a time.
423. But William Seivl's selection, I see, is on the other side? There is some ground on each side of me belonging to William Seivl. There is a piece of 160 acres which formerly belonged to old Mr. Seivl.
424. He never resided there in your time? No.
425. He was there before your time? Yes; he was the owner of M'Donell's Creek, and he gave this creek to his son William.
426. You resided on Miller's Creek before you took up the selection? Yes.
427. How long did you reside there before you took up the selection? It may have been a year or two.
428. Was old Mr. Seivl living there at all at that time? He did not live on Miller's Creek; he lived on M'Donell's Creek.
429. Can you give me any idea as to who was the James Seivl who took up a selection adjoining your place? I think it was old Mr. Seivl.
430. He never resided there in your time? No.
431. He used to live there before Mr. Glass lived there? Yes.*
432. Chairman.] Did you ever see Mr. M'Intyre, who is present before this Committee, there? No, I never did.
433. If he had lived on the selection you would have known of it? I think I should.

Mr. William Williams called in and examined on oath:—

- Mr. W. Williams. 434. Chairman.] What are you? I am a farmer, residing at Singleton.
- 9 July, 1884. 435. Are you in anybody's employ now? No.
436. Whose employ were you in before you went to reside at Singleton? I did work for Mr. James Glass, at Miller's Creek.
437. What time were you employed at Miller's Creek? I went there about the latter end of 1875, I think.
438. What position did you occupy? I was looking after the paddocks, and knocking about.
439. You were superintendent for Mr. Glass? For awhile, but not at first.
440. But afterwards you were superintendent? No, I was only like a man.
441. Mr. Mackinnon.] Were you a boundary rider—did you look after the fences? Yes.
442. Mr. Day.] Was it your duty to look after the fences? Yes, a part of them.
443. To see that they were up all right? Yes.
444. Mr. Gill.] Were the boundaries of the run all fenced? It was a kind of a fence round, except one part on the top of the ranges.
445. Did you know the boundaries of the station? I knew them pretty well.
446. You knew all the selectors residing there? I knew some of them.
447. Did you know Mr. Clay's selection—Mr. Clay who has just been examined before this Committee? Yes.
448. His selection almost adjoins the boundary of the A. A. Company's estate? There are two or three between his and the A. A. Company's estate.
449. James Seivl, and Harris, and Joseph Harris have selections between? Yes.
450. You know all those selections, and you know Clay's? Yes; I do not know Clay's boundary, but I know where he lived.
451. Miller's Creek is at the head of his boundary? Yes.
452. Do you know the opposite boundary? That is Clay's top boundary.
453. Yes? No, I cannot say that I know the exact boundary.
454. But you know to within a quarter of a mile of it? Yes.
455. Did you ever hear of any person named M'Intyre living there? No.
456. Did you ever know of a person named John M'Intyre living on the station? There was a M'Intyre there for a while; I do not remember the time, whether it was the latter part of 1875 or 1876.
457. What was his Christian name? He was called Johnny M'Intyre.
458. How long was he employed on the station? He was there in the shearing-time. 459.

* NOTE (on revision):—James Seivl, junr., lived there before Glass, and not James Seivl, senr.

Mr.
W. Williams.
9 July, 1884.

459. Is this the man (pointing to a previous witness)? I do not know him.
460. But you say there was a man of the name employed in the shearing-shed? Yes.
461. That was the only John M'Intyre ever employed on the station in your time that you know of? Yes.
462. Did you ever know of a John M'Intyre being a selector on the station? I heard of a selection being M'Intyre's.
463. Where was it? It was out at the back of Clay's; it was more back from the creek.
464. Did it adjoin the roadway near the A. A. Company's boundary? I cannot say.
465. At all events it was at the back, the furthest away from Clay's selection—if Clay's selection adjoined the creek, M'Intyre's would be further the other way, to the south of Clay's selection? Yes.
466. Mr. Heydon.] You say that Clay's frontage was to the creek; was M'Intyre's selection at the back of his? Yes.
467. Chairman.] You say you have heard of a selection called M'Intyre's? Yes.
468. During all the time you were employed there did you ever see a man named M'Intyre residing on the selection? No, I did not; still there may have been a M'Intyre there and I not know.
469. You were a boundary rider? Yes.
470. And were frequently round there? Yes.
471. How many times during the whole of your employment were you round there? I cannot say.
472. A hundred times? It may have been a hundred times.
473. Did you ever see John M'Intyre there? No.
474. Mr. Mackinnon.] Had you charge of certain paddocks, or were you boundary rider generally? At certain times I had charge of certain paddocks; I was supposed to go right round the boundaries at times.
475. But there were certain fences for which you were responsible? Yes.
476. Did M'Intyre's selection adjoin any fence that you had charge of? Yes.
477. Where that selection is is one of the paddocks which you had charge of? Yes, I was supposed to look after that paddock.
478. How long were you looking after that paddock of M'Intyre's? About two years.
479. During the time you were looking after the paddock, did you ever find a man named M'Intyre living on the selection? No.
480. Did you ever hear of any one living in the hut? No.
481. You saw it every time you went into the paddock? Not every time.
482. You had certain paddocks to look after on certain days, you took them in routine like most boundary riders—now how often did you look round that paddock? Once a week, it may be; at times perhaps only once a fortnight.
483. How many paddocks had you to look after? Five.
484. Then you were in them at least once a week? Some of them I should not be in so often.
485. Was the particular paddock referred to one that you thought required a little looking after, or did you regard it as perfectly safe? That corner I did not bother much about; my work was more on the other side, more on the top of the range.
486. Your neighbours were looked after by other boundary riders, but you did not look after the paddock much, still you were in it on the average about once a fortnight? I cannot say the time; I used to be round as often as I could.
487. Once a month, or once every five or six weeks? I may have gone two weeks together, and then have missed two or three weeks.
488. But you were in it twelve times in the year? Yes, more than that.
489. During all that time you speak of did you ever see any one living in the hut? No.
490. Was there a log sheep-yard near the hut? No.
491. No timber cleared off? No; some of it was ringbarked.
492. But was any timber cleared off, or any of the ground cropped? No.
493. No ground cleared ready for the plough? No.
494. Do you think any man could be there erecting fencing round the paddock without your seeing him? There was fencing put up, but I do not know whether it was on the paddock or not.
495. Was that near the hut? Yes, the fence surrounded the hut.
496. About what distance was it away? I cannot say whether that was the fence.
497. However, fencing? More than a mile and a half.
498. It did not enclose or cut off the ground known as M'Intyre's from the other part of the paddock? No.
499. You cannot say whether the fencing was on the survey lines of the selection? No.
500. There was some wire fencing, but you cannot say whether it was on the selection? I could not say. Some part might have been on the selection, and it may all have been on for what I know.
501. It did not just enclose the 40 acres? No.
502. It could only run along one line? It may have run along one line, but I cannot say whether it did or not.
503. But did you know of any one being resident there at all? No.
504. Were you on the station looking after the paddocks at the time Inspector Argent went there? Mr. Argent was on the run, but I do not know whether he was exactly on the paddock or not.
505. Was anybody with him? That I cannot say; I did not see him going out.
506. You have seen him at the station at different times? Yes.
507. But did not know whether he was escorted out there by anybody from the station or not? No; I did not live at the head station, but at one of the paddocks.
508. In the paddock containing the selection? No, about 2 miles from it.
509. Had you to go through M'Intyre's selection to get to the home station? No.
510. Mr. S. Smith.] Were you at the station at the time the hut was erected? Yes.
511. Did you ever see anybody residing there? No.
512. Were you ever inside the hut? I cannot say that I ever went into it.
513. Did it ever have the appearance of having been occupied at any time—had there been any fires there? I never took any notice.
514. Do you think any person could have been residing there and you not know of it? They might have been there at times and I not have known, but they could not have been there long without my knowing it.

- Mr. Williams. 515. Do you think a person could have lived there two or three years without your seeing him? No.
516. What do you think was the value of the hut? It is a long time ago—I almost forget, but I suppose it would be worth £7 or £8.
- 9 July, 1884. 517. Did you notice any improvements other than the hut on the ground? It was ringbarked.
518. About what quantity was ringbarked? I think it was all ringbarked.
519. Was any of the land cleared? That is, the timber grubbed out?
520. Yes? No, none.
521. None at all? No. When I say no, I mean that I have seen the saplings cut down.
522. Mr. Gill.] But were they cut out by the roots? Yes.
523. I mean dug out by the roots? Yes, cut with the axe.
524. Not with the spade? No.
525. Mr. S. Smith.] What area of land do you think was cut out in the way indicated? I cannot say.
526. Do you think there would be 40 acres? There may or there may not.
527. Was it all taken clear away—were all the trees taken clear away? Only the young trees.
528. None of the large trees were taken away? No.
529. Not what you called cleared land? No, just thinned.
530. Where do you reside now? Near Singleton.
531. Are you a selector? No.
532. Chairman.] Whereabouts do you live at Singleton? About 12 miles out of Singleton by the road.
533. What is the name of the place? Recluse Farm.
534. On your own property? No, on Mrs. Glass's.
535. You are in the employ of Mrs. Glass at present? No.
536. Do you lease a farm from Mrs. Glass? Yes; I have been paying her £60 a year for the last two years and six months.
537. Mr. Gill.] You spoke about some fencing,—did that fencing go across the land in question and form the subdivision of the paddocks, or did it divide the paddocks? It divided the paddocks.
538. And it came through the selection as the dividing fence of the paddocks? Yes.
539. That was the way in which it was fenced? Yes.
540. On one side was the A. A. Company's fence, and the dividing fence went through the middle of the land? I cannot say through the middle—it went through portions of it; I am not quite certain where the selection goes to; I believe the fencing runs through part of the selection, but how much I cannot tell.
541. Have you any idea how much fencing there was there? I cannot say how much there was.
542. Have you no idea? I have not.
543. Mr. S. Smith.] What kind of fencing was it? Wire fencing.
544. Mr. Gill.] Was there a top rail? No.
545. How many wires? Five wires, I think.
546. Mr. Smith.] How much do you think it would cost to clear the land of the small saplings you speak of? I cannot say.
547. Mr. Mackinnon.] Were the saplings burnt when they were cut down? No, they were left lying; I fancy there was a bit burnt out, but I am not sure.
548. Mr. Smith.] What do you think it would cost? £5 or £6 altogether.
549. You say the land was not cleared of the stumps—it was only the small saplings that were cleared: what do you think it would cost per acre to clear in the manner you speak of? 15s. or 20s. per acre, I should say.
550. Mr. Gill.] What were the improvements worth altogether? I cannot say.
551. £40 the lot? The ringbarking would be worth more than that.
552. I mean the improvements altogether—the cutting down of the young timber, the building of the hut, which you say was worth £7 or £8. Suppose you put £10 on the hut, how much would the cutting down of the timber be worth—would the whole lot be worth £40? I could not say rightly what it is worth; I cannot say how much was cleared.
553. Do you think the cutting down of the timber was worth £20—do you think it was worth anything at all? Of course it was worth something—men would not cut it down for nothing; I should say it ought to be worth £30 or £40.
554. Would the hut be worth £7? £7 or £8.
555. Mr. S. Smith.] You mentioned just now about certain fences having been erected there—how long is it since they were erected—was it previous to the erection of the hut? It was after the hut was put up.
556. Who erected the fencing? Some young chaps of the name of Hall.
557. Who did they erect it for? Mr. Glass, I think.
558. How long was it after the hut was erected? Well, I cannot say how long; it may be twelve months, or longer.
559. Would it be more than twelve months? I think it must have been a little over twelve months.
560. You went to Mr. Glass in 1875—at that time was there any fencing round this selection? No; only the paddock fence; the fence, I believe, ran across the selection, and there was no hut at that time.
561. How often had you used to come down to this selection before the fence was erected—did you come down more frequently on account of there being no fencing? No, not a bit more, because there was the boundary fence out.
562. Where did the boundary fence commence—you say that what was called M'Intyre's selection goes down to the A. A. Company's estate on the eastern side; was that the boundary of the station on that side? Yes.
563. Was there any boundary fence—say on the A. A. Company's side—at the time you went to Mr. Glass's station? Yes.
564. What kind of fence? A wire fence.
565. And that was the boundary of M'Intyre's selection? The fence I speak of fenced the paddock in.
566. But M'Intyre's fence goes to the boundary of the A. A. Company's ground? Yes.
567. Was that fencing up when you went there? Yes.
568. Whose was it? It was between the two—it belonged to the Company as much as the other.

569. Who erected it? I cannot say; it was erected long before my time.
570. What boundary line was erected after that by Mr. Glass? The one that I say ran across the selection that was cutting the paddock in two; it was a large paddock, and it was cut in two.
571. Chairman.] So that this selection of M'Intyre's was in the paddock—that is, in Mr. Glass's paddock? Yes.
572. Then, as a matter of fact, M'Intyre's selection was not fenced in? Oh, not to say right round.
573. It was in the paddock? Yes.
574. Mr. Heydon.] I understood you to say that you did not exactly know the boundaries of the selection? No, I did not.
575. And you cannot say whether the selection was fenced in or not? I do not think it was fenced in all round.
576. On how many sides was it fenced? I believe one line ran across the top end, another ran down the Miller's Creek Run down the other side.
577. Then it was fenced on three sides, including the A. A. Company's fence? Yes; I cannot speak exactly of the boundaries, and cannot say whether any of these fences were exactly on the boundary lines.
578. But assuming they were on the boundary lines, it was fenced in on three sides with wire fencing? Yes, if they were on the boundary lines.
579. You think it was a five-wire fencing? Yes, to the A. A. Company's estate it was a six-wire fence.
580. You say you looked after the paddock for two years—what years were they? I was there longer than that.
581. But when did you come there? In the latter end of 1875.
582. Did you look after that paddock for the first two years, or was it afterwards? Only part of the paddock; the lower corner I never used to visit.
583. But you say that during part of the time you were there, for a period of about two years, you had to look after that part of the country which included the paddock—can you tell me what two years they were? Part of 1875, '76, and '77.
584. Did your duty ever take you round there at night? No.
585. Can you say for certain whether anybody used to reside there so far as to make it their sleeping-place? I was never there at night.
586. Your business did not take you there at night? No.
587. And you were never inside the hut? I do not recollect ever being inside it.
588. You cannot say, from anything you saw, that some one or other might not have resided there at night and used it as a place for sleeping in, having occupations elsewhere during the day? They might have done and me not know it.
589. It was not your business to inspect that selection? No.
590. How long would it take Mr. Argent to inspect the selection and form an estimate of the value of the improvements, half an hour or an hour? I should think he could do it in that time.
591. I suppose there would be nothing remarkable in the fact of a man going and inspecting a selection and forming a valuation of the improvements made on it, and you not see him there? A dozen might go and I not know anything about it—that is the first time I speak of.
592. How long were you there altogether? I was there for twelve months, and then had nothing to do with it at all; I used to go about the paddocks, but it was not my business to look after them then.
593. How long were you at the station? That was in 1878; a young man named Higgins was looking after it.
594. What you had to do, when there, was boundary riding? For the first two years, up to the time that Higgins came.
595. And during the time he was there you had nothing to do with the boundaries of the paddocks? No; Mr. Higgins had it stopped; it was rented to Higgins; I have gone out to help him muster at different times.
596. How long have you been at Singleton? I came down there I think in '81.
597. You did not take up a selection when you went there first? Yes, I had a selection.
598. It is only lately you have been on this farm you have been speaking about? I came to where I am now in 1881.
599. You did not reside at the head station? No.
600. But lived at some place out in the paddocks? Yes.
601. You were not superintendent of the run? Not at that time; I was looking after the place for a few months at the latter end of 1877; Mr. Glass shifted away from there, but I did not live at the head station.
602. But you did not live at the head station at all? Yes, afterwards, in 1878, I think it was; in January, 1879, I shifted to the head station.
603. And you were there about twelve months before you left? Yes.
604. Up to that time you were living in a little place out in the paddocks, and were a boundary rider? Yes.
605. Mr. S. Smith.] You stated that it was your duty to look after this particular paddock from 1876 to near the end of 1878—whose property did you consider it was at the time you were going round it? I thought it was Mr. Glass's of course.
606. Can you remember how long it was after you went there that this house was erected? No, I cannot exactly say.
607. Was it twelve months after you lived there, or twelve months before you went there? It was six or seven months after.
608. Who erected the hut? I think Mr. Glass erected it; of course I only know from the man who put it up.
609. Chairman.] In 1877 you say you had the management of the station for a few months? I had the management of the sheep—I had nothing to do with the station like.
610. Whose stock were running on the selection? Mr. Glass's, and other selectors on the creek.
611. Do you remember a man named M'Intyre having stock running there? No.
612. I suppose you knew all the selectors and their stock? Yes.
613. There were no strange stock there? No.
614. You say you had a selection on Miller's Creek? Yes.
615. Who did you hold it for? I took it up for myself.
616. Whose money paid for it? I borrowed the money to pay for it.
617. From whom? Mr. Glass.

Mr.
W. Williams.
9 July, 1884.

- Mr. W. Williams.
9 July, 1884.
618. To whom did you transfer the selection? To Mr. Glass. I afterwards left him.
619. You borrowed the money from Mr. Glass? Yes.
620. When did you pay it back? When I sold out.
621. He lent you the money to take up a selection, and when you sold out to him you paid him the money you owed to him—is that so? Yes.
622. You took money from Mr. Glass to take up a selection, and then sold it to him? Yes.
623. Mr. Creagh.] You transferred the selection to Mr. Glass? Yes.
624. Did you ever know a man named John M'Carthy on that run? Yes, there was a John M'Carthy who used to do some droving.
625. Was he a drover on your station? Yes, he did drive stock there.
626. What year was that? I forget the year.
627. Did you know a man named J. Crombie Gray, or J. Gray? Yes.
628. You do not know where he is? I do not.
629. Do you know a person named J. Seivl? Yes.
630. Have you had any communication from him lately? He wrote to me saying that I was going to be summoned on a land inquiry.
631. Chairman.] Have you his letter? Not with me.
632. Mr. Creagh.] He did write you a letter? Yes.
633. Can you state shortly whether there was anything in the letter in reference to a conditional purchase? He said I was going to be summoned, or something to that effect, that he was coming down, and that if I would come into Singleton he would see me.
634. Did you go to meet him there? No.
635. You thought it best to keep out of his way? No, I got the letter and the summons almost at the same time.
636. You know something about the Miller's Creek run—do you know whether it ever belonged to the Seivl family? I heard that Mr. Glass bought it off him.
637. Did you ever hear that this man, James Seivl, made a claim to that run at any time, or any part of the run—did you ever hear it in common conversation? I do not recollect.
638. You say there was a man named M'Intyre at one time on the station? Yes.
639. About the year 1875? I cannot say exactly the year, whether it was 1875 or 1876.
640. For all you know this man M'Intyre may have authorized some one to take up a selection on Miller's Creek run in his name? He may.
641. And for all you know this man M'Intyre may have transferred the selection at Murrurundi? Yes.
642. He could do that without your knowledge? Yes.
643. Do you know Dr. Knowles, of Murrurundi? Yes.
644. He is a Magistrate I think? Yes.
645. Mr. S. Smith.] Was Mr. M'Intyre employed on the station when you went there? Yes.
646. Mr. Creagh.] Was Mr. M'Intyre on the station before you went there? There may have been a M'Intyre on the station before I went there.
647. Chairman.] But the M'Intyre that was there shearing was the only M'Intyre you ever knew to be on Miller's Creek? Yes.
648. Was he ever a selector on Miller's Creek during your time? Not that I know of.
649. You say that you do not know that the M'Intyre who was on the station for a short time shearing ever occupied a selection on Miller's Creek Run? No, I do not.
650. Has Mr. Seivl spoken to you at all about this matter? No, he has not.

Mr. James Seivl called in and examined on oath:—

- Mr. J. Seivl.
9 July, 1881.
651. Chairman.] You reside at Murrurundi, I think? Yes.
652. You know the Miller's Creek Run? Yes.
653. Were you the owner of that run at one time? I was the owner of certain selections on it.
654. You know the purpose for which this Committee was appointed? Yes.
655. And you have taken an interest in getting information about the matter? I have.
656. Do you know William Clay's selection? Yes, I know it well.
657. Who owns the selection next to it, No. 1? That belonged to two nephews of mine.
658. It is marked on the plan, J. Seivl—had you anything to do with it? Nothing.
659. How long have you known William Clay? Upwards of twenty years.
660. You see two selections on the plan as conditional purchases, and an additional purchase next to Clay's? That is M'Intyre's.
661. M'Intyre's is next to Clay's? Yes.
662. Did you ever know of a man named M'Intyre residing there? Never.
663. You see Mr. M'Intyre in this Committee-room—the gentleman who has been examined as a witness? Yes.
664. Did you ever know him to reside there? Never.
665. How long have you known the two selections that are marked on the plan? From the time the land was first taken up.
666. How often have you seen it, or have you seen it at all lately? I saw it in 1876, 1877, and 1878—I have not seen it since.
667. During those three years you have named did you ever see any person of the name of John M'Intyre residing upon it? No, never.
668. Did you ever see any improvements upon it? Well, no, only a bit of a skillion hut.
669. What would you value that hut at? About £3.
670. Did you see 2 miles or more of wire fencing there? No, the only fencing was that which fenced off all the selections, but which had nothing to do with the selection known as M'Intyre's.
671. The fencing was not on that selection? No; in fact I had all the selections fenced off.
672. Who put up the fences? I put them up.
673. In what year? In 1872 or 1873.
674. What sort of fence was it? A five-wire fence.

Mr. J. Seidl.

9 July, 1884.

675. That was done not long before the selection was taken up? Yes.
676. Who was the owner of the run at that time? It belonged to my father's estate, the Bobadil Run.
677. Did Mr. Glass not put the fencing up? No.
678. How many times do you think you were over the place during the years 1876, 1877, and 1878? I went over there three times, once in each year, to a place called Jack's Creek, to inspect some sheep I bought from Mr. Glass.
679. Did you ever see any clearing on that land? No.
680. Could there have been 40 acres cleared without your seeing it? No, I do not think there could.
681. The only other improvement you say you saw was a hut? Not a hut, it was a kind of skillion with a flat roof—high in the front, low at the back—no main roof.
682. Did you ever see anybody residing there during that time? Never.
683. Mr. S. Smith.] Did you ever go inside the hut? No, I have ridden close by; but you could see that no one resided there—it was all tumbling to pieces.
684. When was that? In 1878.
685. You say the fence was erected in 1872? In '72 or '73.
686. And there has not been any fencing erected since then? Not to my knowledge.
687. No fence was erected up to 1878? Not to my knowledge. The road by which I went passed right through the centre of the selection.
688. How often had you used to go by there? Once in each year, '76, '77, and '78.
689. Did business call you there? Yes, I had to go to a place called Jack's Creek, adjoining Mitchell's Creek.
690. What time in 1876 did you go? I cannot say exactly the month—it was some time in the latter end.
691. Was the hut erected at that time? I cannot say whether or not it was erected at the end of 1876, but I know it was up in 1877.
692. Did you notice a log sheep-yard there? Yes.
693. What do you think that would be valued at? I had that log sheep-yard put up.
694. Is that on the selection which has been spoken of as M'Intyre's? I cannot swear positively that it is.
695. Was it erected by you? Yes.
696. Mr. Mackinnon.] In what year? Some time in 1860.
697. Had it been done up or anything? It had been done up at times.
698. Who was it repaired for, M'Intyre—did it form the line of his selection? No, I do not think it did.
699. Was it repaired as it should have been repaired? I do not know.
700. Have you seen it lately? No.
701. Did you see it anywhere about May, 1877? No.
702. You did not see it in 1877 at all? No; I saw it in 1876.
703. Did you go near the yard in 1876? Yes, in the latter end of 1876; I went to put some sheep in, but it was in such a dilapidated state I did not put them in.
704. When did you see it again? In 1877, and it was in the same state then.
705. You saw it in 1877, and it was still unfit for holding sheep? I think it was in 1877, and it was still unfit for holding sheep.
706. Mr. S. Smith.] Were any sheep or cattle running there? There were some sheep.
707. Whose were they? Mr. Glass's.
708. You have no doubt that he was the owner of the sheep? No.
709. Mr. Mackinnon.] Did your land adjoin this, or did you live some distance away? I lived about 20 miles from there, about the Mooki.
710. You were never over the ground with your nephews? I was there in '76, '77, and '78; I lived north of what is called M'Intyre's selection.
711. You would have to go by Mr. Clay's selection? Yes.
712. And every time you passed there you saw no one residing on what is called M'Intyre's selection? No; it was either at the latter end of 1877 or the beginning of 1878 that I saw it last, and there was no fencing at all.
713. But if there had been you would have seen it? Yes, I should have to go through it.
714. Did the owner of the selection (M'Intyre) ever pay your nephews for any share of the fence? No.
715. Were they ever asked to pay half? No, there never was any such man as M'Intyre there.
716. You are sure there were no improvements or fencing made up to 1878? Yes.
717. Were any saplings cut down, or was there any clearing? None at all.
718. Not cut down by the road to make it appear there had been some clearing done? No.
719. Mr. Gill.] Who ringbarked it? I had it ringbarked.
720. Did you notice any saplings cut down, or scrub? No, there is no scrub on it.
721. Did the saplings grow again? Yes.
722. Mr. Mackinnon.] Then Mr. M'Intyre, or whoever may have been there, instead of ringbarking, had to cut the suckers off? Yes, but there were very few suckers on it.
723. Mr. Gill.] We have it in evidence that the light trees had been cut down close to the ground by the axe—did you see anything of it? No, there was nothing of the kind.
724. Mr. Mackinnon.] Did you make it your business to have a look at this selection now and again? Yes.
725. You watched it? No, I did not watch it; I knew very well the man never resided on it.
726. You never asked your nephews to keep an eye on it? I never spoke to them about it.
727. But when riding along the road you made it a point to go up and have a look, to see how it was? Yes.
728. I wonder you did not keep dates? Well, I knew it was crooked, and I used to have a look at it now and again.
729. You never passed the road without going up to have a look at it? No.
730. And there were no residents there at all? None at all.
731. Did Mr. Glass have any shepherding done there, on that sheep paddock? It was all paddock, and there was no shepherding.
732. Chairman.] Did you ever know a man named M'Intyre living upon Miller's Creek at all? Never.
733. You were constantly seeing Mr. Glass—did he ever speak to you about a man named M'Intyre? Well, he did.
734. Did he ever tell you that there was no M'Intyre who had a selection? The only thing he said to me was that all these selections were taken up on Miller's Creek.

- Mr. J. Seivl. 735. Mr. Mackinnon.] The land was all leased to Mr. Glass? Either Glass or Forester.
 736. If Mr. Glass did get Mr. M'Intyre to select, it was on his own run? Yes, or what was supposed to be his.
 737. Mr. Heydon.] Supposed to be his—whose was it then? It belonged to my father's estate.
 738. Then I understand, with regard to the run, it belonged to your father's estate, and not to Mr. Glass at all? Yes.
 739. You, with others, have a considerable interest in it? Yes.
 740. Instead of belonging to Mrs. Glass and her children, it rightly belongs to you? No, to my father's estate.
 741. In which you have an interest? Yes.
 742. Have you taken any steps to assert that right? Yes.
 743. You claim it from the Bank? Yes.
 744. The Bank refuses to recognize your claim in any way? Yes.
 745. Have you taken any steps in a Court of law? No, I gave instructions.
 746. For how long have you made this claim? I suppose over two years.
 747. How long has your father been dead? About five years.*
 748. Why have you not made the claim for the whole five years? Simply because I could not do anything until the death of my mother, at the end of 1880 or beginning of 1881.
 749. And your mother would not take any steps to assert her rights? She transferred her life interest in the land to Mr. Glass.
 750. She would not take any steps herself? No.
 751. Mr. Gill.] She had only a life interest in it? That was all.
 752. Mr. Heydon.] If you asserted your claim to this successfully you would of course only get the run, less any selections that had been properly made? That is all, of course.
 753. If you could show any selections that were improperly made, you would assert your right to the run inclusive of those selections? If they are thrown back in the run, the probability is they would be put up to auction and sold.
 754. Are your nephews here? No.
 755. You have told us very positively they never made any agreement with anybody about half of the fence? Not that I know of.
 756. You used to go there once a year for three years? Yes.
 757. Is there a main road there at all? Yes.
 758. It goes right through that part? Yes, a measured road.
 759. Where does it lead from? From Miller's Creek to Warrah Creek.
 760. It is not a road between township and township, but simply from Warrah Creek to Miller's Creek? Yes.
 761. Was it a fenced road or a made road? No, a bush track.
 762. And you used to use it? Yes.
 763. And you used to make it your business to examine this particular selection—to have a look at it? Yes.
 764. May I ask your reason for doing so? I knew very well that M'Intyre did not own the land—that he held a selection at Yarraman at the same time.
 765. Because it was not straight you made it your business to look into it? Yes.
 766. Do you make it your business to look into a whole lot of things that are not straight? There are a whole lot of them in the same way.
 767. And you looked into the whole lot of them? Well, I do not say I looked into the whole lot of them—I looked into some of them.

THURSDAY, 17 JULY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. GILL, | MR. MACKINNON,
 MR. S. SMITH.

ROBERT HENRY LEVIEN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Owen, instructed by Mr. Creagh, appeared as Counsel for the Mercantile Bank; Mr. Heydon appeared as Counsel for Mrs. Glass.

Mr. James Seivl recalled and examined:—

- Mr. J. Seivl. 768. Mr. Owen.] I think you stated, when you were being examined the other day, that you had some claim on this Miller's Creek Run? The only claim I have on it is being the executor of my father's estate.
 769. How long have you known this run? I should say, as near as I can recollect, twenty-seven or twenty-eight years.
 770. How far do you live from it? Not further than from 25 to 30 miles.
 771. For the last ten years, what has your occupation been? For the last ten years?
 772. What have you been doing at your residence? Well, dealing in stock; but I hold the station called Mooki Springs.
 773. Is that the station you refer to as being 25 or 30 miles away? Yes, and another station they call Yarraman.
 774. What do you know of this John M'Intyre who has given evidence in this case? I do not know very much about him, only—
 775. Only what? That he was living at Yarraman.
 776. Was he a selector at Mooki Springs? No.

Mr.

* Note (on revision):—He died in 1869, which would make it about fourteen years.

Mr. George Gray Brodie called in and examined on oath :—

777. Chairman.] You are in the Government Service now at Goulburn? Yes.
778. What position do you occupy there? I am clerk in the Goulburn Gaol.
779. You did occupy the position of Crown Lands Agent at Murrurundi many years, did you not? Yes, I did.
780. How were the applications for selections made in the early part of the time you held that office, personally or by an agent? Before the Act of 1875 it was often done by an agent; that was allowed.
781. Look at this application in the name of John M'Intyre (page 6 of the printed papers); that is the original application for a conditional purchase—you see Mr. John M'Intyre in this room, who has been examined before this Committee? Yes.
782. Have you ever seen him before? I cannot say; I do not recollect; I may have done.
783. Did you ever see him in connection with this application for a conditional purchase at all? That I cannot say.
784. You see it is by an agent, Mr. J. Crombie Grey? Yes, I know the man.
785. Would he have had to attend personally to enter that? I know he did attend frequently at the office, but whether in connection with this selection I cannot say.
786. Mr. Mackinnon.] He would have to attend personally if he was acting as an agent? Yes.
787. To have signed it he would have had to attend personally? Yes.
788. Have you ever known of a case where an agent attended with the person applying for a conditional purchase? Yes, I have frequently.
789. Can you say whether it was done in this instance? No, I cannot; in fact I do not remember anything about this case whatever; of course it is one of many hundreds that came before me.
790. Mr. Mackinnon.] Do you recognize the application at all—do you recognize the handwriting? I believe the handwriting to be Grey's.
791. It is not your writing—he did not get the form from you and get you to fill it up? No, certainly not.
792. You believe it to be Grey's? Yes.
793. There is an application by John M'Intyre here for an additional to that conditional purchase I have just shown you? Yes.
794. At the end of it I find these words: "I certify that John M'Intyre is over sixteen years"—can you say you had seen the applicant at that time, or at any time? Well I must have been satisfied.
795. But that is not the question—did you see him? Well, that I cannot say, I never remember a case where I signed a certificate without being satisfied.
796. You never remember having signed one without seeing the person? I cannot say that; but not without being satisfied that he was over that age.
797. I see the application is made by Mr. Brooke—who is he? What date is that?
798. 6th September, 1877, "per William Brooke, agent, Murrurundi"? Well, Brooke was in my employ constantly for about seven years, as a kind of confidential assistant in the office.
799. He acted as agent at that time? No; afterwards he took an hotel at Murrurundi; he then used to act as agent for parties in the district.
800. Suppose Brooke had brought you an application and told you the applicant was above the age of sixteen years, having confidence in him, you would take it without seeing the applicant? Yes, I had implicit confidence in Brooke; I used to trust him with large sums of money; in fact he used to act for me in the lands office.
801. So that you may have added the certificate without having seen the applicant, upon the strength of what Brooke might tell you? It is possible; I do not know any man I have had more confidence in than in him.
802. Can you say he ever brought a man there of the name of M'Intyre—have you any recollection of this additional application having been made at all? No, I have no recollection whatever about the matter; there were so many applications, and so many years have elapsed. I have tried to remember the matter, but I cannot.
803. You would not like to say that any person was brought to you, or that you knew any person of the name of John M'Intyre being brought before you? In both cases where the applications were made they were made through an agent—one by Grey and the second one by Brooke.
804. That is right? Well, I cannot say that I ever saw the man at all.
805. Mr. Mackinnon.] Was Brooke carrying on any business in the town of Murrurundi on the 6th of September, 1877? I cannot say.
806. What was he? District Court Bailiff.
807. In the Government employ? Yes, but he used to assist me in working up plans.
808. He had the run of the books in giving people information as to what land was available? At the time he was in my employment he had.
809. But at this date, 6th September, 1877? No, he was then carrying on business as an inn-keeper.
810. And land agent? Yes.
811. It was his business, acting as land agent, to fill up applications? Yes.
812. And you, knowing Mr. Brooke, having him so long with you, you had every confidence in him, and that he would not mislead you in certifying as agent for John M'Intyre? I had implicit confidence in him.
813. It was that implicit confidence that made you sign the declaration? I cannot say positively; if I did not see the applicant and signed it without seeing him personally, I believe I have taken Brooke's word for it.
814. In both instances the land has been taken up by an agent, and no doubt you would not have signed the declaration unless you knew the applicant was over sixteen years of age, or it was your confidence in this man who acted as agent? Yes.
815. You never remember seeing M'Intyre, and you must have had great confidence in Brooke? He acted for me for so many years, and I trusted him in matters of much greater importance.
816. Suppose any person in the town not carrying on business as a land agent asked you to sign a declaration without personally seeing the applicant, would you then have signed such a declaration? I do not know any other man I should have had the same confidence in.
817. You believe it was on that account that you signed this declaration—this certificate? Supposing I did not

Mr.
G. G. Brodie.
17 July, 1884.

- Mr. not see the man himself. There are so many cases at Murrurundi; it is a large district, and it would be impossible for me to retain in my memory every person who came.
6. G. Brodie. 818. Do you recollect signing a declaration for Mr. Brooke? I do not recollect.
- 17 July, 1884. 819. You signed everything he asked you to sign? I had confidence in him, and believe him to be one of the most honest men in the country.
820. I suppose whilst Brooke was still carrying on business as land agent you allowed him to look over the books in your office? I do not think I did—it was not my practice.
821. But to get particulars to write out applications? I might have done.
822. At this time he had the same privilege almost as when he was in your employ? I think he had.
823. Chairman.] Looking at the application, can you say whether it is Mr. Brooke's writing or signature? Yes; I do not think the top part of the application is his writing, but that is his signature—I am positive as to that, but I do not think the writing in the body of the form is his.
824. Mr. Mackinnon.] Has it been dated and the man's name filled in afterwards—is it two different hand-writings in the filling up, the name in one handwriting and the particulars in another? I do not think the writing is Brooke's, but I recognize the signature as being his.
825. Have you any idea whose writing it is? No, unless it is Brooke's; but I do not think it is his; I can state positively as to his signature.
826. You feel confident that Brooke must have known this man M'Intyre before he would take up land for him and ask you to sign the declaration? I should think so.
827. There can be no doubt that he would know who he was filling up the application for? Yes.
828. How long did you know Brooke? Seven years—I knew him intimately.
829. Had he used to be allowed to act as land agent in your business? Yes; when I got leave of absence I used to mention that he would act for me.
830. The Government had every confidence in him, and he had full charge of the office in your absence? Yes; they were not so particular in those days.
831. And that went on for about seven years? Yes.
832. And you feel confident that if he had not known M'Intyre he would not have filled up this application and asked you to sign the declaration? I do not think he would.
833. You have the fullest confidence in him, and think he must have known this man M'Intyre before he asked you to sign this declaration? Certainly.
834. Mr. Owen.] You cannot recollect whether you saw this Mr. M'Intyre who is now before the Committee or not? No.
835. You may have seen him? It is quite possible.
836. I suppose with the large number of applications you had, you could not carry a knowledge of all the applicants in your head? No.
837. What character did this Mr. Crombie Grey bear in the neighbourhood—what was he? All I know about him is that he was a young man who came up to the district; I think I heard him once say he had deserted from his ship in Sydney at the time of the gold-diggings.
838. What was his occupation? I think he selected in the district of Murrurundi; for some time after he came he was just knocking about the town and acting as auctioneer or something of the kind, I think.
839. Do you know where he is now? I do not.
840. Is Mr. Brooke living there? Yes, he is keeping the Commercial Hotel at Murrurundi.
841. Do you know whether Grey acted in every case as agent? Yes, I am sure he did in a good many cases.
842. Mr. Heydon.] You say Grey acted as agent in a good many cases; it was part of his occupation—auctioneer and land agent I suppose was his occupation? I would not be positive that he had a license, but I think he was an auctioneer.
843. But he was a land agent, and acted for the people? Yes, he was a young man of rather a good education, and used to come in and act for parties.
844. His character was good, was it not? I cannot say that I ever heard anything against him; I looked upon him myself as a man who had thrown his chances away as it were; he certainly was of good character in all respects, so far as I know of him.
845. You say he left his ship and went to the gold-fields? Yes, I think he got married and got amongst rather a bad lot.
846. But his character? I think his character was good—I heard nothing against him; I rather liked the young man myself.
847. He was a young man of good education and character? Decidedly.
848. With regard to Mr. Brooke, can you say how long he has been resident in the district? Over twenty years I think.
849. Has his character stood high? Very high, and does now I believe.
850. You say you had implicit confidence in him? Yes.
851. Had you reason to have great confidence in him? I had.
852. You were intimately connected with him for seven years, and were working with him? I am within limits when I say that.
853. You had known him long before? Yes, much longer.
854. And from what you know personally of his character, and integrity and trustworthiness, I suppose you feel quite sure he would not mislead you in a matter of this kind? I have no reason to think that he would.
855. You are not at all sure you did not see John M'Intyre, to be sure he was not over sixteen years of age? I do not remember anything about it.
856. You cannot say whether you saw him? I cannot say.
857. I think you said that not only you yourself had confidence in Mr. Brooke, but the Government also had confidence in him, and throughout the district he is looked upon as a man of high character and integrity? Yes, certainly.
858. Every one who knows him thinks highly of him? Yes.
859. I suppose he having lived there for twenty years, if there had been anything shady or disreputable about him it would have been known about the district? Yes.

TUESDAY, 22 JULY, 1884.

Present:—

MR. DAY, | MR. GILL,
MR. MACKINNON.

R. H. LEVIEN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Owen and Mr. Heydon, instructed by Mr. Creagh, appeared as counsel for the Mercantile Bank, and for Mrs. Glass, respectively.

Mr. Thomas Argent called in, sworn, and examined:—

860. Chairman] You are an Inspector of Conditional Purchases in the Lands Department? I was. Mr. T. Argent,
861. Do you know the Miller's Creek Run? I cannot say I do particularly well.
862. Will you look at this document, the original of No. 49 of the printed papers—is that your report? 22 July, 1884.
- Yes, that is my report.
863. Do you think you would know the land if it was pointed out to you on the plan? No, I do not think I would.
864. Do you know a man of the name of William Clay? Slightly; I have seen him about Miller's Creek.
865. Do you know his selection? I am not very clear about it, nor about the particulars of any of these selections.
866. On the Miller's Creek Run? On the Miller's Creek Run. I have been dangerously ill for three or four months, and whatever little recollection I had seems to have faded. I will tell you to the best of my ability.
867. Mr. Day.] Is that report correct? I believe it is entirely correct.
868. Chairman.] It is in your handwriting? Yes, and from that fact I believe it is thoroughly correct.
869. You say "the selector was residing in the hut referred to at the time of my visit; I have no doubt, from the statements of the selector and the appearance of the place generally, that the conditions have been complied with". did you go on the selection? Undoubtedly, as I did in every instance.
870. You saw John M'Intyre, who was here the other day? No, I did not.
871. Who pointed out M'Intyre to you, and who took you upon the selection? I believe he was introduced to me by Mr. Glass, at Murrurundi, and that he went out from Murrurundi with me to the selection.
872. Was that on the first occasion? Yes, I believe it was.
873. Then we are to understand that he was introduced to you by Mr. Glass as the selector, and that he went out with you on to the selection? I believe that was so.
874. There was a man named John M'Intyre here the first day you came—did you notice him on that occasion? No, I did not notice. In point of fact, George Brodie, in answer to my question, "Is Mr. M'Intyre here," said, "I have not seen him." There was really no one, except one or two outside.
875. You have no recollection that any of the persons outside was M'Intyre? No, I have not.
876. Will you look at this document, dated 24 June, 1875, and numbered 58 in the printed papers? Yes, I see it.
877. You will see by the first report you say he had 3 miles of six-wire fencing, £255, but in the second report you say 2 miles and 30 chains six-wire fencing, £190? Yes, I see that.
878. Can you tell us how that mistake occurred? No, I cannot, indeed.
879. You will see "40 acres cleared, £60," in the first report; and in the second it is "40 acres cleared, £120"? Yes, I see.
880. Can you tell us how the discrepancy arises? I do not know, unless I discovered that I had undervalued it.
881. Can you say of your own knowledge that there were 40 acres of cleared land there? I cannot say now, at this length of time. When I gave up my office I handed in all record books and all other books which would have given this information.
882. Mr. Day.] But you are satisfied that on the 24th June, 1875, there were 40 acres of cleared land there? I have no doubt about it.
883. Chairman.] Can you say you went on to John M'Intyre's selection? I went out to the one that was pointed out to me as M'Intyre's selection, which I believe it was.
884. Would you be surprised to hear that the adjoining selector says there is no cleared land there at all? No, I should not in the slightest.
885. Then you cannot tell us whether it was M'Intyre's selection or not? No, I cannot.
886. Who pointed it out to you? I cannot say that I am positive, but judging from my report I went there with the man who was said to be M'Intyre.
887. Mr. Day.] Would it be possible for any one to put you on to another selection? The easiest thing in the world; unless the inspector is very careful indeed in catching sight of the boundary marks he might be very easily misled; he might be put on to a selection that was fully covered with improvements, and it is quite possible to shift the boundary marks, and I have heard of an instance of it being done. That is one way in which no possible foresight can guard against villainy.
888. Then we cannot depend upon the reports sent in? I do not say that.
889. Mr. Mackinnon.] Is it not the inspector's duty to know? Yes, but it would be impossible for him to know unless he marked it off.*
890. Has he not got the number? In nearly every instance. I cannot see how any inspector's foresight can guard against shifting the marks.
891. But they would not alter the hand-spits? One would not expect such roguery as that.
892. Would you not look to see which way the hand-spits were? Yes, you would, of course. There is more experience to guide the inspector now than there was ten years ago.
893. Do you remember in this instance whether you looked to see which way the hand-spits were? I do not remember.
894. Did you generally do so? Yes, I was very particular. I think I may say I was very seldom caught in these matters. 895.

* NOTE (on revision):—I.e., unless he measured off the selection in the first instance.

