Committee on the ICAC

Dear Mr Kerr,

You'll remember that when you visited the university some weeks ago on your trip to Hong Kong I carelessly said that 'we' could provide a bibliography of materials on the Hong Kong ICAC. The 'we' of course meant 'I' (that is, me).

Examinations have since intervened, which explains the delay, but a bibliography is now enclosed, courtesy of our research officer Mr Jim Garrity.

I hope this is of some interest and value.

Sincerely,

Peter Wesley-Smith
Professor of Law

Gary,

Thanks for the reminder, for I had mentioned that I'd compile a list of relevant MPA theses, and also (i) try and locate a copy of a recent newspaper article on the Ombudsman and (ii) look out some comparative material on Singapore. I've been unsuccessful concerning both (i) and (ii) - other than in the case of the material on Singapore in the thesis listed below by K.H.J. Law. Can I suggest that they write to Associate Professor Jon Quah of the Department of Political Science, National University of Singapore, Kent Ridge, Singapore. Jon has written some articles, etc on the anti-corruption measures adopted in Singapore over the last 15-20 years.

Listed below are the names of the authors and the titles of MPA theses on the ICAC and anti-corruption legislation since 1980. These theses are available in the Central Library and in our Departmental Library. Presumably, copies could be obtained through inter-library arrangements.

- Wong, A.W.H.
