VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

---

FIRST SESSION OF THE FORTY-THIRD PARLIAMENT

---

WEDNESDAY, 21 APRIL, 1971

The House met pursuant to adjournment. Mr Speaker took the Chair.

Mr Speaker offered the Prayer.

1. CIVIL AVIATION (CARRIERS' LIABILITY) AMENDMENT BILL.—The following Message from His Excellency the Governor was delivered by Mr Morris and read by Mr Speaker:

K. W. STREET,

By Deputation from His Excellency the Governor. Message No. 38.

In accordance with the provisions contained in the 46th section of the Constitution Act, 1902, the Governor recommends for the consideration of the Legislative Assembly the expediency of making provision to meet the requisite expenses in connection with a Bill to make further provisions relating to the carriage of passengers and baggage by air; for this purpose to amend the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act, 1967; and for purposes connected therewith.

Government House,

Sydney, 19 April, 1971.

2. PETITION—LAKE ILLAWARRA CROSSING.—Mr Petersen presented a Petition from certain residents of the Illawarra region of New South Wales representing that the present bridge across the mouth of Lake Illawarra partly consists of an earth embankment on the southern side of the Lake; that the earth embankment lies across what was once the main channel to the sea and its construction has caused siltation of the Lake and the destruction of valuable nursery areas used for the maintenance of marine life; and praying that the Legislative Assembly will take immediate steps to ensure that during construction of the new bridge across the Lake entrance, parallel with the existing bridge, provision be made for a channel on the southern side, and that a similar provision apply to the old bridge when it is reconstructed.

Petition received.

21 April, 1971

Mr Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr Bruxner, Temporary Chairman, reported that the Committee had come to a Resolution, which was read, as follows:

(1) Resolved—

- (A) That towards raising the amounts to be payable to Her Majesty for the purposes of the Act to give effect to the land Aggregation Tax Management Bill, 1971 (in this Resolution referred to as "the Principal Act"), there shall, in respect of all land used for primary production and owned by any person as at midnight on the day on which any taxing year ends, be charged, levied, collected and paid, under the provisions of that Act and at the times and in the manner therein prescribed, for credit of the Special Deposits Account in the Treasury, called the Closer Settlement and Public Reserves Fund, established under the Closer Settlement and Public Reserves Fund Act, 1970, aggregation tax in respect of that taxing year calculated on the taxable value attributable to that person at the respective rates set out in the Schedule hereunder.

SCHEDULE.

Where the taxable value as assessed under the Principal Act	Rate of aggregation tax payable
Does not exceed .. $150,000	Twenty per centum of the taxable value exceeds $150,000 but does not exceed ..... $400,000	Thirty per centum of the taxable value exceeds $400,000 but does not exceed ..... $700,000	Forty per centum of the taxable value exceeds $700,000 but does not exceed ..... $1,000,000	Fifty per centum of the taxable value exceeds ..... $1,000,000	Sixty per centum of the taxable value

27 April, 1971

Resolved further—

- (B) That notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (A) of this Resolution, the amount of aggregation tax payable by any person shall, where necessary in order to produce a lower amount than would but for this paragraph be payable, be reduced so as not to exceed the amount of aggregation tax which would be payable on the taxable value attributable to that person at the next lower rate under the Schedule in paragraph (A) of this Resolution with the addition of the amount by which such taxable value exceeds that taxable value on which the highest amount of aggregation tax could be so payable at that lower rate.

Resolved further—

- (C) That where the total amount of aggregation tax payable by any person in any year would be less than one dollar, no aggregation tax shall be payable.

Resolved further—

- (D) That where upon the assessment of aggregation tax an amount expressed in dollars and cents is arrived at the cents shall be disregarded.

On motion of Mr Lewis the Resolution was agreed to.

9. LAND AGGREGATION TAX BILL.—

- (1) Ordered, on motion of Mr Lewis, That a Bill be brought in, founded on Resolution of Ways and Means (No. 1), to impose an aggregation tax upon the taxable value of certain lands; and for purposes connected therewith.

- No. 5.—Page 41, clause 9. After line 5 insert the following new clauses—

“10. The Securities Industry Act, 1970, is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No.
35, 1970.

- (a) by inserting in section three next after the matter relating to Part VIII the following new matter:—
- Sec. 3.
(Division into Parts.)

PART VIII A.—INSIDER TRADING—s. 75A.

- (b) by inserting next after section seventy-five the following new heading and section:—
- New sec.
75A.

PART VIII A.—INSIDER TRADING.

75A (1) Where, through his association with a corporation or body, a person has knowledge of specific information relating to the corporation or body or to securities issued or made available by the corporation or body and that information is not generally known but, if generally known, might reasonably be expected to affect materially the market price of those securities, he is guilty of an offence against this Act if he—trading.