- Mr. T. Argent: 895. Was there anybody residing there? My impression is that the selector who went out with me resided there.
- 22 July, 1884. 896. Had he completed his three years? I do not think so; I think it was during his term. I understood that he came in for the express purpose of bringing me out.
897. How did he know? I do not suppose he knew. There is no doubt that these selections belonged to Mr. Glass, who, I presume, sent out for M'Intyre to come in to Murrurundi to me.
898. Were you not going towards Glass's station at that time? I had lots of selections to look after. He had some special object in view, as I imagine. He asked me to send in a speedy report.
899. Had you any instructions from the Government to make this a special case? Yes, I believe I had.
900. From whom? All my instructions came from Mr. Moriarty. As a matter of fact the owners of these stations knew nearly as soon as I did that I had instructions to inspect.
901. You said you had instructions to inspect this specially? I imagine from the circumstances that I had.
902. You were asked to inspect this and leave some older ones? I do not know that.
903. Was there anybody else residing there? No, there was nobody else residing there; it looked just like a hut occupied by a single individual.
904. You do not think it possible that you could have been misled in the land? I do not think so; of course it is possible.
905. You do not think it is probable? I do not think so, from the circumstance of Mr. Glass sending this person out with me.
906. Chairman.] You relied a good deal upon Mr. Glass sending to point out these things? I did, thoroughly.
907. So that if Mr. Glass had said—"This is John M'Intyre's selection," you would have taken it to be so? I would have believed almost everything he said to me.
908. Mr. Day.] Did you think it was strange that Mr. Glass should send for you to inspect a selection belonging to another man? No, I did not, because I knew pretty well who held the selections.
909. A number of witnesses say there is no fencing or improvements upon this land at all—they might be wrong? They might be wrong.
910. It is quite possible that you may have inspected another selection upon the same station and taken it for this? It is quite possible.
911. Chairman.] You do not know Mr. M'Intyre personally? No, I do not.
912. Can you describe what kind of man he was? I can hardly describe him now—it is so long ago.
913. You did not know any of the hands upon the station? No, very few. I would not know more than two or three of them.
914. Yours was a tremendous district to go round? It was very large.
915. Mr. Day.] Did the man who was living on the station go by the name of John M'Intyre? He went out with me as M'Intyre. Mr. Glass introduced him to me as M'Intyre.
916. Had you any conversation with him? Yes, I asked him if that was his selection, or something of that sort.
917. You were thoroughly satisfied in your own mind that it was John M'Intyre that you were talking to? Yes.
918. You had no doubt of it? No, and I have none now.
919. The house was comfortably furnished? It was. Nearly all the selections said to belong to Glass were comfortably furnished.
920. But this selection belonged to John M'Intyre? I understood that all the selections on the Miller's Creek Run belonged to Mr. Glass.
921. Although it was taken up in other names? Yes; it was a common practice all over the district.
922. If you understood that, would you not consider it your duty as inspector to report it to the Chief Commissioner? No, I found the utter uselessness of anything of that kind. I did report something of that kind, and got a rap over the knuckles, and was told merely to ascertain whether the person had fulfilled the conditions of residence and improvement.
923. You considered that it was your duty to report that they were dummies? I did, and I did report, some years ago. I was told very shortly that my business was to report as to whether the conditional purchaser had fulfilled the conditions of residence and improvement, and that was all I had to do with it.
924. That came from the Chief Commissioner? † I do not remember whom it came from.
925. Chairman.] That same theory used to be set up in the Courts of Inquiry? Yes, it was.
926. You say you do not know how there came to be the difference between the two reports? No, I do not exactly remember.
927. Mr. Day.] Do you think it likely that some of the fencing may have been removed in the meantime? It might; a good deal used to be removed, and made to do duty two or three times over. It was quite legal for them to do so.
928. But they would not be able to remove the improvements until the time was up? No.
929. Mr. Mackinnon.] I suppose you left that district before the Act of 1875 or 1881 came into operation? No, I did not. I left the district in November, 1881—I then gave up my appointment.
930. Did you inspect any selections on this run after the Amended Act of 1875 made it illegal to employ dummies? I do not think so; I do not remember.
931. Mr. Owen.] Will you look at your first report, dated November 30th, 1877, number 37 in the printed papers, you sent that in reference to this selection? Yes, probably it is; I do not remember.
932. In this report you say "The man whom I found at work on the land, and who said he was the selector, gave a very straightforward account as to his compliance with the conditions of residence from within three weeks after the purchase of the land." On that occasion he must have been on the land at the time? I presume he must have been. I might have been wrong in the presumption that I met him at Murrurundi.
933. Having read that report, have you any doubt that at the time of your visit the man must have been on the selection? Not the slightest in the world.
934. You said the hut was comfortably furnished: you have no doubt that that fact was correct at the time of your visit? None whatever. 935.

* NOTE (on revision) :—I was in Murrurundi at the time (my head quarters); Glass came there at the time, and I suppose took the opportunity, when finding me there, of sending out for M'Intyre.

† NOTE (on revision) :—No, it did not; I do not remember from whom it came.

- 935. Can you state now whether this selector was pointed out to you by Mr. Glass? I still think he was.
- 936. At any rate you found him on the selection? I suppose so, according to this.
- 937. Now look at your next report, dated January 12th, 1879—You say "The selector was residing in the hut referred to at the time of my visit." On that occasion the selector was on the ground, and not at Murrurundi? He must must have been on the ground.
- 938. Now look at this other one, dated June 15th, 1879—On that occasion you stated that you found the selector then residing upon his land at the date of inspection. Have you any doubt that he was so residing? I have no doubt, from the fact of the repetition of this report, that the man must have been reported as non-resident, and that is the reason why it was referred to me to report upon. It was not usual to hunt up selectors unless intimation was given that they were not complying with the residence condition.
- 939. Then that being so, your attention would be drawn specially to the question of whether the selector was at that time resident? Pointedly so, during the currency of the three years; but as to whether any individual was John M'Intyre or not I could not say.
- 940. Can you state whether you conversed with the man who was on the land, apparently as selector? Of course I did.
- 941. He gave a very straightforward account? Yes.
- 942. And you got your information from the selector, on the ground? No doubt. I would not take it from anybody else.
- 943. Mr. Heydon.] I suppose you have sometimes had to report that residence has not been continuous? Yes, in some instances I had.
- 944. You have had a good deal of experience in finding out whether residence appeared to be bona fide or continuous, or whether there was an attempt to impose upon you? Yes, I was eight years employed as inspector in the one district.
- 945. Although there is this possibility as to the site of the selection, you would have a quick eye as to any attempt to impose upon you with regard to bona fide residence? Yes, I think so.
- 946. Chairman.] You spoke just now of the number of reports: may they not have been urged for the purpose of obtaining a certificate for the land? There was then a system of selectors reporting each other. I used to be worried every week where some one had reported selectors in the neighbourhood of Murrurundi. It used to be a matter of almost monthly occurrence for the same selections to come on again. They could not get a certificate for this land, because the three years was not up.
- 947. You said you knew that these selections belonged to Mr. Glass? I had a pretty good idea.
- 948. And on account of having received information from the Lands Office that you had only two things to inquire into—residence and improvement—and having no doubt that the selections were Mr. Glass's selections, tell me how you sent in that report of June 14, 1875—"I believe the selection is a bona fide one"? That may have been my belief then, and after-knowledge may have awakened me to some other facts.
- 949. In that case, why did you not state that you did not believe the selection to be a bona fide one? It may have escaped my memory, or very probably I would have done so.
- 950. Have you any doubt about Mr. Glass introducing him to you, or may it have been a mistake? It may have been; I am not positive. It may have been the case of another selector going out with me.
- 951. Can you tell us anything about these selections at all, apart from these documents? I have not the slightest recollection of them.
- 952. You do not know of your own knowledge whether John M'Intyre ever existed or had a selection upon Miller's Creek? No, I have no knowledge whether such a man existed.

Mr. T.
Argent
22 July, 1884,

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., re-called and re-examined :—

- 953. Mr. Day.] Has it been the custom in the Lands Department formerly to snub the inspectors when they sent in a report that a dummy had taken up a selection for another man? Hardly.
- 954. Has it never been done to your knowledge? *Never. If an inspector knew that an applicant was a dummy and did not report it, he would be more likely to get a severe snubbing.
- 955. If any one had sworn that such was the case? It is quite untrue.
- 956. Would any other officer in the Department communicate with the inspectors and tell them that they had no right at all to interfere, whether they were dummies or not, but that their simple duty was to see that the residence was carried out and that the improvements were completed? It would have been entirely contrary to the practice of the Department.
- 957. Do you think any such document could have been sent to the inspectors? It is quite impossible. Before 1875 the hearing of the bona fides was different to what it was afterwards; before then agency had been held by the Privy Council to be a legal thing, and therefore what is known as dummying was a less matter than it was after 1875.
- 958. Then, if you had known, as the Head of the Conditional Purchase Branch, that some of your inspectors understood thoroughly and knew well that there were a number of dummies on a run—selections taken up for the runholder—it would not have been true that they would not dare to report the fact to you? It is quite untrue; the endeavour was, from first to last, to have the most complete freedom of communication between the inspectors and the Government. They were given to understand that they were regarded as the eyes of the Minister, who could not go to the spot and see for himself; they were sent for the purpose of telling us fully what they could see.
- 959. If you had an inspector under you, and you were thoroughly aware that he knew of a number of dummies and did not report them to you, would you consider it right to keep them in the Public Service? As I pointed out, after 1875 the circumstance would have been of much greater importance, whereas before that it would not have been of such consequence. But certainly the inspector should have let the Department know. After 1875 if he knew a man to be a dummy and did not say so, he would run the risk of being promptly dismissed.
- 960. Supposing a man knew and did not report it, in that case would you keep him? Certainly not.
- 961. Did it ever come under your notice, in the management of your Department, that an inspector went out to the wrong selection and reported the improvements that belonged to another selection? Inspectors have made mistakes, but such a case never came under my own knowledge.

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.

962.

* NOTE (on revision):—I understood the questions as referring to the present case; see my answer to later questions.

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.

22 July, 1884.

962. Plans are sent to them before they are asked to report? Yes; they are supplied with tracings and plans, showing the boundary marks and natural features and the adjacent land, and if they have not information sufficient it is open to them to ask for it. They are supplied with copies of the description.
963. And the selections are all marked at the four corners? The corners are all marked, any divisions shown, and references given to the boundary marks. There is no difficulty to any intelligent man in running the lines of any selection which is put into his hands.
964. Then if the inspector is a competent man, he will have no difficulty in finding the selection which you refer to him? He should have none as a rule. Still much of this country is plain, and in such a case, the inspector, if there are no boundary marks, or they have been defaced, might be mistaken with a piece of small area.
965. In a bush country? That means that there are natural features. In wooded country the lines are marked.
966. This selection was a thinly timbered selection—not a plain at all. Is it not the custom to mark the corners by marks on the trees? So clearly marked that any man of ordinary intelligence could find the marks.
967. If an inspector took ordinary trouble there would be no difficulty? No inspector would be fit for his position if he could not at once identify every selection sent to him.
968. Is it the duty of your inspectors, if they believe a man to be a dummy, to report to you. Certainly.
969. Would they get a slap over the face for doing so? They would get a rap over the knuckles if they did not.
970. Chairman.] When were Courts of Inquiry first initiated? About the end of 1875.
971. Is it a usual thing to give certificates without Courts of Inquiry being held? Yes; where the inspector reports the selector continuously resident, and the improvements sufficient, and the selector to be in every way bona fide, the certificate is issued.
972. All these selections pass through your hands? I suppose so.
973. I see these selections are from M'Intyre or others to Mr. Glass, and from Mr. Glass to the Mercantile Bank? Yes.
974. Did you urge inquiry for the Mercantile Bank? I do not think so.
975. They took the usual course, I suppose? The practice is to refuse to urge on particular cases, because the inspectors are supposed to take their duties in their routine.
976. Did it ever strike you as a particular feature that in all these selections there is not an inquiry into any one of them? No; I do not make it any part of my business to see who is concerned in cases passing before me.
977. Would you not, if you saw continuous applications coming in like these, one after another, would you not then make it part of your duty to make inquiry as to the change of hands? They would change probably after the declaration is made, and the transfers do not come under my observation at all. I should like to add, with regard to these inquiries, I myself have been at some pains to urge that in all cases of this kind there should be inquiries, that it should be a routine with the Department not to rest satisfied with the inspectors' reports, but that there should be inquiry. I believe Parliament intended that, and I have, in papers that have been published, very strongly urged the adoption of that routine.
978. Mr. Mackinnon.] Selections taken up after 1880 are not allowed to go without inquiry? Yes, they might. The rule is very simple. If the inspector finds a man resident, and everything satisfactory, it is not customary to expose the bona fide selector to the delay and inconvenience of going before the Court to establish his claim; but if the conditions are not verified by the inspector's report, then it is customary to have an inquiry.
979. But there is no necessity if the inspector's report is satisfactory? No. For a long time it went further than that, and I was at some pains to have the practice altered. At first inspectors thought it sufficient sometimes to write the single word "Satisfactory." I think Mr. Argent himself has done that, and I have pointed out to him that something more was required, and that he had to supply the facts to the Minister for Lands.
980. Chairman.] But there have been more inquiries, as a rule, into bona fide residence of bona fide selectors, than there have been with regard to selectors who held selections for the stations? I do not think so. A number of people who have been bona fide selectors took up other land, and as to these they are not very strict as to the performance of the residence conditions. Again, when men take up selections and clear off them, when the three years is up then there is an inquiry.
981. Then you generally rely upon the inspectors' reports? Generally.
982. Mr. Day.] Who is responsible for looking carefully for these reports, as to the value of the improvements? I suppose I am. The routine was this: the reports went to Mr. Blackman, who had a clerk working with him, and noted on the margin anything special, and brought it to me if there was anything calling for special attention.
983. Is it usual to memo. every report? Every report is endorsed.
984. Suppose a report comes in in January, which states that there are 40 acres cleared, to the value of £60, and in June, shortly afterwards, another report which says 40 acres cleared, valued at £120; how would you account for that? It might be accounted for—perhaps the stumps had been taken out.
985. Would not this strike you: In the first report he says there are 3 miles wire fencing, £255, and six months afterwards he puts it down as 2 miles and 30 chains, £190? Of course there is a discrepancy there.
986. Would these two things excite your attention? Certainly they would be worth an inquiry.
987. It called for a memo? Yes.
988. You would think it strange that there is none? I should.
989. If a report came in like that you would have some suspicion? I should certainly call for an inquiry. Whoever examined these reports should have called attention to them.
990. I suppose there is nothing inconsistent or extraordinary in having three reports in a short time about a certain purchase? Sometimes it is pointed out to the inspector that we do not want further reports, unless they have something further to say.
991. Do they send in reports without your authority to inquire? They have a general charge to call attention attention to any departure from the law. They are supposed to make the Government aware of any selector not having resided on the selection, and if the selection is reported adversely by the surveyor, it is specially sent to the inspector for report.

992. Mr. Mackinnon.] They are not supposed to send in continuous reports? No.

993. Chairman.] He says in No. 37, "The man whom I found at work on the land, and who said he was the selector, gave a very straightforward account as to his compliance with the conditions of residence from within three weeks after the purchase of the land. I believe the selection is a bona fide one, and that the selector is a hard-working industrious man." You would not have wanted much more than that? I should have thought that quite sufficient, unless it was made during the currency of the term. I should have expected another at the end of it.

994. In No. 49 he says, "I have no doubt, from the statements of the selector and the appearance of the place generally, that the conditions have been complied with." Would that have satisfied you? Yes; but if the report were made during the currency of the period we should have expected a final report.

995. The selection was taken up in June, 1875, and the first report was in November, 1877; this was in 1879, four years after the selection was taken up? That would have been a final thing.

996. There is another in June, six months afterwards? I should suppose the inspector had omitted to take a note of the reports he had sent in already, unless there was some question of improvements. In the first instance the improvements may not have amounted to £1 per acre.

997. Is there any direction from you asking him to make another report at all? I see a note on the margin of the earlier report in 1879 that the notification of approval of the declaration was sent on the 7th July.

998. So there would have been no occasion to send another report? That was treated as a final report, and the certificate issued upon that. The date of the issue of the certificate was the 7th July. There was no necessity for the other one at all.

999. And there is no note of yours showing that any further report was called for? No further report was called for.

1000. It is safer to have a certificate in your hands for the advance of money? Everybody wants his certificate.

1001. Mr. Owen.] If after the date of that report, 12 January, 1879, matters had been brought under the notice of the Department that there was a question about residence or improvements, would not the Department have called for a further report, without there being any endorsement, by direct notice? No; we should have sent the case to a Commissioner for inquiry.

1002. Mr. Day.] You would consider in this case that there was no necessity to send it to a Court of Inquiry, on account of the inspector's report being so satisfactory? No.

1003. Mr. Heydon.] When did it become the practice of the Department to issue certificates? From the early days of conditional purchases a kind of certificate was issued, but the form of certificate now used was first issued early in 1876—what we now call a certificate dates from the early part of 1876.

1004. There is no record whatever of any censure, or notification to Mr. Argent not to send in his reports so frequently? I cannot undertake to say.

1005. There would be some endorsement of that fact? No doubt there would.

1006. And there is nothing of that kind here? Not in this case. Several inspectors were informed that there was no necessity to repeat their reports, unless there was something further to say. It may have occurred in a prior case, in which Mr. Argent may have done the same thing.

1007. I notice that the Order for laying the papers on the Table of the House says, "Copies of all applications for conditional and additional purchases made by James Glass, John M'Intyre, Rebecca Glass, and James M'Mullen," and I see there are a number of other matters included in the printed paper besides these—Can you explain how that is? I cannot undertake to give an explanation, inasmuch as I was not at all concerned in the matter. I presume the clerks took the order, and literally complied with it.

1008. But if the return, as a matter of fact, goes a long way beyond the Order of the Assembly, you do not know how that is? I do not know how that is. My impression was that the Order was for the conditional purchases on Miller's Creek Run. The officers who prepared these papers are in another branch of the Department.

1009. I suppose there are cases which are pretty shrewdly suspected to be dummy selections, and it is known that it could not be proved? There are many thousands of them. We expect the inspectors to tell us what they know, and put us upon the track to find it out.

1010. Chairman.] If the inspector has stated that he suspected nearly all the selections on the Miller's Creek Run to be Mr. Glass's, you would have thought it part of his duty to report that to you? I should think so. It is quite possible that some communication may have been made to Mr. Argent prior to 1876 about dummy selections, which were then legal selections.

Present:—

MR. GILL, | MR. S. SMITH.
R. H. LEVIEN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Napoleon Paton, Esq., called in and examined:—

907. Chairman.] You are a licensed surveyor in the Government Service? Yes.

908. You have been specially directed by the Surveyor-General to report upon the selection of John M'Intyre? Yes.

909. Have you searched to see whether there is any fencing upon this ground? Yes, I have searched very diligently. N. Paton,
Esq.
24 Sept., 1884.

910. Has there been any fencing on it at all? No, I could find no trace of it at all.

911. Has there been any clearing upon either portion of this land? No.

912. Looking at the sketch before you, can you say whether there has been any fencing alongside the Agricultural Company's Ground? The Company have fenced in their line.

1017. Is there any fencing on John M'Intyre's line? No.

1018.

- N. Paton, Esq.
24 Sept., 1884.
1018. There is nothing in the shape of fencing between his line and the road? No. There is a reserve-3 chains wide between Mr. M'Intyre's selection and the Company's ground.
1019. But there is no fence whatever on M'Intyre's land? No.
1020. You see here (referring to sketch) the selections of Ann Harris, Joseph Harris, W. C. Scivl, and W. Clay: is there any fence dividing M'Intyre's land from any of these selections? There is a fence on the boundary, but no fence on M'Intyre's land dividing it from the others.
1021. Is there any fencing at all on M'Intyre's selection? None whatever.
1022. That is, a fence dividing it from other selections or other land? No, not on the line.
1023. Being a licensed surveyor, as you are, would you have given that fencing as part of the improvements on M'Intyre's selection? No; because it is not on the line. If it was on the line I would have given half the value.
1024. But there is no dividing fence between the two? No.
1025. If there had been a dividing fence on the line you would have allowed Mr. M'Intyre half the expense of that dividing fence? Not if the other man erected it.
1026. If M'Intyre erected it? Then I would allow M'Intyre for it.
1027. Are there 40 acres of cleared land there on M'Intyre's selection? No, there are not.
1028. Is there any cleared land at all? No.
1029. Did you see any logged sheep yard? No.
1030. Is there any two-roomed slab hut, with verandah and galvanized iron roof? There is the remnant of an old place, with no roof; only a few slabs, and the beams fallen down.
1031. In your opinion was there ever 2 miles and 30 chains of six-wire fence upon that land? No.

THURSDAY, 25 SEPTEMBER, 1884.

Present:—

MR. GILL, | MR. LYNE,
MR. S. SMITH

ROBERT HENRY LEVIEN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Creagh (of the firm of Williams & Creagh, Solicitors) was present on behalf of Mrs. Glass and the Mercantile Bank.

Napoleon Paton, Esq., recalled and examined:—

- N. Paton, Esq.
25 Sept., 1884.
1032. Chairman.] If you look at Mr. Brodie's report, on page 23, No. 58 of the printed papers, you will see that he enumerates (amongst other improvements said to have been effected on the selection referred to) 2 miles 30 chains of six-wire fencing, worth £190—that is on the original selection? Yes.
1033. Is there any fencing there at all? No.
1034. Has there ever been any fencing there? No, I cannot find any trace of fencing having been there.
1035. He has also put down 40 acres of cleared land—is there any cleared land there? No.
1036. Is there any appearance of cleared land? No; the ringed timber is all standing.
1037. How many acres of ringed timber is there? 320 acres; it has all been ring-barked.
1038. Can you say how long ago? About seven years—that is as near as I can say by looking at it.
1039. Now with reference to the statement in the first section of page 69 of the printed papers, I see there that Mr. Argent has put down that there is 173 chains of six-wire fencing, worth £173—is there any fencing there at all? No.
1040. Are there any signs of any fencing? No.
1041. None whatever? None whatever.
1042. He has put down 6 acres of cleared land upon that—is there any cleared land there? None at all.
1043. I see that Mr. Argent states that there are also 50 acres of artificial grass, seed and labour, which cost £30? I saw no artificial grasses; it was just the indigenous or colonial grass, nothing different to what was on the surrounding country.
1044. You have read Mr. Argent's report, both on the original and the additional purchase? Yes.
1045. And you are totally opposed to him in all the statements he has made with regard to both? Yes, I am.
1046. In your opinion, was there any foundation at all for the reports he sent in, in regard to wire fencing and other improvements? No, I cannot say that there was.
1047. Mr. Smith.] I see in Mr. Argent's report he makes mention of a log sheep-yard worth £10? Yes.
1048. Are you quite sure there is no log sheep-yard there? No, there is not.
1049. Nor any signs of one having been there? No.
1050. Mr. Gill.] I suppose you looked particularly along the lines where the fencing ought to have been? Yes.
1051. Do you think it possible for a fence to have been erected there and taken up again and carried away? I do not think it is; from my experience of such matters I should think not, because in removing a fence that has been up two or three years there is sure to be some trace left—some post left not worth carrying away, and there would be post-holes.
1052. And you saw no indications of posts having been put down and taken up again? No.
1053. Did you make a minute examination? Yes; I found the corner pegs; if there had been a fence the corner pegs would have been taken up.
1054. Mr. Lyne.] Was it possible for a fence to be run there in any direction without being on the boundaries and you not have seen it? No, I do not think it is.
1055. Is it not possible for a fence to have been there? No; I travelled up and down and tried to pick up the lines, but I saw no traces of the fence.
1056. Chairman.] There is no doubt, in your opinion, that there is not an acre of cleared land on either the original or the additional purchase? There is no systematic clearing at all; all the trees are standing, and are mostly ring-barked and dead.
1057. Mr. Creagh.] You have only been in the district twelve months, and do not know what may have occurred previously? No.

William

Mr. William Brooks called in and examined:—

1058. Chairman.] You knew Mr. James Glass very well? Yes.
1059. The owner of Miller's Creek Run? Yes.
1060. Used you to act as his agent at all? Yes, always at Murrurundi.
1061. Did you ever make an application for land on his behalf for a man named John M'Intyre? Yes; I think I applied for two lots, an original and an additional selection.
1062. I see there is one dated 6th September, 1871—"John M'Intyre, per William Brooke, Murrurundi"—Who brought you the application? Mr. Glass gave me a copy of it, and I drew it out, I think, or my assistant may have done.
1063. Did you see John M'Intyre? I did not.
1064. Did you ever have any conversation with John M'Intyre in reference to these selections at all, on Miller's Creek Run? None at all; at that time selections could be taken up by an agent for any one.
1065. Do you know M'Intyre? Yes.
1066. I mean the M'Intyre who is the subject of this investigation? Yes, I know him.
1067. He never asked you to apply for any land for him? Never.
1068. Where does he live now? At Yarraman.
1069. He is the same man who was examined before this Committee? Yes.
1070. Appended to the application is Mr. Brodie's certificate—"I certify that John M'Intyre is over the age of sixteen years": Brodie must have put that certificate there, I suppose, on the strength of what you or Mr. Glass said about his age? Yes; it is in reference to the additional selection; I cannot say that.
1071. Did you ever see M'Intyre on the subject of these selections at all? Never.
1072. In fact you did not know M'Intyre in the transaction in any way whatever? Not at all.
1073. The application for the original selection was made by Crombie Grey? Yes, he was my assistant; in fact I gave him a special interest in my business.
1074. And John M'Intyre was not there when the original selection was applied for, nor when the additional selection was applied for—it was done through Mr. Glass? I am certain of that.
1075. You had no conversation with M'Intyre about the matter? None at all.
1076. And never heard him speaking of it? No.
1077. Mr. Gill.] It is the same John M'Intyre that is now living at Yarraman? Yes; he was the holder of selections or a dummy at the time for Forester; it is said that he was holding them on Miller's Creek Run.
1078. Mr. Creagh.] The John M'Intyre you are speaking of, is he the selector at Yarraman, the same man that was examined by this Committee? Yes.
1079. That is the man you speak of? Yes.
1080. Did you ever hear whether he had been a shearer on Mr. Glass's station? No, I did not.
1081. Might there not have been another man of the same name, a shearer on Mr. Glass's station for a short time, without your knowing it? It is possible there may have been.
1082. Were you aware of the application having been made—the application that was signed by Mr. Grey—was it signed by Grey on his own behalf or by him as your clerk? By him as my clerk; he was with me in business; I gave him a copy of the application; I was not able to attend the Court, and he could attend to the matter as well as I could.
1083. That is how he came to sign it? Yes.
1084. Had you seen the M'Intyre in whose name you were making the application, at that time? No.
1085. What M'Intyre was it? John M'Intyre.
1086. What M'Intyre was it that was represented to you? John M'Intyre.
1087. Did Mr. Glass say it was a selector at Yarraman? No.
1088. And, so far as you know, there was no connection between the two? No; I believe the only M'Intyre in the district was the one at Yarraman. I believed him to be the M'Intyre when the selection was taken up. I know he has been with Glass for a number of years—the same John M'Intyre.
1089. Chairman.] Glass and Forest were good friends? Yes.
1090. Mr. Gill.] He was at Yarraman, you say? Mr. Glass owned Yarraman at one time; there was a lot of land taken up in Mrs. Glass's time.
1091. Was Mr. Glass taking up land at Yarraman at the time these selections were made? No, on Miller's Creek.
1092. When was M'Intyre last in Mr. Glass's employ? He was in Mrs. Glass's employ; after Mr. Forest bought the station he was in Forest's employ.
1093. How long was that before the selection was made? I cannot remember, although I acted as agent for Mr. Forest.
1094. If Mr. Glass had an interest in Yarraman, he had it at the same time that he had an interest in Miller's Creek? If I had known what evidence was wanted I would have brought my books—they would have given the information.
1095. Chairman.] The Mrs. Glass you refer to is Mrs. James Glass, of Singleton? Yes.
1096. Mr. Creagh.] Do you know whether Mr. Glass himself had any interest in the Yarraman station? I do not.
1097. Do you know whether John M'Intyre was James Glass's servant at any time? Mrs. Glass's servant.
1098. The John M'Intyre you speak of was never, so far as you are aware, in James Glass's employment—can you say whether he was or not? He was not, to my knowledge. I believe him to be the John M'Intyre in whose name the land was taken up.
1099. But did Mr. Glass tell you so? No.
1100. He did not tell you who Mr. M'Intyre was? No.
1101. The name "John M'Intyre" was merely given to you, and you assumed that it was this very John M'Intyre whom you knew to be in the district? Yes.
1102. It was only your own assumption? Yes.
1103. Do you know Dr. Knowles, who was living at Murrurundi? Yes.
1104. You are aware that he was a test witness to one of the declarations? I am not aware.
1105. Suppose you were shown a paper in which Dr. Knowles had attested this man's signature, this John M'Intyre—not the John M'Intyre that you know, but another John M'Intyre—would you have any doubt about it then? I could not tell John M'Intyre's signature, but I could tell Dr. Knowles's signature.

Mr.
W. Brooks.
25 Sept., 1884.

Mr. 1106. But if you were shown a declaration made by John M'Intyre, and that John M'Intyre was the
 W. Brooks. person who was examined before this Committee, and the declaration was attested by Dr. Knowles, what 25 Sept., 1884. would you think of that—would you think that he made a mistake too? Dr. Knowles might not know
 John M'Intyre; I could not say.
 1107. The other application that was made by John M'Intyre, that was signed by you? Yes.
 1108. And could that be signed in the same way? Mr. Glass gave me the description of the land; sometimes he would write out the description himself, and sometimes he would not; he would give me his cheque and tell me to fill up the application for so and so.

Mr. J. M'Intyre to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir, Yarraman.
 I have been informed that a conditional purchase was taken up in my name at Murrurundi Lands Office, No.
 77-202, 161 acres, and purporting to be transferred by me to the Mercantile Bank. I beg to inform you I never transferred the said conditional purchase to the Mercantile Bank, nor ever did I reside upon the said conditional purchase; and any declaration the Lands Department may have has never been signed by me as to residence.

Mr. J. M'Intyre to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir, Yarraman, March, 1884.
 I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to grant me an inquiry with reference to the ownership of certain lands, which it has been alleged I have selected at the Lands Office, Murrurundi, and taken up on the Miller's Creek Run, and afterwards transferred by me to the Mercantile Bank.
 I have already stated to you in a letter this has never been selected by me or transferred by me, and the signature to any application or transfer purporting to be mine is a forgery.
 I have the honor herewith to enclose you £10 as required for an inquiry.

I have, &c.,
 JOHN R. M'INTYRE.

[To the Evidence of Napoleon Paton, 25 September, 1884.]

D.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Paton to The Surveyor-General.

Sir, Tamworth, 9 September, 1884.
 In compliance with your instructions No. 84-291, dated 22nd July, to Mr. District-Surveyor Allworth, and transferred to me for action, I have now the honor herewith to inform you that, on the 8th September, 1884, I inspected portions 91 and 138, in the parish of Towarri, in the county of Buckland, being the conditional purchases of John M'Intyre, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and value of improvements thereon. The only improvement effected on portion 91 is 320 acres of ringbarking, at 1s. per acre, = £16; on portion 138, 161 acres ringbarking, at 1s., = £8 1s.; total, £24 1s.
 Part of an old hut still remains on portion 91, but is of no value. The ringbarking appears to have been done about seven years ago. Distance travelled to perform this service, 200 miles.

I have, &c.,
 N. PATON,
 Licensed Surveyor.

This report is now forwarded to the Under Secretary for Lands, with view to the information of the Select Committee now sitting.—P. F. ADAMS, 15 Sep. U.S. for Lands. Urgent. The Chief Comr.—C.O., 15/9/84. Copy of this report may be forwarded to the Chairman of the Select Committee in reply to his letter, with an intimation that the report will be produced if desired.—A.O.M., 19/9/84.

13, Church Hill, Sydney, 17 October, 1881.

I have the honor, on behalf of Mr. Edward Coady, the lessee of the run upon which the selection noted in the margin is situated, to protest against the conditional purchase referred to, as it contains improvements of more than sufficient value to bar selection. I may further add that in virtue of the said improvements my client has lodged an application to purchase under the provisions of the 2nd section of the Lands Act Amendment Act of 1875.

Molong, conditional purchase 81-333, 8 September, 1881, 300 acres, John Tuohy.

Referred to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Armstrong for report upon the statements herein. The land asked for by J. Tuohy cannot be clearly identified on the maps of this office; but it would appear that he wishes the purchase to be measured crossing the Mogong Road, and if the land is found not to be improved, to furnish a sketch showing the position of the land applied for and the form of measurement which he proposes to adopt.—E.A.B., pro Surveyor-General, 18/11/81.

No. 7.

Mr. J. Carroll to The Chief Commissioner.

[Urgent.]

Sir,

13, Church Hill, Sydney, 4 November, 1881.

With reference to the application noted in the margin hereof, I have the honor to request that it will be declared void, in accordance with the practice of the Department in such cases, for the following reasons :—

1. The description is too vague to lead to a correct identification of the land the applicant intended to select.

Molong, conditional purchase 81-333, 800 acres, 8 September, 1881, John Tuohy.

2. The lessee has improvements to the value of £50 upon part of the land embraced in the conditional purchase application.

3. In virtue of the said improvements my client, Edward Coady, the lessee, has applied, under the 2nd section of the Act of 1875, to purchase 50 acres, improved purchase 81-16, Molong.

I have, &c.,
JAMES CARROLL.

Sir, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 11 November, 1881.

It having been represented that the 300 acres of land conditionally purchased by you at Molong on the 8th September, 1881, was improved at the date of selection, I am directed to inform you that any improvements which you may place upon the land in question are at your own risk, and that should it be found, after inquiry, that the improvements previously alluded to were of sufficient value to bar selection, it will be necessary to declare your selection void.

Sir,

Surveyor-General's Office, Sydney, 13 May, 1882.

I beg to invite your attention to my B.C. of the 29th day of November, No. 81-151, to Licensed-Surveyor Armstrong, but transferred to you, whereby you were directed to report on Coady's protest to Tuohy's conditional purchase No. 81-333, Molong, and I have to request that you will carry out the instructions above referred to with as little delay as possible, and report on this memo. when the instruction will probably be carried out.

Minutes on No. 11.

Return to the Surveyor-General. The report on this case has been forwarded vide my letter No. 82-46, 7th June, 1882.—S. J. PINNINGTON, Licensed Surveyor, 3 July, 1882. Apparently omitted from previous papers forwarded to Surveyor-General.—H. A. CROUCH, Acting District Surveyor, 19 July, 1882.

No. 12.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Pinnington to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Mandagery Creek, 7 June, 1882.

In connection with your instructions to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Armstrong, dated 18th November, 1881, transferred to me 25th March, 1882, to report on the improvements included in John Tuohy's conditional purchases in the parishes of Nangar and Molong, I have the honor to report:—

That on inspection I find that Tuohy has erected the following improvements, viz.:—Before the 7th November a three-roomed house, pine sapling upright, partly plastered, bark roof, valued £40; and about the beginning of January a tank 160 cubic yards, £12. In April he commenced grubbing, and has about 3 acres partly grubbed (£9), and it is a month since he ploughed up a part of Coady's sheep-yard and sowed it with barley. He has also used some of the fencing that formed the sheep-yard to erect the dog-legged fence, shown on tracing, as erected by him.

That Edward Coady's improvements now standing are a shepherd's hut, slabbed and shingled, £20; a very old dam, £6; fencing, forming part of sheep-yard, £3; and the clearing in connection with the yards, £8; total £37. That I consider the value of E. Coady's improvements if in working order would be:—Hut, £25; yards, £6; dam, £6; clearing, £8; total, £45. The sheep-yards and hut were evidently in working order when Tuohy arrived on the ground, as he admits that Coady had a flock of sheep there when he (Tuohy) was building, and they had to be removed on account of the dryness of the season, there being no water in the locality. Tuohy is using the hut to store his chaff, and admits that the door has been pulled down since Coady left and while he was using it, and it is evident that some of the slabs have lately been displaced.

The position of the improvements are shown on the accompanying tracing.

That Tuohy states the land he requires starts 30 chains west of the south-east corner of portion No. 29, parish of Nangar, county of Ashburnham, thence east, thence south, thence west, thence north to starting point, to be measured in a square block. The second conditional purchase to start from the north-east corner of the former, thence east, thence south, thence west, thence north, to starting point.

That the road Tuohy wishes to cross is a road leading from the Main Orange and Forbes road to the Orange and Nanami roads. It has been greatly used lately by the settlers drawing water from and driving their cattle to water at Mandagery Creek, where this road runs into the Orange and Forbes road, but otherwise there is very little traffic on it. Vide Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Conolly's report on portion No. 48, parish of Nangar, county of Ashburnham.

I have, &c.,

S. J. PINNINGTON.

Minutes on No. 12.

Submitted under this report that Coady's improvements, valued at £45 at time of Tuohy's selection, protected from conditional purchase an equivalent area of 45 acres. I am of opinion that the road which forms an important means of communication between two main roads should be treated as frontage.—H. A. CROUCH, Acting District Surveyor, Orange, 19/6/82.

By the Surveyor-General:—From this report it would appear that improvements worth at least £40 existed on the land embraced by John Tuohy's conditional purchase 81-333 at the date of application, and in view of this fact, and also as the land is asked for on both sides of the road, from Long's corner to Mogong, which in Mr. Surveyor Crouch's opinion should be treated as a frontage, it is recommended that conditional purchase 81-333, be declared void, which will also necessitate the voidance of the additional conditional purchase, 81-343, unless applicant can be given the option of taking (1) an area equal to that shown by blue hatch lines on the accompanying tracing, but measured with an average depth of 60 chains to the Mogong Road, anywhere applicant may elect between points A and B, together with a refund on the remaining part of the conditional purchase 81-333 and the whole of conditional purchase 81-343; (2), an area equal to that shown by pink hatch lines on the tracing, but measured with an average depth of 60 chains anywhere between points C and D, together with a refund on the remaining part of conditional purchase 81-333 and the whole of conditional purchase 81-343; or (3), an area equal to that shown on the tracing by brown hatch lines, but measured anywhere between points E and F, with an average depth of 60 chains, together with an area equal to the part of conditional purchase 81-343, not embraced by such measurement, but likewise surveyed with an average depth of 60 chains, and a refund on the remaining parts of both conditional purchases. For instance, if he elects to have the part of conditional purchase 81-333 measured in the position shown by broken pink lines, about 210 acres of conditional purchase 81-343 would then be measured as shown by broken blue lines.

In view of the enclosed letter with regard to the value of the improvements conditional sales 82-5,625, correspondence, Mr. Tuohy may perhaps be informed, in addition to the above, that he can obtain an appraisalment on the usual terms.—ROBERT D. FITZGERALD, for Surveyor-General, 31/10/82. The Chief Commissioner, Conditional Sales.

By the Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales:—Submitted that it is undesirable to lock up this area by giving the applicant, who has made an application that is inadmissible, an elective one, the portions that were open to him and others in the form prescribed by the regulations. He may be advised of the grounds for cancellation of his conditional purchases, and of the mode in which the land can be taken if still available.—A.O.M., 15/12/82.

By the Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—JOHN R.

Mr. Brown—Urgent. Inform.—W.B., 20/12/82. Charting Branch,—Mr. Houston for tracing to accompanying letter to applicant, please.—M.S.M., 17/1/83. Tracing herewith. After action please return the papers to Geographical Division, No. 2.—Pro. W. HOUSTON, 25/1/83. Conditional Sales Branch.

No. 13.

Mr. J. Tuohy to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Toogong, 14 July, 1882.
I most respectfully beg to request that you will cause the survey of my ground to be carried out as soon as possible, as I have, through it not being surveyed before, lost all my cattle, and have not been able to go on with my improvements, not knowing which way it will be surveyed. My selection was taken up at Molong on 7th September, 1881. Hoping you will give the above your earliest consideration,

I have, &c.,

JOHN TUOHY.

[Enclosure to No. 13.]

Mogong Road, 19 July, 1882.

We, the undersigned, having inspected and measured the improvements made by Mr. Coady on the land now occupied by and recently selected by John Tuohy, find as follows:—

1. That the said improvements consist of a hut, a waterhole or rough dam, and a thoroughly dilapidated sheep-yard.
2. That the dam or waterhole is a blind creek, part of which has been stopped or dammed by a few saplings thrown across, and the intervals of which have been filled up by earth taken from the sides of the said creek. It is not waterproof, and in the event of dry weather what water it contained would speedily be absorbed by the soil. Its dimensions are as follows:—Mean depth, 2 feet 5 inches; width, 8 feet; and length, 26 feet.
3. The hut is thoroughly out of repair and uninhabitable. According to the statement of George Grant, an old resident in these parts, the materials of which it is composed have been in use for the last twenty-four years to his knowledge, being removed from Mogong Creek to its present site. We consider its outside value to be £3. Dimensions:—Length, 20 feet; width, 10 feet 6 inches; and height, 5 feet 10½ inches.
4. The yard is perfectly useless, and in our opinion valueless.
5. Further, we would add that Thomas Davis, farmer, of Mogong Road, has known the place for the last ten years, and certifies that no other improvements have been on the ground.

Lands record of improvement purchase applications in Mogong Run, nil.—H. PHILLIPS, Clerk, 1 September, 1882. Mr. Houston.

Minutes on No. 14.

By Surveyor-General:—Approximate area of run, 1,046 acres. No purchases in virtue of improvements have been made during the lease current at the date of this application. Applicant is therefore entitled to purchase 83 acres 2 roods 28 perches.

From the attached report by Licensed-Surveyor Pinnington, conditional sales 82-4,257,* it will be seen that on the 8th September, 1881, when John Tuohy applied for conditional purchase 81-333, the land herein described contained improvements worth £45; subsequently to this some of these improvements were partly destroyed by Mr. Tuohy, and at the date of the surveyor's visit in June, 1882, they were worth only £37. In view of these circumstances it is submitted whether this application may be proceeded with.—CHARLES EDWARD FINCH (for Surveyor-General), 28 June, 1883. The Under Secretary for Lands.

Submitted. The conditional purchaser may, as in other cases, I presume, be allowed the option of appealing to appraisement if he disputes the surveyor's valuation of the lessee's improvements. The conditional purchases have already been declared void.—J.E., 22/8/83. I presume he is aware of this privilege, and the improvement purchase be proceeded with.—J.G.B., 24/8/83. As regards the improvement purchase, the surveyor reports the improvements on the 7th June, 1882, to be of a value of £37 only; it should therefore be refused, and applicant informed that he can appeal to appraisement as to their present value on payment of the usual fee of £6 6s.—F.H.W., 24/8/83. By Under Secretary for Lands:—C.O., 25/8/83. By Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—J.S.F., 27/8/83.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 13 March, 1883.

Referring to your selections, noted in the margin, I have to apprise you that in view of it appearing by a report from the Survey Department that your original selection is traversed by the road from Long's corner to Mogong, which must be considered and treated as a frontage road, and that 40 acres of the area embraced by your application were improved to an extent sufficient to bar its conditional purchase at date of selection, Sir John Robertson, to whom the matter was specially submitted, decided that both your selections in question should be declared void. Refund vouchers for the deposit money on the respective purchases are herewith enclosed. Likewise a tracing in illustration of the case, and as shewing how you may secure some of the land under a fresh application or applications, if still available, but on one side of the road only.

No. 20.

Dr. Ross, M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Sydney, 28 March, 1883.

On behalf of John Tuohy, I desire to draw your attention to the nature of his claim to be allowed to retain the conditional purchase, which by your communication, Conditional Sales 82-4,257, Survey, has, it appears, been cancelled, being, as it is alleged, on improved land belonging to one Coady. Mr. Tuohy informs me that such is not the case, because by measurement his own house is situated outside the 40-acre measured portion belonging to Coady. I have also to state that a large number of persons, viz., 11 (eleven), sent in to you last July a statement of the value of the said improvements, which they estimated did not exceed £3. To the improvements Mr. Tuohy, however, does not object, provided that he is allowed to retain the land he has selected, and which it now seems crosses the Long's Corner Road to Mogong, but which is only a mere track.

Mr. Tuohy informs me that if allowed to retain the land he will leave the road and erect a fence on both sides of the same, which will then be no inconvenience to the public. He also informs me that one, a Mr. Inrae, was allowed to cross the same road, and that his conditional purchase was not objected to on this account.

I hope you will reconsider the case of Mr. Tuohy, with the view of enabling him to retain the ground that he has conditionally purchased, and that you will order the refund vouchers to be withdrawn.

I trust, therefore, that you will see the necessity of allowing Mr. Tuohy to retain the land that he has selected, especially as he is willing to offer no objection to Mr. Coady's improvements, even though it can be proved beyond dispute that the said improvements don't cover the value of £3, and which is not enough to bar selection. The case is one, in my opinion, entirely in favour of Tuohy, and on the ground I trust you will give it your earliest reconsideration, with the view that he may be allowed to retain the land he claims by virtue of selection, viz., two 300-acre lots.

I have, &c.,

Dr. Ross, M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Molong, 4 May, 1883.

I cannot but express my deep surprise at the delay in furnishing me with some satisfactory answer in Mr. Tuohy's case; the map and papers of which I left in your office is now going on three weeks since. Before I left Sydney I left the papers in Tuohy's case with you, and if I am not to receive an answer you will at least do me the kindness to return the papers, so that I may be able to make public use of them in another manner.

If ever a law wanted reforming it is the accursed rotten Land Law of New South Wales. The delay in furnishing these papers simply means ruin to Mr. Tuohy.

Another complaint I have to make is the letter of Mr. William Shields I left with Mr. Moriarty, but which has also never been answered.

Dr. Ross, M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Molong, 8 May, 1883.

Herewith I do myself the honor to enclose a petition on behalf of Mr. John Tuohy, respecting his conditional purchases, the correspondence of which being now in your office awaiting your decision, signed by less than 100 residents in the neighbourhood of Mr. Tuohy. The petition prays that the road, $1\frac{1}{2}$ chain wide from Long's Corner to the new line Nanimi Road, may be reduced from the classification of a main road to that of a lane 1 chain wide.

By doing this it is to be hoped that it will enable you to at once decide in favour of Mr. Tuohy obtaining what he is now claiming by virtue of conditional purchases, and which he has improved to the extent of £350.

The case of Mr. Tuohy is a hard one, and the petition I think strengthens his case considerably, and therefore I hope you will now have no difficulty in deciding the case in his favour.

Your earliest attention will oblige.

I have, &c.,
A. ROSS.

P.S.—Herewith I enclose also Mr. Tuohy's letter. Should the petition not come under your Department it will at least show you that the complaint of Mr. Tuohy is a just one.—A. Ross.

[Enclosure A to No. 23.]

Mr. J. Tuohy to Dr. Ross, M.P.

Sir,

Mogong Road, Toogong Post Office, 6 May, 1883.

I have the honor to forward herewith the petition which I have got up according to the suggestions, and beg most respectfully that it will have your earnest attention, it being a matter of the utmost importance to me, seeing that I have made the ground my home; and if the classification of the road is not changed to a lane the result will be highly ruinous and disastrous to me.

One thing I beg to submit for your serious consideration, and that is the road has never been surveyed throughout, and has never been gazetted, so that I am advised by Mr. Jago Smith, whose name heads the petition, that it is not a main road.

In conclusion I beg leave to solicit that you may be pleased to use your powerful interest in this matter, and I have no doubt that with your aid, together with the petition, that it will be brought to a successful termination.

The surveyor was out with me, and he gave it as his opinion that there was nothing to block me, as he saw no indications of traffic on the road.

Trusting that you will have the goodness to acquaint me with the result, for which I will be most anxiously looking out; and in the meantime I must convey to you my most heartfelt thanks for the interest and assistance you have rendered in this matter.

I have, &c.,
JOHN TUOHY.

[Enclosure B to No. 23.]

Petition presented by Dr. Ross, M.P., 5th May, 1883.

PETITION of the inhabitants residing in the Toogong and Mogong Districts, praying that the road $1\frac{1}{2}$ chain wide, from Long's Corner to the new line, Nanimi Road, may be reduced from the classification of a main road to that of a lane 1 chain wide.

