

PART THREE (A)— CASUAL VACANCIES IN THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

RETURN showing details concerning the filling of casual vacancies in the Legislative Council since reconstitution in 1978, containing details of members ceasing their term of service and those elected to serve the remainder of that term.

Prior to 1 July 1991 the Constitution Act 1902 provided for a casual vacancy to be filled by the appointment of the highest ordered eligible candidate from the same group on the ballot paper to which the resigned member had belonged, or by election at a joint sitting of both Houses. (See the historical version of sections 22C and 22D of the Constitution Act 1902 No. 32)