- (a) deals, directly or indirectly, in those securities for the purpose of gaining an advantage for himself by the use of that information; or
- (b) divulges that information for the purpose of enabling another person to gain an advantage by using that information to deal, directly or indirectly, in those securities.

Penalty: Two thousand dollars.

(2) Where an offence under subsection one of this section is committed and an advantage referred to in that subsection is gained from a dealing in securities to which the offence relates, any person who gained that advantage is, whether or not any person has been prosecuted for or convicted of that offence—

- (a) liable to another person for the amount of any loss incurred by that other person by reason of the gaining of that advantage; or
- (b) liable to the corporation or body that issued or made available those securities for any profit that accrued to him by reason of the gaining of that advantage.

(3) Where a loss or profit referred to in subsection two of this section is incurred by reason of an advantage gained from a dealing in securities, the amount of the loss or profit is the difference between—

- (a) the price at which the dealing was effected; and
- (b) the price that, in the opinion of the court before which it is sought to recover the amount of the loss or profit, would have been the market price of the securities at the time of the dealing if the specific information used to gain that advantage had been generally known at that time.

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY
5 May, 1971

(4) The Commission may, if it considers it to be in the public interest so to do, bring an action in the name of and for the benefit of a corporation or other body or person for recovery of a loss or profit referred to in subsection two of this section.

(5) An action to recover a loss or profit referred to in subsection two of this section may not be brought after—

- (a) the expiration of the period of two years next succeeding the dealing in securities to which the action relates; or
- (b) the expiration of the period of six months next succeeding the discovery of the relevant facts by the person who suffered the loss or seeks to recover the profit, whichever first occurs.

(6) For the purposes of subsection one of this section, a person is associated with a corporation or other body—

- (a) if, in the case of a corporation, he is an officer of the corporation or of a related corporation within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1961;
- (b) if, in the case of a body other than a corporation, he bears to that body a relationship analogous to the relationship borne to a corporation by an officer of the corporation;
- (c) if he acts, or has acted, as banker, solicitor, auditor or professional adviser, or in any other capacity, for the corporation or body;
- (d) if he has a beneficial interest in one or more shares in the corporation or body and the nominal amount of that share, or the aggregate of the nominal amounts of those shares is not less than one-tenth of the aggregate of the nominal amounts of all the issued shares of the corporation or body; or
- (e) where the person so associated by virtue of paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection is a corporation, if he is a director, manager or secretary of that corporation.

11. (1) The Companies Act, 1961, is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
71, 1961.

- (a) (i) by omitting from paragraph (b) of subsection one of section one hundred and twenty-two the word 'or';
- (ii) by omitting from paragraph (c) of the same subsection the word 'three,' and by inserting in lieu thereof the following words:—
three; or
- (d) of an offence under subsection (1) of section 75A of the Securities Industry Act, 1970,;
- (b) by inserting in subsection four of section one hundred and twenty-four after the word 'company' the words ', but a person is not liable to the company under this section, or guilty of an offence against this Act, in respect of a breach of the provisions of this section that is an offence under section 75A of the Securities Industry Act, 1970'.

Sec. 122.
(Power to restrain certain persons from managing companies.)

Sec. 124.
(As to duty and liability of officers.)

(2) This section commences on the day on which section ten of this Act commences."

13. STANDING ORDERS.—Mr Willis moved, pursuant to Notice—

(1) That this House agrees to and adopts the following new Standing Orders, amendments to certain Standing Orders, and the rescission of Standing Orders 50, 334, 335 and 344, as follow:

New Standing Orders

DAYS AND HOURS OF SITTING

40A. Unless otherwise ordered:—

- (1) The House shall meet for the despatch of business at 2.30 o'clock, p.m., on Tuesday and Wednesday, and at 11.00 o'clock, a.m., on Thursday in each week.
- (2) Upon the expiration of fifteen minutes after the Motion for the Adjournment of the House has been made, the Speaker shall adjourn the House, without Question put.

No Member shall speak to such motion for more than ten minutes.

EARLIER MEETING OF HOUSE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

50A. Whenever the House stands adjourned and it is represented to the Speaker by the Government that the public interest requires that the House should meet at any earlier time during the adjournment, the Speaker, if he is satisfied that the public interest does so require may prior to that date by telegram or letter addressed to each Member of the House fix an earlier day of meeting.

Provided that if the Speaker is unable to act owing to any cause, the Chairman of Committees shall act in his stead for the purposes of this Standing Order.