Your petitioners humbly sheweth that this road has never been surveyed throughout, but only as the ground has been taken up; it is not even used as a stock route, all passings of stock going from the Nanimi line, and enters into this road again at south corner of Boney's Rocks, and very seldom used. Your petitioners further beg to bring under your consideration that this road is only used by the few inhabitants of the immediate neighbourhood.

Your petitioners humbly trust, therefore, that you may be pleased to take this matter into your best consideration, and to grant that the road in question may be reduced from the present classification of a main road to that of a lane 1 chain wide, it being, in their opinion, fully adequate for any traffic ever likely to arise on it; and as witness thereof we beg to subscribe our names, and your petitioners as in duty bound will every pray.

Dr. Ross, M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Molong, 16 August, 1883.

Some months ago I made a complaint respecting an application made by Mr. John Tuohy, who selected 600 acres 7th September, 1881, county of Ashburnham, parish of Nangar, at Molong, and which has never yet been settled, nor yet have I received any satisfactory answer to the same, although I have repeatedly asked for an immediate attention to the matter. I also forward to you a numerously signed and influential Petition in favour of Mr. Tuohy's selection, and this I regret to say has never been acknowledged or yet replied to.

I do hope that this case will receive your earliest attention, so that justice may be done to Mr. Tuohy. I have been informed that since my complaint was made on behalf of Mr. Tuohy that the same portion of land, or at least part of it, has since been selected by two other selectors, viz., Donovan and Burns.

I trust that this case will receive your immediate attention.

I have, &c.,

Chief Commissioner,—C.O., 21/8/83. Note sent to Dr. Ross 11 April, 1873, on 83-2,382 correspondence, conditional purchase 81-333, section 13. The two conditional purchases 81-333 and 343 of Mr. Tuohy were declared void on 82-4,257 (survey) on account of the land containing improvements, and also as the land was applied for on both sides of the road from Long's corner to Mogong, being a frontage road; Mr. Tuohy and Dr. Ross were fully informed of the facts of the case. Submitted as to whether there are sufficient grounds for a reconsideration of the case. Two applications have been made by Donovan and Burns, respectively alluded to herein by Dr. Ross, but it is not known whether they are for the same land or for part of the same land as that applied for by Tuohy. The applications have been sent to the local surveyor for report. They were made since the date of voidance of Tuohy's application on 82-4,257 survey.—C.N., 20/9/83.

82-5,625 appears to be the petition alluded to. Can the numerously-signed petition alluded to be traced? Cannot be traced in Conditional Sales Register for this or the last year.—W. MacD., 24/9/83.

Cannot trace in miscellaneous books.—P.M. DeM., 24/9/83. Can the conditional purchases of Donovan and Burns, Molong, be traced, herein alluded to?—C.N. There is a conditional purchase, 83-142, Molong, 14 June, 200 acres, standing in name of D. Donovan, to Surveyor Crouch, 26 July, 1883, also 83-141, same date, P. Byrnes; Crouch, 26 July, 1883, 300 acres. Mr. Blackman,—No other petition than 82-5,625 can be traced. Tuohy's application was declared void on account of the land having been applied for in an inadmissible form (vide 82-4,257). A tracing was sent to him with the letter addressed to him on 13 March last, fully explaining the case.—C.N., 24/9/83. He could have made a fresh and proper application for the land required. Refer him to letter sent to Tuohy with explanatory tracing, 13 March, 1883.—W.B., 24/9/83. N.B.—Tuohy called on the Chief Commissioner, who has instructed me to let Tuohy have a duplicate, as he states he gave the vouchers to Dr. Ross.—W.B., 25/9/83. No. 27.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Lupton to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Cudal, 30 August, 1883.

In compliance with instructions dated 27th June, 1883, issued to Mr. Acting District-Surveyor Crouch, the road referred to in the accompanying petition was inspected by me on 20th July, 1883, and I have the honor to report as follows:—

The road in question connects the Forbes road at Long's corner with the Nanami road at Mogong, passing through Mr. Coady's paddock at the latter place. No road appears to have been reserved through measured portions at Mogong.

This road is the shortest route between Murga and Canowindra, but there is scarcely any traffic between those places at present.

I am informed that farmers on the Belubula River and Nyrang Creek sometimes send their produce along this road to Orange to avoid the hilly country through which the Nanami road passes.

Drovers wishing to take their stock from one main road to the other use this track. Two or three large mobs of cattle passed along in July.

By the appearance of the track I should think that the traffic along the road is very light.

Sketch showing position of road transmitted herewith.

I have charged for this service one day's field work and half day's office work.

I have, &c.,

JAMES H. LUPTON,

Licensed Surveyor.

The Under Secretary for Lands to Mr. E. Coady.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 4 September, 1883.

With reference to your application of the 17th October, 1881, to purchase, in virtue of improvements, the portion of land specified in the margin hereof, I am directed to inform you that your application cannot be complied with as the improvements are not of sufficient value to confer right of purchase.

2. You may however appeal to appraisalment on the usual fee of £6 6s.

The Under Secretary for Lands to The Crown Lands Agent, Molong.

(I.P. 81-10, Molong.)

Sir,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 4 September, 1883.

I am directed to state, for your information, that the application, numbered as above, made by Edward Coady on the 17th October, 1881, to purchase under the second clause of the Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875, containing 40 acres, in the parish of Mogong, county of Ashburnham, has been refused as the improvements are not of sufficient value to confer right of purchase.

I have, &c.,

No. 30.

Memorandum to Surveyor-General.

ROADS 83-²/₁₂. Petition relative to road from Orange and Forbes road at Long's Corner, towards Canowindra. Instruction to me 27th June, 83-582 for report. Reported upon by Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Lupton's, 30th August, 83-68.

1. In submitting the above report it might further be explained the petition was forwarded with a view of influencing decision on conditional purchases Nos. 81-333 and 343, Molong, by John Tuohy, reported upon by Mr. Acting-Surveyor Pinnington, 7th June, 82-46.

2. These two selections of 300 acres each were taken up, one crossing the above road and one on the eastern side.

3. The severed portion in the western side clashed with improvements effected by Edward Coady, valued by Mr. Pinnington at over £40, a valuation I understand disputed by Tuohy.

4. Tuohy states that he has erected improvements on the western side of the road valued £350, and some on the eastern.

5. He further states that he would be quite willing to take the 600 acres on the eastern side if a portion might be measured for sale on the western to include his improvements, but owing to the inferior quality of the land he would not be willing to take the 600 acres on the western side.

6. The case has been further complicated by conditional purchases Nos. 83-135, 141, and 142, Molong, now under instructions for survey, although it is asserted that sufficient land is available to satisfy the whole of the applications, and that the several applicants are agreeable to modifications.

7. Tuohy is a bona fide settler at present occupying a ruinous position.

8. With respect to the road being treated as frontage, I am of opinion that it is likely to become an important thoroughfare, and therefore it would come under the classification of an intended frontage road.

9. Under the circumstances the desirability of seeking Ministerial power of modification is submitted.

10. As the decision may affect the surveys of the conditional purchases mentioned in paragraph No. 6, I would request that the information might be afforded to me. Submitted.

Statutory declaration.

With reference to your letter of the 4th September, 1883, intimating to my client, Edward Coady, that his improvements on the portion noted in the margin are not of sufficient value to confer on him a right to purchase, I have the honor to enclose herewith a statutory declaration, showing the improvements to be worth £58, being nearly 10s. per acre more than is necessary to entitle my client to purchase under the 2nd section of the Lands Act Amendment Act of 1875.

I have, &c.,

JAMES CARROLL,

Agent for EDWARD COADY.

[Enclosure to No. 32.]

I, EDWARD COADY, of Canowindra, do solemnly and sincerely declare that the 40-acre portion I applied for under the provisions of the 2nd section of the Lands Act Amendment Act of 1875, on the 17th October, 1881, was improved to the value of £58, and the improvements comprise a house, which cost me £18; a dam, which cost me £25; and sheep-yards, which cost me £15: And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, and in virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales, and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof, and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Made and signed before me, at Canowindra, this 27th day of September, 1883,—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letters of 12th and 21st instant respectively.

I have reason to believe that instructions to survey, if unobjectionable, your conditional purchase of 640 acres, No. 82-254, taken up at Coonamble on 13th July, 1882, will be issued direct to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Fisher, and they may even now be in his possession.

I have therefore forwarded your letters to him direct to be taken into consideration and annexed to the instruction.

Sir,

Sydney, 25 August, 1882.

I have the honor to enclose a letter from one of my constituents which will explain itself. At the same time I would again point out the necessity existing for surveyors to measure the lands of conditional purchases in the Castlereagh district. This matter I brought under the notice of your predecessor, who promised that special attention should be paid to the matter.

Mr. J. Hickey to G. E. Cass, Esq., M.P.

Dear Sir,

Coonamble, 21 August, 1882.

I beg to request that you will be pleased to cause special instructions to be issued to Surveyor Fisher to at once measure my conditional purchase of 640 acres, made at Coonamble on the 13th day of July, 1882, being conditional purchase No. 82-254. I beg that this course will be taken because the lessee of the run, D. P. Keogh, is now excavating a large tank on my land, the work commenced at least one month after I selected it, and if it is intended to claim the land by virtue of this improvement I hereby protest against it.

In reference to your communication of the 21st ultimo, respecting the conditional purchases of 600 and 40 acres, made by you at Coonamble on the 13th July and 20th July respectively, I am directed to apprise you that the applications were sent to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor R. Fisher on the 17th August for his report and survey of the land, should no objection exist, and on receipt thereof you will be further communicated with.

J. McElhone, Esq., M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Sydney, 23 September, 1882.

I enclose you a letter from Mr. T. A. Jones, of Coonamble, to let you see how Mr. Gordon, lessee of Bundy Run, is working the mineral conditional purchases to defeat the Land Act, and another case of a selector, Hickey, and a Mr. Keogh.

In reference to the surveyor, Fisher, mentioned in letter, I may state that on many occasions I have received letters from selectors accusing him of favouring the squatter as against the selector, or of measuring lots for auction and neglecting to measure selections.

I trust you will give instructions to have these matters inquired into, and try and do something to protect the selectors about Coonamble against the persecutions they are suffering from at the hands of the lessees.

I have, &c.,
J. McELHONE.

Fisher, 18th September, 1882, to measure if unobjectionable; and that of Hugh Gordon, conditional purchase 82-225, was forwarded 15th September, 1882; while the letters 82-5,234 and 82-5,264, protesting against H. Gordon effecting improvements on conditional purchases 82-221 and 82-222, and urging survey of those conditional purchases, were sent to Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Fisher 5th September, 1882. With regard to the conflicting conditional purchases of J. Hickey, 82-254, and Alice Gordon, conditional purchase 82-348, selected on 13th July, 1882, and 10th August, 1882, a report has been furnished by Mr. Licensed-Surveyor R. Fisher, and recommendation thereon has been made to the Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales that Hickey's conditional purchase be located under 14th section of Act of 1875, as from applicant's starting point, and following the boundaries described, and that Alice Gordon be offered the option, provided Hickey's conditional purchase is located as recommended, of retaining the area not included in Hickey's conditional purchase, with refund on the balance, or of refund of deposit. Attention is invited to Mr. McElhone's letter.—M. CANTY, 24/10/82. The Surveyor-General. By Surveyor-General :—Chief Commissioner Conditional Sales accordingly.—P.F.A., 10/11/82. [Enclosure to No. 10.]
Mr. T. A. Jones to Mr. J. Inchan.

Dear Sir,

Coonamble, 9 September, 1882.

I write you particulars of two important cases which require your best energies to bring before the notice of Parliament and the authorities.

* * * * *
The second case is that of Mr. John Hickey, who selected 640 acres on Warrena Run on the 13th day of July, 1882. About three weeks after this, Miss Alice Gordon, a governess at D. P. Keogh's, selects 640 acres at the back of him, and Keogh at once put on a lot of men to sink a tank right on the only available place for making water on Hickey's conditional purchase.

Hickey enters the same protest as Cook, with the same result.

Keogh puts on a double set of hands, to have the work in a forward state when the surveyor comes. Hickey notices him and his workmen to discontinue. No notice is taken. Keogh, after a few weeks, asks the workmen to tell Hickey that the work is not for him, but for Miss Gordon, and that they were not engaged by him at all, which is a lie.

I might tell you that Keogh put in an application at the local Lands Office for an improvement purchase of 120 acres, in virtue of hut. Somehow this application has been withdrawn; and Alice Gordon has selected this very house; and Keogh now says that it belongs to Miss Gordon, and that he has nothing to do with it.

Strange that he would put a value of £120 on it, in order that he might take the good land from Hickey, and then afterwards allow Alice Gordon to select house and all without a murmur regarding the improvements.

I think I have said enough; but if you require further information, write me on the subject.

With regards,—

I have, &c.,

T. A. JONES.

No. 11.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor R. Fisher to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

Camp, Coonamble, 2 October, 1882.

I have the honor to return herewith for further instructions Conditional Purchase Applications 82-254, 82-286, 82-348, and 82-380.

I also enclose two tracings showing the position of the relative starting points of conditional purchases 82-254 and 82-348, and also the approximate position of the land applied for by these four conditional purchase applications, together with all other information relating to these applications.

Conditional purchase 82-254 is described as starting at a peg marked u, about 10 chains southerly from the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run. This peg was pointed out to me by the applicant on the ground, and I found that its true bearing from the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run was about south 58 degrees east 31 chains. It was driven and partly hidden by a cotton-bush, and could not easily be found by any person searching for it. I myself certainly would never have found it. The applicant states, and in this statement he is corroborated by his brother, that he drove this peg in its present position on the Wednesday before he made his conditional purchase application, and that he was to a certain extent misled in giving the erroneous description of its position by imagining that the fenced line between North Coonamble and Bimble was a due north and south line instead of, as it is, north 30 degrees west.

With regard to the peg marked a, referred to in the description of conditional purchase 82-348, I found it without any difficulty, as it was within a few links of the position stated in the application, viz., 20 chains due south of the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run.

The hut shown on tracing and referred to in conditional purchase application 82-254, is the property of the lessee of the run, erected prior to date of this conditional purchase application, and is worth £40, thus barring from conditional purchase 40 acres of land as shown on tracing.

The tank now in course of erection, the position of which is also shown on the large tracing, is being excavated for Alice Gordon. Up to date of inspection about 2,000 yards of earth had been removed therefrom. This tank was commenced on the 11th August, and, notwithstanding Hickey's protests, work has been carried on therein uninterruptedly till now. Alice Gordon's agent, Mr. Keogh, informed Hickey that he considered that Hickey's land started from a point 10 chains due south of the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run, and therefore that the tank was on the land applied for by Alice Gordon, and, until it was decided otherwise, that he would go on with this tank.

The land in dispute contains a good site for the storage of water, viz., a swamp partly surrounded with a hard ridge off which the rain runs readily. This accounts for the two applicants both striving to obtain this land. I think, however, taking into consideration Hickey's statement that his peg was driven before he made his conditional purchase application, coupled with the fact that his lines evidently were intended to run as shown on tracing, as special reference is made in his application to the area barred by the hut, and also that a selector in the back country would naturally choose land so as to include a place where water could be conserved (this swamp being the only place so available on the whole of the land applied for), that it is possible that the peg marked u was driven originally in the spot where shown to me, and that Alice Gordon has taken advantage of the error in the description of the direction and distance of this peg from the new corner, and tried by erecting this dam or tank as quickly as possible to obtain some kind of claim to the land she has applied for. I must also state that I do not believe that Alice Gordon is selecting bona fide on her own behalf; but of course, as in all such cases, this is difficult of proof. Hickey's statement to me respecting the bearing of the fence between Bimble and North Coonamble Runs must not be lost sight of, as the production of this line would pass very close to the hut; and if Hickey thought that line was a north and south line, he naturally enough would also imagine that a continuation of that line would be his boundary, in which case it would run through the swamp, and also encroach on the land protected by the hut.

I will shortly again be near the locality, when I will examine the ground to see if I can find any trace of a peg having been driven about 10 chains on the continuation of this line, and report to you if I do.

Hickey, when applying for his two conditional purchases of 600 and 40 acres respectively, was not aware of the proximity of water reserve 874. If his peg, therefore, be adopted as his starting point the available portion only of his land, I presume, will have to be measured, in which case conditional purchase 82-286 will have to be declared void, being for 40 acres, only a portion of which is on a reserve.

No other person except Hickey and his brother saw the peg marked u until after the date of Alice Gordon's selection.

I have, &c.,

ROBERT FISHER,

Licensed Surveyor.

Mr. J. Hickey to Mr. District-Surveyor Dalglish.

Dear Sir,

I hereby protest against an improvement purchase application made by D. P. Keogh, for W. F. Buchanan, at Coonamble, on Warrena Run, parish of Bimble, county of Leichhardt, of 120 acres, in virtue of a hut which I consider of not more value than £40 at the outside. I have selected land, being conditional purchase which bounds this hut, and have left an area for the improvement; and I protest against a larger area being allowed the applicant.

Mr. J. Hickey to Mr. District-Surveyor Dalglish.

Dear Sir,

I beg to request that you will be pleased to cause special instructions to be issued to Surveyor Fisher to at once measure my conditional purchase of 640 acres, made at Coonamble on the 13th day of July, 1882, being conditional purchase No. 82-254. I beg that this course will be taken, because the lessee of the run, D. P. Keogh, is now excavating a large tank on my land. The work commenced at least one month after I selected it; and if it is intended to claim the land by virtue of this improvement I hereby protest against it.

No. 12.

Mr. J. Hickey to Mr. District-Surveyor Dalglish.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Surveyor Fisher inspected my land on Saturday, 30th September, in company with myself, and he told me that he would have to report to you before he measured; this he informs me is on account of a dispute raised by Mr. Keogh, the lessee of the run, on behalf of his governess, Miss Alice Gordon.

You will remember a former communication I addressed to you on this same matter, protesting against the action of Mr. Keogh in excavating a large tank on my land. At that time I cautioned Mr. Keogh and his men against continuing the work, verbally and by writing, but it seems to no purpose. It seems now that it is intended to claim the land on account of Alice Gordon, who adjoins my conditional purchase, and must, as a matter of necessity, have her boundaries fixed by mine. My protests have been ignored, and I have been treated by Mr. Keogh, who I suppose acts for his governess, as if I had no right to the land at all. I asked him to come and see my peg; he refused, saying that my peg could not be where I described; thus he has worked the matter until a bogus dispute is got up. I say there never was a dispute, nor could there be a just one, for my peg was down and to be seen, and was seen, by reliable witnesses, fourteen days before Alice Gordon selected, or before Keogh commenced the tank. I maintain, Sir, that this so-called dispute is a piece of outrageous impertinence on the part of Keogh to state that there could be a dispute of this kind, and I beg to request that you will be pleased to advise Mr. Fisher to proceed with the survey without further delay, as I wish to commence my improvements at once. I have timber and material awaiting for some time. Miss Alice Gordon, although a very near neighbour, I have never had the pleasure of seeing on the land or anywhere else, except in Mr. Keogh's buggy in company with himself, in the town of Coonamble.

I have, &c.,
JOHN HICKEY.

P.S.—I may add that the tank is not half finished yet.—JOHN HICKEY.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of 3rd instant, I have the honor to inform you that Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Fisher's report No. 82-118, returning for further instructions conditional purchase applications made by yourself, Patrick Joseph Hickey, and Alice Gordon, was forwarded to head-quarters to day.

No. 14.

Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co. to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

We have the honor to advise you that Mr. John Hickey applied on the 13th July last for a conditional purchase of 600 acres at Coonamble, "starting at a peg marked x about 10 chains southerly, from the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run, and bearing thence west, south, east, and north to embrace area, exclusive of area barred from conditional purchase by hut."

On

On the 10th August our client, Miss Alice Gordon, applied for a conditional purchase of 640 acres (having before her a copy of the application of John Hickey). It now appears that the two applications conflict, as the prior applicant, Hickey, seeks to prove that his peg marked H is at a distance of over 30 chains east-south-east, instead of 10 chains southerly.

We would therefore respectfully bring this case before your notice, before you would approve of Hickey's application being amended under the 14th section of the Act.

- 1st. Hickey has bound himself to 10 chains from a certain starting point, viz., southerly, but we, in the interest of our client, are willing to give him every latitude, and allow him to go the distance if he chooses south-easterly, and thereby cutting in half the tank, but as this applicant evidently knows the difference between 10 chains and 30 chains, we, in the interests of our client, object to his starting point commencing at the latter distance.
- 2nd. It is evident to you that a starting "peg" is not like that of any other, and may be shifted to suit the convenience of the applicant, and therefore a further evidence that the applicant should be confined to his original starting point, viz., 10 chains.
- 3rd. Our client, Miss Alice Gordon, is a bona fide and legitimate selector, and basing her application on that of Hickey's, has excavated a tank on a portion of her land (the only spot for miles around where it is possible to conserve water), where she has expended the whole of her means, and if the amendment as sought by Hickey is allowed she will be completely ruined.

We are assured that Miss Gordon is about to be married, and that she has selected this land in her own interest, and for her future home, and we therefore trust that you will be good enough to confine the prior applicant to the land as applied for by him.

We enclose herewith a tracing showing the land as applied for by Hickey, and that, as applied for by Miss Gordon, from which you will see that if Hickey is confined to his original starting point, viz., 10 chains, his fence would cut right through the centre of our client's tank, which we are quite willing to allow, but we do object to him being allowed to alter his starting point to 30 chains, which would include the whole of the tank and the hut.

Trusting therefore that you will compel Hickey to adhere to his original starting point,

We have, &c.,

H. H. BROWN & CO.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

Conditional Purchase 82-254, Coonamble, John Hickey, 600 acres, 13th section.

Conditional Purchase 82-286, Coonamble, John Hickey, 40 acres, 21st section.

Conditional Purchase 82-348, Coonamble, Alice Gordon, 640 acres, 13th section.

Conditional Purchase 82-380, Coonamble, Patrick Joseph Hickey, 320 acres, 13th section.

In view of Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Fisher's report and the statements contained therein, it is submitted that as the applicant's (J. Hickey's) starting point is "a peg marked H, about 10 chains southerly from the south-west corner of North Coonamble Run, &c.," which bears about south 58 degrees east 31 chains from the south-east corner of that run, that conditional purchase 82-254 be located under fourteenth section of Act of 1875 for land as per firm red lines, i.e., starting from the peg marked H, averred by applicant to be his starting point and following the boundaries described. The area applied for however will not be available as the conditional purchase would encroach to the extent of about 97 acres on water reserve 874, notified 14th October, 1878.

Conditional purchase 82-254 if thus located will include a tank said to be erected for Miss Alice Gordon on the land applied for by her under conditional purchase 82-348, which is of subsequent date to that of Hickey's and embraces an area of about 194 acres described in the latter conditional purchase.

Should the location of conditional purchase 82-254 be approved it is recommended that J. Hickey be offered the option of retaining the area available within the boundaries, viz., 503 acres, with refund on 97 acres, or of deposit, and that Alice Gordon be offered the option of retaining 446 acres, with refund on 194 acres, or of refund of deposit.

J. Hickey's additional conditional purchase 82-286 should be declared void, as it encroaches on water reserve No. 874, notified 14th October, 1878, and the area available outside the boundaries of the reserve is less than 40 acres.

Conditional purchase 82-380, as applied for broken red lines on tracing, encroaches to the extent of about 150 acres on water reserve No. 874, notified 14th October, 1878. It is therefore submitted that applicant have the option of having the area available, about 170 acres measured with frontage to travelling route reserve, with refund on 150 acres, or of refund of deposit.

ROBERT D. FITZGERALD,

(For Surveyor-General),

18 October, 1882.

Since writing the above a letter has been received from H. H. Brown & Co., on behalf of A. Gordon, to which attention is invited.—R.D.F., 18/10/82.

Minutes on No. 15.

By Chief Commissioner:—The whole question depends upon the position of the peg on which the description of Hickey's (the earlier conditional purchaser) depends. It is described in his application as 10 chains southerly, but was found by the surveyor to be 31 chains south 58 degrees east from the south-west corner of the North Coonamble Run. This is a considerable discrepancy, and I am not clear that it should be disregarded to the prejudice of a subsequent applicant without fuller investigation. The provision for arbitration seems to have been designed to meet such a case.—A.O.M., 31/10/82.

By Secretary for Lands:—Let the question go to arbitration.—JOHN R.

Coonamble, 23 November, 1882.

In reply to your communication of the 5th November last, conditional sales 82-8,045, relating to my conditional purchase 82-254, I have the honor to protest against the decision of the Department to put my case to arbitration. I maintain that there cannot be a dispute concerning my starting point, as my peg was put down before I selected the land, and I can bring respectable witnesses to prove my statement. I offered to show my starting point to Mr. D. P. Keogh, the lessee of Warrena Run and agent for Alice Gordon, but he refused to look at it, and told me that "I must be mistaken." He commenced to excavate a tank on my land, and I sent him written notice to discontinue work. He ignored my notice. I then gave the tank-sinkers notice, and they told me they were employed by Keogh and were instructed not to desist. I then protested to Mr. Dalglish at Dubbo, to the Surveyor-General, and to the Minister for Lands (vide my letters to these). Some time after Mr. Keogh offered to compromise with me if I would pay him for the tank. This I refused to do. He then offered me consideration in money to shift my peg and put the land on an adjoining run; this I also refused to do. Mr. Keogh never directly or indirectly dared to say in my presence that the land I occupied was not the land I described, and I respectfully submit that the whole of this dispute is a piece of downright insolence and a bare-faced attempt to rob me of my land through sheer force of money and political influence. I know that putting the case to arbitration means that I, being a poor man, am sure to be the loser. I submit that the description given by me to the local Crown Lands Agent was sufficiently explicit to enable him to chart my conditional purchase on his office map, and that Mr. Keogh knew that my selection embraced the only water on that part of the country. It must be apparent to you, Sir, that when this man Keogh puts one of his servants on to the adjoining land, and in spite of my protest commences to excavate a tank on the only water-shed I have, that he is doing it with a view to oust me from my holding. I further submit that Keogh has no claim for consideration, because he expended money on this tank with his eyes open and knowing that the land was mine. If this case should be decided against me the whole of my selection will be utterly useless to me and I will be ruined. This dispute about my starting point is one entirely got up by Keogh with a view to oust me. I say that I have known thousands of descriptions given wherein a more vague starting point was given and there was no dispute. I submit that in saying that my peg is situated within about 10 chains of a certain point that it is sufficiently explicit if it be found to be 27 chains, because it would be absurd to suppose that a selector could describe his peg within a chain or two in a place where there are no well-known land-marks. I say further that Surveyor Fisher had no difficulty in discovering my peg, nor need Mr. Keogh have made any mistake if he would have gone with the intention of finding it.

I may tell you, in conclusion, that I have been waited on repeatedly by Mr. Keogh, and offered sums of money to abandon my claim, which I refused to do.

Trusting you will give this your favourable consideration,

I have, &c.,

JOHN HICKEY.

No. 21.

Mr. J. Hickey to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Coonamble, 15 January, 1883.

Referring to your letter (82-8,045) of the 6th November, 1882, re my conditional purchase 82-254, 600 acres, in name of John Hickey, taken up 13th July, 1882, and upon which Mr. Surveyor Fisher reported that, owing to conflicting interests between the lessee of the Warrena Run and myself, it was advised that an arbitration should take place, I have to beg that you will take into immediate consideration the following facts:—

First—Mr. Keogh was agreeable to an arbitration which was to take place this week, and at which matters would have been satisfactorily arranged, but owing to serious blood poisoning from diseased sheep he had to leave for Sydney dangerously ill, and in all probability will be deferred from attending to business for some considerable period.

Second—That as Mr. Surveyor Fisher is now in the immediate vicinity, and prepared to undertake the work at once, it would be a positive injustice to me to delay the matter longer, as I wish to fence the selection for the use of my milking cows, from which I depend for a living, and for which there is no other grass procurable—said cows being the only means of supplying the townspeople with milk and myself with a living.

Third—That I wish no injustice done to the Crown lessee or myself, but wish, Sir, a just and definite decision at once under the above extraordinary circumstances.

I beg that, as Mr. Fisher may not be here for months, you will extend your usual courtesy to me as you have shown to many other applicants.

I have, &c.,

JOHN HICKEY.

Again I address you concerning the dispute between Mr. John Hickey and Miss Gordon, both of Coonamble.

The evidence taken at Appraisement Court has been forwarded to you, and I venture to say you must conclude that great hardship is being inflicted on Mr. Hickey, and that his opponent is no more or less than a dummy evading the law. (See District Surveyor's report.) The matter is of such great importance that I most earnestly request that you deal with the case immediately on receipt of this.

Mr. W. J. Taylor to The Secretary for Lands.

Re Hickey and Alice Gordon arbitration.

Sir,

Coonamble, 23 July, 1883.

As the arbitrator appointed for Alice Gordon herein, I beg to acquaint the Minister that I and Mr. Mark Herrman, the arbitrator appointed by Mr. John Hickey, have failed to secure the services of an umpire, and I see no reasonable prospect of any person accepting the appointment.

I have acquiesced in the suggestions made by John Hickey as to the respective nominations for the appointment of Mr. Aubert Loughnan, grazier, and Mr. W. Poulton, Manager of the Commercial Bank, Coonamble; but these gentlemen have each declined to act in that capacity.

Any names that I have submitted for the appointment—and amongst whom are notably Mr. Langlo Parker, grazier; Mr. E. A. Spofforth, Manager of the Bank of New South Wales, Coonamble; Mr. James Inchan, junior, President of the Free Selectors' Association; Mr. Ryder, of Calga, grazier; and Mr. Blake, of Coombia, grazier—have been objected to by either Mr. Hickey or his solicitor.

Mr. Herrman, the arbitrator appointed in conjunction with me, never consulted me, to my recollection, with reference to the appointment of an umpire.

I therefore conceive it my duty to bring the above facts under your notice, to enable you to see the improbability, so far, of the appointment being made by us, and, if I may take the liberty, would suggest that the Minister should appoint an appraiser to deal with and settle definitely the matter in dispute between the parties.

I have, &c.

Evidence taken before Messrs. Herrman and Taylor, arbitrators, and Mr. Fletcher, umpire.

In the matter of the arbitration concerning the dispute as to the position of the starting point of conditional purchase No. 82-254, taken up on the 13th day of July, 1882, by John Hickey, and decided by the Minister for Lands to be referred to arbitration.

Evidence taken before Mark Herrman and William John Taylor, arbitrators, and Donald Fletcher, umpire.

Evidence of John Hickey taken this 18th day of August, 1883, on oath as follows:—

My name is John Hickey; I am a selector residing near Coonamble; on the 13th day of July I took up 600 and 40 acres on North Coonamble Run; on Wednesday, the 12th of July, I put a peg down as a starting point; I put the peg between two dead beasts on the Wednesday; I thought the distance to be about 10 chains from the north corner of the North Coonamble Run; the peg is marked H; I lodged my application with the Crown Lands Agent for the district of Coonamble; on the same Thursday Mr. Edward Blackett came to me and said, "I believe you have selected on Bimble?" I told him I had not; I had selected on Keogh's run; I said, "You can go out to the Bungabah Swamp and between two dead beasts you will see my peg"; he said "All right, I know where they are, I will go and see"; he said, "I suppose it is where I saw you and your brother yesterday"; there were no other dead beasts about there; the peg was near a cotton bush; the peg was not hidden; Mr. Blackett, together with Mr. Fisher, surveyor, and myself, went to the peg; Mr. Blackett led the way; at the time Mr. Blackett went to the peg it was in the same place that I put it; Mr. Blackett said, "I see the peg is in the same place as it was when I was last here"; he said this in the presence of Mr. Surveyor Fisher; Mr. Blackett also said, "This is the place where I saw Hickey on the Wednesday evening before he selected"; after I had selected about three weeks I went to reside on the selection; about a month after I selected some men commenced to make a tank; I asked them under whose instructions they were working; I told them they were building the tank on my ground; they said, "Mr. D. P. Keogh"; they also said Mr. Keogh was paying them; I asked them who marked out the ground; they said, "Mr. Keogh"; they said Mr. Keogh and a man named Colclough pegged out the tank; I gave them notice to discontinue the tank, I also gave Mr. Keogh a written notice; Mr. Keogh told me the men working at the tank were his men; Mr. Keogh said it was not on my land; I asked him why he did not wait till it was measured before he commenced the tank; he said, "I have seen your peg; I saw it due south from the dividing-fence"; I said, "I don't think you did"; it is not due south it is southerly; he said southerly meant due south and no other way; five days after the tank was commenced I asked him to come out and I would show him my peg; he refused to come as he had seen my peg; I asked him if he was going to continue the tank or stop the men; he said, "If the tank is on your ground I won't ask you to pay for it"; he said he would come and see the peg on Sunday; he would not come before; I asked him what time he would be there; he said, "Between three and four"; when I was coming away he said, "I did not see your peg at all; I was telling you a lie all the time"; he said, "I went according to your application"; on Sunday Mr. E. Blackett, myself, and brother (Patrick Hickey), went out to the tank; we were there about 10 minutes past 3; I asked the tank-sinkers if Mr. Keogh had been out there; they said he came there but he did not wait a minute and then went away; we waited about an hour; he never came back; I said to the tank-sinkers, "There is my peg where the dead beasts are; you can show it to him if he returns"; one of the tank-sinkers told me that Mr. Keogh had been out last night and put a peg down in on my ground; the peg was marked A; two letters put in, marked A* and B* respectively; the tank-sinkers told me that the peg had been under their bunk for about a week; he took their axe and put the peg down over there; this was said in the presence of Mr. E. Blackett and Patrick Hickey; I have never moved the peg marked H, and it has never been moved; I last saw it last evening; on several occasions Mr. Keogh has offered to buy me out; he has also offered me other selections in its place; Mr. Keogh also offered if I would give up my selection he would give me the selection of a man named Colclough; Mr. Keogh told me if I would remove my peg back to Blackett's fence and pay him £150 for the tank, and my brother (Patrick J. Hickey) would get a refund for his selection, he, Mr. Keogh, would not dispute the survey; I said I would not; Mr. Keogh said if you go back to Blackett's fence I can make it right with the surveyor to have it all measured on Bimble; I have no knowledge whatever of chaining or land measurement, and my description was prepared by a local Land Agent, Mr. T. A. Jones; I guessed the number of chains by looking at a map in the Lands Office, Coonamble.

Thomas A. Jones, on oath, states:—I am a land agent, residing in Coonamble; I remember John Hickey coming about the middle of July, 1882; he asked me to fill up a form and description making application for a conditional purchase; before we went to the Land Office, Mr. J. Hickey told me he wanted to start from a peg marked H already down, and it was only to suit the convenience of the Crown Lands Agent that the approximate distance of 10 chains was given in order that he might chart his map;

I distinctly swear that I intended the direction of the line to run almost through the improvement purchase secured by the hut, or the hut itself; I was informed by the Land Agent that an approximate measurement was required to enable him to chart his map, hence my reason for stating to Hickey that 10 chains might mean more or less; I guessed this distance to be about 10 chains by looking at two maps of different scales, both of which were acknowledged to be imperfect; I have had considerable experience in land agency business; I have known descriptions of more vague starting points to be measured without any dispute.

Edward Albert Blackett, on oath, states:—I am a grazier, residing at Bimble; I recollect the 12th July, 1882, it was on a Wednesday; I was going along the boundary of Bimble, I saw John Hickey and his brother Patrick Hickey riding about; I saw them get off their horses about 15 or 20 chains from the corner of my boundary; I watched them, they seemed to be driving something in the ground; I then went home; I saw John Hickey at the Lands Office next day; I had no conversation with him that day; Mr. D. P. Keogh told me that Hickey had selected on Bimble; I then went down the town and saw John Hickey and his brother; I asked if they had selected on Bimble; they said no; John Hickey said, "If you want to see my peg go out to Bungabah and you will see my peg between the remains of two dead beasts"; I said I knew where the beasts were, and if the peg were there I could go straight to it; on the 27th August, John Hickey came to Collingwood and asked me to come and see the peg; I went with him; after we went through the fence I went on ahead, and found the peg; I knew where the peg was by his description, and by where I saw him on the Wednesday before he selected, and by the dead beasts; there were no other dead beasts in that neighbourhood at that time; on the 27th August, John Hickey and myself went to the hut, and one of the tank-sinkers told us that Mr. Keogh had been there on the 26th August, and he put down a peg not far from the corner of Bimble boundary; I saw the peg supposed to be put in by Keogh; it was between Hickey's peg and the river; John Hickey's peg could easily be seen by any one looking for it—it was not concealed; I saw the peg yesterday, just before sundown, and it is in the same position as when I first saw it; it was also in the same place when Mr. Fisher, surveyor, stepped over the ground.

Patrick J. Hickey, on oath, states:—I am a selector residing near Coonamble; remember the 12th July, 1882; I remember going out with my brother, John Hickey, to put down his peg which was marked H; the peg was put down in a southerly direction from the corner of Bimble boundary-fence, between two dead beasts; the peg was put beside a cotton-bush; it could be easily seen; it was about 18 inches above the ground; we did not measure the distance, but thought it was about 10 chains from the corner; my brother, John Hickey, selected on the following day; I last saw the peg about three days ago; it is the same peg and is in the same place it was put on the 12th July, 1882; I went with Mr. Blackett and John Hickey to see the tank-sinkers; John Hickey gave the tank-sinkers a written notice to discontinue the work as it was on his ground; he also gave Mr. Keogh a written notice; Mr. Keogh first offered to buy us out; afterwards he offered to give us land in place of it or a selection of 640 acres belonging to John Colelough; he afterwards wanted me to withdraw my refund and my brother to remove his peg into Bimble Run; I heard one of the tank-sinkers state that a peg marked A was under his bunk for three or four weeks before Mr. Keogh came and took it, and after Alice Gordon's selection was taken up; he said on Saturday evening Mr. Keogh borrowed their axe to drive the peg; on one occasion I accompanied Mr. Blackett and my brother to see my brother's peg; Mr. Blackett took the lead and said he could go straight to it without being shown; the tank-sinkers had been at work only a few days when my brother gave them notice; the peg has not been removed since it was first put down by John Hickey; I have seen Alice Gordon's peg, it is a tall peg and easily seen; Alice Gordon selected on the 10th August, 1882; after she had selected we went several times to look for her peg, but could not find it till about a month or two after she had selected; I served Alice Gordon with a subpoena; she said she would not come, not even if Mr. Keogh wanted her; I asked Alice Gordon if she had a selection; she said she had, but did not know where it was situated.

Dennis Patrick Keogh, on oath, states:—I am a grazier, residing at Warrena, and owner of the Warrena Run; about a week or two after John Hickey had selected I was riding from the direction of the Land Office; I saw Hickey and Colelough talking in the street; Colelough called me over, and said, "This is Mr. Hickey"; I asked him, "Are you the Mr. Hickey that selected upon me?" He said, "Yes, but there is very little upon you, not 200 acres," the bulk of his selection being on Mr. Blackett's run; Colelough asked him did he take in any of the swamp or the hut; he said he did not touch either; I then asked him where was his starting point; he told me it was about 10 chains from the corner of Bimble's fence; I asked him what he meant by 10 chains; he said about 220 paces; I said, "In your description you used the word southerly"; I said "What do you mean by that?—do you mean south or a little south-east or south-west"; after a minute or so he said he meant south; I believe this to be all the conversation that took place in the street as far as I can recollect; in about ten or twelve days afterwards Colelough and myself rode out to his place; I took a compass with me; we looked for Hickey's peg, but could not see it at first; then I said to Colelough I will take the compass and take the direction south from the corner of Bimble fence, and I sent Colelough south from the corner; when I got him in the direction I went and took his place and got him to measure 220 paces, and about 5 yards from the distance stepped we found some old pieces of myall and a peg standing amongst them; on Wednesday last myself and Colclough went out to see if the peg and the pieces of wood were still there; we found the same pieces of wood and the peg pitched outside them; I could not distinguish any letter on it, but there was a knife-mark on it; I then took the same direction, and Colclough measured 220 yards further; when we came there Colclough put in a temporary peg as a starting point for Alice Gordon's selection, which was there last Wednesday lying on the ground; some time after Alice Gordon's selection was taken up I had a conversation with John Hickey; he was out cutting wood; I asked him to come with me over to the pegs, in order that the thing might be done quietly without any overlapping; he said he had to cut the wood, and he would not go; I do not think I saw him after that till he came to my house, when I went out into the back yard, and he spoke to me about the tank being put down; he said, "What hurry are you in to put down that tank?" I said, "I am not putting it down, it is Alice Gordon"; he said, "Would it not be time enough when the land is surveyed?" I told him I did not think the tank was near his ground at all; he replied he thought his line would go right through it; at this time he gave me a written notice not to proceed with the tank work; some time after I asked him to come out on Sunday and I would bring a compass to show him that the tank was not on his land; he appointed to meet me on the ground at 3 o'clock, and I waited till near 4 by my watch and he never came; I then rode quietly towards home, keeping a good look out for him all the time; I could not see him, and I rode home; I have frequently afterwards asked him to come out and I would take the compass and show him the tank was not on his ground; he always refused; I am informed that he wrote to the Minister for Lands that I made several overtures to him to purchase his selection, which statements I deny; he never asked me to go and see his peg at any time; with reference to John Hickey's statement on oath that I said to him when at Warrena, "I did not see your peg at all, I was telling you a lie all the time, I only went by your description," I will swear such words were never uttered by me; any overtures of sale emanated from John Hickey to me; as to the evidence of John Hickey, wherein he states that I said I could make it right with the surveyor to have it all surveyed on Bimble, such evidence is not true; I can't remember the exact date, but I did take the tank-sinker's axe and put down the square peg marked a in the hole that the temporary peg was in; the day that John Hickey was in at my house I drew out these two allotments on the ground joining but not overlapping; this sketch on the ground was allowing 10 chains due south from Bimble boundary fence for John Hickey and 20 chains for Alice Gordon; I have looked for the peg marked n but have never found it; the peg I refer to marked n is on the plan produced herein and marked c; I do not remember seeing the remains of two dead beasts; I employed the tank-sinkers as agent for Alice Gordon, and told them so at the time.

John Colclough, on oath, states:—I am a selector on Warrena Run; about a week after John Hickey had selected I was in town with Mr. Keogh; I saw Mr. Hickey and I said to him, "You have selected on Mr. Keogh, in one of his paddocks, haven't you?" He said, "Yes"; he said, "The most of my ground is on Bimble"; I said, "Do you take in the Bungabah swamp or the hut in your selection?" He said, "I do not go near the hut or the swamp, I take the lower part of the swamp"; I called Mr. Keogh over and said, "This is Mr. Hickey"; he said, "Are you Mr. Hickey that selected upon me?" He said, "Yes"; he said, "There is very little of my ground on you, the greater portion of it being on Bimble; I don't believe there is 200 acres on you"; Mr. Keogh asked him where he started from; he said, "10 chains southerly from the corner of Bimble boundary"; Mr. Keogh asked Hickey what he meant by 10 chains; he said 220 yards; some time after Mr. Keogh and I went to see where he said his starting point was; I stepped 220 yards south, I came to some Myall sticks, a temporary peg was in the ground, it appeared to have some mark as if done by a knife; I stepped 220 yards further in the same direction and put down a temporary peg for Alice Gordon; the swamp in places runs into Bimble, close to the fence; when this conversation took place between Mr. Keogh and Mr. Hickey I was standing close by; there was no letter or number on the peg; I examined it, it was a brown peg, a bit of Myall; I never saw two dead beasts or the peg marked n, though I looked for the peg marked n; I examined the ground all over; I was listening to the conversation which took place between Mr. Keogh and Mr. Hickey, meaning the conversation which took place near the land office; I have not had any conversation with Mr. Keogh concerning the evidence I was to give or have given in this case; Mr. Keogh and Mr. Hickey had some conversation last Wednesday on Hickey's selection; I did not hear any of it; Mr. Hickey said, "I wish you had not put down that tank"; Mr. Keogh said, "I did not put down a tank."

WILLIAM J. TAYLOR.

Tom Monahan Keogh, on oath, states:—I am a son of D. P. Keogh, of Warrena, and I manage the said station; shortly after John Hickey had selected I was out near the corner of the run, "Bimble and Nebea," and looked about for his starting point according to his description; I could not see a peg marked n; I have seen Hickey several times since in Coonamble; the first time I saw him he said the greater part of his selection was on Bimble Run, only a corner of it came through the fence; he made several propositions for settlement so as to get some land measured for him; he offered to pay the price the tank cost if it was measured in to him; a plan produced, marked *D, was given to me by Hickey; I can't say which of them gave me the plan, they were both together at the time; Hickey said he would like his starting point from the part marked starting point on the plan marked D, or he would be satisfied with the starting point marked x on the plan produced marked D; both he and myself were to see Mr. Fisher (surveyor) to see if the ground could be measured from the point marked x; I saw Mr. Fisher, when he said Hickey would have to apply for a refund and make a second application before he could get it measured that way, meaning from the point x; John Hickey offered to pay the full cost of the tank tank as it now stands; I never offered him any price for it; Hickey offered to allow us the use of his selection providing we would allow him to use certain purchased land belonging to us situate inside the common paddock, which was agreed to; I hold a power of attorney to act on Alice Gordon's behalf; I have never seen the peg marked u; Hickey never offered to show me the peg; I never asked him to show it to me.

Edward A. Blackett, recalled, on former oath stated, that he went out in company with John and Patrick Hickey on Sunday afternoon the 27th August and arrived at the peg marked u on plan C*, produced, at 20 minutes past 3; we stayed at the peg about a quarter of an hour and then went across to the hut and remained till nearly 5 o'clock; if Mr. Keogh had come to the peg during the time I was there I could have seen him.

Examined by Mr. Keogh: There are two doors to the hut; I went to the hut but never went inside; the door that was open looked to the eastern side; if Mr. Keogh had been there I could have seen him; the tankmaker said Mr. Keogh had been there but had gone away.

Taken and sworn before us, this 18th August, 1883,—

E. A. BLACKETT.

WILLIAM J. TAYLOR.

John Hickey, recalled, on former oath states:—Referring to the former statement made by Mr. D. P. Keogh that I said the bulk of my selection was on Bimble and that very little was on Mr. Keogh, not 200 acres; I deny it; I said some of it might be on Bimble; I did not say I did not take in any of the swamp; I deny that I said that 10 chains was about 220 paces; I did not say southerly meant south; I never put a myall peg amongst a heap of myall sticks; on Wednesday last I saw Mr. D. P. Keogh and Mr. Colclough stepping a distance from the boundary fence; they both got off and then I went over to where they had been standing and I saw a lot of sticks heaped together; I could see where they had been taken up from the damp ground; I cannot say who removed the sticks, but it had been done quite recently and there was no other person about; Mr. Keogh did ask me to go and show him the peg, but I was cutting firewood about 2 miles away; I refused to go as I was busy at the time; when Mr. Keogh spoke about putting down the tank he never mentioned Alice Gordon's name; I did not say I thought my line would run through the tank; Mr. Keogh has only asked me once to go to the tank when he had the compass; about November last I did offer to give £150 for the tank providing I was allowed to take the land from the starting point marked u on plan marked C; I never gave plan marked D to Mr. Keogh; it was given by my brother as my agent with my knowledge and consent; Mr. Keogh offered to buy me out; he also offered to give me other land in exchange.

Examined by Mr. Keogh: I swear that two sticks were removed; he offered me Colclough's selection.

Examined by Mr. Colclough: Two sticks were removed.
Taken and sworn by us, this 18th August, 1883,—

JOHN HICKEY.

Surveyor-General's Office, Geographical Division No. 4, 21 August, 1883.

PLANS and papers in the cases specified in margin hereof were obtained by Conditional Sales Branch for reference to the Chief Commissioner before entry in this Division, and have not yet been received here, consequently the Surveyor's (Licensed-Surveyor Keele's) accounts are not dealt with.

A memorandum was sent to the Chief Draftsman suggesting that Conditional Sales Branch be requested if possible to forward the papers and plans to Charting Branch. The memorandum was dated 29th May, 1883; no reply has been received, and on verbal inquiry being since made it appears that the papers are not obtainable.

The documents were forwarded, it is understood, with conditional sales 82-4,689, correspondence to the Crown Solicitor in connection with action re so-called "Erysipelas Hospital Cases."

In the absence of these plans and papers the Surveyor's accounts remain unpaid.

Mr. P. Hickey to G. E. Cass, Esq., M.P.

Dear Sir,

Coonamble, 5 September, 1883.

I write these few lines to remind you of our arbitration case, so as you will not forget it. I have seen both arbitrators, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Herrman, and they cannot understand why such delay should occur. Mark Herrman posted the awards himself about three weeks ago to the Surveyor-General, Sydney, and therefore I hope that you will not neglect our matter whatever you may do, and as soon as you can let us know. Try and get special instructions sent up at once to survey the land, for our stock are dying up here with starvation. Hoping you and family are enjoying good health,

I have, &c.,
PATRICK HICKEY.

Telegram from Chief Commissioner to Mr. J. Hickey.

Sydney, 25 September, 1883.

Re your telegram to G. E. Cass, M.P., conditional purchases 82-254 and 82-286, applications to Surveyor Fisher for measurement, 17th August last.

No. 43.

The Chief Commissioner to Mr. J. Hickey.

Sir, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 15 October, 1883.

With reference to your conditional purchase noted in the margin, lately the subject of arbitration, a dispute having arisen as to the starting point of your selection, I have to inform you that the award gives your starting point at a peg marked u, and shown on the plan drawn by Licensed-Surveyor Fisher, which peg is about 31 chains from the boundary fence of Bimble Run. This award having been approved by the Minister, your conditional purchase will be measured and located as shown by firm red lines on accompanying tracing. The full area applied for, however, will not be available, as the conditional purchase would encroach to the extent of about 97 acres on water reserve No. 874, and I am therefore to offer you the option of retaining the area available, about 503 acres, together with refund of deposit on the difference, or refund of the whole deposit.

Conditional purchase 82-54, Coonamble, 600 (now 503) acres, 13 July 1882. Tracing and vouchers.

With regard to your later conditional purchase, No. 82-286, I have to state that it must be declared void, as it encroaches on water reserve No. 874, and the area available outside the boundaries of the reserve is less than 40 acres.

Enclosed are two refund orders for deposit on the difference of area on your conditional purchase No. 82-254, and total deposit on selection No. 82-286.

I have, &c.,
WM. BLACKMAN,
(For Chief Commissioner.)

Madam, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 15 October, 1883.

With reference to the protest on your behalf against the conditional purchases noted in the margin, lately the subject of arbitration, a dispute having arisen as to the starting point of the selection, I have to inform you that the award gives the starting point at a peg marked n, and shown on plan drawn by Licensed-Surveyor Fisher, which peg is about 31 chains from the boundary-fence of Bimble Bun. This award having been approved by the Minister, he has decided that the conditional purchase should be located, as shown by firm red lines on accompanying tracing.

I have also to state that your conditional purchase noted in the margin, taken up subsequently to that of Mr. Hickey, encroaches upon his conditional purchase as located, to the extent of about 194 acres, and I am therefore to offer you the option of retaining the area available about 446 acres, together with accompanying voucher for refund of deposit on difference, or refund of the whole deposit.

An early reply as to which of these alternatives you prefer is requested.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, communicating the decision of the Honorable the Minister for Lands in the long pending dispute between Mr. G. F. Millgate and myself, and to tender my thanks for the continuous attention this case has received at your hands. I have, &c.,

By Chief Commissioner:—I am not aware of having bestowed any special or continuous attention upon this case.—A.O.M., 12/3/83.

No. 2.

Dr. A. Ross, M.P., to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir, Sydney, 29 March, 1883.
I am favoured with a perusal of your letter of 6th March, 1883, addressed to Mr. G. F. Millgate, re the reversal of a decision made by the late Minister for Lands, Mr. Hoskins, in a land dispute between Mr. Millgate and Mr. John Smith, in which the matter was decided in favour of Mr. Millgate. I do sincerely trust that you will take the necessary steps to prevent any deeds being issued for the land in Mr. Smith's behalf, because the case is one that demands the fullest investigation and protest, and therefore it is my duty to furnish you with this notice on behalf of Millgate. I have, &c., A. ROSS.

Minutes on No. 2.

Instructions issued to Mr. Surveyor Crouch to survey 69 acres, improved by Mr. Smith, and to make the necessary amendments in portions 57, 58, 59, and 62 (G. F. Millgate's conditional purchases).—E.A.B., 17 May, 1883.

Now to Conditional Sales Branch for any further action that may be necessary, and then to await survey.—E.A.B., pro J. T. SMALL, 17 May, 1883.

Conditional Sales Branch,—Mr. A. Ross, M.P., should be informed to the above effect, then to await survey.—C.N., 28/5/83.

No. 3.

Dr. A. Ross, M.P., to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir, Molong, 26 April, 1883.
On behalf of Mr. George F. Millgate, of Molong, I have the honor to submit for your consideration the following protest against the decision in Millgate's cases. In doing so I have the honor to request that you will "cancel" the forfeiture for the following reasons, as per margin:—
1. At the date of the selection there were no improvements on the land to bar selection, as proved by your surveyor (Mr. Burnside's) report of date 4th April, 1878, being No. 15 of printed correspondence.

2. The several surveys and the several portions have been approved by the Survey Department, and no one portion, even upon the Crown lessees' showing, contains improvements that would bar selection.

3. By reference to the printed correspondence, that the first conditional purchase was made the 1st February, 1877; of these additional conditional purchases were made, and by a minute attached to the same, Surveyor Burnside was instructed on 6th March, 1877, to measure, if unobjectionable. The second was made on the 22nd February, 1877; the others were made subsequent to the above date, and were all referred in like manner to Mr. Surveyor Burnside.

4. On the 4th April, 1878, Mr. Burnside reported (see Nos. 13, 14, and 15 of printed correspondence), and makes reference to improvements he found thereon.

On portion No. 58	Nil.
On No. 59, improvements stated	£15
ditto	15
Total					£30

Of this sum deduct £15 for fencing, post-bored and top rails, which is included, and belongs to the selector, and forms no part of the improvements belonging to the run, leaving £15 the full value of all improvements on the land at the date of selection.

5. See No. 20 of printed correspondence, a subsequent report of Mr. Burnside, dated 29 July, 1878, which confirms his previous report, and confirms also that Millgate erected the fencing referred to above, valued at £15; read also minute of District-Surveyor Fisher, dated 2nd August, 1878.

6. From these reports of your non-officers it is clear that there were no improvements up to the date of the selection sufficient to bar selection.

7. I desire to draw your attention to the fact that although Millgate made his first selection February, 1877, and was all the time living upon and improving his selections, no notice is given by the Crown lessee of any claim for improvements until 17th April, 1878.

8. Notwithstanding Millgate had continually occupied the land no claim was made during the time he was fencing and making other improvements by the Crown lessee until several months had elapsed. The improvements of the selector, and whatever remained of old improvements that might previously have been on the land, became mixed, and when appraiser Crouch was instructed in February, 1880, to value the improvements, being three years after the land was taken up by Millgate, he (Crouch) included improvements that had been made by Millgate; hence his report, that the improvements that had been made by Millgate were of the value of £69, differs from Mr. Surveyor Burnside's report when Burnside first went upon the land to report as to improvements and survey the land for Millgate.

9. Referring to appraiser Crouch's valuation (see Nos. 59 and 60, printed correspondence), I say it is impossible for any man, three years after the land had been in the occupation of the selector, and been used and operated upon, to put a value for clearing such land (and the clearing is the principal item in surveyor Crouch's valuations, the other improvements without the clearing being insignificant). It is quite evident that any evidence that could have been presented to appraiser Crouch must have been of a hearsay character, and could not have been personally inspected by him, nor could they have been found by him to be as described in his letter of the 11th February, 1880, No. 59.

From the foregoing facts, and more especially from your own survey or report that he found no improvements to bar selection and survey of the land, also from the conclusion arrived at by your predecessor (Mr. Hoskins) in favour of the conditional purchaser, I have to request that you will cancel the forfeiture, and reinstate the selector.

I have, &c.,
ANDREW ROSS, M.D.

Minutes on above.

By Secretary for Lands:—The printed papers in this case will be sufficient to enable me to reconsider the statements herein contained.—J.S.F., 27/4/83. By Under Secretary for Lands:—Chief Commissioner.—C.O., 27/4/83.

No. 7.

Mr. Inspector Griffin to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by J. H. Griffin, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of George F. Millgate, made at Molong on 22nd February, 1877.

Sir,

Bathurst, 4 August, 1883.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 23rd July last, and that I found the selector then was resident upon a selection adjoining.

The land, which consists of portion 58, parish of Copper Hill, and comprises 100 acres, is now occupied and used by the selector as grazing land; and the selector, who follows the avocation of a farmer, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

10 chains log fencing at 10s. per chain	£5 0 0
10 acres felled and partly cleared at £1 per acre	10 0 0
40 acres rubbish and dead wood cleared at 5s. per acre	10 0 0
100 acres ringbarking at 1s. 6d.	7 10 0
					£32 10 0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

George F. Millgate, the selector, wishes that any deficiency in the value of improvements on portion 58 be supplied from the surplus on portion 33, on the Bell River, where he is now residing, and where I found buildings worth £200, cleared land, £240. This is irrespective of the surplus sum on portion 57, adjoining 58, which would amply meet any deficiency here as well as on portion 62.

I have, &c.,
J. H. GRIFFIN,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

No. 8.

Mr. Inspector Griffin to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by J. H. Griffin, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of George F. Millgate, made at Molong on 15th March, 1877.

Sir,

Bathurst, 4 August, 1883.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 23rd July last, and that I found the selector then was resident upon a selection adjoining.

The land, which consists of portion 62, parish of Copper Hill, and comprises 100 acres, is now occupied and used by the selector as a farm; and the selector, who follows the avocation of a farmer, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

14 acres felled and cleared at £3 per acre	£42 0 0
100 acres ringbarking at 1s. 6d. per acre	7 10 0
					£49 10 0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The selector, as on portion 58, wishes any deficiency on the portion 62 to be supplied from surplus on portion 33, where he now resides, on the Bell River, and where I found buildings worth £200, cleared land £240. This is irrespective of the surplus sum on portion 57, adjoining portion 62, and which would amply meet any deficiency here.

I have, &c.,
J. H. GRIFFIN,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

No. 9.

Dr. Ross, M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir,

Parliament House, Sydney, 27 February, 1884.

Conditional purchase, Orange—George Millgate, selector.

Conditional purchase, 1869, portion 33, Molong	40 acres.
Additional conditional purchase, 1875, portion 56, Molong ...	40 "

	480 acres.

The original conditional purchase was made as far back as the year 1869.

The Crown lessee claimed 60 acres in virtue of improvements on 19th October, 1877, a hut, &c.; but Mr. Burnside, the surveyor, reported they were not worth £40. And although at this time 40 or 45 acres, on which the bulk of the improvements were situated, was vacant, the surveyor did not think the improvements sufficient to secure even this land, but surveyed it for auction sale.

The then Minister for Lands, Mr. Hoskins (80-16,906 miscellaneous), taking into account the whole circumstances, and in view of the surveyor's report, refused to allow the Crown lessee's claim to purchase and confirm the selection; and when again resubmitted on 21/7/81, confirmed his former decision. See No. 1, by Surveyor-General, and minutes thereon.

The Minister having been satisfied with the conditional purchaser, and the selector having made his declarations in 1880, and continued during the last four years to pay the interest, and having also greatly improved the land to an extent that altogether eclipses the so-called improvements claimed by the Crown lessee; moreover, as the Crown lessee has, since the appraisement, removed the iron hut which formed part of the value relied upon, and as seven years have elapsed since the last of the selections were made, and four years since the conditions were all fulfilled and declarations made, it is submitted that the conditional purchaser cannot now be disturbed in his holding, and that a great wrong would be inflicted on the conditional purchaser were the case to be again opened up after the plans had been charted and accepted for upwards of three years; surely this ought to be sufficient time to allow for finality. We therefore having investigated the whole question, submit that the conditional purchaser should not now be disturbed in his holding, other important interests having arisen in the meantime.

ANDREW ROSS, M.P.
ROBERT BARBOUR, M.P.

By Secretary for Lands:—I know of no reason for altering the previous decision. I think that the decision is legally and substantially correct.—J.S.F., 4/3/84.

No. 10.

The Chief Commissioner to Messrs. A. Ross and R. Barbour, M's.P.

Gentlemen,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, 10 March, 1884.

Referring to your letter of 27th ultimo, respecting the dispute between the Honorable John Smith and Mr. George Millgate, and requesting that Millgate's claim to the conditional purchase, noted in the margin, may not be disturbed, I have the honor to refer you to the previous decision of Mr. Secretary Farnell, in which he decided that the land improved to the value of £69 was barred from selection, consequently so much of Millgate's selections as encroached upon the 69 acres of improved land was void, and I am now directed to add that the Minister sees no reason for altering his previous decision, and is of opinion that the decision was legally and substantially correct.

Description.

Being measured portion: bounded on the south by a road, on the north by my last additional conditional purchase of 64 acres; on the east by reserve 98; and on the west by a chock and log fence.

Surveyor-General's Office, 10 January, 1879.

Mr. Creed will be good enough to furnish immediately the No. of the portion alluded to in this application, and the date of transmission and No. of his plan. In the event of the lands not having been measured by him, he will be good enough to send this at once to the District Surveyor, in order that the information required may be obtained, and thus save the land applied for from being sent in for auction sale.

J. HOWARD LOUCHE,

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Corowa.

Sir,

15 May, 1879.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 140 acres 3 roods, which adjoins my conditional purchase or freehold property of 68 acres, upon which I am now residing, or upon which I have resided for three years; and I herewith tender the sum of £35 3s. 9d., being a deposit at the rate of 5s. per acre on the area for which I apply.

This is the first selection made by me in virtue of my conditional purchase or freehold of 68 acres.

I am, &c.,

Description.

County of Denison, parish of Turramia, 140 acres 3 roods, lying west of my conditional purchase of 68 acres taken up on 5th September, 1878, and forming remaining portion of allotment 90 on marked tree; and bounded on west by reserve 296.

Mr. H. T. Whitty to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Turramia, Corowa, 26 May, 1879.

I beg respectfully to call your attention to the fact that a Mr. H. A. Hough did select at Corowa, on the 15th instant, 140 acres of the 1,280 acres I applied to purchase on the 24th of April, in virtue of improvements I had effected. The same man previously selected about 200 acres of land of the same portion of land, which was also improved. All my improvements were completed by 1 July, 1877, and the land I now apply for in virtue of these improvements is reserve 296A, as surveyed at that date. The actual cost of the improvements selected by Mr. Hough is £150, beside the fact of his land coming to within 5 chains of a large tank and other valuable improvements of mine. Under these circumstances, I have the honor to request that you will caution Mr. H. A. Hough not to occupy the land till the value of my improvements are appraised.

With reference to your application of the 24th April, 1879, to purchase, in virtue of improvements, the portion of land specified in the margin hereof, I am directed to inform you that your application cannot be complied with, as the land is situated within reserve 296A, notified 29 December, 1865; the sale is considered objectionable. Mr. G. H. Holmes to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir, 21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, Sydney, 22 July, 1879.

I have the honor to inform you that my client, Mr. J. C. Whitty, applied under the 2nd clause I.P. 79-888, J. C. Whitty. for 1,280 acres of land, parish Turramia, county of Denison; such application has however been refused on the grounds that the land applied for was situated within reserve No. 296, and the improvements effected during the currency of reservation.

I now beg to advise you that 200 acres of the whole area applied for never formed part of reserve 296, as the recent survey shows that the eastern boundary of the reserve was extended too far.

I would therefore respectfully request that, as my client has improved the 200 acres to over £1 per acre, and it never formed part of the reserve, to be allowed to purchase this area under his application.

I have, &c.,

Mr. G. H. Holmes to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir, 21, Exchange Buildings, Pitt-street, Sydney, 22 July, 1879.

I have the honor to inform you that Mr. H. A. Hough has selected 140 acres of land on Turramia Run. The land applied for was supposed to be included in reserve No. 296, but this is an error, as the subsequent survey shows it to be outside of the reserve, and the land as applied for by Hough was improved to over £1 per acre by my client, Mr. Whitty, the lessee of the run, prior to the date of the conditional purchase application. G.P. 79-34, Corowa.

I would therefore respectfully request that the conditional purchase applicant may be warned not to interfere with the land until a report is obtained to verify my statement as to improvements.

Sir, Camp, near Mulwala, 21 December, 1879.

I beg to transmit herewith an amended plan of one portion of land containing 208 acres 3 roods, numbered 90, in the parish of Turramia, county of Denison, surveyed for auction sale under instructions (vide letter 78-34), dated 21 February, 1878.

Improvements have been made on the land by Mr. Whitty, the lessee of Turramia Run, as follows,—fencing, £38, since former survey by me.

All old survey marks have been obliterated which have not been utilized.

The original plan of this survey was forwarded by me under my letter of 20 August, 1878.

No. 14.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir, Lassington, Mulwala, 14 July, 1880.

As the Surveyor's report on my 140 acres, parish Turramia, county Denison, is no doubt sent in before this reaches you, I venture to trouble you again to learn if it is possible to get my land fenced in at once, if I am to have it in whole or part, as my lambs are coming on, and I am badly in want of the grass; I am so comparatively hemmed in by reserves, as you are I am sure aware, that it is quite impossible to get any more land contiguous, so under these circumstances I hope you will strain a point and let me have it, after the very patient hearing you gave me when I last saw you in company with Mr. Day, and recollecting the very cordial way in which you shook my hand after learning I was almost a towney of yours, I fancy I shall not appeal to you in vain. I could have told you a great deal more, but did not like intruding on your time. I am quite sensible of the honor you did me in shaking my hand so warmly, and feel sure I have got a friend in you, for I really only ask what is just, and not a favour. Being a Herefordshire man yourself, and I having spent nearly all my youth there in the holidays, visiting my cousins there, near Ross and Hereford, by name Dowle, Hartland-street, White and Newman, all gentlemen farmers, well to do, I anticipate good results, although as you said you are but the Political Head of the Department. I have been really badly used by Whitty, as Mr. Day knows, and he has gained nothing but my injury. Apologizing for troubling you, and asking the favour of a reply from you personally, and hoping by-and-bye to see you in Sydney and have a long talk over old times and scenes,—

I have, &c.,
HENRY A. HOUGH.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir, Corowa, 28 August, 1880.

I wrote you some time ago and got no reply, re the 140½ acres of land I saw you in Sydney about, and would most respectfully urge you to make it all right in accordance with your promise. I would earnestly earnestly beg you to have it made right at once, if you can, as I have rented all my and my children's conditional purchases to Whitty, glad for peace at any price, but he will not pay one farthing rent for that or the 152½ acres waiting to be legalized in special Bill, until it is done; so you see I am actually losing the rent of near 300 acres of land I bought and paid for, and for God knows how long. Do, if you can, hurry it to a completion, for I really cannot afford to lose some £40 a year when I am very hard pushed to meet all demands, and pay 20/ in the £. After the kind way Mr. Day said you spoke of me after leaving Sydney, I am sure you will oblige a near neighbour in a righteous cause.

With my best wishes,—

I have, &c.,

No. 16.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

Corowa, 1 September, 1880,

Many thanks for your very courteous and prompt reply to my communication of 28th August, which, I need hardly say, has given me much gratification, and I now may, I think, look on that business as settled in a most satisfactory and just way. No other improvements other than those named were on portion 90, so I imagine it would be quite futile Mr. Whitty having any appraisalment on that portion, after the very impartial way in which he has been treated; in short, if he was anxious for justice to be done to his claim he has obtained it in a proper way. Once again thanking you most sincerely,—

I have, &c.,

HENRY A. HOUGH.

No. 17.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

H. A. Hough's conditional purchases, 78-78 and 79-34, and Whitty's improvements. It does not appear that letters 79-6,408 and 79-8,822 Miscellaneous (Mr. Whitty protesting against H. A. Hough's conditional purchases 78-78 and 79-34, and claiming the land in virtue of improvements) have been replied to.

Upon reference to the enclosed papers, it may be seen that Mr. Whitty's application 79-888 to to purchase 1,280 acres in virtue of improvements, and including the land conditionally purchased by Hough, was refused, as the land had been improved during the currency of reserve 296A, notified 29th December, 1865.

It is now pointed out by Mr. Whitty that part of the land, viz., the 200 acres comprised in portion 90, and being the land conditionally purchased by Hough, is not and never was within the reserve, and consequently he is entitled to purchase that land in right of improvements.

From the Surveyor's report, an extract from which is enclosed, it may be seen that the improvements upon the portions (92 to 95) within the reserve were of insufficient value, on the 13th June, 1878, to debar the whole of the land embraced by those portions, and there is nothing to show that the land has been still further improved; not that additional improvements on the portions within the reserve should affect portion 90, covered by Hough's conditional purchases.

It is gathered from Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Creed's letter that, in December, 1879, the improvements on portion 90, a fence, were worth only £38, and therefore insufficient to bar the conditional purchase of that portion.

It is recommended that Mr. Whitty be informed that his protest against the conditional purchases of Hough cannot be allowed, but it is open for him to prove that other improvements than those specified were upon portion 90 at the date of Hough's conditional purchases, or he may, in the usual manner, apply to have the improvements appraised.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 23 September, 1880.

With reference to your letter of 28th ultimo, requesting that an early settlement may be arrived at in regard to the case of the conditional purchase noted in the margin, disputed by Mr. J. C. Whitty, who claims the land in virtue of improvements, I am to inform you that an application made by Mr. Whitty to purchase 1,280 acres in virtue of improvements, and including the land conditionally purchased by you, was refused, as the land had been improved during the currency of reserve 296A, notified 29 December, 1865. It is now pointed out by Whitty that part of the land, namely, the 200 acres insufficient in portion 90, and being the land conditionally purchased by you, is not and never was within the reserve, and he therefore claims to be entitled to purchase that land in right of improvements. It is gathered from a communication received from Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Creed that the improvements on portion 97A, a fence, were worth only £38, and is therefore insufficient to bar the conditional conditional purchase of that portion. I am therefore to state that, under the above circumstances, Mr. Whitty has been informed that his protest against your conditional purchase cannot be allowed, but that it is open to him to prove that other improvements than those specified were upon portion 90 at the date of your conditional purchase, or to apply in the usual manner to have the improvements appraised.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 23 September, 1880.

With reference to your letter of 22nd July, 1879, protesting, on behalf of Mr. J. C. Whitty, against the conditional purchase noted in the margin, on the ground of its containing improvements to the extent of over £1 an acre effected by him, I am to inform you that it appears from a communication received from Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Creed on the subject, that in December, 1879, the improvements on portion No. 90 (in which is comprised the land conditionally purchased by Mr. Hough), consisting of a fence, were worth only £38, and therefore insufficient to bar the conditional purchase of that portion.

2. I am therefore to state that Mr. Whitty's protest against Mr. Hough's conditional purchase cannot be allowed, but it is open to him to prove that other improvements than those specified were upon portion 90 at the dates of Mr. Hough's conditional purchases, or he may apply in the usual manner to have the improvements appraised.

In reply to your communication of the 23rd ultimo, in reference to the conditional purchase noted in the margin, we would draw your attention to the fact that we have this day lodged at the Treasury (as per memorandum hereon) the sum of £1 1s, with a view of having an appraisement instituted to determine the value of the improvements effected by our client, Mr. J. Appointment of appraiser to determine the value of improvements forming matter of dispute.

WHEREAS on the 15th May, 1879, Henry A. Hough applied to purchase, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of land as hereunder described; and whereas J. C. Whitty protests against such conditional purchase, on the ground that the land contained improvements at the date of Hough's application of sufficient value to bar selection, now I, the Minister for Lands, in pursuance of the powers vested in me, under and by virtue of the Lands Acts further Amendment Act of 1880, do hereby appoint William Cowley, Licensed Surveyor, of Albury, in the Colony of New South Wales, to be the appraiser to determine the value of the said improvements on the land in question at the date it was conditionally purchased by Henry A. No. 25.

Mr. Appraiser Cowley to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report of Mr. Appraiser William Cowley, respecting the improvements effected upon portion 90A, containing 140 acres 3 roods, in the parish of Turramia, county of Denison.

Sir,

Burraja, 29 October, 1881.

In accordance with your instructions, I have the honor to report that the improvements upon the above-mentioned portion were personally inspected by me, that I ascertained they were commenced and completed upon the dates specified against them respectively, and that I found them to be of the following description and value:—

Description of improvements.	When commenced.	When completed.	Value.
140 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres, ringbarking.....	August, 1872.....	August 1877, @ 1s.	£ s. d. 7 1 0
110 acres, gathering all dead and fallen timber, and burning off.....	May, 1877.....	Sept., 1877, @ 5s.	27 10 0
61 chains 60 links, log fence.....	May, 1877.....	Sept., 1877, @ £52 per mile...	40 1 0
		Total.....	£ 74 12 0

These improvements were made at the expense of J. C. Whitty, and are now the property of J. C. Whitty. Without exception, they have not been previously used to satisfy a claim in virtue of improvements; they are without exception of a fixed and permanent character; and without exception they render more beneficial the occupation and use of the land.

Remarks.

In accordance with the regulations, notice in writing was forwarded, on the 3rd October last, to J. C. Whitty and Henry A. Hough, that a Court of Appraisement would be held at the "Post Office Hotel," Mulwala, on the 22nd October. The inquiry was conducted in open Court, at the place named, on the 22nd instant, and the following persons were present and gave evidence:—Henry T. Whitty, Samuel Lee, John Woodward, and Neil M'Donald. The minutes of evidence are transmitted herewith. An area of about 50 acres might be measured to embrace the log fence and part of the clearing, but it would be objectionable on account of the length being so much in excess of twice the width.

No. 26.

Mr. Appraiser Cowley to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Appraisement of Improvements upon land in dispute between J. C. Whitty, Turramia, and Henry A. Hough, Turramia.

Sir,

Buraja, 29 October, 1881.

In transmitting the attached award, I have the honor to state that the appraisement was made strictly in accordance with the requirements of the regulations under the Lands Acts further Amendment Act of 1880.

Fourteen days' notice in writing of the time and place appointed for the holding of it was given to J. C. Whitty, Turramia, and Henry A. Hough, Turramia.

It was conducted in open Court, at the "Post Office Hotel," Mulwala, on the 3rd October, 1881, and during the investigation there were present the following persons, who were examined as witnesses, upon oath:—Henry Tarrilton Whitty, Samuel Lee, John Woodward, Henry Arthur Hough, Neil M'Donald.

With respect to the evidence, minutes of which are forwarded herewith, and the general merits of the case, I may state that, as both parties admit that the improvements on portion 90A, parish of Turramia, shown in my report and this award were effected prior to the 15th May, 1879, and from the evidence adduced but little difference of opinion exists as to the value of such improvements; it would therefore appear that the only question at issue is, whether these improvements are so effected and of sufficient value to entitle the lessee to purchase the portion in dispute or any part thereof in virtue of such improvements. The whole virtue of the improvements on portion 90A being £74 12s. is equivalent to only 10s. 6d. per acre on the total area of 140 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres, and the ringbarking and clearing being spread over the whole portion, it is evident that the log fence is the only improvement in virtue of which any area could be measured so as to embrace improvements to the value of 20s. per acre, and to measure an area (say) of about 50 acres, to embrace the log fence, and that area of clearing and ringbarking would I consider be objectionable and contrary to the regulations of the Department, on account of the length of the portion being somewhat in excess of twice its width.

The prescribed declaration was made previously to the appraisement, and my letter of appointment is herewith returned.

I have, &c.,

[Enclosure A to No. 26.]

Award.

To all to whom these presents shall come, —I, William Cowley, of Albury, in the Colony of New South Wales, send greeting: WHEREAS on the 8th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1881, I was duly appointed by the Minister for Lands, in the Colony of New South Wales, as the appraiser to determine the value of the improvements which belong to Mr. J. C. Whitty, Turramia, and which existed on the Crown Land specified below, at the date, viz., 15th May, 1879, upon which it was conditionally purchased by Henry Arthur Hough: And whereas I have entered upon the consideration of the value of the said improvements, and have heard and considered the evidence produced before me: Now I, the said William Cowley, do hereby declare that the improvements specified in the following Schedule were the improvements which existed on the land at the date before-mentioned, and declare that the sums set against them respectively were the values of the said improvements at that date:—

Description of improvements.	When commenced.	When completed.	Appraised value.
140 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres ringbarking	August, 1872	August, 1877	£ s. d. 7 1 0
110 acres, gathering all dead and fallen timber and burning off	May, 1877	September, 1877, @ 5s.	27 10 0
61 chains 60 links log fence	May, 1877	Sept., 1877, @ £52 per mile...	40 1 0
		Total.....	£ 74 12 0

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 29th day of October, 1881,—

WM. COWLEY,
Appraiser.

Description of land referred to.

Portion 90A, containing 140 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres, parish of Turramia, county of Denison.

The improvements were made at the expense of Mr. J. C. Whitty, Turramia, and are now the property of J. C. Whitty, without exception; they have not been previously used to satisfy a claim in virtue of improvements; they are without exception of a fixed and permanent character; without exception they have been effected bona fide for the working and beneficial occupation of the land for pastoral purposes; and without exception they are still in existence.

WM. COWLEY,
Appraiser.

[Enclosure B to No. 26.]

Henry Arthur Hough, being duly sworn, saith :—I selected portion 90A, in the parish of Turramia, on the 15th May, 1879; the land was improved as follows, at the date of selection :—A chock and log fence on the east boundary, which I value at £50 per mile when erected; I consider it was erected about two years previously; the whole area was ringbarked, but a great many of the trees were not killed and are living still, they will require ringbarking again; I estimate that one-half of the trees are still living; I value the ringbarking at 1s. per acre; I consider it will cost 6d. or 8d. per acre to ringbark the trees not dead; about 110 acres of the land the fallen timber was gathered and burnt off, the cost of which would be about 2s. 6d., as I do not consider it heavily timbered; in reply to Henry T. Whitty, I am not prepared to say whether there is a single relative on the southern portion of this block; I consider 110 acres will require re-ringbarking; there are more trees left on this portion for shade and splitting purposes than I consider requisite; I have made a declaration with reference to my selection in the same parish for clearing and burning off the dead timber, which I think was 5s. or 6s. per acre, but the land was more heavily timbered than this portion.

Taken and sworn before me, at Mulwala, this 22nd day of October, 1881,—
Wm. Cowley, Appraiser.

HENRY A. HOUGH.

Neil M'Donald, being duly sworn, saith :—I know the portion 90A, parish Turramia, selected by Henry A. Hough; I value the log fence at the present time at £45 per mile; I value the clearing of dead timber and burning off at 3s. 6d. per acre, and the ringbarking value 1s. per acre; some of the trees in the north part of the portion have been badly ringbarked and are still growing, the middle and lower part is well ringbarked; about one-third of the area is badly ringbarked.

In reply to T. H. Whitty: I consider it is worth 6d. per acre to gather and burn off the timber that has fallen during the last two years.

Taken and sworn before me, at Mulwala, this 22nd day of October, 1881,—
Wm. Cowley, Appraiser.

NEIL M'DONALD.

John Woodward, being duly sworn, saith :—I am a contractor for bush work, and have lived in this neighbourhood about eighteen years; I know portion 90A, in the parish of Turramia; it was improved prior to being selected by Henry A. Hough; the improvements consisted of ringbarking the whole area, value 1s. per acre; the clearing and burning off dead timber comprises about 110 acres, which I value at 5s. per acre; log fencing, which I valued at £52 10s. per mile; I have been paid 5s. per acre for clearing dead timber and burning off in country similar to this, which I considered heavily timbered; I have known other contractors paid 5s. per acre for clearing similar country.

Taken and sworn before me, at Mulwala, this 22nd day of October, 1881,—
Wm. Cowley, Appraiser.

JOHN WOODWARD.

Samuel Lee, being duly sworn, saith :—I am a selector on Turramia Run; I know portion 90A, in the parish of Turramia—it was improved more than two years ago, and prior to the land being selected by Henry A. Hough; the improvements consisted of ringbarking, clearing and burning off fallen timber, and log fencing; the clearing was well done; I consider the ringbarking worth 1s. per acre; the clearing, gathering fallen timber, and burning off, value 5s. per acre; the log fencing I value at £50 per mile; I am accustomed to work of the above character.

In reply to Henry A. Hough: The land was not very heavily timbered, but there was a great quantity of fallen timber on it; about 110 acres of the land was cleared of dead timber and burnt off; I do not know what Mr. Whitty paid for any of the clearing; I should not like to pay £2 10s. for grazing the bullocks—if the contractor for the log fence.

Taken and sworn before me, at Mulwala, this 22nd day of October, 1881,—
Wm. Cowley, Appraiser.

SAMUEL LEE.

Henry Tarlton Whitty, being duly sworn, saith :—I am the lessee of the Turramia Run; I know the portion of land numbered 90A, in the parish of Turramia; this land was improved at the date of Henry A. Hough's application to purchase as a conditional purchase, 15th May, 1879, as follows :—Ringbarking the whole area at 1s. 6d. per acre, clearing all dead timber, bark, and other rubbish off 110 acres, the timber having been ringbarked four years previously, at 5s. per acre; 61 chains 60 links of heavy log fence, valued at £55 per mile—total value, £79.

In reply to Henry A. Hough: That the 140 acres was ringbarked by two parties, and that 1s. per acre was paid for part thereof, and 9d. per acre for the remainder; I do not know the names of the contractors for the ringbarking; the sum of £52 10s. per mile was paid to the contractor for the log fence; the sum of £2 10s. per mile was added for expense of paddocking bullocks and supervision of the work.

Taken and sworn before me, at Mulwala, this 22nd day of October, 1881,—
Wm. Cowley, Appraiser.

Memorandum by Surveyor-General.

It is suggested that Mr. Cowley be instructed to make his award. He has only furnished a report, which is of no use in finally settling the contention. As it does not appear that the appraiser extended the time, the award, if now made (the ninety days expiring on 8th instant), would perhaps be irregular and fresh proceedings would have to be instituted. It would therefore be as well to issue fresh appointment.

[Alienation Act.]

Declaration of conditional purchaser, under the 18th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861. I, HENRY ARTHUR HOUGH, of Corowa, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am the lawful owner, by conditional purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, of the land hereunder described, and that improvements, consisting of hut, 78 chains post, rail, and wire fencing, ringing and burning off, and to the value of £100, have been made on such land; and I declare further that the said land has been the bona fide residence, continuously, of myself from the period of selection and first occupation to the present date, and that no alienation of the land has been made by any of the abovenamed holders until after the residence thereon of such holder for a period of one whole year. And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Memorandum.

In this case Henry A. Hough conditionally purchased, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, portion 90A, containing 140 acres 3 roods, parish of Turramia, county of Denison. J. C. Whitty, the Crown lessee of the run on which the land is situated, protested against Hough's application, on the ground that the portion contained improvements of sufficient value to bar selection. In view of this protest, the question of the value of the improvements was referred to appraisement. Mr. Licensed-Surveyor William Cowley conducted the appraisement. It will be seen from the appraiser's award that the improvements at date of selection were of the value of £74 12s. The appraiser reports that these improvements, with the exception of the log fence, cannot be included in an area proportionate to their value, measured in accordance with regulations; the land being a measured portion at date of conditional purchase, and no subdivision fee having been paid, it is submitted that under recent decisions the selection must be declared void. J. McG., 13/12/82.

It should be pointed out that some slight discrepancies appear in the appraiser's award and report. In the award it is stated that the Court was held on 3rd October last, and in the report the date the report was held is given as the 22nd October. The award was not made within the sixty days, and it is not stated by the appraiser that the extension of thirty days was availed of. These, possibly, do not affect the validity of the award, and no difficulty might be raised in giving effect thereto.—J. McG., 13/12/81. This appears to be an error, as all the evidence was on the 22nd October.—F.W.M., on oath.

Submitted for approval.—F.H.W., 14/12/81.

By the Under Secretary:—If the decision of the Supreme Court in Moore v. Banholt is to be in any way considered in connection with this case, it would be well to defer final action until the full Court decides. I do not think the award being overdue need be noticed, as all the parties appear to have been present at the Appraisement Court.—C.O., 14/12/81.

By the Secretary for Lands:—I concur.—J.H., 15/12/81.

Re-submitted. It is presumed the conditional purchase will be declared void.—F.H.W., 10/3/82.

By Under Secretary for Lands:—Chief Commissioner, as to any action he may deem proper to recommend.—C.O., 13/3/82.

By the Chief Commissioner:—I do not think there is any sufficient ground for the cancellation of this purchase, the land not being improved to £1 per acre wholly or in part. But if the selection is allowed to stand, it should be on the clear understanding that it will be at the holder's risk should any legal proceedings be taken against him by the lessee, consequently upon the decision of the Supreme Court as to improvements on measured land. It would probably be advisable, in the circumstances, that the portions should be withdrawn from lease.—A.O.M., 24/3/82.

Report by J. Sydney M'Phillamy, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Henry A. Hough, made at Corowa, on 5th September, 1878.

Sir,

Albury, 31 Aug., 1882.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 30th August, 1882, and that I found the selector then not resident upon the selection.

C.P. 78-78.
County Denison, parish Turramia, portion 90, section 13.

The land, which consists of mixed forest, and comprises 68 acres, is occupied and used by the selector as grazing land, and the selector, who follows the avocation of a grazier, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Hut or gunyah, one room	£2	0	0
Over 1 mile 6-wire fencing	65	0	0
Ringing the area by lessee	4	5	0
						£71	5	0

From the appearance of the land, and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has not been continuously resident upon the selection.

The residence is very doubtful in this case, and I would recommend that the case be sent to a Commissioner.

Your favour of 2nd April to hand, containing receipt for rents, 1883, of C. C. Hough and S. E. N. Hough, with your memo. intimating that S. E. N. Hough's rents are two years in arrear. I am much surprised to hear it, and think there must be some mistake, for in 1881 Mr. Hough drew £170 from Bank, as my cheque-book shows, and paid it to the Lands Officer in Corowa, to pay all my rents, including those now in question (not receivable in Corowa), and he (Mr. Louche) promised to forward rents in question to Sydney and forward receipts to me. I was from home at time, and could not attend to it personally. I cannot lay my hands on receipts in question, but will make further inquiries, and doubt not I can clear up the mystery. Of course, should they not turn out paid, I must be content to pay twice; but I know mistakes are made in Land Department in the way of sending all receipts, for one occurred this year, and I had to apply for a receipt, it not being made out.

No. 43.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir,

Pardon the liberty I take in writing, but the urgency of my case demands it. I could not see Mr. Oliver and get papers re my petition for compensation through the heavy law costs incurred in defending two actions at law, claiming £4,000 damages through the unfortunate circumstance of my selection being wrong (land already surveyed), whereby I incurred £500 expenses in defending them and it is not yet over, for I am now waiting in Sydney defending a third action for balance of costs, which has cost me another £100, and if I lose the case it will cost me £200 more at least. All this arose through my land being wrongly surveyed, and it is doubly hard on me, for it was surveyed before I selected it; as far as one conditional purchase is concerned it has almost ruined me, by causing me to mortgage my land heavily to pay costs, and what is more I am a bona fide selector, and came here with my family to make a home and not to sell out as numbers do, and thereby defeat the intentions of the Act. I never have parted and never will part with an acre of my land if I can help it, but want to settle my family on it after my days. I am in great distress of mind through having to leave my home now and wait on law Courts; my young family are left quite unprotected, and worse still I have not been able to put any crop in this year through death of horse and sheep and cattle; in last year's drought I incurred heavy loss. I only want fair remuneration for my heavy losses. Mr. McElhone and Mr. Geo. Day can testify to the cruelty and hardship of my case. I do, sir, devoutly hope you will cause the papers in my case to be laid before you and the House, and give it your most serious consideration. The case would not have been so bad had I not fallen into the hands of unscrupulous lawyers who betrayed me into the hands of Whitty, and whose iniquitous and unjust extortion I am now defending in Supreme Court. If you would kindly appoint a time to meet me, you would confer a boon on one who has been most harshly treated. Were I not able to prove all I say by indisputable written evidence you could not believe it. With my best respects,—

I have, &c.,

HENRY ARTHUR HOUGH.

No. 44.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Sydney, 17 June, 1883.

Mr. Oliver being absent, and Mr. Moriarty not knowing the whereabouts of my petition and papers relative to compensation for the heavy losses I sustained in defending two Supreme Court actions in 1878, at the suit of Whitty, lessee of Turramia Run, induces me to write you on the matter, and urge upon your consideration my claim for compensation for the litigation arising therefrom, which is not yet over. As I am now in Sydney, near 500 miles from my home, with no one but my young children to look after it (my eldest boy being only 13 years old), and I have been waiting here near three weeks for the third action in the Supreme Court to come off—set down for the 6th instant. I am compelled to defend it on principle alone, the final claim being for £65 balance of my solicitor's costs, and this small amount has already cost me £100 for lawyer's and barrister's fees, since I have been in Sydney, to raise which I have had to incur a heavy overdraft at the Bank, my property being already heavily mortgaged to meet the other and heavy expenses formerly incurred. I have been shamefully persecuted with law and lawyers since I came to this Colony eight years ago, and solely through Whitty, the lessee, whose only motive was to ruin me with law costs, and thereby compel me to sell my land to him. I need scarcely say I have not done so, and never if I can be allowed to remain in undisturbed possession of my home. I did not come here to dummy land or effect black mail, but to colonize the waste land and make a home for myself, and rear my family in respectability, that they in due time might found homes for themselves, and thereby fulfil the honest intentions of the Land Act. I brought £2,000 with me to the Colony, paid my own and my wife's passage from England here, and settled on the land at the invitation of a paternal Government, which invites people here, and even pays their passage to induce them to come. I have never never parted with an acre of land but invested every penny I had in it, and never mean to part with it if the Government will but grant me the same protection it extends to its prisoners in the gaol. I only ask for common fair treatment, as I like the Colony and my family like it, and I intend, if I am not driven away by its unjust laws, to end my days here. I am forty-seven years old, have worked hard and undergone many hardships to make a home, and throw myself on your power and mercy to mete out justice to a cruelly used man. My land, it is true, was legalized in 1881, but the two actions occurred in 1878. What with having passed through two severe droughts and law costs, I am heavily in debt. I have no crop in this year, through inability to pay a man to put it in, and death of horses and sheep last year, and earnestly request your serious attention to my petition lying with you. With best respects,—

I have, &c.,

H. A. HOUGH.

Kindly write me a line in reply now, that I may know if I can do any more now I am in Sydney. Mr. Hoskins, the former Minister, promised me he really would urge my claims, knowing the justness of them, but, as you know, nothing has been done, and I do not know whether my petition has ever been laid before the House. Through the worry and trouble I have undergone in connection with it my health has become seriously impaired, so much so that for many months past sleep has been a stranger to me, and, in short, I am ordered a sea voyage for the benefit of my health, but cannot of course go until I have funds to take me, and I am made secure in the possession of my home by being able to resist all attempts to drive me out.—H. A. HOUGH.

The Commissioner of Conditional Purchases to The Chief Commissioner.

REPORT of an inquiry held at Sydney, on the 16th November, 1883, by the Commissioner for the Western Division, respecting the conditional purchase of Henry Arthur Hough, made at Corowa, on the 5th September, 1878.

Sir,

I have the honor to transmit herewith, for the consideration of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, minutes of evidence taken at an inquiry under the "Lands Acts Amendment Act of 1875," held by me in pursuance of the reference notified in the Gazette of the 15th November, 1883, in the matter of the above described conditional purchase.

The claimant having been duly served with notice of the time and place of holding the inquiry, was present thereat.

The following facts bearing upon the fulfilment by the selector of the conditions of purchase were elicited in evidence, viz. :—

This is one of those always more or less unsatisfactory cases where the selector, being a married man and having a comfortable home for his family upon a conditional purchase on which the conditions have been fulfilled, resides apart from them on a fresh selection, under the 13th section. I have no reason to doubt the accuracy of Mr. Hough's statements as to his residence under the circumstances mentioned, which appears to have been as fairly carried out as was practicable. If therefore corroborative testimony is not held to be indispensable, as the improvements are sufficient.

I have therefore to report that I find such conditions to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be upheld.