PETITION TO BEAR CLERK'S CERTIFICATE

81A. Every Petition shall be produced to the Clerk at least one hour previous to the meeting of the House at which it is proposed to present the same, and no Petition shall be presented to the House unless it bears the Clerk's certificate that it is in conformity with the Standing Orders.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS

122A. Unless otherwise ordered, and except during the currency of debate on the Address in Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech, General Business shall take precedence of Government Business each Tuesday until 6.00 o'clock p.m.; after that hour and on Wednesdays and Thursdays, Government Business shall take precedence of General Business. Notices of Motions shall take precedence on the first four Tuesdays upon which the House shall sit and General Business has precedence. Thereafter Orders of the Day and Notices of Motions shall take precedence on each alternate Tuesday. Whenever the House stands adjourned over any such Tuesday or Tuesdays General Business set down for consideration shall be transferred to the next succeeding Tuesday or Tuesdays as the case may be so that all Business shall retain its relative position and precedence.

Amendments

39.—By omitting all words and inserting in lieu thereof the following words:

"FORMAL BUSINESS ONLY BEFORE ADOPTION OF ADDRESS

No business beyond that which is of a formal character shall be entered upon before the Address in Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech has been adopted, except for the appointment of Sessional Orders and Committees or as provided in Standing Orders 28, 29A, 49, 113A, 161 and 395."

48.—By omitting the words and figures "mentioned in Rules 23, 42 and 44" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "provided in Standing Orders 23, 40A, 42, 44 and 49".

By adding the words "on the Motion of a Minister of the Crown."

6 May, 1971

49.—By omitting all words and inserting in lieu thereof the following words:

“ADJOURNMENT FOR URGENT CONSIDERATION OF SPECIFIC MATTER

- (a) No Motion for the adjournment of the House under this Standing Order shall be entertained until the Formal Business shall have been disposed of and then only for the purpose of discussing a specific matter that should have urgent consideration; a Member desirous of moving such a Motion shall state the subject thereof in writing to the Speaker at least thirty minutes before the time appointed for the meeting of the House and shall also deposit a copy of the Notice of such Motion in the box on the Speaker's desk before the conclusion of Formal Business.
- (b) The Speaker shall advise the Leader of the Government or the Minister whose administration is concerned of any Notices of Motion under this Standing Order as soon as practicable after the receipt thereof.
- (c) At the conclusion of Formal Business the Speaker shall take a Notice of Motion from the box and if he is satisfied that the matter is proper to be so discussed he will call upon the Member whose signature is appended thereto to move ‘That this House do now adjourn’. If the Motion is supported by five other Members standing in their places, the Speaker shall propose the Question.
- (d) In determining whether a matter is proper to be discussed, the Speaker shall have regard to the extent to which it concerns the administrative responsibilities of Ministers of the Crown or could come within the scope of Ministerial action. In determining whether a matter is urgent the Speaker shall have regard to the probability of the matter being brought before the House in a reasonable time by other means.
- (e) The Speaker may entertain points upon the Question whether the matter is proper to be discussed and when he states whether or not he is satisfied that the matter is proper to be discussed he need not give the reasons for his decision to the House. There shall be no dissent from the Ruling given.
- (f) The Member and the Minister first speaking shall not exceed thirty minutes, and any other Member or the Mover in reply shall not exceed ten minutes.
- (g) No second Motion for the adjournment shall be made on the same day except with the concurrence of the House, obtained by question from the Chair, without debate.
- (h) Nothing contained in this Standing Order shall apply to the usual motion of adjournment by a Member of the Government to terminate the sitting of the House.”

74.—By omitting all words and inserting in lieu thereof the following words:

“ROUTINE OF BUSINESS

The House shall proceed each day with its ordinary business in the following routine. 1. Presentation of Petitions. 2. Questions. 3. Notices of Motions. 4. Placing or Disposal of Business. 5. PROCLAMATION

NEW SOUTH WALES, TO WIT.

A. R. CUTLER,
Governor.

By His Excellency Sir ARTHUR RODEN CUTLER, upon whom has been conferred the decoration of the Victoria Cross, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Knight of the Most Venerable Order of St John of Jerusalem, Governor of the State of New South Wales and its Dependencies, in the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of the State of New South Wales now stand adjourned to Tuesday, the twenty-ninth day of June, 1971: Now, I, Sir ARTHUR RODEN CUTLER, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested as Governor of the said State, do hereby prorogue the said Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly to Wednesday, the fourth day of August, 1971: And I do further announce and proclaim that the said Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly shall assemble for the despatch of business on the aforesaid fourth day of August, 1971, at 12 o'clock at noon, in the buildings known as the Legislative Council Chambers situate in Macquarie Street, in the City of Sydney: And the Members of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly respectively are hereby required to give their attendance at the said time and place accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Sydney, this sixteenth day of June, in the (L.S.) year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, and in the twentieth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

R. W. ASKIN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary data collection techniques. The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews, while secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section details the statistical analysis performed on the collected data. It describes the use of descriptive statistics to summarize the data and inferential statistics to test hypotheses. The results of these analyses are presented in a clear and concise manner, highlighting the key findings of the study.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the findings and their implications. It discusses the limitations of the study and suggests areas for future research. The author expresses confidence in the reliability of the data and the validity of the conclusions drawn.