I have, &c.,

Department of Lands, Sydney, 16 November, 1883.

INQUIRY under the provisions of the "Lands Acts Amendment Act, 1875," into the matter of the fulfilment of the conditions of residence upon the conditional purchase of 68 acres, situated in the county of Denison, parish of Turrarnia, made by Henry Arthur Hough, at Corowa, on the 5th September, 1878.—Henry Arthur Hough, on oath, states:—I am the claimant of the conditional purchase the subject of this inquiry; I lived on the conditional purchase for two years continuously, and made it my bona fide home, except when absent on necessary business, slept and had my meals there; for the

the last twelve months I was absent during the week but returned to the selection every Saturday night, remaining there until Monday or Tuesday; I am a married man, and my wife and some of my family lived on a conditional purchase of mine about a mile distant, upon which the conditions had been fulfilled, and my son frequently lived with me on my conditional purchase; I lived apart from my family, sleeping on the selection nearly every night; during the three years I was more than three-fourths of my time on the selection, and it was my only fixed place of abode for the period mentioned; I did not move my family, as they had a comfortable residence on my original purchase, and were near a school for my children; during the last twelve months my family were living on a place I bought some 16 miles distant; the inspection was made a year after the time for the fulfilment of the condition of residence had expired; I valued the hut at £5—it was a comfortable hut—with the exception of improvements to the value of £38 on the land at date of selection; I put up the improvements at my own cost, and partly by my own labour; I was assisting at their erection the whole time, and value them now at £100 at least.

No. 47.

Mr. H. A. Hough to The Chief Commissioner.

Dear Sir,

Sydney, 23 November, 1881.

Happening to hear, quite by chance, that my selections,—viz., 68 acres and 140½ acres—upon which I made my unfortunate declaration, were actually forfeited and in the Government Gazette of last week, I venture to ask if it is true, for I have carefully looked over the Gazettes of last week with a clerk in this Department and can find no such record. Would you kindly inform me if such is the fact, that I may rest contented. I cannot leave Sydney without knowing. If you will not issue my grant, I am sure you will allow me an opportunity in open Court to prove my bona fide residence by other witnesses than myself. Kindly answer this or see me.

I have, &c.,

H. A. HOUGH.

P.S.—I had it from a Member too.

WITH Mr. Lyne's compliments, will the Minister place (after reading) this letter with other papers in connection with Hough's selection of 140 acres, about which there is some dispute.—5/12/83.

[Enclosure A to No. 48.]

Mrs. M. Hough to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

I wish to submit to you the following facts in connection with our selections at Turramia, near Corowa:—I, with my husband and family, came from Victoria about 1875 (eight years ago), with the intention of settling here. At that time infants could select, and we selected for our children, and my husband also selected in his own name. This being the case, from that time until now our home has been scattered. The residence provision compelled me to go and live on the selections at various times with my husband and children, that they might comply with the law. The infants could not go and sleep upon their selections alone. My husband was most careful in fulfilling all conditions. Had he not have been so he would have been reported by the lessee of the run, who served him with two writs for £2,000 each for damages for trespassing on his own purchased land, wrongly surveyed by the Government before selection, and since legalised by Act of Parliament, passed in August, 1881, which his own attorney admitted on oath in Supreme Court in June last he never thought to get, but intended to issue writ after writ to harass him and ruin him by costs, that he might hunt him off the land and compel him to sell out. Defending which, and calling him from home so much, has nearly ruined him, and put him in debt at least £1,000, and is not yet ended, as two more Supreme Court actions are now pending in connection therewith, and my husband and myself are now in Sydney waiting trial, and our young children left at home with no protector, and our business quite gone to ruin through continued litigation and absence from home. I went, at great inconvenience to myself and family, on many occasions and stayed with my husband in his house on the land now in dispute as to residence, that his life might not be so lonely, and only moved to a spot near a school (after near six years' residence on Turramia), where I could educate my children, now fast growing up. My husband occasionally came to us, but was always most careful to fulfil the residence on his selection, and in fact was at work with a hired man, and put on all the improvements with his own labour. Had we not taken the course we had it would have been impossible to secure sufficient land to live upon, as it was fast being selected, and all surrounding land is now entirely gone. For the sake of our home, and for the sake of our family, I sincerely trust there may not be delay in giving us the small selection there is now a difficulty about. I do not ask you to do anything you may not consider strictly just, but I do feel you must consider us as belonging to the most bona fide class of selectors in the Colony, and who would only under the most extreme circumstances sell one acre of land we hold; in fact, the continued litigation we have endured (six years) would never have occurred had we been merely adventurers—merely taking up land to sell out. We have only 1,800 acres, which, after paying all expenses with the extreme vicissitudes of the seasons, and having lost nearly all our stock in two droughts, leave a bare competency to rear a family on.

I have, &c.,

MARIA HOUGH.

[Enclosure B to No. 48.]

Declaration.

I, MARIA HOUGH, of Turramia, near Corowa, do solemnly and sincerely declare that I, with my husband, came to New South Wales in 1875, when infants could select; that we selected on Turramia for our children; that I had to make my home in several places to enable them to comply with the residence clause; that my husband also selected land; that since that time our home has been a most unsettled one; that my husband took up the 140½ acres now in dispute; that he has bona fide fulfilled the residence; that after my children's residence was completed I moved away near a school to educate them; that my husband remained on his selection and made it his home; that I sometimes went at great inconvenience and stayed with him to make his life less uncomfortable and lonely; that he and a hired man did all improvements. And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, and in virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various Departments of the Government of New South Wales and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Made and signed before me, at Sydney, this 6th day of December, 1883,—

MARIA HOUGH.

No. 11.

Mr. M. Fitzpatrick to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

251, George-street, 19 July, 1877.

On behalf of Mr. M. Comans, of Combaning, I venture to ask your kind interposition, under the following circumstances:—Mr. Comans' son John selected at Wagga Wagga, on the 7th August, 1873, two portions of land, 200 and 100 acres, in the county of Clarendon, parish of Sebastopol. The selector at once went into occupation, but unfortunately he died in November following. These lands were not measured, as the records of the Survey Office will doubtless show, until October, 1876, and Mr. Comans, reading the Act in 1875 as the great majority of people read it, did not perceive that he was called upon to make declaration or take any other action for three years from that date; but without any notice to him the selections were gazetted as lapsed on 7th May last.

I now enclose a declaration made before me by Mr. Comans of the material facts of the case, and I ask that you will reverse the forfeiture on these grounds:—

- 1st. Under the Act of 1875, Mr. Comans is entitled to claim three years, from October, 1876, for the completion of his improvements, the bulk of which are already made.
- 2nd. Mr. Comans having become the owner of these selections by process of law (he is heir to his son) is not required to reside on the land. There was therefore strictly no grounds for the forfeiture, unless it be the non-payment of interest, which he is prepared to rectify.

I have, &c.,

MICHAEL FITZPATRICK.

Declaration.

In the Colony of New South Wales.

I, MICHAEL COMANS, of Combaning, in the district of Wagga Wagga, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that on the 7th day of August, 1873, my son, John Comans, selected at Wagga Wagga two portions of land, in the county of Clarendon, parish of Sebastopol, containing 200 acres and 100 acres, respectively; that on or about the day of November, 1873, my said son died, leaving me his heir; that my said son during his life duly resided on the said 100 acres, and commenced to improve the same; that improvements have been constructed on the said 100 acres to the value of over £1 per acre, and on the 200-acre block to the value of five shillings per acre; that these selections were not surveyed until the month of October, 1876. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in the various Departments of the Government of New South Wales, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the more entire suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Memorandum.

THE purchases were declared lapsed in Gazette, 7th May, 1877. Mr. Fitzpatrick, on behalf of Mr. Comans (whose deceased son was the rightful owner of the land), states that the declaration was not sent in on account of Mr. Comans believing it unnecessary to do so until three years had elapsed from the date of survey, which did not take place until October, 1876.

A

A statutory declaration has been received, setting forth the facts of the case, and Mr. Fitzpatrick, on behalf of Mr. Comans, requests an extension of time be granted, and the lapsing be reversed. He should perhaps be informed that as the first purchase is under the 13th clause, it was necessary that a declaration as to residence should have been made, and that until this document has been received no action can be taken in the matter.

Mr. P. Cullen to The Chief Commissioner.

Report by Patrick Cullen, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of John Comans (minor), made at Wagga Wagga, on 7th of August, 1878.

Sir,

Parish Sebastopol, county Clarendon, 7 August, 1878.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 25th November, 1878, and that I found the selector, John Comans, then non-resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of box timber, red soil, and comprises 200 acres, is not occupied and used by John Comans as his residence, and the selector had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

There has been a house, but of no value.

Sheep-yard, about half an acre, enclosed by a split fence ... £20 0 0

All rung 25 0 0

Dam or tank, about 1,200 yards 100 0 0

Total £145 0 0

From the appearance of the land, and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has not been continuously resident upon the selection.

P. CULLEN,

Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

No. 39.

Mr. A. J. Cape to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,
32, Hunter-street, Sydney, 25 May, 1883.

I beg to commend to your notice the following circumstances:—
According to my instructions, on 7th August, 1873, John Comans selected at Wagga Wagga the conditional purchases noted in the margin.

On 7th May, 1877, these conditional purchases were declared lapsed (John Comans having died in the meantime). On the 22nd of November, 1880, the lapsing was reversed, and in June, 1880, a Court of Inquiry having been held, the conditional purchases it is presumed were passed.

The lands in question were sold by Michael Comans, the administrator of John Comans, deceased, to Henry Arthur Palmer and David Blair, the Crown Solicitor's certificate having been obtained and transfer signed, but through some inadvertence the transfer was not lodged, nor was the annual interest from the 7th August, 1876, to date paid.

The conditional purchases were on 2nd instant gazetted as lapsed for non-payment of interest.

Under the circumstances, I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to reconsider the decision that has been come to in gazetting the lapsing of the lands, and direct that the same be reversed, on payment of the arrears of interest due to the present time.

As it is very necessary, in the interest of the owners of the selections, that an early consideration be given, I would respectfully ask your attention to the matter with as little delay as possible.

I have, &c.,
A. J. CAPE.

REFERRING to my letter of 11th June last, I have the honor to request that you may be pleased to authorize the Treasury to accept the arrears of interest due on the conditional purchases noted in the margin, paid to that Department to Suspense Account, on 8th ultimo, in accordance with your request of 31st May last, if the decision of the Minister has reversed the lapsing of these conditional purchases.

As this matter is one of great importance in the interest of the owners of the selections, I would respectfully beg your early attention to this matter.

I have, &c.,
A. J. CAPE.

Minutes on No. 42.

It is stated in 83-5,000, paragraph 3, that the lands in question were sold by Michael Comans (the administrator and father of John Comans, the original selector declared) to Messrs. Palmer and Blair, who have now paid the amounts under reference (£87 15s. 9d.) But no certificate of the Crown Solicitor has been noted as furnished, and no transfer in favour of the present claimants.—C.N., 10/8/83.

The conditional purchases herein referred to were lapsed by Gazette notice, 7th May, 1877, for non-receipt of declarations. Declarations were subsequently received, and case reported upon by Commissioner Clarke, upon whose report the lapsing was reversed, on the 22nd November, 1880. The case however was again lapsed on 2nd May last, applicant having failed to pay arrears of interest due, which he was reminded so to do four times. Interest money has now been paid into the Treasury. It is therefore submitted that the lapsing be reversed, and the Treasury instructed to accept the money.—W.B., 16/8/83.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The interest has been allowed to fall into arrears for years, notwithstanding repeated applications to the parties. But it is of more importance to note that the conditions of improvements were never carried out as required by law. There should have been £1 per acre in '77. There was only 10s. in '80. And the conditional purchases having on the former grounds been declared lapsed, the reduction of value to 10s. per acre made in the year 1880 could not apply to old case. I do not think this case is one admitting of the default being at this late period condoned.—A.O.M., 17/8/83.

By the Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—J.S.F., 29/8/83.

Submitted whether forfeited conditional purchase 73-8,112 of 100 acres (portion 12) be sent to auction. Improvements, £145, equal to 29s. per acre.—F.H.W., 12/10/83.

By the Under Secretary:—May be offered.—C.O., 13/10/83.

By the Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—J.S.F., 15/10/83. Mr. Blake.—R.H.D., 16/10/83.

By the Minister for Lands:—I do not wish to punish the selector if the only question is as to whether the interest was paid in due course. I think that the lapsing may be reversed.—J.S.F., 18/10/83.

The Chief Commissioner.—R.H.D., 19/10/83.

By the Chief Commissioner:—See memo. as to improvements.—A.O.M., 22/10/83.

By the Minister for Lands:—It appears that this selection was forfeited or lapsed prior to the passing of the Act of 1880, therefore the lapsing cannot be reversed, as the 2nd clause of the Act of 1880 exempts all selections as regards improvements, and this land was not improved according to law at the date of lapsing.—J.S.F., 23/10/83.

Conditional sale, 83-6,604. Mr. Blake.—Conditional purchase 73-8,112 of 100 acres (portion 12) for auction, with improvements, £145.—R.H.D., 14/11/83.

Should not the portions 11-12 be included within the Sebastopol, Junec, and Eurongilly Gold-fields.—M.O'C. BLAKE, 20th Nov., '83. Mr. George Lewis.

Referring to your letter of 28th July last, and previous correspondence on the subject of the lapsed conditional purchases noted in the margin, and requesting that authority may be given to the Treasury to accept the arrears of interest due on same, paid by you on behalf of Messrs. Palmer and Blair, on account of the purchases in question, and placed in Suspense Account, pending the decision of the Minister thereon,—In reply, I have the honor to state that the interest on the purchases in question has been allowed to fall into arrears for years, notwithstanding repeated applications for same.

In view of the above circumstances, the Minister has decided that the case is one that does not admit of the default being at this late period condoned.

The Treasury has therefore been requested to return the amounts paid for interest, on application for same, and the Treasury receipt forwarded in your letter is herewith returned.

No. 47.

R. Barbour, Esq., M.P., to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir,

Parliament House, Sydney, 21 December, 1883.

Some two months ago this selector appealed to me, saying his selection had been lapsed for delays in paying the instalments, but that he had paid them up since, and the money was in the Treasury.

I waited upon you, and you said you would not deprive a man of his selection for that, and in my presence you made a minute on the papers reversing the voidance and reinstating the selector—see your minute dated 18/10/83.

When the papers went to the Chief Commissioner five days thereafter he made a minute directing your attention to some question about the improvements, and you put another minute on the papers, dated 23/10/83, conflicting with the one made in my presence, and it is this conflicting minute that I now ask you to correct.

The facts of the case are these:—

1. The selections were made in 1873.
2. The selector was a careless man, and omitted to make the declaration at the proper time, and the selections were lapsed, 7th May, 1877.
3. The declarations (two) reached the Department of Lands in 1878, and the case was sent to a Commissioner for inquiry, who reported, 19th June, 1880.
4. The lapsing was reversed, 22nd November, 1880, when the selector understood that all omissions and questions as to improvements were condoned.
5. The selector neglected to pay the instalments when due, and the selection was again lapsed, 2nd May, 1883.
6. It was this last lapsing that you reversed.

After

After I had seen the minute put on the papers by you of the reversing of the lapsing, I advised the selector that the Minister for Lands had reinstated his selection. I only became aware of the subsequent dealings with the case yesterday, when I applied for the certificate.

The reversing of the first lapsing took place after a Commissioner's inquiry had taken place, and after the Department were fully aware of the extent of the improvements; and this was six months after the Act 1880. The selector believed that all his deficiencies had been condoned, and at the time I applied to you the only question was the delay in paying the instalments.

I therefore request that you will correct the minute of 23/10/83, and reinstate the selector.

Truly yours,
ROBT. BARBOUR.

CLAIM OF CHARLES STEVENS.

REPORT.

THE SELECT COMMITTEE of the Legislative Assembly, appointed on the 30th October, 1883,—“with power to send for persons and papers, to inquire into and report upon the matter of a claim made by Charles Stevens, and arising out of the action Pearson v. Stevens, tried in the Supreme Court,”—have agreed to the following Report:—

1. Your Committee having examined the witnesses named in the List,* whose *See List, page 5. evidence will be found appended hereto, find as follows:—

- (1.) That on the 26th October, 1880, Charles Stevens, junior, a minor, selected two blocks of land, Nos. 76 and 100, containing 640 acres, on the Wonjagong Run, near Forbes, such blocks having been gazetted for thirty-one days previously as open for selection.
- (2.) That Charles Edmund Pearson, the lessee of the said run, had previously held these blocks by virtue of purchase at a Sheriff's sale, without residence.
- (3.) That the said Charles Edmund Pearson entered an action against Charles Stevens, junior, and Charles Stevens, senior, for trespass upon the said land.
- (4.) That the result of the trial was that the forfeiture of the land by the Crown was upheld, and the right claimed by the lessee of the run to hold land by virtue of purchase at a Sheriff's sale, without residence, was declared null and void.
- (5.) That the said Charles Stevens, senior, in defending his son's title to the said conditional purchase, virtually settled, on behalf of the Crown, a most important point in the administration of the Land Law, and incurred an expense, in so doing, of £624 2s. 11d.

2. Your Committee, therefore, in view of the extreme hardship of the case, recommend the claim of Charles Stevens to the most favourable consideration of the Government.

Chairman.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON THE

CLAIM OF CHARLES STEVENS.

THURSDAY, 29 NOVEMBER, 1883.

Present:—

MR. VAUGHN,
MR. DAY,MR. BARBOUR,
MR. COONAN,

MR. STOKES.

ROBERT MATTESON VAUGHN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Charles Stevens called in and examined:—

1. Chairman.] You are a selector, near Forbes? Yes.
2. You selected on the Wongagong Run? No; my son, Charles Stevens, junior, a minor, selected there.
3. About what time was this selection taken up? On 28th October, 1880, I think.
4. Had the land been previously gazetted as open for selection? Yes, for thirty-one days.
5. Did your son take possession of the land? Yes.
6. Did he make any improvements upon it? He did a little; he had three years to make the improvements in, and there was no hurry.
7. Was an action afterwards commenced by Mr. Pearson, the lessee of the Wongagong Run, against your son? Yes.
8. How long had your son occupied the land before that action was commenced? Very near twelve months before he was served with a writ.
9. What was the nature of Mr. Pearson's claim to the land? The land—two measured blocks of 490 acres and 150 acres—had been selected by John William Taylor, and purchased by Mr. Pearson at a Sheriff's sale. He brought an action in the Supreme Court against my son for trespass on this land.
10. What was the result of the action? A verdict for 40s. damages was given against my son.
11. Mr. Coonan.] The verdict was given against your son, on the ground that the land had been improved to the extent of £40? Yes.
12. And your son was mulcted in the costs of the action? Yes.
13. I believe in that action you gave evidence yourself, did you not? Yes.
14. And in giving your evidence in that action, you admitted that certain stock of yours was running on your son's selection with your son's stock? Yes.
15. With his permission? Yes.
16. I believe that, after that action was decided, a writ was issued against yourself for the trespass committed by your stock running on this land? Yes.
17. Did you make any application to the Government to defend the action? Yes.
18. What application did you make? I applied to the Government, through Mr. Armstrong, the land agent, to defend the action.
19. The Government did not take up the case, did they? No.
20. The action went on and was tried in the Supreme Court? Yes.

Mr.
C. Stevens.
29 Nov., 1883.

Mr.
C. Stevens.
29 Nov., 1883

21. On the case coming on for trial, do you remember whether there was an arrangement entered into that a verdict should be entered for the defendant and certain points reserved for the consideration of the full Court? Yes.
22. Which points the Court decided against you, and a verdict was then entered for the plaintiff for 40s. damages? Yes.
23. On the case going to the full Court, did you make application again to the Government for assistance—did you make application to the Government to take up the case and argue the points of law? Yes, to pay my expenses.
24. Chairman.] Because they were as much interested in the decision of these points as you? Yes.
25. Mr. Coonan.] Did the Government do so—did they engage counsel? Yes.
26. The Government engaged counsel and paid them? Yes.
27. Did the Crown Solicitor appear to instruct counsel? Yes.
28. What was the result of the argument before the full Court—was it in your favour? It was.
29. The decision of the full Court was that Charles Stevens, junior's, selection was a good and valid one? Yes.
30. And that being so, and it having been proved that you had his permission to run your cattle on the land in question, the verdict was entered against Mr. Pearson? Yes.
31. You are quite certain that the action brought against you for trespass was for trespassing on the same selection in respect of which a verdict was given against Charles Stevens, junior, in the previous case? Yes.
32. Mr. Day.] Then virtually the verdict given against Charles Stevens, junior, was erroneous and bad? Yes.
33. Mr. Coonan.] Your son did not go for a new trial in the case in which the verdict was given against him? No.
34. The reason for his not going for a new trial in that case was because he was completely ruined by defending the action? Yes.
35. It was after the verdict had stood in the first case, no new trial having been moved for, that the action was brought against you? Yes.
36. Only for your defending your own action in the second case, and going to the full Court, your son would have been ousted from his selection? Yes.
37. Your son was put to a lot of expense in defending the first action, was he not? Yes.
38. Have you any idea what the costs were? Over £500.
39. Chairman.] Did you pay those costs? Yes; I had to borrow the money from the Commercial Bank to pay them.
40. Mr. Stokes.] Are you prepared with a schedule of the costs? No.
41. Mr. Day.] Have you not the solicitor's bill? No.
42. How did you pay the costs without having the bill—did not your solicitor give you an account of the expenses in this action? No, I went and paid him as it went along; he never sent me any bill of costs; but I know I have laid out the money I have stated through the case.
43. Your solicitor never furnished you with an account? No, but I expect to get an account; I do not owe him much now, or he would have sent me an account long ago. I paid him as it went on.
44. What became of this land—who owns the land now? Another party altogether.
45. Was it taken away from your son? Yes.
46. Did your son allow the land to be taken up by somebody else after hearing the result of the action by Mr. Pearson against you—did he not take any action after that to establish his right to this land? No.
47. Why did he not? Because he had not the means.
48. It was on account of his being ruined? Yes.
49. What became of the land then? Another party selected the land.
50. Up to the decision of the Supreme Court in your case Mr. Pearson held this land by virtue of having purchased Taylor's right to it at the Sheriff's sale? Yes.
51. And by virtue of that he brought the action against you? Yes.
52. After the decision of the Supreme Court the land was open for selection? Charles Stevens, junior, was allowed to be the selector then; another party selected before the case was finished.
53. Mr. Coonan.] Who was that? William Stevens.
54. Mr. Day.] Did your son take no steps to establish his claim after the decision of the Supreme Court? No.
55. The selector who took the land up, William Stevens, kept it? Yes, he has it now.
56. Although he interfered with your son, and brought an action against him, Mr. Pearson did not interfere with the other selector? No.
57. Did you know the other selector? Yes.
58. Is he your son? Yes.
59. He has the land now? Yes; and the one who has paid all the costs has got no land.
60. Did your son, Charles Stevens, junior, make application to the Government for assistance? I made the application.
61. You made application to the Government on your son's behalf for assistance to defend the action? Yes.
62. Did the Government refuse? Yes.
63. Mr. Coonan.] When Charles Stevens, junior, was defending the action brought against him, he applied to the Government for assistance, and they refused to give it to him? Yes.
64. Mr. Day.] Has Charles Stevens, junior, made application to the Government at any time since that for compensation? Yes; I have been doing it for him.
65. How have you been doing it? By writing letters.
66. Have you sent the Government an account showing what you claim? I sent the Minister for Justice a letter in which I told him the matter had cost me over £500.
67. Did you give him any detailed account? I sent him an account of what I paid each lawyer.
68. Did you ever get any answers to any of these letters? Yes.
69. Chairman.] I made application for you on one or two occasions? Yes; before there was any trial at all you made application.
70. And afterwards? Yes.

71. Mr. Day.] Then virtually you got no satisfaction whatever from the Government? No.
72. What did they say in the reply they sent you? They said all they had to do was to pay for the full Court's decision.
73. And they would not recognize any claim of your son? No.
74. Have you got any documentary evidence to show that? Only what Mr. Coonan has in his hand now.
75. Was that a written letter? Yes.
76. And you have had it printed? Yes; I got it printed to send to Members of the House. (Letter referred to handed in and read. See Appendix A.)
77. Your son still considers that he is entitled to compensation from the Government? Yes.
78. Are you aware on what ground he claims compensation? On the ground of the cost he was put to in defending the action.
79. Chairman.] That you were defending an action which the Government should have defended? Yes.
80. Mr. Day.] Why should the Government have defended that action? ———
81. Mr. Coonan.] Was it not to prove the legal interpretation of the 18th section of the Act of 1875? Yes.
82. Which up to that time had been a disputed point? Yes.
83. Mr. Day.] The action established the fact that the Government were as much interested as you were in having this question settled? Yes; it threw all the land open, and it has been selected since.
84. Therefore your son considers, and has considered all along, that the Government were even more interested than him in the issue of this action? Yes, on account of showing the point up.
85. Mr. Stokes.] This case of yours virtually decided the question that purchasers of conditional purchases at a Sheriff's sale were under obligation to fulfil the condition of residence in the same way as the original selectors? Yes.
86. Up to that time it was considered that residence was not required after a Sheriff's sale? Yes.
87. Mr. Pearson, having purchased at a Sheriff's sale, proceeded against you for trespass? Yes.
88. You were actually fighting the case for the Government? Yes.
89. The Government so far recognized your position as to contribute towards your legal expenses? Yes.
90. Mr. Day.] But the Government never contributed towards your son's expenses? No.
91. Mr. Stokes.] Have you the date of the cancellation of this selection? No.
92. You knew at the time you selected the land that it was open for selection? Yes.
93. Thirty-one days had elapsed between the date of cancellation and the date of selection? Yes, that was proved in Court.
94. Then there was no legal obstacle to your son's selection? No.
95. How long was your son in possession before Mr. Pearson asserted his right to the land? I should say about twelve months.
96. Your son went into possession within three months of making the selection? Yes.
97. And he was resident? Yes, until he was put out.
98. I suppose you do not profess to be well up in business matters? No, I am no scholar.
99. The expense you have incurred in defending these actions has been paid from time to time, and you have not kept a complete account of it? No; all I can show is the Bank account—what money the Bank lent me.
100. You claim £500? Yes; I have laid out more than £500 on the case; I laid out £70 before I borrowed a shilling from the Bank.
101. You have no doubt the actual amount of your expenses was fully £500? Yes, over £500.
102. Mr. Day.] What is the name of your solicitor? Mr. McLachlan; his agents in Sydney were Stephen, Laurence, and Jaques.
103. Mr. Coonan.] You have had to come from Forbes to give evidence? Yes.
104. Forbes is your place of residence? Yes.
105. I suppose these cases were going on for twelve months? Yes, more; very near two years.
106. I suppose during that time your son and you were not able to do much in your way of business? No, I had to leave the harvest while I was in Sydney.
107. That cost you a lot of money? Yes, it did; and the surveyor cost me a good deal.
108. And as a matter of fact both you and your son were afraid to occupy the land, the subject of these actions, for fear of further actions, and you had to find other land to run your stock upon? Yes; I had to make away with my stock—I had to take away 500 sheep and sell them.

FRIDAY, 30 NOVEMBER, 1883.

Present:—

MR. COONAN, | MR. DAY,
MR. STOKES.

ROBERT MATTESON VAUGHN, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. Charles Stevens re-called and examined:—

109. Mr. Stokes.] When you were before the Committee yesterday you were not prepared with a schedule of the expenses you were put to in connection with your case: can you produce it now? Yes. (Statement produced.)
110. Chairman.] The statement you produce shows a total amount of £508? Yes, that is as near as my head will carry it; I believe I am a great deal more out of pocket than that.
111. Mr. Day.] Did you get the statement you produce from your lawyer? I have receipts at home showing what the lawyer charged; the rest is money I paid away myself. I can produce receipts for the money I have paid to the lawyers.
112. Does the statement you now show to the Committee contain your son's costs as well as your own? Yes, the law expenses.
113. Do you expect compensation for your son's losses? Yes; they were all mixed up together; I think I should be allowed both.

Mr.
C. Stevens.
30 Nov., 1883.

114.

- Mr. C. Stevens. 114. You expect compensation for yourself and your son? Yes; my son bought, and reaped no benefit.
 30 Nov., 1883. 115. Chairman.] Would you have taken up the selection if you had not seen by the Government Gazette that the land was open to selection? No, I would not.
 116. It was because you saw by the Government Gazette that the land was open to selection that you took it up for your son? Yes.
 117. Mr. Day.] What age was your son when you took up the selection? Somewhere about eighteen.
 118. Were you present at the Lands Office when your son took up the selection? Yes; I acted as agent for him.
 119. Chairman.] I suppose the land agent did not say the land was not open to selection? He said it was open for selection.
 120. Mr. Day.] Your son asked the land agent if the land was open to selection, and the land agent said it was? Yes; the land agent filled up the application himself. It was in the time of Mr. Edwards.
 121. Mr. Stokes.] I think you said you were in possession of the land for twelve months before it was disputed—before you received intimation from the Government? Yes.
 122. Did Mr. Pearson pass any stock over your selection after you had it? No, he never interfered, but his overseer had several times to take the stock off.
 123. You held that to be trespassing, or an encroachment, by Mr. Pearson, up to the time of the action? Yes; it was decided by the Supreme Court that there was no trespass.
 124. Mr. Day.] Are you a selector on Pearson's run now? Yes, me and my family have somewhere about three selections. The section my son took up was the only ground available adjoining my own selection. The selections round about me had all been taken up under the Sheriff's sale system.
 125. Chairman.] The adjoining land had all been dummied? Yes; they were Sheriff's sale selections.
 126. Mr. Day.] Sold by virtue of a decision of the Supreme Court? Yes.
 127. Chairman.] They were taken up by some one in the interests of the run? It was believed so.
 128. Mr. Day.] You were living there, and would be likely to know—and you say that the land about you was dummied? Yes.
 129. Chairman.] There were no residences upon it? Not until after the sale.
 130. The selections were forfeited? Yes.
 131. Mr. Day.] How many of these forfeited blocks were sold? Eight or nine.
 132. By the Sheriff? Yes.
 133. Who had the judgment against the owners of them? Mr. Pearson. The greater part of them were selected a second time; the Government received a second lot of money for them. It is me and my son who have been at the expense, and the Government has received the benefit of it.

WEDNESDAY, 5 DECEMBER, 1883.

Present:—

MR. COONAN, | MR. STOKES,
 MR. DAY.

ROBERT MATTESON VAUGHN, ESQ., IN THE CHAIR.

Thomas MacNevin, Esq., sworn and examined:—

- T. MacNevin, Esq. 134. Chairman.] What are you? Chief Clerk in the Department of Justice.
 5 Dec., 1883. 135. Do you produce certain correspondence called for at the last meeting of the Committee? (Produces papers.)
 136. What are these papers? These are the original papers. One is a letter from Mr. Stevens to our Department, asking for certain compensation in the case of Pearson v. Stevens; and there is a report from the Crown Solicitor, and instructions from the Minister to write a letter thereupon.
 137. And the others? I have prepared copies of the papers in case they might be required. (Hands in copies of the papers. See Appendix B.)

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., called in, sworn, and examined:—

- A. O. Moriarty, Esq. 138. Chairman.] You are Chief Commissioner for the Conditional Sales Branch of the Lands Department? Yes.
 5 Dec., 1883. 139. Do you produce certain papers in connection with the case Pearson v. Stevens? I have some papers here which relate to the case before the Committee.
 140. Mr. Coonan.] Do you know whether a person named Henry William Taylor selected two portions of land on — run about the year 1877? He did. Taylor applied at Forbes, in January, 1877, for two portions, one 490 acres and the other 150 acres, making 640 acres in all.
 141. Do you know what became of those selections, with regard to Taylor's holding them? In 1878, before Taylor had them twelve months, notification was received from the Sheriff transferring them to C. E. Pearson. That notification was not recognized because the selections had not been held for twelve months, and were not transferable under the law. Three years afterwards, that is in 1880, the selections became lapsed, the declaration of the residence by Taylor not having been received. I believe that a declaration was received from Pearson, but it was not recognized, because it was not a declaration by the conditional purchaser, and did not allege that he had resided on it.
 142. Therefore they were declared lapsed? Yes.
 143. This 640 acres was afterwards taken up by Charles Stevens, jun., at the Land Office at Forbes? Yes.
 144. On what date? In October, 1880.
 145. Can you find out from the papers whether Charles Stevens, jun., was ejected from the land, and had to give it up, by reason of any illegality or anything? An action was brought against him by Mr. Pearson, apparently in the Supreme Court, but I have here a précis of the case, prepared by the Survey Department, which I will read and hand in. (See Appendix C 1.) The subdivision of these portions, applied for by Charles Stevens and William Stevens, was approved by Mr. Hoskins on the 13th December, 1881. I may state,

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.
5 Dec., 1883.

state, in connection with the trial against Charles Stevens, that it was mentioned to me in the office by a land agent, that the question of residence in Sheriff's sales was being tried, in this case, between parties one of whom had shortly previously sustained a defeat at the hands of the same plaintiff, in the Court; and I represented to the Minister that, as the question affected the general public, it ought to be fully discussed before the Judges. With Mr. Hoskins' concurrence I consulted the Crown Solicitor at once, and we went together to the Court, where we found that the counsel who had the case in hand had gone to Mudgee, and had handed over the brief to another, who had hardly had time to read it. By subsequent instructions from the Minister for Lands it was arranged with the defendant's attorneys as to the costs of the case, and Judge Innes' decision was given, in accordance with the practice of the Department. The matter went before the Full Court, and the appeal was defended at the public cost, but the Full Court upheld the decision of the Judge.

146. Well, then, the Department looked upon this question as one in which they were interested themselves? Unquestionably. I have here the minute which I submitted to the Minister at the time.

147. I understand you to say that, when you found that the legal interpretation of the 18th section of the Act of 1875 was going to be decided by the Full Court, the Government stepped in and paid the expenses of counsel to have the matter argued properly in the interests of the country? Yes. The paper I am going to read has regard to the case. (Reads minute. See Appendix C 2.) On that Mr. Hoskins wrote the following minute. (See Appendix C 3.) I also wrote to the Crown Solicitor, and I have here a letter from Messrs. Stephen, Laurence, and Jaques, dated September, 1881, in which they say they were acting in a case similar to that of Stevens and Pearson. The Crown Solicitor wrote to me in December, 1881, forwarding a letter from Messrs. Stephen, Laurence, and Jaques, and requesting instructions in the matter. I suggested that the Crown Solicitor might be advised in terms of the Minister's minute. Mr. Hoskins wrote approved, and that, as Mr. Salomon had a general retainer for the Government, it was advisable to retain his services in the case.

148. There can be no doubt that the Government were anxious to have the matter settled by the proper tribunal? None whatever.

149. And they took advantage of this action to appear by counsel at their own expense? I think the case was rather this: that without having any doubt about the legal point, finding that the issue was to be tried before the Judges, the Government were anxious to have it well ventilated, and not settled merely as an issue between the parties.

150. Mr. Stokes.] Did Stevens try at any time to get his money back when he was proceeded against by the lessee—have you any application from him for a refund of his deposit money? I do not think there is any such application as that. I have here a letter dated November, 1880, from Charles Stevens, but I do not observe any application of the kind you mention. In this very case, in the previous stage, with regard to the question of improvements, the practice of the Lands Department, resting on the understood terms of the law, and as affirmed under legal advice year after year, with regard to the value of the improvements necessary to bar selection, was not at all represented before the Court. And whilst I have sometimes been held to account for presuming to say that the judgment of the Supreme Court was not in accordance with the intentions of the Legislature, I repeat now that I entertain that view very strongly, having carefully read the judgment, and having, it so happens, drawn the interpretation clause of the Act of 1861 myself with reference to improvements. I do not believe the Judges could have read that interpretation clause, and in the circumstances I have felt entitled to call attention to it. I do not see how any one reading in that clause the words "not less than £1 per acre" could say that £40 in 640 acres would be sufficient.

151. Chairman.] What inducement was there for Stevens to take up this land—what was the peculiar machinery for voiding Taylor's selection—what was the nature of the advertisement in the Gazette? The declaration not having been received, the selection has become lapsed, and will be offered at public auction, unless previously selected.

152. The effect would be to notify intending selectors that this land was open to selection? The notice is very general in its terms, and possibly might mislead in some cases where improvements existed.

153. Mr. Stokes.] There is nothing in Stevens's application to show that he was cautioned by the agent? No, nothing of the kind.

154. And nothing existed at the time of his application to prevent him taking it up? If the surveyor was correct his application was a good one.

155. And this decision has for ever set at rest the doubt about residence after Sheriff's sales? Yes.

156. Since that decision there has been no notice of action in a similar case? The law was changed in 1880. The question arose under the Act of 1875, and when the case was tried the Legislature had in the meantime altered the law and made it more clear.

157. This action arose in 1880 or 1881, but could only proceed under the old law? The rights had been acquired under the Act of 1875.

158. That decision has cleared away the doubts that existed? I should rather put it that it has cleared away the grounds of any doubts on the mind of parties that the law exempted selectors from residence in such cases.

Charles Stevens recalled and further examined:—

159. Chairman.] Do you produce a list of your costs in this case? I wrote to my lawyers, and here is the answer from them. (Produces letter.)

160. Mr. Coonan.] Do you remember after the action going to the Department and asking for a return of your deposit rather than be put to any inconvenience? Yes, before the case started at all.

161. Who was Minister at the time? Mr. Hoskins.

162. Mr. Day.] That was your son's deposit? Yes; I asked for my son's deposit.

163. Mr. Coonan.] What was the result of the application? The result was that Mr. Farnell, the Minister of the day, refused to give up the deposit, as Charles Stevens, junior, was the rightful owner, and the other person had nothing at all to do with it.

164. Then you having applied for a return of the deposit, and being refused, you had no choice but to go on with the action or lose the deposit? None.

165. You were not anxious to go on with the action; you said you would sooner see him abandon it if he got the money back? Yes, that is so.

C. Stevens.

5 Dec., 1883.

- C. Stevens. 166. Mr. Day.] Did they positively refuse? Yes, on the ground that the selection was good; and when I delivered my message to Mr. Russell he asked me if I could take him before Mr. Farnell, and Mr. Farnell told me the same as I am telling you.
- 5 Dec., 1883. 167. Mr. Coonan.] That if he did not comply with the conditions he would lose his deposit? That was the answer from Mr. Farnell.

CLAIM OF CHARLES STEVENS.

APPENDIX.

[To the Evidence of Charles Stevens, 29 November, 1883.]

A.

Sir, I beg respectfully to draw your earnest attention to the cases hereunder stated, with a view to obtaining the consideration of your Honorable House.

Braulin, Forbes, 2 August, 1882.

I am, &c.,

C. STEVENS.

PEARSON v. STEVENS.

1. On the 28th October, 1880, Charles Stevens, junr., selected blocks 76 and 100, containing 640 acres, on Wongajong Run, in the parish of Braulin, such blocks having been duly gazetted as open for selection.

2. Charles Edmund Pearson, the lessee of the said run, had previously held these blocks by virtue of purchase at a Sheriff's sale, without residence, and, disputing the legality of the selection, entered an action against Charles Stevens, junr., and self for trespass, assessing damages at £1,000 in each case.

3. As the Minister for Lands, who, having gazetted the land open for free selection, was the virtual defendant in the case, refused to act, I determined to act on behalf of self and C. Stevens, junr., he being my son and a minor.

4. The result of this trial, which came three times before the Court, was that the forfeiture of the land by the Crown was upheld, and the assumed right claimed by the lessee to hold land by virtue of purchase at a Sheriff's sale without fulfilling residence was declared null and void.

5. From these facts it will be seen that I was forced into contesting a most important legal point on behalf of the Government, they strangely enough refusing to take action, even in their own cause.

6. This unjustifiable action, with legal expenses, witnesses, &c., cost me at a low estimate £500, and on my applying to the Government to be recompensed as regards my costs I received the following reply:—

"Sir,

"Department of Justice, Sydney, 5 July, 1882.

"In reply to your letter of the 12th ultimo, respecting the payment of your costs in connection with the case Pearson v. Stevens, I am directed by the Minister for Justice to inform you that, as the Government, not being a party to the action, could not appear directly, the Crown Solicitor arranged with your solicitor that Mr. Salomons should appear as your counsel, and that all costs occasioned by his so doing would be defrayed by the Government.

"The costs to be paid by the Government were the costs of Mr. Salomons appearing before the Judge in Chambers and afterwards before the Court, and of your attorney instructing him so to do, and in no way affected the general costs of the action which you now apparently wish the Government to pay."

"I have, &c.,

"THOS. E. MACNEVIN,

"For the Under Secretary."

7. It will thus be seen that the Government intend merely to pay a very small portion of my costs, almost the whole burden falling upon me. And as I have merely fought this case out on their behalf, and have been at the loss of the land, as well as law expenses—for, although I gained the case, by a strange perversion of the law C. Stevens, junr., lost his land—I respectfully submit that my case is one that deserves the consideration of your Honorable House, with a view to my being recouped in the heavy expenses I have, as above stated, been put to merely because my son legally selected land declared open by the Government.

I am, &c.,

C. STEVENS.

[To the Evidence of Thomas MacNevin, Esq., 5 December, 1883.]

B.

Mr. Charles Stevens to The Minister for Justice.

Sir,

Braulin, near Forbes, 12 June, 1882.

I beg respectfully to lay the following facts before you for your information:—

I am defendant in the late important case of Pearson v. Stevens.

As I hear from my agent in Sydney that the Government, who were in effect the real defendants in that case, intend—as I respectfully submit they are bound in justice to—to reimburse me my costs, I beg to submit the following detail of such costs for your information.

For the opening of the case I paid cash to Mr. Whelan, solicitor, Forbes, the sum of seventy pounds stg. (£70). Prior to the case was called on he withdrew, as I refused to make certain admissions in favour of the opposing party. I then put the case in the hands of M'Laughlin & Pileher, solicitors, of Orange, to whom I paid an additional fee of seventy pounds stg. (£70) to carry on the case. As the trial came before the Court in two cases I had again to pay M'Laughlin & Pileher another fee of forty pounds stg. (£40). Subsequently the matter came before the full Court on appeal, and was dismissed with costs against the plaintiff. I may here mention that I understood the Crown Solicitor to state in Court that the Government would be responsible for all costs, in order to obtain an opinion as a test of the question of what is known as the "Sheriff sale" procedure being valid as doing away with the necessity for complying with the residence clause.

Although I thus gained the case, or rather gained it on behalf of the Government, it is thus obvious that I paid no less than one hundred and eighty pounds stg. (£180) for legal fees alone. In addition there were the expenses of three witnesses twice up and down to Sydney, and on the third occasion that of two. There were also heavy expenses incurred by myself travelling to and fro consulting my lawyers, in addition to my loss of time, and various incidental expenses.

The result is that in order to defend my rights I have had to mortgage my property for £500, and have been turned from a prosperous selector to almost a ruined man.

As throughout I merely acted according to law, and selected the land declared open by the Government—as in fact I merely fought out a test question on behalf of the Government—I trust you will see fit to reimburse me my expenses as soon as possible.

I understand that the costs in the case are now being taxed in the Prothonotary's office, and I respectfully request, as my bills are now over-due, that matters be settled with as great dispatch as possible. I have addressed this communication to you; as although I have written various times to my attorneys, Messrs. M'Laughlin & Pileher, I have as yet received no reply from them. Trusting for equitable consideration of my case, —

I have, &c.,

CHARLES STEVENS.

Refer to Crown Solicitor as to real facts, and in what department the matter properly is at present.—16/6/82. W.J.F. The Crown Solicitor, B.C., 17 June, 1882.—W. E. PLUNKETT.

The

The Crown Solicitor to The Under Secretary of Justice.

Sir,

Crown Solicitor's Office, Sydney, 3 July, 1882.

I have the honor to return herewith Mr. Charles Stevens' letter to the Honorable the Minister of Justice, of date 12th June last, and, in reply to the minute of date 16th June, to state that this matter is with the Department of Lands, Conditional Purchase Branch, papers No. 55,596.

The statement made by Mr. Stevens, in his letter, that I stated in Court that the Government would be responsible for all costs, in order to obtain the opinion as a test of the question of what is known as the Sheriff sale procedure being valid is not correct; the question in which the Government was interested was, whether a sale by the Sheriff of the conditional purchaser's interest in land was a devolution of his estate by operation of law which rendered residence by the purchaser unnecessary. The Department of Lands, hearing that this question would be raised in an application in the action Pearson v. Stevens, requested me, by letter of date 13th December, 1881, 53,319-81 C.P., to arrange that Mr. Salomons should appear on such application, on behalf and at the costs of the Government, Dr. Sly being retained on behalf of Mr. Stevens. The Government, not being a party to the action, could not of course appear directly, and I therefore arranged with Mr. Stevens' solicitor that Mr. Salomons should appear with Dr. Sly as Mr. Stevens' counsel, and that all costs occasioned by his so doing should be paid by the Government.

The costs to be paid by the Government were the costs of Mr. Salomons appearing before the Judge in Chambers, and afterwards before the Court, and of Mr. Stevens' attorney instructing him to do so, and in no way affected the general costs of the action, which Mr. Stevens now apparently wishes the Government to pay.

I have, &c.,
JOHN WILLIAMS,
Crown Solicitor.

Inform Mr. Stevens in terms of the conclusion of this letter as marked.—W.J.F., 4/7/82. Mr. Stevens, 5/7/82.

The Under Secretary of Justice to Mr. C. Stevens.

Sir,

Department of Justice, Sydney, 5 July, 1882.

In reply to your letter of the 12th ultimo, respecting the payment of your costs in connection with the case of Pearson v. Stevens, I am directed by the Minister of Justice to inform you that, as the Government, not being a party to the action, could not of course appear directly, the Crown Solicitor arranged with your solicitor that Mr. Salomons should appear with Dr. Sly as your counsel, and that all costs occasioned by his so doing should be paid by the Government.

The costs to be paid by the Government were the costs of Mr. Salomons appearing before the Judge in Chambers and afterwards before the Court and of your attorney instructing him so to do, and in no way affected the general costs of the action, which you now apparently wish the Government to pay.

I have, &c.,
THOS. E. MACNEVIN,
(For the Under Secretary).

[To the Evidence of A. O. Moriarty, Esq., Wednesday, 5 December, 1883.]

C 1.

Précis.

Charles Stevens, C.P. 81-196; William Stevens, C.P. 81-190.

In this case Charles Stevens selected under C.P. 80-151, 28th October, portions 76 and 100 (640 acres), being J. W. Taylor's lapsed C.P., in November, 1880 (vide 80-47,293 C.S. enclosed). Stevens states that he believes improvements to the value of £130 or £140 had been effected by the original applicant (J. W. Taylor), and requested that a subdivision might be allowed should the whole area applied for, 640 acres, not be available, as he anticipated a difficulty with the lessee of the run. This letter was sent on to Mr. L.-S. Duffy for report as to whether the improvements referred to were so situated as to admit of measurement, in accordance with the regulations, of an area corresponding to their value. By the surveyor's report (81-33,127 C.S.) it appeared that improvements to the value of £84 (not including ploughing) had been effected on the two portions (£70 on portion 76 and £14 on portion 100); it was pointed out by the surveyor, however, that part of the improvements above referred to had been effected by the lessee of the run, during the currency of Taylor's C.P., viz., on portion 76, hut and fencing, valued at £31 7s. 6d., and fencing on portion 100, valued at £9 7s. 6d.

Before any action was taken on the surveyor's report, the whole of the papers were obtained, by order of the Supreme Court, in connection with the case Pearson v. Stevens, and the case decided against the conditional purchaser. "The question of the value of the improvements being left to the Jury, they found that the value of the improvements on each measured portion was above £40, and accordingly returned a verdict for the plaintiff." (Vide enclosure to 81-35,000 C.S. herewith.)

William Stevens now applies for "450 acres, being the remainder of portion 76 which will be left after allowing for the portion which the Minister for Lands may decide is improved."

Charles Stevens also applies for "110 acres, being the balance of measured portion 100 which will be left after the Minister for Lands shall have decided which portion is improved."

Although, according to the decision of the Supreme Court that improvements to the value of over £40 had been effected on each measured portion at the date of C. Stevens' application (80-151), such improvements are not so situated as to admit of measurement in accordance with the regulations of an area corresponding to their value, as may be seen on reference to the accompanying tracing.

The practice of the Department has been that, if improvements to the value of £40 or upwards on a conditional purchase were not so situated as to admit of their being embraced in a measurement, in accordance with the regulations, of a portion of corresponding area, such improvements would not bar C.P. It is therefore submitted whether under the circumstances of this case such practice is to be departed from, and the subdivisions now applied for disallowed, or whether the subdivisions should not be made as indicated by red lines on the tracing, so as to exclude from the C.P.s those parts of the portions containing the more valuable improvements.

It may be pointed out that no action appears to have been taken on C.P. 80-151, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court referred to. It is presumed that under the verdict given by the Jury the purchase is void, and consequently the deposit should be refunded. In the case of this C.P. no subdivision fee was paid.

CHAS. E. FINCH,
(For Surveyor-General).
9 Sept., 81.

B.C. The Chief Comr. Con. Sales.

The verdict had reference apparently to the eligibility of the whole area of the measured portion for conditional purchase, as containing improvements exceeding £40 in value, and will not affect the applications for subdivision, which may be dealt with apart from the general question of improvements. The red lines on the tracing indicating the subdivision applied for, and which it may be assumed from this report is unobjectionable on general grounds, may I presume be approved.

The question of the value necessary to exempt a measured portion from selection must I presume now be considered settled by the decision here quoted and a former one. I do not hesitate to say, with a full sense of responsibility, that I believe this decision to be contrary to the intentions of the Legislature.—A.O.M., 12/9/81.

C 2.

C 2.

Minute by Chief Commissioner of Conditional Sales.

I AM informed that in a trial now pending in the Supreme Court, and which is to come on for hearing early next week (Pearson versus Stevens), the question to be tried will depend upon the validity of the forfeiture of a selection transferred by the Sheriff, and forfeited for non-residence by the transferee.

Acting upon the opinion of the Crown Law Officers that section 18 of the Lands Acts Amendment Act, 1875 (since repealed), exempting from the condition of residence persons acquiring land by testamentary disposition or operation of law, did not apply to voluntary purchasers from the Sheriff, of land subject to that condition, many such purchases have been, after inquiry as in that Act provided for, declared forfeited, and the lands afterwards dealt with as Crown Lands. There is reason to believe that great abuses were attempted under that section in cases of the class described, and in view thereof the action of this Department has been somewhat stringent. The question was recently brought under the view of the present Attorney-General, in connection with the somewhat similar case of purchasers from the Official Assignee of an insolvent estate, and Mr. Wisdom wrote an opinion under date 21/9/81.

It is now submitted that it is very undesirable that a question so important, involving the action of the Government in a variety of cases, should be settled by the judgment in a trial between parties, at least without its full bearings being argued in the public interest; and I venture to submit that the Honorable the Attorney-General might be invited to consider the subject, with a view to some arrangement being authorized for counsel to be retained in connection with the defendant's case, or otherwise as may be thought expedient.—A.O.M., 26/11/81.

C 3.

Minute by Secretary for Lands.

I CONCUR with the suggestions of the Chief Commissioner. The issue about to be tried in the Supreme Court in the case Pearson v. Stevens is so important, as affecting the administration of the law by this Department, that it is of the very highest importance that the Crown should be represented at the forthcoming trial by the ablest counsel whose services can be retained. I would beg to call the attention of my hon. colleague the Attorney-General to the urgency of this case, as well as to the fact that up to the present time this Department has always held that the sale of a conditional purchase by the Sheriff does not absolve the purchaser from the fulfilment of the condition of residence.—J.H., 26/11/81.

GEORGE DOUGHERTY'S CONDITIONAL PURCHASE.

REPORT.

THE SELECT COMMITTEE of the Legislative Assembly, appointed on the 14th February, 1884,—“with power to send for persons and papers, to inquire into and report upon the matter of the forfeiture of George Dougherty's conditional purchase made at the Lands Office, Gunnedah, on 18th May, 1876,”—have agreed to the following Report:—

1. Your Committee having examined the witnesses named in the List* (whose evidence will be found appended hereto), find as follows:— See List, page 5

1. That on the 18th day of May, 1876, George Dougherty applied to purchase, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, 317 acres of land situate on the Bando Run, being measured portion No. 60, County Pottinger, parish Calala.
2. That, consequent upon the report of Mr. H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, an inquiry was held at Tambar Springs, by Mr. Commissioner Delaney, as to fulfilment by the said George Dougherty of the condition of residence on the said conditional purchase, when the evidence of the said George Dougherty and Henry Vincent Geary, and that of James W. Jones and William Grace, the superintendent and sheep overseer respectively of the said Bando Run, was taken, and the said Commissioner reported that he found condition of residence not to have been fulfilled, and therefore recommended that the said conditional purchase should be forfeited.
3. That the recommendation for such forfeiture was approved on the 3rd December, 1878.
4. That the statutory declaration of fulfilment of conditions of residence and improvements, as required by section 18 of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, was duly made and lodged at the Lands Office, Gunnedah, by the said George Dougherty, on the 25th day of June, 1879, and the first instalment of £15 17s. on account of the said conditional purchase paid by him and credited at the Treasury.
5. That a further inquiry into the fulfilment of the condition of residence by the said George Dougherty was held at Tambar Springs, before Mr. Commissioner Delaney, on the 31st July, 1879, when the only evidence taken was that of John Smith and John Sharp, and the Commissioner reported as follows:—“I respectfully submit there is nothing in the evidence to warrant me altering the recommendation in my report of the 5th September, 1878; and I have therefore to report that I find such conditions of residence not to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be forfeited.”
6. That no action appears to have been taken by the Department upon such further report until the month of December in the following year, when the recommendation that such forfeiture should be adhered to was approved.
7. That no intimation appears to have been given Dougherty that it had been decided that the purchase should be brought forward for forfeiture until the 7th February, 1880.

8. That the said George Dougherty paid his annual instalments of £15 17s. on account of the said conditional purchase, for the years 1879, 1880, and 1881.
9. That in consequence of a letter from Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co., praying for a rehearing of the case, the same was referred to Mr. Commissioner Delaney for that purpose.
10. That an inquiry by way of a rehearing was accordingly held at Tambar Springs, before Mr. Commissioner Delaney, on 1st December, 1881, when the evidence of the said George Dougherty and James William Jones, and that of Robert Sharp, W. Ryan, and John Pryor was taken, the whole of which indicated the fulfilment of conditions of residence and improvements by the said George Dougherty, and the Commissioner reported as follows:—"I have therefore to report that I find such conditions * * * * * to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be
11. That notwithstanding such evidence and report, the forfeiture originally decided in 1878 was approved, and the land subsequently sold by the Crown to the Messrs. White, the owners of Bando Run.
12. That Mr. Commissioner Delaney, when examined by your Committee, explained that he made no recommendation as to forfeiture or otherwise in the report of the last inquiry, as it had to be decided by the Minister, and not by him. And further, that with reference to his last inquiry, if that had been the only occasion it had come before him, considering the evidence given by Dougherty on that occasion, he should have recommended that the selection be allowed.
13. That, in addition to the payment of the deposit of £79 5s. on application for the said conditional purchase by the said George Dougherty, he effected improvements on the same valued at £340, and further paid three annual instalments of £15 17s. each, on account of the said conditional purchase, making in all a sum of £466 16s.; and further, that he the said George Dougherty valued his said conditional purchase at upwards of £2 per acre.

2. Your Committee are of opinion that the conditions of residence and improvements in respect of the said conditional purchase were complied with by the said George Dougherty, and therefore recommend his case to the favourable consideration of the Government.

MINUTES OF EVIDENCE

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE

ON

GEORGE DOUGHERTY'S CONDITIONAL PURCHASE.

THURSDAY, 20 MARCH, 1884.

Present:—

MR. GOULD, MR. BARBOUR,
MR. BURNS, MR. DAY, DR. ROSS,

ALBERT JOHN GOULD, Esq., IN THE CHAIR.

Abram Orpen Moriarty, Esq., called in and examined:—

- 1. Chairman.] You are Chief Commissioner of Conditional Purchases? Yes.
- 2. Do you produce the papers in the case of George Dougherty's conditional purchase? Yes, I have the originals here. The papers have been printed from these. (Papers produced.)
- 3. Will you refer to the original of the report of Mr. Delaney, on page 11 of the printed papers, No. 22? This is, I think, his third report.
- 4. The final report? Yes. I think I see enough here to show that the printing of this document would convey an erroneous impression as to the meaning of the writer. I observe that this report contains no recommendation, but the last paragraph is printed in this:—"I have to report that I find such conditions to have been fulfilled, and to recommend that this conditional purchase be and there it stops. It will be seen that this is a report on a printed form, and that there is a blank between the words "conditions" and "to," which has not been filled up, nor has any recommendation been made at the end of the passage. In fact, Mr. Delaney having reported twice previously that the conditions had not been fulfilled, and recommended that the conditional purchase should be forfeited, on this occasion made no further report or recommendation, but simply forwarded the additional evidence taken by him for the consideration of the Minister, omitting however to strike out these words of the printed form, which are meaningless as they stand in the original. I am speaking from memory, and under correction, of course.
- 5. Mr. Burns.] What was the final recommendation? There was no recommendation—it is merely a report of the evidence taken at a re-hearing. Mr. Delaney had twice previously reported that the conditions had not been fulfilled, and that the selection should be forfeited.
- 6. Chairman.] On this third occasion there was additional evidence, was there not? Yes. I think perhaps it will be well if I give the references in chronological order. By commencing at the last report the case is rather inverted. In 1877 the Inspector of the district reported that George Dougherty was not resident on his selection, and on that report the case was referred for investigation to Mr. Delaney. Mr. Delaney held an inquiry, and took evidence on oath from Inspector Geary, Mr. John William Jones, Mr. William Grace, and George Dougherty himself; and he found that the condition of residence had not been fulfilled, and recommended forfeiture. In November, 1878, the case was considered by the Minister of the day, Mr. Farnell, who approved of a recommendation of mine, in accordance with the Commissioner's report. On two subsequent occasions re-hearings were allowed; after the first of which, in 1879, there was a further report by Mr. Delaney, accompanied by sworn evidence, which was submitted to to Mr. Hoskins, in January, 1880, who also approved of a recommendation of mine, in accordance with the Commissioner's report, that the forfeiture should be adhered to. Again, at the request of Messrs. H. H. Brown & Co. and some other parties, a further inquiry was allowed, the report of which is dated in January, 1882; that was submitted to Sir John Robertson, whose decision confirmed that given by his two predecessors. Subsequently to that there was an application for a remission of the forfeiture, and a re-hearing by H. H. Brown & Co.

7. Chairman.] Nothing further was done in the way of inquiry? These representations were submitted to Sir John Robertson, who, on a review of the case, declined to alter his decision.

8. Referring to this third report of Mr. Delaney, is it usual to have these reports sent in without any recommendation? No. I find that in this case there is a remark on the margin by Mr. Blackman, calling attention to the fact that there was no recommendation.

9. Mr. Delaney was not communicated with by the Department with reference to that omission? No; the Commissioner had already expressed his view of the case, and the evidence taken by him at this re-hearing was submitted to the Minister for his decision. The Commissioner was told to make a third inquiry, and forwarded the evidence without offering any further opinion, making no recommendation in fact.

10. It seems to me hardly consistent with your statement, that he had not modified his opinion, when he states that he finds "such conditions to have been fulfilled"? I have already stated my belief that that arises from the Commissioner having allowed the words of the printed form to remain in his report uncanceled: and from their being, for convenience, so printed as to form part of his report, which requires additional words to be written in the blanks to make it intelligible; the naked words of an incomplete sentence, as printed, leave a false impression.

11. Mr. Barbour.] How could you submit your conclusion to the Minister, and how could the Minister form his opinion, without having a recommendation there? I formed my impression of the case, and so, I presume, did the Minister, from the sworn evidence taken at the several hearings.

12. Chairman.] Do you not observe that the evidence is summarized by Mr. Delaney in this report, and that it all goes to show that the conditions had been fulfilled by Dougherty? I do not take it so. Much of this evidence relates to a period subsequent to the forfeiture. The forfeiture was ordered in 1878, and this evidence relates to a period within three years of the selection the original forfeiture having been ordered two years after the selection, on the ground that the condition of residence had not been fulfilled.

13. This summary makes it appear that Dougherty resided on the selection and made it his home for three years and three months? [The Chairman read the evidence of James Sharp and John Pryor, page 12 of the printed papers.] It is not for me to question the views of the Chairman or the Committee; I dealt with the case according to my lights, and submitted my views to the Minister; I could do no more.

14. Are you aware that Mr. J. W. Jones, the manager of Bando Station, was not managing or residing at Bando for the first twelve or eighteen months after Dougherty first took up his selection? I do not know anything respecting Mr. Jones's movements. Mr. Jones gave evidence at the first inquiry.

15. And also at this last inquiry: if you refer to the evidence on the last inquiry you will see he says he came to Bando in January, 1878; the selection was taken up in 1876? Yes, I see that.

16. You will see there is no evidence whatever adverse to Dougherty's? I beg pardon; I thought I had conveyed sufficiently clearly that this was the last of a series of examinations, the first having been held on 5th September, 1878; and these subsequent inquiries were considered in the light of how far they would tend to show that the decision arrived at in the first instance was correct or erroneous. The decision arrived at in the first instance was on sworn evidence, amongst which there was evidence by Dougherty, by Inspector Geary, and by Mr. Jones. In his first evidence, in September, 1878, George Dougherty stated: "In three weeks from the date of selection I resided on the conditional purchase, and resided on it continuously for eighteen months; since that occasionally; I have no other home, nor had I since I first went, as above stated, to live on the conditional purchase." Inspector Geary says: "On 19th May, 1877, I inspected conditional purchase taken by George Dougherty at Gunnedah, * * * when I inspected, applicant was not resident on the land; there was nothing to indicate residence but a bark humpy—nothing in it whatever."

17. That was the only time Mr. Geary seems to have inspected the selection? That is the only evidence he gave. Mr. Jones's evidence in September, 1878, is rather important—it is certainly much fuller than his last evidence. He says:—"I am superintendent, Bando station; I reside there; I know the conditional purchase taken by George Dougherty at Gunnedah, area 317 acres, I believe; I have seen the conditional purchase frequently, but I have never seen any one residing on it; there is a hut on the land; I have looked into it, but I never could see any indication of residence whatever."

18. Mr. Barbour.] How do you reconcile that with his statement in December, 1881, that he knew "George Dougherty had a gunyah on his conditional purchase in 1880, in which at that time he believed he slept"? Very easily. The evidence relates to two different periods, one in 1878, the other two years afterwards.

19. Chairman.] Do you know what payments were made on account of interest on this selection? I have a memo. that the first instalment was received in 1879.

20. Dougherty made the usual declaration? Yes.

21. Can you tell me what has been done with the land since the forfeiture of the selection. I see it was advertised for sale by auction under notice of 29th August, 1882? I see there was a sale to be held on 4th October, 1882, but I do not observe whether it was sold or not.

22. Dr. Ross.] In the first report sent in by Mr. Delaney was there any evidence taken on behalf of the selector? The selector's own evidence.

23. What was the evidence taken on behalf of the lessee of the run? I presume the manager, Mr. Jones.

24. Did any one prior to Dougherty's application lay claim to these 317 acres—was there any previous application? In these papers I observe a reference in my own notes to a conditional purchase in the name of Robert Sharp as being very similar to this, and I find that was cancelled. I find a memorandum on Sharp's papers showing that Sharp's selection had been sold by auction, and that the auction sale had been cancelled on the ground that the land was conditionally purchased. I observe, in fact, throughout these proceedings the interest of Messrs. White cropping up; I have not myself had any communication with any parties on account of Messrs. White, but I do observe that up to a certain stage Messrs. White took an interest adverse to the selector, and that, apparently owing to some negotiations between Messrs. White and Dougherty for the purchase of this selection, the opposition then ceased.

25. Mr. Burns.] There is no evidence in these papers of Messrs. White having bought the interest of Dougherty? I think there is a letter from or on behalf of Messrs. White with the papers, but I have had many conversations with the agents and other parties on the case, and my impressions in what I have just stated may have arisen therefrom.*

A. O.
Moriarty,
Esq.

20 Mar., 1884.

26. You will see in Mr. H. C. White's letter, page 14, he says: "Dougherty certainly ought not to expect me to help him out of his difficulty, because he did all he could to injure and annoy me while he held the land." That and the other parts of the letter would convey the impression that he was inimical to Mr. Dougherty? I have a clear impression in my mind that prior to this period, when the selection had been forfeited, Messrs. White must have had some negotiations with Dougherty. I remember making a remark to one of the parties who called on me—Mr. H. H. Brown, I think—that if the forfeiture were remitted, the effect would be merely to put Messrs. White in possession of the selection without the conditions having been carried out.

27. Dr. Ross.] Who is in possession of this land now? I do not know.

28. Chairman.] Has it been sold by auction? I do not know, but I can ascertain. It was advertised for sale in October, 1882, but I am not now able to state with what result.†

John Delaney, Esq., called in and examined:—

29. Chairman.] You were a Commissioner under the Lands Act in 1882? I was.

30. Do you recollect holding an inquiry with respect to the conditional purchase of George Dougherty? Yes; I think it is four or five years since I made the first inquiry; I made two or three inquiries, and sent in all my reports to the Lands Department.

J. Delaney,
Esq.

20 Mar., 1884.

31. Will you refer to your report of the inquiry held on the 1st December, 1881, and read it through—will you read the final paragraph? I gave no opinion then with regard to the matter; I considered it doubtful; I did not then recommend it to be forfeited, as I had done previously.

32. Mr. Day.] Did you not say in this report—"I have therefore to report that I find such conditions to have been fulfilled"? I did not fill in the blank—I left the matter for the consideration of the Minister, on the evidence, because I considered it a very doubtful case. I had previously made two or three inquiries, and had then made a report and recommendation. The evidence was contradictory. That of Mr. Jones and Mr. Grace at the previous inquiries contradicted Dougherty's. Jones and Grace swore positively that the improvements were not on the land, and that the residence had never been performed. The fact is that my reports were not final—it was all subject to the Minister's decision. In various cases I had sent in reports and my recommendation was reversed; so that when I had any doubt at all in the matter I made no recommendation at all, and therefore left it blank. It had to be decided by the Minister—not by me.

33. Dr. Ross.] On three occasions you reported on this case? Yes, I believe I did.

34. On the first two occasions, I understand, you reported that the condition of residence had not been fulfilled, and recommended that the conditional purchase should be forfeited? Yes.

35. On the third occasion you stated—"I have therefore to report that I find such conditions to have been fulfilled"—Did you find that the condition of residence had been fulfilled? No, I have endeavoured to explain that I made no report or recommendation, but simply forwarded the evidence to the Minister. I left the thing blank. It was no use my making a report one way or the other as the matter then stood. I had reported twice previously.

36. Why did you not in your third report confirm your two previous ones—why did you say the conditions had been fulfilled? I did not say they were fulfilled. Those are merely the words of a printed form, and I did not fill up the blank. I did not report that they had been fulfilled. If I had, I should have recommended that the selection should have been allowed.

37. Mr. Burns.] These words at the bottom of your report are part of a printed form, and should have been struck out? Yes.

38. You did not do that? No.

39. Did the evidence at the last inquiry go to show that the conditions had been complied with? As I said before, I would not like to give an opinion, because in a number of cases that came before me there was more false swearing, in my opinion, in proportion to the number, than in any other Court in the Colony. They always had the matter arranged beforehand.

40. This summary of the evidence given by you in this report would lead to the assumption that the selector had complied with the conditions? In a legal point of view it might be so, but referring to my previous reports, and the way in which I had filled them up, it was not so.

41. All your reports were based upon the evidence? Yes; I never saw the selection.

42. On the third inquiry you got some additional evidence? Yes.

43. Was it within your province to make a recommendation if you thought fit? Yes. You see here in one report I recommended that the selection shall be forfeited; but when I had any doubt I left it to the Minister, and did not fill up the report.

44. You made no recommendation because you did not feel that you could report? No, because the impression on my mind was that my previous reports, from the evidence, were correct.

45. This evidence on the last occasion was not consistent with the evidence on the previous occasions? I do not think it was.

46. Dr. Ross.] Did you, on the last inquiry, place more reliance on the evidence of Mr. Jones, the superintendent of Bando, and of his sheep overseer, than on the evidence produced by Dougherty? Mr. Jones was a Magistrate of the territory and a respectable man, and I had no reason to doubt him. With reference to my last report, if that had been the only occasion that it came before me, considering the evidence given by Dougherty on that occasion, I should have recommended that the selection be allowed; if I had had no previous evidence before me, placing that all on one side, I should have recommended it.

47. Mr. Day.] Had you any control over the Inspector? No, the Inspector received his instructions from the Lands Department, and sent his reports to the Lands Department; then they were sent by the Department to me for inquiry.

48. Was the Inspector examined at these inquiries? I think only once.

49.

* NOTE (on revision):—I have frequently seen Mr. H. H. Brown, but am not prepared to state that he saw me as an agent.

† ADDED (on revision):—I find on subsequent inquiry that the land was purchased by Messrs. White.

J. Delaney, Esq.
20 Mar., 1884.

49. Dr. Ross.] Did you not think it necessary to have the Inspector's evidence at the last inquiry? No; I had seen the Inspector, who said it was no use his attending again, as he had duties to attend to 50 miles away, and he could give no other evidence than he had done on the first occasion.

Mr. George Dougherty called in and examined:—

Mr. G. Dougherty.
20 Mar., 1884.

50. Chairman.] Do you remember making a conditional purchase on the 18th May, 1876, at Gunnedah, of 317 acres of land? I do.

51. Did you go into residence on the land soon after taking it up? Yes, in less than a month after I took it up.

52. Did you take some cattle to the selection? Yes, between fifty and sixty head of cattle and nine horses.

53. Did you reside continuously on the selection for three years? I never was off it only one week.

54. What was the occasion of your being off it then? My wife came down the country to her daughter when she was lying ill, and I came with her.

55. That was for a week? Yes.

56. Beyond that you were continually residing? Yes, I was never off it, unless it was a day now and then for rations.

57. How far was it from Gunnedah? 27 miles.

58. What were you doing during the first eighteen months you were on the selection? I was shepherding my cattle and watering them out of a well.

59. Where was the well? On John Sharp's place.

60. You had no water on your own place? No, I had not then sunk any well.

61. Why did you shepherd your cattle? To keep them on my land—to keep them off Bando Run.

62. Were there no fences? No.

63. The Bando people impounded your cattle if they trespassed? Yes, they impounded them once.

64. What happened to your cattle in the end? They got the Cumberland disease, and most of them died.

65. After that what did you do? I commenced making improvements upon the land.

66. When was it you started making those improvements? The last eighteen months.

67. What were the improvements you put on the land? Wells.

68. How many? Three.

69. Of what depth? One of them was 101 feet, another 84 feet, and the other 40 feet—34 feet of soil and 6 feet of rock.

70. Were they slabbed? Yes.

71. What other improvements did you put on? A house.

72. Of what description? Sawn slabs; I brought them 25 miles.

73. What size was the house? Only one room, about 16 feet I think.

74. How did you manage before you got the house erected? I slept in a bark gunyah.

75. Had you any one to help you building the house and putting down the wells? Yes, Robert Sharp.

76. What do you value the wells at? I value the wells at £1 a foot for the first twenty feet, 30s. the next twenty feet, and £2 a foot for the remainder, for slabbing and sinking.

77. Mr. Barbour.] What kind of rock was it? Granite.

78. Chairman.] Then, according to your calculation, the 101-ft. well was worth £172, the 84-ft. well £118, and the 40-ft. well £50, making £340 in all? Yes.

79. What do you reckon the house cost? About £15; Mr. O'Hara estimated it that amount.

80. Had you any water on the place before you sunk the wells? No.

81. That was why you sunk the wells? Yes.

82. Do you recollect Mr. Geary, Conditional Purchase Inspector, visiting your place in 1877, about twelve months after you took it up? Yes.

83. Where were you at the time? I was at the upper corner with my cattle.

84. What did Mr. Geary do? He just rode up to the gunyah.

85. Did he look in? He could not look in, because the gunyah was not high enough.

86. Did he dismount? No.

87. The only day you saw him on your place you were on the selection? Yes. My hut was down in one corner, and my cattle in another corner.

88. Mr. Barbour.] Did he see you? No, he was not near me.

89. Chairman.] How far were you away? About three-quarters of a mile.

90. How did you know it was Mr. Geary? I heard it was Geary afterwards; I was told by old Teddy Ryan.

91. How long after? The day after.

92. Dr. Ross.] Had you water in the wells? In two of them I had; in the third I did not go through the rock.

93. What was the object of sinking three wells? To get fresh water.

94. Was the water you got at first not good? No, it was brackish; it was good water for cattle or sheep.

95. Was there good water in the last well? No, there was none.

96. Is there water in the other wells fit to use now? I cannot tell.

97. Are you not living there now? No.

98. How can you value the water if it was not fit to use? There is none better than brackish water for cattle and sheep.

99. Where did you get water for your own use? I had to draw it on a slide from John Sharp's well.

100. Chairman.] How far was Sharp's selection from yours? There was only the reserve between his selection and mine.

101. Dr. Ross.] How far was it from your gunyah? About a mile. At first I used to bring water in a bucket when I watered my cattle, twice a day.

102. Have you received a refund voucher for the money you have paid for this selection? No.

103. Did you get no money back? No, except for 3 acres; I paid the deposit on 320 acres, but there were only 317 acres, and I got 15s. back.

104. You have not taken any money back since? No.

105. Have you paid any instalments? Yes.

106. Chairman.] Why did you not commence putting on your improvements earlier? I could not; my team was away.
107. Why did you want the team? For fetching my slabs out of the scrub.
108. What distance had you to bring them? I fetched the sawn slabs for the house 25 miles from the saw-pit, and I think it might be 10 or 12 miles where I got the slabs for the wells.
109. How many instalments have you paid on account of the conditional purchase? Three.
110. Did you make your declaration of residence and improvement? I did, when my three years were up.
111. At that time did you pay your first instalment? I did, £15 17s. I rode in with Mr. O'Hara, the Inspector, the same day, and he gave me a note to Mr. Jones to say the improvements were all right; I gave it to Mr. Jones.
112. Mr. O'Hara inspected your conditional purchase before you made your declaration? Yes.
113. How long before? Three days.
114. What did he tell you about the improvements? He said they were all right.
115. Dr. Ross.] How long did you water your cattle at Sharp's well? For the first eighteen months.
116. Did he ask for any compensation for this? No; he is my step-son.
117. Chairman.] How long was it after you made your selection before Mr. J. W. Jones came to the Bando Run? Eighteen months.
118. He could know nothing about your residence in May, 1877? He knew nothing about it. It was Keen impounded my cattle.
119. Mr. Barbour.] Did you know Mr. Jones, the superintendent at Bando? Yes.
120. Did you see him often there? I might see him every day very nearly.
121. Did he see you? He spoke to me many a time.
122. On your selection? Yes; he came to the last well I commenced when I was putting the frame on, and he says, "Dougherty, this is a fine frame you are putting on."
123. Did he know you slept in this gunyah? Yes, for he sat inside on my bedside talking to me.
124. Do you know anything about how the land is now—have you left the land? Yes, I have not been on it for a good while; I never heard no word about it till I was going to pay the last instalment; I sent it to the Land Agent at Gunnedah, and the answer came back that he could not receive it, because my land had been forfeited; that was the first I knew about it. I then came down to Sydney and paid the money into the Treasury.
125. That was the third instalment? Yes.
126. And you also tried to have the forfeiture reversed? Yes.
127. But without success? Yes.
128. Did you sell your interest in the land to Mr. White in any way? No; he offered me 25s. an acre for it.
129. You made no bargain with him? No.
130. Chairman.] When did he make this offer? Nine months after.
131. Did he tell you anything about it being his land? He said—"I have bought this land." I said—"Have you, why dont you put your sheep on it?" he said—"No, I cannot." I said—"I hope you will never get it back."
132. He then offered you 25s. an acre? Yes, when I would get my papers.
133. But you made no bargain whatever? No.
134. You and Mr. White were not on good terms? No.
135. Dr. Ross.] Were there any improvements on the land before you took it up? No.
136. Was it a measured portion? Yes.
137. Chairman.] What would you value the selection at? I cannot say. I have been at a great loss through it, for four years now.
138. Mr. Barbour.] Would you have been willing to have taken 25s. an acre for it? No, I would not have taken £2.
139. As a selection or as a freehold, do you mean? As a selection.
140. Dr. Ross.] How long is it since you ceased to live on it? Some years now. I fell down the well and got my hip hurt, and I have never been able to do a turn since.
141. Have you ceased to live on the land for the last four years? Yes.
142. Chairman.] But you paid up your interest? Yes, until they would not take any more.
143. Mr. Day.] What improvements had you on the land when Mr. Geary came there? No improvements at all, only the gunyah.
144. How did you keep the cattle at night? I always camped them at night, and I would be up before daylight in the morning.
145. Would they not go off the selection? No, they would lie down; they had good feed and could fill their bellies. I would not go to bed till 9 or 10 o'clock, and would keep my eye on them till then, and if I saw them straggling away I would put them back; then I would be up before daylight again.
146. Inspector Geary swears before the Commissioner—"Applicant was not resident on the land; there was nothing to indicate residence but a bark humpy—nothing in it whatever"; and in his report to the Under Secretary for Lands he says—"There was no appearance of occupancy whatever, no sign of a fire having been lighted, in fact nothing to indicate residence; the humpy is not habitable"? There was not much of a fire. If I could get two or three chips to boil a quart-pot it was as much as I looked for. I had to carry wood three-quarters of a mile.
147. He says the humpy was not habitable—is that true? It is not true. That was where I slept for eighteen months, and my bedding and saddle and bridle were in it.
148. Where was the fire? I had no fire, only as I made it when I wanted it outside.
149. How far away from the gunyah? It might be a hundred yards. I had no cooking to do, only to boil a quart-pot or a bit of beef.
150. Is it customary for a man, under such circumstances, to make his fire a hundred yards away from his sleeping-place? I did it because there was long grass on the plain, which might have caught fire and burnt the place.
151. Were you at the inquiries that were held? I was at the first and the last.
152. Did you hear Mr. Geary swear the humpy was not habitable? Yes.

Mr. G.
Dougherty.
20 Mar., 1884.

Mr. G.
Dougherty.
20 Mar., 1884.

153. And you did not cross-examine him? Mr. Delaney would not allow me to speak. When Mr. Jones was giving evidence Mr. Delaney asked if I had any questions to put, and when I got up to ask them he said, "Sit down; I will not hear you."
154. Chairman.] Had you nobody to represent your interest? No.
155. Dr. Ross.] Was the Commissioner rude to you? Yes, he was that; he told me to sit down.
156. Did he debar you the privilege of cross-examination? Yes, he told me he would not hear me. I wanted to ask Mr. Jones some questions about the hut. He swore it was built of rough split slabs, and there was not a split slab in it—they were sawn slabs.
157. Dr. Ross.] Was there anything about Mr. Jones and Mr. Grace having been got at by Mr. White—any evidence adduced to that effect? Mr. Grace was there almost every day and crossed my land right across my selection, and I went and turned him back once or twice and would not allow him to go across.
158. Mr. Day.] At what time did Mr. Jones sit in your humpy and talk to you, as you have said? I cannot say exactly; it was when we were doing the last well.
159. About how long after you took up the land? About three years.
160. Did you hear him swear before the Commissioner, at the first inquiry, that he had often looked into the hut but saw no indications of residence whatever? Yes; that was what I was going to ask him about, but the Commissioner would not allow me. Mr. Delaney and Mr. Geary were two days at Bando before that.
161. Why did you not contradict that evidence? I would not be allowed. I stated that my hut was a sawn slabbed hut.
162. Are you quite sure you asked Mr. Delaney to let you put questions to Mr. Jones? Yes.
163. Will you swear it? I will; and he would not allow me. I told Mr. Blackman about it when I came to Sydney the first time.
164. Was your wife living on the selection at all? Yes, when I got the house built she was.
165. How long had you the selection before your wife went to live on it? It was about fifteen months before I got the house built; that was the first thing I did—stuck up a little house.
166. Before that she lived within a mile of the selection? Yes.
167. Did you go home every night? No, I did not.
168. How often did you go home? I might go there once a fortnight or perhaps not that; I could not go away from my cattle.
169. Who brought your rations? My wife. While she was away with my daughter with the fever I had to get them the best way I could; Sharp's wife used to bake my bread; Sharp was my wife's son; I was the second husband.

No. 2.

Mr. Isaac Stevenson to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Burrowa, 29 January, 1877.

I would do myself the honor of addressing you in reference to three portions of land on the right bank of the Burrowa River.

I am informed by the Land Agent at Burrowa that portions Nos. 17, 18, and 19, parish of Gunnary, county of King, have been lying unoccupied for the past fifteen or twenty years, although measured, on account of the high price asked by the Government for said lands, being £2 per acre. They are outside the population boundary, and no one here can tell the reason of these portions being so high while the land alongside of them on the same river and creek can be selected in the ordinary way. I would ask your honor to consider the matter, and have these portions put up to auction at £1 per acre, or else throw them open to selection. I am prepared to tender £1 per acre for them, or to purchase at auction at that price.

I have, &c.,

ISAAC STEVENSON.

Minutes on No. 2.

By the Surveyor-General:—Mr. District Surveyor Twynam is requested to state whether there is any objection to the sale as country lots of these portions, shown on accompanying tracing, and which were offered as suburban lots at Burrowa, on 13th August, 1862.—T.S. (for Surveyor-General), 2/7/77. Report accordingly, No. 77/99—E.T., District Surveyor, 19/7/77.

Memorandum.

Alienation 77-743.—J. Stevenson, applying for sale by auction of certain measured lands at Brial, near Burrowa, county of King. For report under B.C. 77/354.

THE portions of land comprising the village reserve at Brial, adjoining the permanent common at Burrowa, and with river frontage, have been measured without regard to design, either as to form or the requisite provision for thoroughfare; there is a ford affording much public convenience at the junction of the Pudman Creek and the Burrowa River, and ample access thereto should be provided.

The

The land is worth about £2 per acre, being of good quality and adapted for agriculture. On account of its proximity to the town of Burrowa it is not required for village settlement.

Before alienation takes place there should be an amended survey, based on a more judicious and symmetrical design, submitted.

E. TWYNAM,

District Surveyor, Goulburn, 19/7/77.

Minute on No. 3.

Submitted to the Surveyor-General as to whether Mr. District Surveyor Twynam's recommendation that the survey of the portions within the Brial village reserve be amended should be carried out.—J.W.E., 9/77.

No. 4.

Mr. M. Carmody to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Burrowa River, Burrowa, 20 October, 1877.

I am desirous of purchasing two portions of Crown Lands on the Burrowa River; they are numbered on the map 18 and 19, situated on the Burrowa River, at its junction with Pudman Creek; if they are for sale at an upset price not exceeding £1 per acre, I will purchase them.

If for sale, you will please to let me know at your earliest convenience, and oblige,—

Yours, &c.,

MICHAEL CARMODY.

Minutes on No. 4.

By the Surveyor-General:—If the portions are alienated as country lands they will be open to conditional purchase as soon as the village reserve is revoked, and they will not realize anything like their value; also, if the land is to be so thrown open to conditional purchase, it would not be desirable to be at the expense of a resurvey except as regards the reservation of necessary roads and crossing-places. Under the circumstances, and notwithstanding the fact of the proximity of the town of Burrowa, it would seem desirable, in order to obtain a fair value for the land, to lay out a small section with a few allotments near the river crossing and subdivide the remainder of the land into suitable suburban portions.—ROBT. D. FITZGERALD (for Surveyor-General), B.C., 17 December, 1877. Mr. District Surveyor Twynam.

No. 5.

Memorandum.

Alienation 77-8,537.—Application by M. Carmody for sale of land in village reserve at Brial, county King.

For survey, under B.C. No. 77-695.

REFERRING to the minute under your B.C. No. 77-695, whereby it is suggested that a village and suburban lands might be laid out at Brial, I would beg most respectfully to draw your attention to the following points:—The village reserve at Brial, at the junction of the Pudman Creek with the Burrowa River, is distant about 3 miles from the town of Burrowa, on the old road, now disused for purposes of general traffic from Burrowa towards Wheeo, and the settlement immediately adjacent is of insignificant character; the area available for sale is only 1½ acres. Under the circumstances, the site is evidently not desirable for a village, and I would beg to submit that it would be injudicious to establish a village in such a position as to be useless for village settlement; it would be preferable to allow the land to be conditionally purchased at the usual rate than that the Government should stultify its own action by dedicating village and suburban lands merely to evade possible conditional purchase on revocation of the reserve.

There is no reason advanced for the survey and sale of this land, and the conditions are such that beneficial occupation is not a matter of public convenience; therefore it appears to me that alienation would be premature, and that it is desirable for the Government to retain control of the land at present.

It will be observed that this is the only portion of Crown Land opposite to or separated from the permanent common by the river, and water being here accessible on both sides it becomes an eligible position for halting and watering cattle; moreover, it will be seen that this is the only exit for stock from Burrowa eastwards through Crown Land so as to avoid the main road, and it is probable that for the purpose of a driftway the old track or road may be found useful. Under all the circumstances I would beg to advise that the reservation of this land from sale and lease be not revoked.

Submitted.

E. TWYNAM,

District Surveyor, Goulburn, 31st December, 1877.

Minutes on No. 5.

By the Surveyor-General:—In view of this report, it is suggested that the request made to revoke the village reserve of Brial and throw the land open for sale be not complied with, and that the Government retain control of the land, which should be still withheld from sale and lease.—ROBERT D. FITZGERALD (for Surveyor-General), B.C., 13/2/78.

Mr. M. Carmody to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Burrowa, 14 March, 1878.

Some three or four months back I made application in writing to your predecessor in office requesting him to inform me as to whether the two farms numbered 18 and 19 on the map, situated on the junction of Pudman Creek and Burrowa River, are for sale at the upset price of £1 per acre or at an increased price. If for sale, will you please say at what price they will be disposed of; I am anxious to purchase them.

Sir, Department of Lands, Sydney, 21 May, 1878.
 In reference to your letter of the 30th October last, applying to purchase portions 18 and 19, situated at the junction of the Burrowa and Pudmore Creek, I am directed to inform you that, under a report from the surveyor, it is not deemed advisable to alienate at present the lands referred to.

Messrs. Blomfield & Dickson to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir, 139, Pitt-street, Sydney, 28 July, 1881.
 We have been instructed by Mr. Isaac Stevenson, J. W. Martin, and other residents at Burrowa, to apply to have portions 17, 18, and 19, county King, parish Gunnary, withdrawn from the Brial reserve and offered at auction without delay.

Upon reference to plan K409, it will be seen that the surveyor reports that it is not at all desirable that these portions should be reserved, being very difficult of access, &c.

At the present time the reserve is only of benefit to owners of adjoining lands, who use it without paying any rent, whilst there are many persons desirous of purchasing if afforded an opportunity.

We therefore respectfully request that this application may be favourably considered.

We have, &c.,

BLOMFIELD & DICKSON.

For report of Survey Office.—J.D.D. (pro F. H. WILSON), 1/8/81. Mr. G. Lewis.

By the Surveyor-General:—For the consideration and report of Mr. Twynam, as the portions were marked in the year 1862. Mr. Twynam will be good enough to say if they should be remarked.—G. LEWIS (for Surveyor-General), 17th August, 1881. Mr. District Surveyor Twynam.

It is not advisable that these lands be alienated in their present form (vide previous reports upon similar applications). If sold at all, the land should be subdivided under a new design; and I think that it would be expedient not to expedite the sale of this land, which is near the town of Burrowa. Submitted.—E. TWYNAM, District Surveyor, Goulburn, 24th March, 1882.

By the Surveyor-General:—It is submitted that above report of the District Surveyor be approved.—CHAS. ED. FINCH (for Surveyor-General), 26 April, 1882. The Under Secretary for Lands.

[Alienation Act, section 13.]

District of Burrowa.

Application by John Conroy (of age) for the conditional purchase, without competition, of 112 acres unimproved Crown Land.

Received by me, with a deposit of £28, this 7th day of September, 1882, at 10 o'clock,—

WM. J. E. WOTTON,
 Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Burrowa.

Sir,

Sir,

7 September, 1882.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 112 acres; and I herewith tender the sum of £28, being a deposit at the rate of 5s. per acre on the area for which I apply.

I am, &c.,

JOHN CONROY,

Burrowa.

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Burrowa.

Description.

County of King, parish of Gunnary, 112 acres, being measured portions Nos. 18 and 19, containing respectively 53 and 59 acres.

Minutes on No. 11.

Portions Nos. 18 and 19, applied for by this application, are shown on the plan of measurements (K 409-1,495) as being within village reserve of Brial, but this reserve is not shown on the county map of King. Will Reserve Branch please state if any proclamation of this reserve was ever made?—H.H., 22/11/82. Can you say if the portions herein referred to are reserved?—G.L., 25/11/82. The Chief Draftsman. By K 409-1,495, they are reserved, and should have been so shown on the county map.—J.W.E., 29/11/82.

No. 12.

Mr. J. Dwyer to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear sir,

Gunnary, Burrowa, 20 October, 1882.

I beg to draw your attention to the fact that there has been recently selected a portion of land situate on Pudman Creek and Burrowa River, at the junction of said creek and river, north bank. Now, this land has always been considered as a water reserve till measured into farms, and then was reserved at two pounds (£2) per acre; besides it, a portion of it (about 12 acres) has been cleared and ploughed, and grew crops forty years ago; it adjoins C. Ryan's 740 acres at Brial. The portion selected is in two measured lots, Nos. 18 and 19.

Now, dear sir, you will very much oblige by letting me know whether it can be possible that such land could be lawfully selected. You can plainly see that such land as this from its situation would be long ago taken up.

Now, dear sir, it is utterly unfair that this should be allowed, as it completely cuts off from the only water (permanent) available myself and several other persons, Carmody, O'Hehir, Ryan, and others, whom it greatly injures. I have bought from O'Hehir the land originally selected by M. Canty. In fact it has caused the greatest surprise that such a thing should be allowed.

Dear sir, I will be very thankful for an immediate reply; what I want to know is, whether it is lawful that such land could be selected.

I am, &c.,

JOSEPH DWYER,

Waterhole Flats, Burrowa.

See reply by Chief Draftsman, conditional purchase 82/233.—G.L., 18/1/1883.

By the Surveyor-General:—It is recommended that conditional purchase 82/233, Burrowa, be declared void, as the land applied for is within the Brial Village Reserve (vide application). The Land Agent should be informed, with tracing.—CHAS. ED. FINCH (for Surveyor-General), 5/3/1883.

No. 16.

Mr. J. Conroy to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear sir,

Brial, near Burrowa, 5 May, 1883.

I send you this letter in hopes that you will do your best for me, and I will be for ever thankful to you. I selected 112 acres of land at Burrowa on 7th September, 1882, and now I am informed that the land is in the Brial Village Reserve and not open for selection. I have now a good three-roomed house and about a half of a mile of fencing and a garden, and 30 acres cleared ready for ploughing, and about 20 acres rung, which in all I value at £80; and I have no place else to go, as I have no horses or bullocks or stock of any kind, and I have a wife and two children. I have the lend of four bullocks to plough the land now cleared.

I now hope you will have the land opened for selection, as there is no likelihood of it ever being a village, as Burrowa is within 4 miles of it; or, if not, could you grant me the land by improving it to the extent of £1 per acre, and to pay it off in instalments yearly, and to leave the £28 deposit paid for selection as part of the payment.

I remain, &c.,

JOHN CONROY.

P.S.—If I cannot get the land by any other means, can I get it with the other 30 acres of Government ground to rent, making in all 142 acres.

No. 17.

Mr. A. M'Callum to T. M. Slattery, Esq., M.P.

My dear sir,

Union Mills, Burrowa, 23 May, 1883.

A man named John Conroy selected a piece of land, 112 acres, just outside the Burrowa population boundary, on the 7th September, 1882.

The map at the Burrowa Lands Office at that date showed the land to be vacant and open for selection.

On the 24th April last notice was sent to Conroy that this selection was cancelled, as it was on the Brial Village Reserve, and the present map at the Lands Office, Burrowa, shows it to be a reserve. Now, when was this land reserved, as the books at this office show nothing about it?

Conroy took possession at once after selection and commenced improvements. At the present time he has 30 acres cleared, 20 acres ringbarked, $\frac{1}{2}$ mile brush fence, 5 chains 2-rail fence, three-roomed slab hut, with paled in garden. He has also got several acres under wheat.

In the event of this selection being cancelled Conroy is ruined as sure as any evicted tenant in Ireland, as he has spent all his money on the land, and has had to borrow to enable him to get his crop in.

I think if the matter was properly represented to the Minister for Lands he might, if it is really a reserve, give Conroy a lease so to enable him to at least take his crop off.

Trusting you will give this matter your earliest attention,—

I remain, &c.,

ARGYLE M'CALLUM.

P.S.—I have come to live at Burrowa altogether.—A.M'C.

No. 19.

Mr. A. M'Callum to T. M. Slattery, Esq., M.P.

My dear Slattery,

Union Steam Flour Mills, Burrowa, 13 August, 1883.

In Conroy's selection I want you to find out why this piece of ground was proclaimed a reserve, when it was proclaimed, and why the Land Agent at Burrowa did not know of its being a reserve, as he told me himself that the first intimation he had of its being a reserve was at the same time notice was sent to Conroy.

My advice to Conroy is to hold the ground until the Crown eject him, and then go at the Government for compensation; but I think, if properly handled, the reserve might be revoked, and Conroy's selection remain good, as happened in the case of Kean's, near Marengo.

Yours truly,

ARGYLE M'CALLUM.

P.S.—Kean's selection was on the Marengo reserve, and he got the portion that he selected took in, taken off the reserve, and given to him.—A.M'C.

Papers herewith.—G.H.P., 20/8/83.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The portion does not appear to have been shown on the map in use at the Land Office at the time of Conroy's application, which however was declared void within six months from the date of it; but several other parties in the vicinity having previously applied to have the land brought to auction, or to select it after auction, and when refused it is apparent that the matter is not limited to the consideration of whatever equitable claim he (Conroy) may be held to possess. The conditional purchase cannot of course be recognized, even should the circumstances seem to call for it, without an Act of Parliament.—A.O.M., 23/8/83.

No. 20.

Extract from the Yass Evening Tribune, 16 August, 1883.

"Yass Plains Freeholders' and Free Selectors' Association Special Meeting.

"He (Mr. M'Callum) then proceeded to explain that a man named Conroy selected a piece of ground at Burrowa. When he took it up some person told him it was a reserve; but upon speaking to Mr. Wotton, the Clerk of Petty Sessions, upon the subject that gentleman said it was not a reserve. The man went to work and cleared about 20 acres of the land, erected a house upon it, planted a garden, and effected many other improvements; and after all this had been done notice was sent to Conroy that he had selected on a reserve, and that his deposit money would be refunded to him. He (Mr. M'Callum) advised him to hold on, telling him nobody should get hold of it till the point had been thoroughly tested. He saw Mr. Wotton about it and told him that the first he heard about its being a reserve was a few days ago. He had also spoken to Mr. Slattery about it, and that gentleman promised to do the best he could in the matter. Besides this, he put the matter in the hands of Mr. M'Elhone; and he had hopes that eventually Conroy would be allowed to hold his property. This showed the hardships that some selectors had to put up with."

The Chief Commissioner to T. M. Slattery, Esq., M.P.

Sir,

Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Division, Sydney, 31 August, 1883.

With reference to the letter of 13th instant presented by you on behalf of Argyle M'Callum, with a view to the restoration of Conroy's conditional purchase, noted in the margin, I am directed by the Minister for Lands to inform you that the portion may not have been shown on the map in use at the Land Office at the time of Conroy's application, which however was declared void within six months from the date of it. Several other parties however in the vicinity had previously applied to have the land brought to auction, or to select it after auction, and had been refused. It is therefore apparent that the matter is not limited to the consideration of whatever equitable claims Mr. Conroy may be held to possess; and I am to add that the Minister holds that the conditional purchase cannot be recognized, even should the circumstances seem to call for it, without an Act of Parliament.

I have, &c.,

WM. BLACKMAN,
(For Chief Commissioner).

The Crown Lands Bailiff, Burrowa, to The Secretary for Mines.

Sir,

Police Station, Burrowa, 15 December, 1883.

I have the honor to report, for your information, that a man named John Conroy is occupying portion of reserve No. 205, county King, parish Gunnary, area about 175 acres, situated near Burrowa, by erecting a house and fence thereon, and cultivating portion thereof.

I am informed that the present occupier selected this land some time ago, but was afterwards informed that it was a reserve. He is now impounding all stock trespassing on the reserve. Five persons (owners of the cattle he has impounded) have taken out summonses against Conroy for imposing excessive damages, viz., 4s. per head.

Sir,

Department of Mines, Occupation of Lands, Sydney, 20 December, 1883.

Under the instructions of the Honorable the Minister for Mines, I have to request that you will show cause why proceedings should not be taken to compel the abatement of the trespass alleged to be committed by you at Burrowa, reserve No. 205, county King, parish Gunnary, by unauthorized occupation of Crown Lands.

Mr. J. Conroy to The Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Burrowa, 11 January, 1884.

Your Department must surely be labouring under some delusion concerning my occupancy of and trespassing upon reserve No. 205.

Why, the land is my bona fide property, having selected same (112 acres) on the 7th September, 1882. It is quite true the Land Department thinks I have no right to hold the selection; but I think I have, and decline to take back my deposit money. What your Department has to do with the matter at present I cannot, nor could any other sane person, understand.

When the Minister for Lands manages to put me off, you may depend you will not have to trouble me about abatement of trespass.

I have, &c.,

JOHN CONROY.

It is suggested that this reply to request (to show cause why trespass should not be abated) be forwarded to the Department of Lands with reference to claim asserted.—T.W.H., Occupation of Lands, 14/1/84/.

Land Agent's No., 9 of 1870.

Application for the conditional purchase, without competition, of 40 acres unimproved Crown Land, under section 13 of the Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

Received by me, with a deposit of £10, this 4th day of August, 1870, at 10 o'clock,—

O. J. SMITHERS,

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Maitland.

Sir,

4 August, 1870.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 40 acres; and I herewith tender the sum of £10, being a deposit at the rate of five shillings (5s.) per acre on the area for which I apply, and on which it is my intention to reside.

26 October, 1870.

Minutes on No. 2.

Mr. Licensed-Surveyor Haughton is requested to say whether he is quite sure that portion 162, parish of Pocolbin, is the land applied for, as the land measured does not appear to agree very well with the description, and moreover contains 50 acres.—J.S.A., 30 November, 1870.

I went to the ground with Robert Jackson, the selector, to ascertain his improvements, and I am quite sure No. 162 was marked on the corner tree. I also heard that the portion contained 50 acres.—J.B.H., 5 December, 1870.

Submitted. The portion indicated by Mr. Haughton does not agree with applicant's description. What action should be taken?—T.H.L., 13 December, 1870.

The application should be cancelled, the land not having been taken as measured.—J.S.A., 20 December, 1870.

For approval.—22 December, '70.

By the Under Secretary for Lands:—If the portion taken up is No. 162 and contains 50 acres, cannot applicant have the option of paying up for the extra 10 acres?—W.W.S., 6 January, '71.

The description was so very erroneous that it was thought better in this instance to recommend the cancellation.—J.S.A., 6 January, '71.

Mr. R. Jackson to The Secretary for Lands.

Dear Sir, Cessnock, 5 July, 1871.
 I have selected 40 (forty) acres of land in a place called the Marrabone, near Cessnock, on the *20th May, 1870. I have resided on it up to the present date, but did not know that it was surveyed, and found to be 50 acres. The Department of Lands told me it was cancelled. I proffered the remainder of the deposit of the 50 acres; it was refused. I will get no satisfaction in Maitland, which leaves me to adopt this remedy. I hope you will do me the favour to see to it, as I am a poor man who wishes to comply with the regulation. ^{*Qty. 4 August, 1870.}

By the Secretary for Lands :—Mr. Blackman, 9 July.—J.B.W. The Chief Draftsman, 11/7/71.
 If the description given by applicant had been sufficient to show that the 50 acres in question was the portion intended there would probably have been no objection to his request, but under the circumstances he should, I think, re-select his land, giving a correct description as to position as well as area.—J.S.A., 13/7/71. Sir, Department of Lands, Sydney, 26 July, 1871.
 With reference to your letter of the 5th instant, respecting the conditional purchase of 40 acres made by you at Maitland on the 4th August, 1870, which was cancelled because the land formed part of a measured portion of 50 acres, I am directed to inform you that if the description given in your application application had been sufficient to show that the 50 acres in question was the portion you intended to select, there would probably have been no objection to your paying the deposit on the difference of area and retaining the land, but that under the circumstances you should re-select the land, giving a correct description as to position as well as area.

With reference to your letter of the 5th, stating that Jackson, of Cessnock, could re-select his land, I wish to know where the deposit money is that I paid, I being told by Smithers that it was in the Bank of Australasia. Hoping you will forward me an order to receive it, and by so doing it will leave me able to select the 50 acres as measured at the time I took up the land. I did not know it was a surveyed lot, but as it stands I am willing to take it up if you send me an order to get me my money.

As the arrangement between Mr. Jackson and the late Land Agent that the latter should receive the money can only be held in the light of a private one, it is very doubtful whether the Government should be called upon to make good the amount.—26 March, 1872.

As the deposit £10 has not been repaid into the Treasury the cancellation of the conditional purchase cannot be revoked, and the sum of £2 10s. in suspense for the extra area of 10 acres should be refunded.—F.H.W., 22/3/79. Submitted.—W.B.

ROBERT JACKSON selected 40 acres of land on the 4th August, 1870, and afterwards, from instructions received from your Department on the 26th October, 1871, I took from Jackson £2 10s. and made an entry in the conditional purchase book as if a fresh purchase had been made that day, treating it as 50 acres, No. 37-13,171; the other purchase was cancelled. This was done I believe as the description was rather vague. I enclose descriptions from the conditional purchase book of the two conditional purchases. I have, &c., C. No. 26.

The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade to The Chief Commissioner.

Sir,

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 11 October, 1881.

I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to inform me whether Robert Jackson has a selection in the Maitland district, on 4th August, 1870, or 26th October, 1871; also whether a declaration has been accepted, and if interest may be received thereon?

I have, &c.,

G. EAGAR.

Minutes on No. 26.

Mr. Robert Jackson held a conditional purchase of 40 acres; the date of the purchase is 4th August, 1870. The selection was declared void and deposit money refunded (vide 72-2,485 aln.), but the money has not been returned to the Treasury on an amended application having been made. The amended application of 26th October, 1871, for 50 acres, bearing same registration number, 70-2,631, is therefore invalid, as no deposit money is credited on the purchase at the Treasury. The sum of £2 10s., remaining in Suspense Account at the Treasury for the extra 10 acres, comprised in the amended application, should be refunded. Applicant, agent, and Treasury should be apprised.—C.N., 9/2/82.

This case is apparently connected with some of Mr. Smithers' old defalcations.—W.B., 10/2/82.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The claimant may be referred to the intimation dated 22 February, 1872, and informed that the balance of deposit, £10, not having been repaid as therein authorized, the selection is not recognized, and will be declared void. The deposit of £2 10s., and any payments on account of interest, should be refunded. This would be in accordance with the decision of the Minister who dealt with the case; but I must say I think it is hard to compel the conditional purchaser to make good the refund of deposit, which it appears he never received.—A.O.M., 17/2/83.

By the Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—J.S.F., 21/2/83.

Voiding noted, no further action for Charting Branch.—H.E.W., 12 May, /83.

I have the honor to refer you to my letter of the 22nd July, 1872, in connection with your amended conditional purchase application noted in the margin, and to state that the balance of deposit, £10, not having been repaid as therein authorized, the selection is not recognized, and will be declared void.

A voucher for the return of deposit of £2 10s. is enclosed, and any payment on account of interest will be refunded on application at the Treasury.

PETITION OF MR. JOACHIM.

(COPY OF.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be printed, 23 July, 1884.

RETURN to an Order made by the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, dated 2nd July, 1884, That there be laid upon the Table of this House,—

“ A copy of the Petition of Mr. Joachim to the Governor, in reference to “ his selections.”

(Mr. Buchanan.)

To the Right Honorable Lord AUGUSTUS LOFTUS, President of the Executive Council of New South Wales, and to all other Members thereof, in Council assembled,—

WE HEREBY PRAY:—

That your Honorable Council will take into consideration the circumstances of our case, and in your wisdom give such directions as may seem wise.

We came to this Colony in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and conditionally purchased land in the vicinity of Moama in blocks of three hundred and twenty acres each. We took possession of the same as early as circumstances would admit, but from the fact that the land had not been surveyed we were compelled to fix camps and sleeping-places to the best of our knowledge and belief on the grounds applied for in our various separate applications. On the alleged grounds of non-residence and other grounds we were subjected to long and severe litigation, ending in an appeal to the Privy Council on certain points which the Court decided in our favour.

During the continuance of our difficulties our lands were declared forfeited by notice in the Government Gazette on the alleged ground of non-residence by us.

Acting under the belief that the various legal points decided in our favour by the Privy Council gave us a holding title to the land, and believing that in due course we would be advised by the Department of Lands that the forfeiture of our holdings would be reversed, we took no steps in the matter until the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, when we made and lodged with the Department of Lands the declarations required in the terms of the 18th section of the “Lands Act of 1861,” which declarations have been referred for inquiry, and show officially that we have effected the improvements necessary under the law.

We have from the first held possession of our lands personally, and in proof that we have resided we append hereto a memorandum signed by various of our neighbours, who have no interest whatever in our lands.

We estimate the value of our improvements at seventeen hundred and seventy-five pounds sterling effected by us on our holdings.

We humbly pray your Honorable Council to take a favourable view of our case, and to consider the trying circumstances in which we have been placed, and we submit that such circumstances warrant the reversal of the forfeiture of our holdings and the re-establishment of our conditional purchase titles.

Sir,

13 March, 1873.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 21st section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 40 acres, which adjoins my conditional purchase of 40 acres, upon which I am now residing; and I herewith tender the sum of £10, being a deposit at the rate of five shillings (5s.) per acre on the area for which I apply.

This is the second selection made by me in virtue of my conditional purchase of 40 acres.

I am, &c.,

WILLIAM DAY,

Yarraman.

No. 4.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Bomera, 11 June, 1874.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, that in pursuance of the instructions contained in your letter to me of 21st May last, I inspected the land conditionally purchased by William Day on 13th March, 1873, and ascertained the facts hereinafter referred to.

2. William Day was in the hut upon his land when I visited it.
3. The improvements upon the said land consist of a bark hut worth £2, a yard of split mortised posts and round rails worth £5, and 196 rods of substantial two-railed fencing worth about £40; in all £47.
4. I took down the enclosed statements, to which I beg to invite your attention, from William Day, the person before referred to, and from Thomas Hayden, the owner of land adjoining Day's.
5. Day says he entered into possession of his land in the beginning of April, 1873, and at once had a hut erected thereon.
6. Hayden says he saw Day upon the said land in the first week of April, 1873, and saw the hut there then.
7. Hayden also says he had special reasons to notice when Day first came upon the land from the fact that he had had information that Day had selected upon his (Hayden's) pre-leased land, and that he kept a strict lookout to see if Day took possession within a month from the date of purchase, and that he ascertained the date of purchase.
7. There was no evidence offered to me in opposition to these statements.
8. As to continuous residence, Day says, "I have resided continuously upon my land from the date of taking possession to the present time, and it is my bonâ fide home."
9. Hayden says, "I have had numberless opportunities of observing whether Day has resided continuously upon the said land, and I am quite sure that he has."
10. I see no reason to doubt from these statements that Day has complied with the conditions of his purchase.
11. Day also says that he is part owner of the cattle grazing over his selection, and over the four adjacent selections of his partners in the cattle, and that he assists in herding the said cattle.
12. He also told me that he * * * * * (Note.—The remainder of report is missing.)

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of William Ivery, made at Tamworth, on 30th October, 1873.

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 9th April, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing, and comprises 300 acres, is not occupied and used by him as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Hut	£70	0	0
Fencing	166	10	0
Total	£236	10	0

I cannot afford any information as to the applicant's residence.

I have, &c.,
H. V. GEARY,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Minutes on No. 10.

By Chief Commissioner :—The Inspector's estimate of the present value of the improvements is £63 10s. less than the declared value.

Residence is no longer necessary. The selector was reported resident at time of survey, and no grounds for questioning the fulfilment of this condition appear.

Mr. McElhone, the present holder of the selections, supplies details of and the actual cost of the improvements, which he gives at £304, or £4 beyond the declared value.

There is no question as to their nature, the only difference is in the value of the hut and fencing, and it is for the Minister to decide whether the discrepancy between the two valuations is of such a character as to render necessary an inquiry before a Commissioner.

There is no doubt there has been substantial expenditure and apparent bona fides. At the same time the discrepancy is greater in proportion than would ordinarily be passed over, and I think the better course would be to refer Mr. McElhone's statement to inquiry, with a request that he will explain more in detail the grounds of his own estimate as compared therewith.—A.O.M.

Sydney, 17 April, 1877.

I have the honor to inform you that to-day I saw Mr. Inspector Geary's valuations of improvements on certain selections transferred to me in virtue of a mortgage given to me on them.

The value placed on such improvements by Mr. Geary is far below the actual cost.

I have the honor to forward you particulars of the improvements on each conditional purchase and the cost of the same, and to request you will take the necessary steps to pass these conditional purchases as improved to the value of £1 per acre.

I have, &c.,
J. McELHONE.

The whole of the fencing and stuff to build houses was drawn 12 to 15 miles in the late dry seasons, which made carting dear.

No. 14.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of William Ivery, made at Tamworth on 30th October, 1873.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on 9th April, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing, and comprises 300 acres, is not now occupied and used by him as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of grazier, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

House, 26 x 13 feet, shingled and floored	£90	0	0
1 $\frac{1}{2}$ mile 2-rail split fence (£80 per mile)	120	0	0
$\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile 2-rail split fence, 3 wires (£100 per mile)	75	0	0
		£285 0 0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I cannot say that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection, or that he has ever resided on the land. He was on the land when I visited it. My remarks with reference to Isaac Frith's selection also applies to this as to the alteration in the value of the improvements. The amount allowed per mile is considered fair in the locality. Frederick and Edward Rowland stated before the Commissioner's Court, at Quirindi, on the 2nd instant, that "their fence, consisting of two rails and three wires, only cost 5s. per rod, or £80 per mile, carting 15 miles from Colly Blue." Mr. Ivery valued a similar fence of his at £125 per mile, same material, only carted about 8 miles.

I have, &c.,
H. V. GEARY,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Minutes on No. 14.

By the Chief Commissioner :—This further report leaves only a discrepancy of £15 between the valuation and the amount required for improvements on the selection. There is a much greater discrepancy between the Inspector's two valuations, and in the circumstances I am not prepared to recommend that the declaration should be further questioned.—A.O.M., 10/5/77.

By Secretary for Lands :—I concur.—R.D., 18/5/77.

By Chief Commissioner :—Inform of the corrected estimate, which is still below the required amount.—A.O.M., 14th.

Sir,

Sydney, 18 May, 1877.

Enclosed I send you Mr. G. Paine's valuations of fencing on Liverpool Plains, being the price paid by him whilst managing for Messrs. Christian at Walhallow.

I have the honor to request you will forward me the decision of the Honorable the Minister for Lands in reference to the case of William Ivery when convenient. By Mr. Paine's price of fencing there will be fully £300 worth of improvements on W. Ivery's conditional purchase.

I have also the honor to request that you will send me the certificate of Isaac Frith's conditional purchase, so that I can forward the same to Mr. Andrew Town, to whom it is transferred.

I have, &c.,

J. McELIIONE.

P.S.—I would beg to call your attention to the price paid by Government for two-rail fences on railway, up to £120 per mile, as per answers to my questions in the House some two weeks since.

[Enclosure to No. 15.]

Mr. G. W. Paine to J. McElhone, Esq., M.P.

Dear Sir,

Sydney, 7 May, 1877.

In reference to fencing on Liverpool Plains, my experience while managing for the Messrs. These are the prices I have paid, and the drawing is from 10 to 12 miles, 3 feet in the ground.

No. 3.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Bomera, 12 June, 1874.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, that in pursuance of the instructions contained in your letter to me of 21st May last, I inspected the land conditionally purchased by Frederick Ivery on 23rd January, 1873, and ascertained the facts hereinafter referred to.

2. Frederick Ivery was in the hut upon his land when I visited it.

3. The improvements upon the said land consist of a bark hut worth £2, small yard at back of same worth £2, and about 25 rods of substantial two-railed fencing worth £5; in all, £9.

4. I took down the enclosed statements, to which I beg to invite your attention, from Frederick Ivery, before referred to, and from Thomas Hayden, the owner of land adjacent to Ivery's.

5. Frederick Ivery states that he entered into possession of his land about the end of January, 1873, a few days after the races at Tamba Springs, which races came off on 26th January, 1873, and that he had a hut erected upon this land at once after taking possession.

6. Thomas Hayden states that he saw Frederick Ivery upon the said land about the end of January, 1873, and saw the hut there at the same time. He fixes the date from the fact that he visited Murrurundi on special business about the middle of January, and remained there about a week, then returned home, and a few days after saw Ivery, as before stated.

7. As to continuous residence, Ivery states that he has resided upon his land from the day he first took possession to the present time, and it has been from that day and is now his bona fide home.

8. Hayden states that he has had many opportunities of seeing Frederick Ivery upon the land referred to, and has seen him there a great number of times, in fact, that he never passed on or near Ivery's land but he saw him there, and is quite positive that Ivery has resided there continuously from the date he first took possession.

9. There was no evidence offered in opposition to these statements.

10. Ivery states that the land was selected for him and the deposit paid thereon by his brother, Charles Ivery, as his agent, and at his request, and that Charles Ivery has paid for the improvements that have been made, and is to pay for those that are to be made on the said land.

11. And that he is to repay Charles Ivery under an arrangement made between them.

12. He also states that he is a part owner of the 550 cattle which graze over his land and over the land of four selectors adjacent to him, and those four are joint owners of the cattle with him.

13. Frederick Ivery further informed me that he had been droving for many years with his brother Charles, and that he had contributed his savings of many years hard work towards the purchase of the cattle before spoken of, and that his share of the profits on said cattle is to be devoted towards the repayment of the moneys advanced to purchase and improve his land.

14. Ivery also states that he assists in herding the cattle.

15. Upon the evidence adduced, and from what I saw, I am of opinion that Frederick Ivery has complied with the law applicable to his purchase.

[Enclosure A to No. 3.]

Statement of Thomas Hayden respecting Frederick Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land in the county of Pottinger and parish of Lawson.

I, THOMAS HAYDEN, know the land conditionally purchased by Frederick Ivery. I occupy and am the owner of 320 acres of land about a mile distant from Frederick Ivery's purchase. I saw Frederick Ivery upon his land about the end of January, 1873. I saw his hut upon his land at the same time. The hut was then near the north-west corner of his land, and about 5 chains from the Bundalla Creek. I fix the time as the end of January, 1873, from the fact that I had occasion to visit Murrurundi on special business of my own about the middle of January, 1873, and remained there about a week. A few days after my return home I passed along Bundalla Creek, and then saw Frederick Ivery upon his land, and at the same time saw his hut at the place indicated. I have had many opportunities of seeing Frederick Ivery upon his land since the date above referred to, and have seen him there a great number of times, in fact I never passed on or near his land but I saw him there, and am quite positive he has been a continuous resident thereon.

[Enclosure B to No. 3.]

Statement of Frederick Ivery respecting his conditional purchase of 320 acres of land in the county of Pottinger and parish of Lawson.

I, FREDERICK IVERY, am the lawful owner, by conditional purchase, of the 320 acres of land upon which I now reside. The said land was selected for me by Charles Ivery, as my agent, at my request. The deposit required by law was paid by Charles Ivery for me, and the improvements that have been and that are to be made upon the said land are to be paid for in like manner by Charles Ivery for me, in pursuance of an arrangement made between Charles Ivery and myself, under which arrangement I am to repay him. I entered into possession of my land about the end of January, 1873. I know the date from the fact that I took possession of my land a few days after Tamba Springs races. Those races came off on the 26th January, 1873. I had a hut erected upon my land at once after taking possession. That hut was near the north-west corner of my land, a few chains from the creek. I resided in that hut until I erected the hut in which I now reside, and I have continued to reside in my present hut ever since its erection. I have resided continuously upon my land from the day I first took possession to the present time, and it has been from that day and is now my bona fide home. I am part owner of the cattle which graze over my land and over the land of four selectors adjacent to me, who are joint owners of said cattle with me. I assist in herding the said cattle.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Frederick Ivery, made at Tamworth, on 23rd January, 1873.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 29th February, 1877, and that I found the selector then resident upon his selection. C.P. 73-597.

The land, which consists of grazing or cultivation, and comprises 320 acres, is occupied and used by him as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of grazier, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz.:—Hut, £50; well, £70; troughing, £32; fencing, £150; total, £302.

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

From information, I believe the applicant has resided on his selection, but of my own knowledge I cannot say anything. He was not resident when I visited the land, the term of residence having expired.

Mr. Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, Northern District, has been instructed to report on this case.—21/5/74.

No. 3.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Bomera, 12 June, 1874.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, that in pursuance of the instructions contained in your letter to me of 21st May last, I inspected the land conditionally purchased by Isaac Frith on 23rd January, 1873, and ascertained the facts hereinafter referred to.

2. Isaac Frith was not upon his land when I inspected it, nor have I seen him up to the present time.

3. The improvements upon the said land consist of a bark hut worth £2, a small stable worth about £1, a well 30 feet deep, with covering and windlass, worth £35, and 180 feet troughing worth £31 10s.; in all, £69 10s.

4. I took down the enclosed statements, to which I beg to invite your attention, from Frederick Ivery, whose hut is within a few yards of Frith's; from Thomas Castledine, a sawyer, whom I found with his wife and children in Frith's hut; and from Clarence Bayly, manager of Mr. Lawson's Premier Run.

5. Frederick Ivery states that he saw Isaac Frith upon his land about a fortnight after he (Ivery) took possession of his, and that he (Ivery) took possession of his about the end of January, 1873; that Frith purchased the land on 23rd January, 1873; and that he (Ivery) is quite sure that he saw Frith upon the land and Frith's hut upon it before the expiration of month from the date of purchase.

6. Ivery further states that he saw two men with Frith on Frith's land the first day he saw Frith there; he gives the names of those two men, and states where he believes they now are.

7. Castledine does not give any evidence as to when Frith first came upon the land, as Castledine only came there in last April.

8. Clarence Bayly says the first and only occasion that he saw Frith upon the land was five or six months ago; he also says that in the early part of February, 1873, he saw a gonyah upon Frith's land.

9. Mr. Bayly will not say that Frith was not upon his land within the time prescribed by law, but he did not see him there, and that he looked for the purpose of seeing whether he was there; that the humpy certainly was there, but whether Frith was on it or not Mr. Bayly cannot say.

10. As to continuous residence, Frederick Ivery, after deserting the positions of three huts erected at different times by Frith, states:—I have seen Frith on many occasions, at the first hut, at the second hut, and at the new hut (the present one).

11. And that he (Frith) resided at the new hut just before he went away droving in the beginning of last month.

12. Castledine says: "I know that Frith resided in the hut upon his land for some days after I came upon the land, in early part of last April."

13. Clarence Bayly says that on several occasions he looked into the humpy on Frith's land and that Frith was not there, but that he may have been there at other times.

14. Frederick Ivery also states that Frith occasionally gets a job at droving, and is then away some time, but always comes back to his land; that he (Ivery) knows that Frith has left Castledine and family in charge of the hut and land until he returns; that he knows Frith has arranged to have a substantial house built upon his land; that the materials for such house are now ready upon Frith's land; and that from a conversation he had with Frith he expects Frith home very soon.

15. Castledine says that Frith went away droving in the beginning of last May and has not returned since; that Frith left him and his family in possession of the hut, and requested him to remain in possession until he returned; that he is now getting materials ready for building a substantial house for Frith, and that he has about £50 worth of timber nearly ready for such building.

16. In addition to these statements, I may mention that I saw upon Frith's land, near his hut, a saw-pit, a quantity of sawn pine, a number of hardwood posts and sleepers, several wall-plates, and a large lot of shingles and slabs—sufficient, I think, for a large house.

17. I do not think there is sufficient evidence to enable me to say that Frith has complied with the law. Still, looking at Ivery's very strong evidence, remembering the large improvements on the land, seeing the quantity of valuable materials apparently ready for further improvements, bearing in mind that it is quite possible for Frith to bring forward the two men whom Ivery says he saw on the land with Frith, and regarding it as possible that Frith's absence for such a long period may be allowable (though I do not think it is), I am unwilling without further investigation to recommend forfeiture in his case.

I have, &c.,
THOMAS ARGENT.

Minute on No. 3.

By Chief Commissioner:—The facts reported seem quite sufficient to show that there is no ground for claiming forfeiture on the ground of abandonment.—A.O.M., 30/6/74.

By Secretary for Lands:—Approved.—J.S.F., 8/7/74.

[Enclosure A to No. 3.]

Statement of Frederick Ivery respecting Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres, in the county of Pottinger, parish of Lawson.

I, FREDERICK IVERY, know Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land. I saw Frith upon his land about a fortnight after I took possession of mine. I took possession of my land about the end of January, 1873. I saw Frith's hut on on his land the same day I first saw him there. I know that Frith's land was purchased on the same day that mine was, that was on 23rd January, 1873, and I am quite sure that I saw Frith on his land and his hut on it before the expiration of one month from the date of purchase.

I saw two men with Frith on his land the day I first saw him there; the name of one of the men is Thomas Scantling, and the name of the other is Henry Wheel. I believe Henry Wheel is now employed at Mr. Christian's, at Cockfighters Creek, near Jerry's Plains, and I believe Thomas Scantling is droving for Mr. Mackay of Sydney. The first hut I saw on Frith's land was about a quarter of a mile north of the well. That hut was afterwards removed to a position a little to the east of the well, and remained there until Frith's new hut was built nearly opposite to my present hut. I have seen Frith on many occasions at the first hut, at the second hut, and at the new hut. He resided in the new hut just before he went away droving in the beginning of last month. Frith occasionally gets a job at droving, and is then away for a short time, but always comes back to his land. I know that he has left a family in charge of his hut and land on the present occasion of his absence, and I know that he has arranged to have a substantial house built upon his land. I know that the timber and shingles are now upon his land for said house, and that nearly everything is ready for the house to be built. From a conversation I had with Frith before he left I expect to see him every day. I mean by that that he did not expect to be longer away than he has now been.

Witness—THOMAS ARGENT,
10 June, 1874.

FREDERICK IVERY.

[Enclosure B to No. 3.]

Statement of Thomas Castledine respecting Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres, in the county of Pottinger and parish of Lawson.

I, THOMAS CASTLEDINE, know the land known as Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres. I know that Frith resided in the hut upon his land for some days after I came upon the land in the early part of April of this year. Frith went away droving in the beginning of last May, and has not returned since. When Frith went away he left me in possession of the hut with my family, and requested me to remain in possession until he returned. I am now getting materials ready for building the said house.

Witness,—THOMAS ARGENT.

THOMAS CASTLEDINE.

[Enclosure C to No. 3.]

Statement of Mr. Clarence Bayly respecting Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres land, county of Pottinger and parish of Lawson.

I, CLARENCE BAYLY, know the land conditionally purchased by Isaac Frith. The first and only occasion that I saw Frith upon his land was five or six months ago. I then saw him at the "gunyah" erected about 150 yards from the well; I think between the well and the creek—that is, Bundalla Creek. A few days after I saw C. Ivery, as I think, in early part of February, 1873. I saw a "gunyah" erected on Frith's land.

I will not say that Frith was not upon his land within the time prescribed by law, but I did not see him there, and I looked for the purpose of seeing whether he was there. The humpy certainly was there, but whether Frith was in it or not I cannot say. What I mean is, that on several occasions I looked into the humpy and he was not there; but he may have been there at other times.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Isaac Frith, made at Tamworth, on 23rd January, 1873.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 29th February, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

1199—D

The

Troughing	62	0	0
Total	£280	0	0

The selector was not resident on his selection at the time of my visit, nor can I say of my own knowledge whether he has ever resided, beyond hearsay. I was informed that he had. The land was not transferred till the expiration of three years.

I have, &c.,
HARRY V. GEARY,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Minutes on No. 8.

By Chief Commissioner:—The Inspector's estimate of the present value of the improvements is £43 less than that declared to in January, 1876. It is to be decided whether in this difference between the declaration and the official estimate (the latter made fifteen months after the former) a reference to Commissioner for inquiry should take place. Residence is not now necessary, but the report as to residence of a former Inspector was considered satisfactory. In the enclosed statement Mr. McElhone supplies details of the actual cost of the improvements on this selection as £383 10s. Following the practice in other cases, as there has been substantial expenditure in improvements, it hardly seems to be necessary at this time further to question the declaration.

At the same time it may be as well to refer Mr. McElhone's statements to Mr. Geary for a further report and a more detailed explanation of his own estimate as contrasted therewith.—A.O.M., 17/4/77.

Sir, Department of Lands, Conditional Sales Branch, Sydney, 23 April, 1877.

With reference to your reports of inspection of the conditional purchases mentioned in the margin, in which you value the improvements thereon at £236 10s. and £280 respectively, I am directed to forward you statements of the actual cost of the improvements, and to request that you furnish a further report with a more detailed explanation of your own estimates as compared therewith.

Tracings and copies of the conditional purchase applications are also enclosed.

I have, &c.,

Forwarded for the information of the Commissioner, with amended reports and explanations.—HARRY V. GEARY, Inspector. The Commissioner of Conditional Sales, 9 May, 1877.

No. 10.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Isaac Frith, made at Tamworth, on 23rd January, 1873.

Sir, I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 29th February, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing, and comprises 320 acres, is not occupied and used by him at present as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of drover, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz:—

House, 26 x 13, sawn timber, with verandah, and floored ...	£80	0	0
Well, 35 feet, with whim	70	0	0
250 feet troughing, at 4s. per foot	50	0	0
70 chains two-rail fence and 3 wires, at £100 per mile ...	87	10	0
½ mile top-rail and 6 wires, at £100 per mile	50	0	0
	£337	10	0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I cannot say that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection. I have not seen him, and therefore cannot say anything about residence. I have made an alteration in this report as regards the estimated value of improvements as compared with my former report, as I find on inquiry of a builder this morning that the house is worth more than I allowed; I have also made a slight alteration as to the fencing. The dam spoken of in Mr. McElhone's statement was not, if I remember aright, pointed out to me. I went over the ground with Mr. Ivery, and certainly saw nothing that could be called a dam. 4s. is a fair allowance for troughing, in the locality, of that description.

I have, &c.,
HARRY V. GEARY,
Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

This deed of grant may be obtained at any time hereafter by payment of the balance of the purchase money, with the interest, if any, then due; but should such payment be deferred interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum must be paid between the 1st January and 31st March in each year until the balance, inclusive of interest as prescribed by law, shall have been duly paid, otherwise the selection will be forfeited.

No. 6.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir, Bomera, 9 June, 1874.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, that in pursuance of the instructions contained in your letter to me of 21st May last, I this day inspected the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery, on 23rd January, 1873, and ascertained the facts hereinafter referred to.

2. Charles Ivery was in the hut on his land when I first visited it.

3. The improvements on the said land consist of the hut referred to, the framework of which is constructed of pine, the ends of slabs, and the sides and roof of bark. Value the hut at £5. There is a humpy at the back of the hut worth about £1.

4. I took down the enclosed several statements from Charles Ivery, the person in question; from Thomas Hayden, the occupier of a conditional purchase about a mile from Ivery's land; from Samuel Melvil, the manager of Trinkey Station; from Charles Bayly, manager of Mr. Town's Bundalla Station; from C. P. Bayly, manager of Mr. Lawson's Premier Station; and from Samuel Holt, manager of Mr. Town's Bomera Station.

5. It will be seen from Ivery's statement, to which, as also to the other statements, I beg to invite your attention, that Ivery asserts he purchased his land on 23rd January, 1873, and that before the end of that month he entered into possession and erected a hut upon it.

6. He is quite positive about the date of taking possession, and fixes it by referring to the fact that he was at Tamba Springs races on 26th January, 1873, and that within three or four days after that date he took possession.

7. Ivery also states that on the day he came on to his land he met Mr. Bayly, manager of Mr. Lawson's Premier Run, fixes the place where he met Mr. Bayly, and refers to a conversation he had with that gentleman in which he told him he had selected the land.

8. Ivery also states that Mr. Melvil, of Trinkey Station, saw him upon his land a day or two after he took possession, and that Mr. Hayden also saw him there a few days after he first came there.

9. Ivery also describes where he erected his first hut as being near Bundalla Creek, and south of his present hut.

10. Thomas Hayden, in his statement, asserts that he had occasion to pass over Ivery's land about the end of January, 1873, and then saw Ivery there, and saw his hut. He fixes the date when he first saw Ivery upon the land from the fact that he had special business to attend to in Murrurundi about the middle of January, 1873, that he remained in Murrurundi about a week, and then returned home, and a few days after his return home went over Ivery's land and then saw him there.

11. Hayden also describes the position of the hut he saw as being near Bundalla Creek, and south of Ivery's present hut.

12. Mr. Melvil, in his statement, asserts that he had occasion to pass over Ivery's land about the latter end of January, 1873, and that he then saw Ivery there and saw the hut there.

13. So far then as to the time when Ivery entered into possession of his land, the three statements—Ivery's, Hayden's, and Melvil's—agree; they also agree as to the hut being upon the land, and as to the position of the hut.

14. On the other side, Mr. Clarence Bayly, the gentleman whom Ivery says he met the day he first came on to his land, asserts that he first saw Ivery on the land in question in the early part of February, 1873, but is not positive about the date, and cannot fix the date, or about the date, by any circumstance that he can remember.

15. He says he was looking for some sheep lost early in February when he first met Ivery upon the land.

16. He says that Ivery had a horse and cart with him, and materials in the cart for erecting a humpy, or perhaps for more than one humpy.

17. He says that within three or four days after he first met Ivery he saw a humpy erected on Ivery's land, and that humpy was near Bundalla Creek, and south of Ivery's present hut.

18. He also says that on the first occasion he saw Ivery on the land they had a conversation, and that Ivery told him he had selected the land.

19. Mr. Charles Bayly could not say when Ivery first came upon the land, or where the first place of residence was erected on it.

20. Mr. Samuel Hole could not say when Ivery first came upon the land in question.

21. He first saw a gunyah there in the month of February, 1873, but could not fix the date by any circumstance he could remember.

22. His reason for saying February, 1873, was that it was shortly after he had heard that Ivery had selected the land.

23. He says the gunyah he saw was near Bundalla Creek, and about south-west of Ivery's present hut.

24. Thus then it will be seen that the statements of two of the three gentlemen opposed to Ivery agree that Ivery was upon his land and had a place of residence erected there early in February, 1873—the land was purchased on 23rd January, 1873—and they also agree that the place of residence was where Ivery and his witness Hayden say it was; the third gentleman could not say when Ivery was first on the land, or where the first place of residence was.

25. Then as to the fact of continuous residence, Ivery says in his statement that he has resided continuously upon his land from the day he took possession to the present time.

26. Hayden says that he has had a great many opportunities of seeing Ivery from the time Ivery first took possession, and that he has seen Ivery on every occasion that he was upon or near Ivery's land, and that he is quite positive that Ivery has resided continuously upon it.

27. Mr. Melvil says that he has been upon Ivery's land upon several occasions since Ivery took possession, and on every occasion saw Ivery upon the land.

28. On the other side, Mr. Clarence Bayly says he has had many opportunities of seeing Ivery; he says that Ivery has been absent from his land on several occasions at races and elsewhere; that he saw him driving sheep on one occasion, but that he does not know how far Ivery went with the sheep, nor how long he was absent from his land, nor can he say how long Ivery was absent on the occasion of the races.

29. He further says that he has been near Ivery's place nearly every second day since he first saw Ivery upon the land, and with the exception of the absences referred to he believes he saw Ivery on every occasion that he was near his place.

30. Mr. Charles Bayly says that he knows Ivery has been absent from his land on two occasions, but cannot say how far Ivery went or long he was absent.

31. He also says that on the only occasion that he was at Ivery's gunyah that he saw Ivery there.

32. Mr. Hole says that he has been close to Ivery's land on several occasions and never saw Ivery upon his land, but saw him away from his land on two occasions.

33. He cannot say how long Ivery was absent from his land on either of these occasions.

34. He also says he was close to Ivery's land on the 18th March, 1874, and did not see even Ivery's gunyah on his land that day, but will not say positively that it was not there.

35. He also says he passed Ivery's gunyah twice previous to 18th March, 1874, and that there was no sign of any one living in it, but cannot say positively whether any one resided in it or not.

36. It thus appears that Ivery's two witnesses, Hayden and Melvil, assert that they have seen Ivery on many occasions on his land since he first took possession.

37. That Mr. Clarence Bayly, one of the witnesses opposed to Ivery, believes that with the exception of a few occasions when Ivery was absent at races and with sheep, that he has seen Ivery on his land nearly every second day since he first saw him there.

38. Mr. Charles Bayly says that on the only occasion that he was at Ivery's gunyah Ivery was there.

39. Mr. Hole says that he never saw Ivery on the land at all, but will not say that Ivery has not resided upon it.

40. As to the time that Ivery's present hut was erected, Mr. Clarence Bayly says there was no other residence upon Ivery's land until within the last five or six weeks but the bark gunyah first erected there.

41. Mr. Charles Bayly says there was no other residence upon Ivery's land but the bark gnyah he first saw there until within the last five or six weeks.

42. Mr. Hole says that the hut upon Ivery's land has been erected since the 18th March, 1874.

43. It will be noticed that Ivery remarks in his statement that there are between 500 and 600 cattle grazing over his land and over the land of four other selectors whose land adjoins his, and that the said four selectors are joint owners of the said cattle with him.

44. With respect to those cattle, Ivery volunteered the information to me that he and his partners had been largely assisted with means to purchase them by a wealthy gentleman in Sydney whom they had served for years, and who had promised to help them on until they had secured homes for themselves.

45. Ivery also stated that the profits upon resale of cattle fattened upon the said land were to be devoted to the repayment of advances made to purchase and improve the said land.

46. I am of opinion that Ivery has established the fact that he was upon his land and commenced to reside upon it within one month from the date of purchase, and that he has resided upon it continuously within the meaning of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861. I am also of opinion that it is not material whether Ivery's present hut was erected within the last five or six weeks, or when it was erected. I think there is nothing improbable in his assertion to me that a gnyah was a residence suitable to his position and past habits, seeing that he has followed the humble occupation of a drover for years past, until he could obtain a better one; and it appears that as soon as he could get a better residence that he did so.

47. And here I ought to mention that it appears there is great difficulty in getting suitable timber in Ivery's neighbourhood either for residences or fencing, and that I was informed and believe that the materials for the improvements upon Ivery's and the adjacent land had to be brought there from a distance of several miles.

I have, &c.,

[Enclosure A to No. 6.]

STATEMENT of Charles Ivery respecting his conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, CHARLES IVERY, am the lawful owner by conditional purchase of the 320 acres of land upon which I now reside; I applied to purchase the said land, paid the deposit required by law, and was declared the purchaser on the 23rd January, 1873; I entered into possession of the said land and erected a hut upon it before the end of the same month; I am quite positive about the time I took possession, from the fact that I was at Tamba Springs races on the 26th January, 1873, and within three or four days after that date I took possession of the land and commenced to reside upon it in my hut; on the day I took possession of my land I met Mr. C. Bayly, manager of Mr. Lawson's Premier Run; I met Mr. Bayly near the south-east corner of my land and had a conversation with him; I then told him I had selected the land; Mr. Melvil, of Trinkey Station, saw me upon my land a day or two after I took possession; Mr. Hayden, who lives near my land, also saw me upon my land a few days after I came there; the first hut I erected upon my land was near Bundalla Creek and about half a mile to the south of my present hut; I removed the first hut; I removed the first hut after my land was surveyed to a position a few yards south of my present hut, and resided there until I built my present slab hut; upon the completion of my present slab hut I commenced to reside in it, and have continued to reside in it to the present time; I have resided continuously upon my land from the day I took possession to the present time, and it was always from that day and is now my bona fide home; there are between 500 and 600 head of cattle grazing over my land and the adjacent land purchased by four other selectors; the said cattle are the joint property of myself and the said four selectors; I can if necessary call upon several persons who know that I have regularly occupied my land.

[Enclosure B to No. 6.]

Statement of Thomas Hayden respecting Charles Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, THOMAS HAYDEN, know the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery. I occupy and am the owner of 320 acres of land, about 1 mile distant from Charles Ivery's purchase. I saw Charles Ivery upon his land about the end of January, 1873. I saw his hut at the same time. The hut was then about half a mile to the south of the present hut, and near Bundalla Creek. I fix the time as the end of January, 1873, from the fact that about the middle of January of that year I had occasion to go to Murrurundi on some special business of my own, and on my way I met Charles Ivery at Trinkey Station. He and I then had a conversation about selecting land. I was away at Murrurundi about a week. A few days after, on my return home, I had occasion to pass along Bundalla Creek, and through C. Ivery's land. I then saw Charles Ivery, and I saw the hut upon his land. I have had a great many opportunities of seeing Charles Ivery upon his land since that date, and have seen him on every occasion that I was upon or near his land, and am quite positive that he has resided continuously upon it.

Witness—THOS. ARGENT, 9 June, 1874.

[Enclosure C to No. 6.]

Statement of Mr. Samuel Melvil, of Trinkey Station, Liverpool Plains, respecting Charles Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, SAMUEL MELVIL, of Trinkey Station, Liverpool Plains, know the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery. I had occasion to pass over the said land about the latter end of January, 1873. I saw Charles Ivery there, and saw that he had a hut then erected on the said land. I have been upon the same land on several occasions since that time, and on every occasion I saw Charles Ivery upon the said land, and have no doubt that he resided there continuously, and that it was his own bona fide home.

Statement

Statement of Mr. Clarence Bayly respecting Charles Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, CLARENCE BAYLY, know the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery. I first saw C. Ivery on the said land in the early part of 1873, I believe about 15th February; I am not positive about the date. I had some sheep lost early in February, and I was searching for them when I first saw C. Ivery upon his land. There is no particular circumstance that I remember which would enable me to fix the date or about the date when I first met C. Ivery upon his land. I am quite positive there was no residence of any kind, neither humpy, gunyah, or hut, upon C. Ivery's land when I first saw him upon it, but he had a horse and cart with him, and materials in the cart for erecting a humpy, or perhaps sufficient for erecting more than one humpy. Within three or four days after I first saw C. Ivery upon his land I saw a humpy erected there. That humpy was near Bundalla Creek, near the east bank of the creek, and south of C. Ivery's present hut. I have had many opportunities of observing C. Ivery's land since I first saw him there. I know that he has been away from his land on three or four different occasions since I first saw him there. I know this from the fact of seeing him driving sheep through Mr. Lawson's Premier Run, on his way to either Sydney or Maitland, as I believe, on one occasion, but I do not know whether he went on to either Sydney or Maitland. I did not see Charles Ivery upon his land for nearly three weeks after that occasion, but I will not positively say that he was not there. On another occasion I saw Charles Ivery at Coolah, on Boxing Day, upon which day races were to have taken place, but did not, they having been postponed to New Year's Day, upon which occasion the races did come off. I also saw Ivery at the Coolah races on New Year's Day, but I will not say that C. Ivery did not go back to his land between Boxing Day and New Year's Day. On another occasion he went to Uabah races. I did not see C. Ivery at those races, but Ivery subsequently told me that he was there, and that he ran a horse which I sold to Mr. Bell. I will not say that Ivery did not return to his land between the dates of Coolah races and Uabah races. The distance from C. Ivery's land to where the races took place at Coolah is about 30 miles, and the distance from Coolah racecourse to Uabah is about 20 miles. From C. Ivery's land to Uabah is about 50 miles. With the exception of those occasions, I have had frequent opportunities of seeing C. Ivery upon his land; in fact, I have been near his place nearly every second day since I first saw C. Ivery on the land, and with the exception of the absences before-mentioned, I believe I have seen C. Ivery on every occasion that I have been near his place. There was no other residence upon C. Ivery's land until within the last five or six weeks, but the bark gunyah first erected on the land. On the first occasion that I saw Ivery upon the land we had a conversation, and in the course of that conversation he told me he had selected the land.

Statement of Mr. Charles Bayly respecting Charles Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, CHARLES BAYLY, know the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery. I cannot say when Ivery first came upon that land, nor can I say when the first "gunyah" or place of residence was first erected there. I know that Charles Ivery has been absent from his land on two occasions. I knew of his absence from seeing him driving sheep between Bundalla and Rockgiddel. On one occasion he told me he was going to Maitland with the sheep, but I do not know whether he went to Maitland or not. On the other occasion I do not know where he was going with the sheep. I do not know how long he was absent from his land on either of these occasions. There was no other residence upon Charles Ivery's land until within the last five or six weeks, unless the bark "gunyah" I first saw there. On the only occasion that I was at Charles Ivery's "gunyah" I saw him there.

Statement of Mr. Samuel Hole respecting Charles Ivery's conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson.

I, SAMUEL HOLE, know the land conditionally purchased by Charles Ivery. I cannot say when Charles Ivery first came upon that land. I first saw his gunyah upon that land in the month of February, 1873. I cannot fix the date of any circumstance that I can remember. The reason I have for saying that it was in the month of February, 1873, is that it was shortly after the time I heard Ivery had selected the land. I have been close to his land on several occasions, and on no occasion did I ever see Ivery upon his land. I saw Ivery away from his land on one occasion driving sheep on the Rockgiddel Road. I do not know how long he was absent from his land. I also saw Charles Ivery at Coolah Races, on New Year's Day. The gunyah I saw on C. Ivery's land was near Bundalla Creek, and about south-west of his present hut. I am positive that there was no other residence than that "gunyah" on the 18th March, 1874. On that date I was close to his land. I went there purposely on that day to see if his fence was being erected on the proper line. I did not see even his gunyah on his land on that day, but I will not say positively that it was not there. The hut at present on Charles Ivery's land has been erected since the 18th March, 1874. I passed his gunyah twice previous to the 18th March, 1874, and there was no sign of any one living in it, but I cannot say positively whether any one resided in it or not.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of Charles Ivery, made at Tamworth, on 23rd January, 1873.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 29th February, 1877, and that I found the selector then resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing or cultivation, and comprises 320 acres, is occupied and used by him as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of grazier, had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Hut	£70 0 0
Cultivation	8 15 0
Fencing	175 0 0
Stables	20 0 0
Yard and gallows	15 0 0
	£318 15 0

From the appearance of the land and the circumstances stated in the following remarks, I am of opinion that the selector has been continuously resident upon the selection.

The applicant was resident on his selection at the time of inspection, and I have seen him before on the land when inspecting in the locality.

I have, &c.,

Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Application by William Adams.

Conditional purchase No. 73-598. [Alienation Act, section 13.]
Land Agent's No., 44 of 1873.

Application by William Adams for the conditional purchase, without competition, of 320 acres unimproved Crown Land, under section 13 of the Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Tamworth.

Sir, 23 January, 1873.

I am desirous of purchasing, without competition, under the 13th section of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, the portion of unimproved Crown Land hereunder described, containing 320 acres; and I herewith tender the sum of £80, being a deposit at the rate of 5s. per acre on the area for which I apply, and on which it is my intention to reside.

I am, &c.,

WILLIAM ADAMS,

Yarraman.

To the Agent for the Sale of Crown Lands at Tamworth.

CHARLES IVERY.

Description.

County of Pottinger, parish of Lawson, 320 acres, at the back of and adjoining Charles Ivery's and Isaac Frith's conditional purchase of 320 acres, made this day.

No. 2.

Mr. Licensed Surveyor Higgins to The Surveyor-General.

Sir,

25 November, 1873.

Application and plan herewith.

I have the honor to transmit herewith the plan of one portion of land containing 320 acres, numbered 34, in the parish of Lawson, in the county of Pottinger, applied for by William Adams, as conditional purchase, under the 13th clause of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861, and measured by me on the 25th October, 1873, in accordance with your instructions No. 73/45 of the 28th February, 1873. At the time of survey applicant was resident on this land, and effected improvements, consisting of a hut worth 10s., on it.

Mr. Argent, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, Northern District, has been instructed to report on this case.—21/5/74.

No. 3.

Mr. Inspector Argent to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Sir,

Bomera, 11 June, 1874.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Minister for Lands, that, in pursuance of the instructions contained in your letter of 21st May last, I inspected the land conditionally purchased by William Adams on the 23rd January, 1873, and ascertained the facts hereafter referred to.

2. William Adams was in the hut upon his land at the time of my visit.
3. The improvements on the said land consist of a bark hut worth about £2, and a humpy worth about £1, and 424 rods of a substantial two-railed fence worth about £85; in all £88.
4. I took down the enclosed statements—to which I beg to invite your attention,—from William Adams, above referred to; from Charles Ivery, the purchaser of the adjacent piece of land; from Charles Bayly, the manager of Mr. Town's Bundalla Station; and from Samuel Hole, the manager of Mr. Town's Bomera Station.
5. It will be seen that William Adams says he entered into possession of the said land on the same day that Charles Ivery took possession of his land—that was about the end of January, 1873,—and that a hut was erected thereon without delay.
6. Charles Ivery says he knows that William Adams took possession on the same day that he (Ivery) did, and that that was a few days after the 26th January, 1873, and that a hut was erected the day after Adams took possession.
7. Charles Bayly says he does not know when Adams first came upon the land, or whether he has ever been upon it.
8. Samuel Hole says he does not know when Adams came upon the said land, but that he first saw a gunyah upon it in February, 1873; he also says that in less than a month after he first saw the gunyah he was looking for the corner-pin of Mr. Town's piece of land, No. 11, and that he went up to the gunyah and looked into it and saw no one there.
9. So far then as to the time when Adams entered into possession, Ivery's and Adams' statements agree that he was in possession and had a place of residence erected within one month from the date of purchase, and Samuel Hole's statement confirms theirs as to the fact of there being a place of residence erected in February, 1873; but he cannot fix the date by any circumstance he can remember.
10. The other witness, Mr. Bayly, cannot say anything upon the point.
11. As to continuous residence, Adams says he has resided continuously upon his land from the day he took possession to the present time.
12. Charles Ivery says that to his certain knowledge Adams has resided continuously upon his land, and says that he has had almost daily opportunities of seeing Adams upon his land.
13. Mr. Charles Bayly says he does not know whether Adams has resided continuously upon the land or not.
14. Mr. Hole says he was near Adams' gunyah upon several occasions and never saw anyone there.
15. I think the balance of testimony as to continuous residence is in favour of Adams.
16. It will be observed that Adams says the land was selected for him by Charles Ivery, and the deposit thereon paid by Ivery as his (Adams') agent, and at his request, and that the improvements have also been paid for by Ivery in the same way.
17. And that repayment of those advances is to be made to Ivery under an arrangement made between them.
18. In a subsequent part of his statement Adams says he is a part owner of the cattle which graze over his land and over the four adjacent selections, and that the owners of those four selections are joint owners of the cattle with him.
19. The said cattle are those referred to in my report upon Charles Ivery's selection, wherein I gave the explanation voluntarily made to me by Ivery, to the effect that the profits on resale of said cattle are to be devoted to the repayment of advances made for the purchase and improvement of the land upon which the cattle are being fattened.
20. Adams also stated to me that he has been connected with Ivery droving for the last twelve years, and that he contributed his savings towards the purchase money of the cattle, and that he and his partners in the cattle were assisted in the purchase by a gentleman in Sydney, who holds security over the land and cattle.
21. Upon the statements made, and from what I have seen, I do not feel justified in recommending the forfeiture of William Adams' land.

I have, &c.,

THOMAS ARGENT.

P.S.—I beg to return herewith the tracing and copy of application forwarded to me.—T.A.

Statement of William Adams respecting his conditional purchase of 320 acres of land in the county of Pottinger, parish of Lawson. C.P. 73-598.

I, WILLIAM ADAMS, am the lawful owner by conditional purchase of the 320 acres of land upon which I now reside. The said land was selected for me by Charles Ivery, as my agent, at my request. The deposit required by law was paid by Charles Ivery for me, and the improvements made upon my land were paid for also by Charles Ivery for me, in pursuance of an arrangement made between Charles Ivery and myself, under which arrangement I am to repay him. I entered into possession of my land the same day that Charles Ivery took possession of his, and my hut was erected without delay. The first hut erected for me was about 200 yards to the eastward of my present hut. That hut was removed to a position a few yards south of my present hut after my land was surveyed. I occupied the latter place until my present hut was erected, and I have resided in it ever since. I have resided continuously upon my land from the day I took possession to the present time. I am part owner of the cattle which graze over my land and over the land of four selectors whose land is adjacent to mine, and who are joint owners of said cattle with me. I assist in herding the said cattle.

Statement of Mr. Charles Bayly respecting William Adams' selection of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, parish of Lawson. C.P. 73-598-44.

I, CHARLES BAYLY, know the land conditionally purchased by William Adams. I know that there was no residence upon that land unless a humpy until within the last five or six weeks. The hut that is now there has been erected within the last five or six weeks. I do not know when Adams first came upon the land, or whether he has ever been upon it, or whether he has resided continuously upon it or not.

Statement of Samuel Hole respecting William Adams' conditional purchase of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, parish of Lawson. C.P. 73-598-44.

I, SAMUEL HOLE, know the land conditionally purchased by William Adams. I do not know when Adams came upon that land. I first saw a gunyah upon Adams' land in February, 1873. I cannot fix the date by any circumstance that I can remember. In less than a month after I first saw the gunyah referred to I was looking for the north-west corner pin of portion 11, the property of Mr. Andrew Town, and I went up to the gunyah on Adams' land and looked into it and saw no one there. I have been near the gunyah on several occasions since and never saw any one there. There was no other residence on Adams' land than that gunyah on 18th March, 1874, the day on which I went to see if C. Ivery's fence was being erected on the proper line.

[Appendix D to No. 3.]

Statement of Charles Ivery respecting William Adams' selection of 320 acres of land, in the county of Pottinger, and parish of Lawson. C.P. 73-598-44.

I, CHARLES IVERY, know the land upon which William Adams resides. I applied to purchase the said land and paid the deposit upon the same for William Adams, as his agent, and at his request. I have also paid for the improvements upon his land, in pursuance of an arrangement made between William Adams and myself, under which arrangement he is to repay me the amount of said deposit and the amount paid and to be paid by me for improvements on said land. I know that William Adams took possession of his land on the same day as I entered upon mine. That day was a few days after the 26th January, 1873. A hut was erected for William Adams the day after he took possession. He has resided continuously upon his land to my certain knowledge ever since he took possession. I have had opportunities almost daily of seeing him upon his land.

Mr. Inspector Geary to The Under Secretary for Lands.

Report by H. V. Geary, Inspector of Conditional Purchases, respecting the selection of William Adams, made at Tamworth, on 23rd January, 1873.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that I visited and inspected the above-described conditional purchase on the 29th February, 1877, and that I found the selector then not resident upon his selection.

The land, which consists of grazing or cultivation, and comprises 320 acres, is not occupied and used by him as his residence; and the selector, who follows the avocation of _____ had at the time of my visit made the improvements hereunder particularly described, the value of which I estimate at the sums respectively stated, viz. :—

Total ...									£295	0	0

The selector was not resident at the time of my visit, nor can I say whether or not he has ever resided of my own knowledge, not having been called upon to inspect it before. The three years had expired at the date of transfer.

I have, &c.,

H. V. GEARY,

Inspector of Conditional Purchases.

Minutes on No. 8.

By the Chief Commissioner:—The declared value of the improvements was £320, or £25 more than the Inspector's estimate of their present value. I do not consider this discrepancy sufficient to warrant further delay in passing the declaration, which is therefore submitted for approval; residence is not now necessary.—A.O.M., 7/4/77.

The deed of grant may be obtained at any time hereafter by payment of the balance of the purchase money, with the interest, if any, then due; but should such payment be deferred interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum must be paid between the 1st January and 31st March in each year until the balance, inclusive of interest as prescribed by law, shall have been duly paid, otherwise the selection will be forfeited.

WILLIAM FREDERICK COLLIER.
(PETITION OF.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 28 August, 1884.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Legislative Assembly of the Colony of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of William Frederick Collier, of Sydney, saddler,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

1. That a Select Committee of your Honorable House was, on the fifteenth day of August instant, duly appointed by your Honorable House to inquire into and report upon the Supreme Court proceedings in connection with and upon the conditional purchase of William Frederick Collier, taken at Cooper's Island.

2. That your Petitioner was the selector of the conditional purchase, the Supreme Court proceedings upon which are about to become the subject of inquiry by such Select Committee; that he is the William Frederick Collier referred to in the first paragraph of this Petition; and that he is therefore directly interested in the result of such inquiry.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays as follows :—

That your Petitioner may be at liberty to attend and be heard by counsel or solicitor before the said Select Committee, with liberty to adduce such evidence as may be deemed advisable concerning the subject matter of the said inquiry, in the interest of your Petitioner.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Dated this nineteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

COLIN MACDONALD.

(PETITION OF.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 29 October, 1884.

To the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly, in Parliament now assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH:—

- 1st. That your Petitioner disputed the title to portion 81, Bukkulla.
- 2nd. That he elicited evidence from the witnesses on which the C.P. was forfeited.
- 3rd. That the C.P. was not forfeited for want of improvements or residence.
- 4th. That the offence for which it was forfeited is a very grave and serious one.
- 5th. That the C.P. Inspector made a complaint which he proved by his own evidence was unfounded, and your Petitioner who made a well founded complaint was summoned as a witness by the Commissioner, instead of giving your Petitioner seven days' notice to appear as a complainant.
- 6th. That the officials could in a few minutes ascertain from the books in the Inverell or head office that no residence was required at the date of inspection, when £2 5s. (two pounds five shillings) worth of improvements per acre were found on the C.P.
- 7th. That your Petitioner protested against having to attend the Inspector's case, and received no reply to the letters sent on the subject during the twelve months prior to the inquiry.
- 8th. That the 25th section of the Act of 1875 and the regulations provide that the travelling expenses of witnesses, summoned at instance of the Commissioner, shall be paid; but your Petitioner's expenses from Breeza to Inverell have not been paid, although applied for. Your Petitioner lost fourteen days' ploughing to attend the Court; and having stripped and sold the wheat, a loss of £8 is apparent in the yield of the latter part. Your Petitioner does not grudge the loss, even if it is not recompensed in this world or the next, as he has got a C.P. forfeited for fraud, which the officials he believes never do. A few cases, due to the exertions of the dummies or the press, have been brought to light, and the C.P.'s forfeited. In this case the holder of the C.P. was a squatter, who had figured as plaintiff in the Supreme Court. The Department neglected to bring forward the most important witness against him, and forfeited the C.P. without completing case. It was about twelve months after the inquiry that the Department ventured to do so, and in the meantime your Petitioner declined to accept a refund of his deposit, as the Department refused to get more evidence, and an official reported that the charge had failed. As ordinary mortals could not read the latter part of the Commissioner's report, it is an open question whether he recommended the C.P. to be passed or forfeited. Your Petitioner points out that he has done work that Department should do but does not do, and that his expenses have not been refunded, and he therefore humbly prays that your Honorable House may do as it deems proper in the case.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

COLIN MACDONALD.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION AGAINST—RESIDENTS OF THE BOGAN ELECTORATE.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 20 November, 1883.

To the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the persons living in the Bogan Electorate,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH:—

1. That your Petitioners regard the Land Bill now before you with serious alarm, inasmuch as they feel satisfied, if it become law it will create widespread ruin throughout this electorate, and put an end to future settlement.

2. That the price proposed to be charged under this Bill both as rent and for fee-simple of land in this district is far in excess of its value, inasmuch as 6 acres will depasture no more than one sheep in all seasons, and owing to the uncertainty of the rainfall, agricultural pursuits are impracticable.

3. That many of your Petitioners would not have become conditional purchasers had it not been for the inducement held out to them of obtaining an area of three times the extent of their conditional purchases as a pre-lease; and to now deprive them of their pre-leases is to render the balance of their holdings utterly useless to them; and it also appears to your Petitioners a very great injustice to confiscate the improvements which have been found indispensable to the profitable working of these pre-leases.

4. That for the aforesaid reasons your Petitioners have the honor to pray you to oppose the passage of the Bill through Parliament.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

CROWN LANDS BILL.
(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—INHABITANTS OF ADELONG.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 27 November, 1883.

To the Honorable the Members of the Legislative Assembly, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the inhabitants of Adelong and surrounding District, at a public meeting held to consider the proposed Land Bill now before Parliament,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH:—

That the Bill requires the following amendments as regards the mining, agricultural, and pastoral interests:—

First. That the mineral lands be resumed as required for mining purposes in the public interests.

Second. That all lands illegally alienated under the 13th clause of the Acts of 1861, '75, and '80, within proclaimed gold-fields, be resumed in such portions as may be required for mining purposes.

Third. That all lands selected under the 13th and 14th clauses (selections on gold-fields) under the above Acts and the proposed Bill be open for mining on obtaining the necessary permission from the department, which authority to dig and search for gold shall give a prior right to the applicant to hold a claim, subject to the provisions of the laws in force for regulating mining on Crown Lands and lands within gold-fields.

Fourth. That all authorized persons making improvements on Crown Lands within gold-fields, for residence, conservation of water, erection of machinery, or other works for mining purposes, be entitled to purchase without competition (subject to the right to mine) from one to ten acres of land, and that the three mile restriction be expunged from the Bill.

Fifth. That a right be given to cut races, and convey water through private property for gold and other purposes—compensation for such right to be given by arbitration.

Sixth. That the license to cut timber on Crown Lands and reserves for mining purposes be one pound sterling per annum; and that the license to remove such timber shall give teamsters the right to camp and graze on Crown Lands and reserves whilst removing such timber.

Seventh. That the pre-leases now held by selectors should not be interfered with, in consequence of the serious injury it would inflict on the present free selector.

Eighth. That the time for fencing be extended to (3) three years after survey, and the selector be entitled to all existing privileges.

Ninth. That the proposed annual payment of one shilling and sixpence per acre per annum on selections and threepence per acre on leases is excessive, and will completely check further settlement in this portion of the eastern division, as the lands now available are too poor for agriculture, and not worth the rent for grazing.

That unless the Bill is considerably modified, as shown in this memorial, it is quite inadequate for, and to the requirements of, the mining, agricultural, and pastoral interests in developing the resources of the Colony, and that it should not become law in its present form.

We therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House, now assembled in Parliament, will give this memorial its serious and earnest consideration.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION AGAINST—INHABITANTS OF NEW ENGLAND.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 11 December, 1883.

To the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned inhabitants of New England,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

That the Land Bill now submitted by the Government is unsuitable to the requirements of the Colony in general and of New England in particular, and should it become law, will tend very materially to prevent further settlement upon the Crown Lands of this Colony, and will also seriously prejudice vested interests of both squatters and selectors.

For the foregoing reasons your Petitioners earnestly pray that your Honorable House will use its best efforts to defeat the Bill.

And your Petitioners will ever pray, &c.

CROWN LANDS BILL.
(PETITION AGAINST—MAYOR OF BROUGHTON VALE.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 17 January, 1884.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned, in name and in behalf of the Municipal Council of Broughton Vale,—

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That Petitioners represent a large community of agricultural and dairy farmers, possessing freehold property on which large capital has been expended under the system of conditional purchase contained in the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861 and subsequent amending enactments.

That Petitioners regard with deep anxiety and much disappointment the proposed Lands Bill now under consideration of Parliament, as embodying principles inimical to the best interests of the community, and practically ruinous to the important section of agricultural settlers and conditional purchasers; and in the judgment of Petitioners the Crown lessees will not be benefited, but they will be rather seriously injured by the provisions of the Bill, resulting in the withdrawal of capital, commercial depression, and depreciation of the staple products of the Colony.

That Petitioners view with alarm the tendency of the proposed measure to interfere with future settlement, and as being calculated to set class against class, affording no adequate remedy for existing abuses, invading the just rights of the rising generation, and so operating as to deter emigrants with capital from investing in the Colony.

Petitioners therefore pray your Honorable House to take the premises into consideration, and in the exercise of your wisdom and undoubted privilege to reject the proposed Lands Bill as distasteful to the majority of the population and subversive of their interests.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Signed in the name and in behalf of the Municipal Council of Broughton Vale, the Corporate Seal being hereto affixed.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—ELECTORS OF BARRABA AND TAMWORTH.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 22 January, 1884.

To the Hons. the Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales.

We the undersigned inhabitants of Barraba and Members of the Electorate of Tamworth,—

PETITIONERS HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

1stly. That the abolition of pre-leases is most ruinous to the bona fide selectors, who in very many instances selected with a view of obtaining pre-leases, and in our own immediate district the majority of selectors were induced to select, believing that the Government would carry out the present Land Law in its integrity, and that our holdings would be greatly enhanced in value by the addition of pre-leases, which if we are now deprived of will render the bulk of our holdings too small to keep sufficient stock for the support of our families.

2ndly. That the fencing clause is unjust and oppressive to the selector of limited means, and if carried will place the lands of the Colony beyond the grasp of the poorer classes.

3rdly. That the non-residence clause be rendered of benefit to town residents alone, seeing that if such precaution be not taken the Crown Lands will be monopolized by capitalists.

Your Petitioners humbly pray that you will take the several matters contained herein into your serious consideration.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—RESIDENTS OF WENTWORTH.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 22 January, 1884.

To the Honorable the Members of the Legislative Assembly, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Honorable House, the humble Petition of the undersigned Selectors and Residents in the district of Wentworth, in the Western Division,—

SHOWETH :—

That if the Bill now before your Parliament for the alteration of the Land Laws of the Colony be passed, it will materially and prejudicially affect the interest of your Petitioners, and in particular, if the clauses referring to the Western Division be passed, cause ruin to many of the selectors in the district.

The present law, which has proved a boon and blessing to many an industrious family, your Petitioners most respectfully ask may not be repealed.

Your Petitioners beg most respectfully to point out to your Honorable House that, should the present Act be amended, the clauses in reference to pre-emptive leases to squatters, and the system of reserves which has been much abused, may be so amended as to prevent the large owners monopolizing that which was intended for the use and enjoyment of the many.

That improvement purchase and land sales be abolished, except for town and suburban land.

That free selection be continued, with rights to pre-emptive leases as contiguous as possible to the selection.

That the deposit be one shilling per acre, and nineteen annual instalments of one shilling per acre in payment of the fee simple.

The rent of the pre-emptive leases to be the same as at present.

Your Petitioners beg most respectfully to bring before your Honorable House the fact that, if the Bill now before the House be passed into law, it will be a gross injustice to your Petitioners and selectors generally, and a great detriment to the interests of the Colony generally.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray your Honorable House to take these matters into your consideration.

And your Petitioners will ever pray, &c.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—SELECTORS AND LANDHOLDERS OF BOMBALA.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 29 January, 1884.

To the Honorable the Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled

1. We, the undersigned, selectors and landholders in the District of Bombala, Monaro, view with alarm the proposal in the new Land Bill (which has passed its second reading) to abolish all pre-leases, and should the same become law we shall be utterly ruined and our positions rendered untenable.

2. The chief part of us whose signatures are attached have gone to the expense of ring-barking and fencing-in our said leases, relying upon the good faith of the Government. If our leases are taken away we shall be compelled to sell out, and our holdings will revert to the original run-holders.

3. The land we hold as lease is poor, unsaleable country, and not likely to be required for sale or settlement for a number of years, and we are content with the present tenure by which we hold it.

4. The minimum rent of £8 per section, fixed by the new Bill for what land may be held as pre-lease, we humbly submit is most excessive, considering the poorness of the land.

5. We also submit that the time given for fencing by the new Bill is far too short, and beyond our powers to comply with.

6. We therefore most respectfully pray that these portions of the Bill may be modified in Committee, and particularly that our pre-leases be respected.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—BAGO AND UPPER TUMBARUMBA PROGRESS ASSOCIATION.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 31 January, 1884.

To the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly.

Gentlemen,—

The Committee of the Bago and Upper Tumbarumba Progress Association, noting that the new Land Bill now before the House contains no provision for mining interests, such as are comprised in the existing Land Act, respectfully beg in the interests of miners in this locality to request that the subjoined resolutions, which have been adopted at various miners' meetings, be embodied in the new Land Bill, during its progress through Committee of the Legislative Assembly.

1st. That all mineral lands be resumed, as required for mining purposes, in the public interest.

2nd. That all lands improperly obtained and withheld from mining research under the 13th clause of the Land Acts of 1861, '75, '80, being within proclaimed gold fields, be resumed in such portions as may be required for mining purposes.

3rd. That all land selected under the 13th and 14th clauses of Land Acts on gold fields be open to mining on permission obtained from the Minister for Mines, whose authority to dig and search for gold shall give a prior right to the discoverer to hold a claim, subject to the provisions of the law in force regulating mining on Crown Lands within gold fields.

4th. That all authorised persons making improvements on Crown Lands within gold fields, by residence, conservation of water, or other works required for mining purposes, be permitted to purchase, without competition, from 1 to 10 acres, subject to the abovementioned conditions.

5th. That a right be given to cut races and carry water through private property for gold and other mining purposes, on compensation being given by arbitration.

6th. That the license to cut, split, and remove timber on Crown Lands, or reserves, for mining purposes, be £1 per annum, and that the license give the right to teamsters to camp and graze their teams on all Crown Lands or reserves.

The Committee therefore pray that your Honorable House will give effect to the foregoing amendments.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

On behalf of the Committee,

Chairman.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—CONDITIONAL PURCHASERS OF GUNBAH, HAY, AND HILLSTON.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 31 January, 1884.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,—

We the undersigned bona fide conditional purchasers of land in and around Gunbah, county of Nicholson, Hay, and Hillston Land Districts, hereby petition you to secure to us our pre-leases by the new Land Bill before your Honorable House.

We do so on the following grounds, namely:—

That we have been induced to come to this district, and conditionally purchase lands, the very best of which, in an average season it takes three acres to feed a sheep, one of which conditions was our pre-leases.

That to abolish these pre-leases would be repudiation on the part of the State, would force us to sell out our holdings at any price, and thereby help monopoly in land, decrease settlement, and bring ruin to thousands of homes.

That an equitable distribution of a portion of the Crown Lands on lease among conditional purchasers at present settled on the land, as well as to future conditional purchasers, is the surest way not only to promote but to retain settlement of the people on the soil.

That this district either at the present or in the near future will not bear close settlement for many reasons, the principal one of which is the very small amount of rainfall.

That what might appear to some people too large an area to allot to one person by conditional purchase and pre-lease would not so appear if such people were acquainted with the different circumstances of this district.

That such areas will be doing the work of building up a nation by rearing large families on them, among whom these areas in the near future will be subdivided, and altered circumstances make them capable of rearing four families in place of one.

That in any case where this result would not be brought about the Government should retain the power of resuming such areas by paying a fair present value for them, and place others on such areas as would bring about such results.

That consolidated pre-leases is an abuse of the law of 1861 is illegal, and should therefore be abolished.

That some of these consolidated pre-leases amount to ninety thousand acres, if not in many instances more, outside which area would support twenty families if subdivided, but only support now one or two boundary-riders.

That four or five thousand acres is not too much of a pre-lease or conditional lease to grant or secure to one person with his conditional purchase, for settlers if not prosperous will be no support to the State or country, and prosperous they cannot be here unless they can own one or two thousand sheep.

That many conditional purchasers have been left so situated by abuses of existing Land Laws as to preclude them from extending their areas on either adjoining or conterminous lands. That such conditional purchasers should be considered in the new Bill, by allowing them to extend on the nearest Crown Lands if not more than five miles distant from their original purchase, or the Government should resume their holding and pay them a fair present value, and provide them with another home where they could get their area.

That your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will take these premises into your most serious consideration, and that you make such alterations in the Bill now before your Honorable House as shall secure to your Petitioners conditions securing a tenure of their pre-leases, for which they are willing to pay a fair rental.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—CROWN LESSEES OF THE CLARENCE DISTRICT.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 31 January, 1884.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned Crown Lessees and others in the Clarence District,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That in the opinion of your Petitioners the minimum rental proposed to be charged in the new Land Bill of 2d. per acre on all pastoral lands in this the Eastern Division (comprising as it does so much useless and barren country, on which only store cattle can be raised, and on which wool cannot be grown) is excessive and arbitrary, and if carried into effect would be ruinous to the majority of the runholders, who would be forced to sacrifice and abandon their holdings.

That the only just and equitable method of determining rentals would be by appraisalment and classification, and basing the rental on the grazing capabilities of each holding.

That in the opinion of your Petitioners the Eastern Division should be bounded on the west by main dividing range.

That the proposed tenure of five years only is altogether inadequate, and offers no inducement to the lessee to expend his capital in making permanent improvements so as to derive any benefit therefrom, and said tenure should be very considerably extended.

That on the eastern watershed the division of runs in all cases is not desirable, owing to the large quantity of alienated land in detached blocks, and the residue of unalienated land being mostly valueless for selection, and where such division is decided upon the Government should furnish the necessary plans.

That the proposed method of election of local Land Boards is objectionable. That said Boards should consist of persons practically acquainted with the capabilities of the district in which they will adjudicate, and one-half of whom at least should be appointed by the electors in their respective districts.

That the time proposed to be allowed (six months) for fencing a selection is altogether too limited, and should be considerably extended; and Land Boards should have power to exempt agricultural scrub lands from fencing when such is unnecessary; and all fencing should be considered and valued as improvements.

That Crown lessees should not be compelled to pay half-cost of fencing unless such fence adjoins their purchased land, and that the right of impounding shall not be allowed off any purchased or preleased land until same be substantially fenced.

Your Petitioners therefore respectfully pray that you may be pleased to take this petition into your favourable consideration, and afford such relief as may seem to you just and equitable, and most conducive to the benefit, welfare, and prosperity of all classes of the community in this district, and of the Colony of New South Wales in general.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Signed in name and on behalf of the Crown lessees and others of the Clarence District.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION RESPECTING PRE-LEASES—ELECTORS OF THE HUME.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 27 May, 1884.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned Electors of The Hume Electorate,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

That the proposal in the Land Bill now before your Honorable House, enacting "that all land held under pre-emptive lease shall after the 31st December 1884 be held to be Crown Lands freed from such lease," will if it becomes law operate against the interests of a large number of persons who hold these leases, many of whom selected inferior land in order to obtain them and to hold with greater security, and without which their conditional purchases are of much less value.

That the proposal to substitute conditional leases, and limiting them to purchasers who are resident will be a great hardship, inasmuch as many have fulfilled all the conditions required of them at the time these leases were approved of, and have again selected, consequently will be unable to comply with the condition of residence required by the proposed conditional leases, while at the same time their pre-lease will be taken away, and become part of the run on which it was originally situated ; which is practically taking the pre-lease from the conditional purchaser (who has fenced and otherwise improved it) and handing it over to the pastoral lessee. The hardship becomes more apparent when it is seen that the Land Bill proposes to give such lessee a secure tenure of half the area of his Crown Lands, which will include these pre-leases taken from the conditional purchaser who is not permitted to retain them without tenure.

We therefore pray that your Honorable House would be pleased to provide in the new Land Bill that conditional purchasers be allowed the option to retain their pre-leases on the present tenure, and are content that they remain open for selection ; and also a fair annual value to be taken by appraisement, and surveyed to ascertain correct area.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

CROWN LANDS BILL.
(PETITION AGAINST—FARMERS OF WELLINGTON.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 2 October, 1884.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly, Sydney.

The humble Petition of Farmers and others of Wellington :—

We, your most humble Petitioners most respectfully invite your attention to, and are led to hope that you may perceive that it is to the best interests of the Colony, and to the industrial classes in particular, to expunge the fencing clause from the Land Bill now before the Legislative Council. The fencing clause would undoubtedly deter many from selecting, and would prove ruinous to those who did select, as it must be clearly apparent that people with limited means require to be left at liberty to improve the land in the manner best calculated to bring in a speedy return, without being compelled to fence the whole of the land, which in many cases would prove an unnecessary and ruinous proceeding.

We therefore pray that when the Bill is again submitted for your consideration you will use your best endeavours to prevent it from becoming law.

And your Petitioners will ever pray, &c.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

CROWN LANDS BILL.

(PETITION FOR AMENDMENT OF—RESIDENTS OF BUNDARRA AND DISTRICT.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 8th October, 1884.

To the Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned Residents of Bundarra and District, in the Colony of New South Wales,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That at a public meeting held at Bundarra, on 25th September, 1884, the following resolutions were unanimously carried:—

1. That in the opinion of this meeting the clauses in the new Land Act abolishing pre-emptive leases and substituting conditional leases with less area and compulsory fencing within two years, with no preferent right to purchase by selectors under the Act to be repealed, and also the resumption of half the Crown Lands from selection, are injurious to the interests and prosperity of the whole Colony and to the inhabitants of New England in particular.

2. That in the opinion of this meeting all existing rights and vested interests should be upheld and respected; that all holders of pre-lease lands held by virtue of conditional purchases should be entitled to retain them; and further, that such pre-leases should be converted into conditional leases with security of tenure for ten years, with the option of purchasing a part or the whole within ten years, and that the rent of such conditional leases be 1d. per acre per annum.

3. That existing conditional purchasers have the same privileges on the leasehold as on the resumed areas, especially as to the power to increase the areas of their conditional purchase to the 640 acres originally contracted for with the Government.

4. That the above resolutions be embodied in the form of a petition and sent to Mr. Proctor for presentation to the Legislative Assembly.

For the foregoing reasons your Petitioners earnestly pray that your House will use its best efforts to amend the Land Bill and make such alterations as will meet the wishes of your Petitioners.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(THIRD SESSION.)

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

THE LAND LAW.

(PETITION OF H. W. S. EDMUNDS.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 16 November, 1883.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

THIS PETITION HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

That the people have not now that natural enjoyment of their rights upon the land of their country which they should have.

That it is disgraceful in a people possessed of such enormous wealth as we are that a portion of the people—by far the greater part—should be compelled, from circumstances beyond their control, to locate themselves in lanes and back slums, in habitations so small, so miserable and so wholly unfit for human occupation as homes, that regard can be paid neither to decency, comfort, health, nor morality.

That every living man of average health possesses in himself the power of creating sufficient wealth wherewith to support himself and a family in comfort, provided the machinery of civilization be in proper working order, and that it is only from some radical defect in the social system that the birth of a child is a source of poverty and not a positive addition to the prospective wealth and well-being of the world.

That our national expenditure in maintaining our schools is but a useless expenditure, unless the people are able to be provided with better homes, and that no individual circumstances, however humble they may be, should compel him to forfeit his natural claims and rights to the opportunity of making for himself and his family a pleasant dwelling place, and to health, fresh air, and order.

That a soil of a country is the common property of its inhabitants, because necessary to their living and to the production of that food upon which they must all be fed, and that accordingly it should be employed for the highest good of the entire population in common.

That in order to convert the present homes of the people into suitable dwelling places for human beings in a christian civilized state it is necessary that the people should possess each an individual stake in the country.

That any laws with respect to the public use of the land which will give permanent satisfaction to the people must be constituted on the principle so truly equitable that every being born into the world brings with him an inherent claim to a part of the earth's surface, whereon he may have the opportunity of continuing his existence until he be removed from the earth by the same power that planted him there.

That when the people rule, the ownership of greater part of the common heritage by a few thousands may not wisely or safely be allowed so to remain, inasmuch as those few are, independently of their irresponsibility to the State, unfit to be entrusted with entire control over that part of the earth to which thousands have a just claim, in order to sustain that existence which has become theirs not of their own wills.

That the people become thrifty and possessed of healthful habits when they individually feel that their common claims receive just recognition.

That under just administration of an Act providing for the enjoyment of the common rights of the people upon the land this country might be made to sustain in comfort many millions of our fellows.

That the possession of a vested conservative interest in the State by the holding of a stake therein is that which should belong to all, independent of colour, creed, or opinions, and is that which is the surest guarantee of good behaviour on the part of the possessors.

That the recognition of the common claims of the people in respect to the land will be the surest means of attracting capital to investment in the soil, thus adding to the wealth and strength of the country in the safest possible manner, and affording security such as none other can give for the rights of property and the permanency of the most valuable institutions of the people.

That the present system of land administration affords no guarantee that personal interest shall be an adequate security that land held under it shall be employed to the general advantage, and that those who hold land now in most instances employ it solely to their own aggrandisement.

That the right of each man to the use of the earth is limited only by the like rights of his fellow-men, and that the maintenance of this right necessarily forbids absolute private possession of land, and that this latter is wholly opposed to the spirit of the British Constitution, according to which "all the land in the Kingdom is held subject to the claims of the people, whether it be so specified or not." And "an individual can only hold an estate inland," which is virtually primarily vested in the Sovereign on behalf of the people.

That vast numbers of the people are forced, from circumstances over which they have no control, to take up their abode in small, unpleasant, dwelling places in narrow streets and by-ways, where misery, impure air, dens of infamy, and general social demoralization are the most enticing surroundings.

That in order best to secure the proper enjoyment of the common rights of the people upon their legal natural heritage, it is expedient that, as with all other public properties, the land be placed under public management with a view towards meeting the highest interests, not merely of the present generation but of all future generations; and that until the State itself becomes its own landlord, discontent and poverty must prevail, and although great riches may be amassed by some, the majority of the people will remain deprived of much comfort to which they are entitled.

That under State management in respect to the settlement, occupation, and transfer of the land, tenure of land could be made just as secure and fixed as now.

That in placing the land under public management your Petitioner is of opinion that it will be necessary to provide as follows:—

I. That, as including in them all others, the following chief public interests in the land be recognised and provided for, viz.:—

- (a) The domestic interest.
- (b) The manufacturing and trading interest.
- (c) The agricultural interest.
- (d) The mining interest.
- (e) The timber interest.
- (f) The pastoral interest.
- (g) The public combinations interest.

The domestic interest, as being that common to all civilized beings, be they connected with whatever other public interest. The manufacturing and trading interest, as being that of converting the raw materials of nature into articles required by man, either to sustain his life or to provide for his comfort and convenience, and of storing and preserving them, and of distributing them amongst those for whom they were produced. The agricultural interest, as being that of cultivating the soil with a view to the production of food or material required by man for himself or his creatures. The mining interest, as being that of extracting from the ground such metals and minerals as may be deemed to have a human use and value. The timber interest, as being that of obtaining native wood for public purposes. The pastoral interest, as being that of pasturing from time to time on public lands not otherwise required by the public animals good for the food of man and for other human purposes. The public combination interest, as being that of any lawful corporation, any church or congregation of people for the worship of God, any duly constituted authority or assemblage of persons for matters of State, any friendly or scientific association, or any society for purposes not otherwise provided for.

- II. That with a view toward ascertaining what parts of the country are most suitable to be devoted to the agricultural, the mining, the timber, and the pastoral interests, such competent experts be appointed as shall be necessary to furnish the required information, and that such experts consist of parties made up of a practical agriculturist and a practical geologist.
- III. That all public lands, whether transferred to the public individual use or whether Crown lands, be equally under the operations of the Act providing for the public management of the land.
- IV. That the land devoted to each interest respectively be divided into allotments, yet that until other provision be made it be open to any person, subject to the terms of the Act providing for the public management of the land, to occupy as many allotments as he choose.
- V. That, as soon as the required information as to suitability of the land has been obtained, it be laid out into allotments, of size hereafter stated, according to the particular interest for which the land may be suited, and that towards this end such surveyors as shall be necessary be appointed.
- VI. That land at present in use in connection with the domestic interest be not subject to examination by experts aforesaid.
- VII. That the examination and apportionment of lands transferred already to individual use be completed within eighteen months from date of commencement, and that the Public Management Act come into operation actively in each locality as it shall be made ready, and that until such time existing arrangements continue undisturbed.
- VIII. That as soon as the Public Management Act come into operation in any locality duly qualified officers be appointed to determine separately the pecuniary equivalent for whatever interest individuals by ownership in fee simple, or by lease or other system of possession, may possess in the respective allotments into which the land may be divided, and that such interest be in every case reckoned by the value of the land as represented by the price latest obtained for land of a similar character in the immediate neighbourhood, and by the value of erected improvements as shown by trustworthy documents or evidence as to their cost, and by the present market value of material employed in such improvements—having regard to the price of the labour concerned in their erection—due allowance in every case, where necessary, being made for depreciation in value owing to decay of structure.
- IX. That all improvements erected in accordance with the terms of the Public Management Act be duly valued upon erection, as shall be specially provided for in connection with each interest respectively.
- X. That in order to provide an opportunity for appeal against any valuation made under the Public Management Act, special Courts of appeal be established to inquire into appeals, and to award such further sum, where due, as shall make up the full pecuniary equivalent for private interest.

- XI. That where improvements intended for human habitation are already erected on portions of grounds of smaller size than the allotments which may be prescribed by the Public Management Act, such improvements be open to occupation similar to those on allotments of the required size, saving, however, that the occupants of such improvements on payment of compensation in a sum determined as the pecuniary equivalent therefor, in the manner which may be prescribed by that Act, retain undisturbed possession of such improvements, without however, having, unless provision be made otherwise by special private contract, any entitlement to the fee-simple of the land on which they stand, and that as soon as such improvements become in such a state of disrepair as, in the opinion of duly appointed officers to inquire into such matters, shall render them unfit for human occupation, no further improvements be erected on such ground, unless as part of a proper sized allotment, or in connection with the manufacturing and trading, or the public combination interest, and that, as in all other cases of occupation and ownership of pecuniary interest, nothing prevent the owner of the land disposing of his interest therein for any consideration he choose to accept, or the occupant of the improvements from transferring at any time his interest therein to any other person for any consideration he choose to accept.
- XII. That building improvements on lands of larger size than the allotments prescribed by the Public Management Act be under the same provisions as those on ground of smaller size than the said allotments, according to the respective interest in which it be situated, saving, however, that any unimproved allotment in whole or in part in such ground shall be open to occupation.
- XIII. That the domestic interest in connection with all other interests be kept distinct from, although conjoined to all other interests, by the establishment of separate villages for domestic purposes.
- XIV. LAND LEGISLATION.

(PETITION SUGGESTING AMENDMENTS--MAYOR OF DUBBO.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 25 June, 1884.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

This humble Petition of Robert Booth, Esq., the Worshipful the Mayor of Dubbo, as Chairman of a public meeting of squatters, selectors, and citizens, resident in the pastoral districts of Bligh, Wellington, and the Warrego, and the town of Dubbo, held in the Town Hall, Dubbo, on the thirteenth day of May instant,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

That the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, namely :—

1. That, in view of the heavy losses sustained in the north-west during the last three years, by pastoral tenants and conditional purchasers, in consequence of the drought, this meeting is of opinion that Parliament should be respectfully petitioned to so frame legislation as, in some way, to mitigate their condition in the future when the Colony may again be visited by these periodic calamities.
2. That this meeting is of opinion that a maximum rental should be fixed for all pastoral holdings, and that all rentals be appraised ratably therewith, according to carrying capacity.
3. That this meeting is of opinion that the existing rights of pre-lease holders should be respected, as far as consistent with public policy, and, further, that no legislation can be considered permanently satisfactory which does not, as respects tenure and rental, place the pre-lease holder and the Crown tenant on an equal footing.
4. That a Petition embodying the above resolutions be signed by the Mayor, on behalf of this meeting, and presented to the Legislative Assembly.

That your Petitioner respectfully prays that your Honorable House will take the matters named into your serious consideration, and grant such relief as to you may seem fit.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Dubbo, 23 May, 1884.

ROBERT BOOTH,
