

helen dubrovich
watercolour artist

Mobile: 0428 617 146

Helen Dubrovich has practised her art over many years and has worked chiefly in watercolour but enjoys working in other mediums such as acrylic, oil and pastel. Her paintings have been influenced initially by her love of the impressionists but Helen has developed her own unique style often using colour to full advantage.

Achievements and Awards:

- Has exhibited with ArtSHINE Surtex Group Exhibition licensing trade fair in New York
- Has participated in many group shows
- Has completed five highly successful solo exhibitions
- 2022 2nd place for Still Life Painting Sydney Royal Arts& Crafts Show
- 2022 Freedom at Last at The Alley, Enmore
- 2021 Timeless Still Life in Colour at The Art Passage Gallery, Miranda
- 2018 My Watercolour World with ArtSHINE Gallery Glebe
- 2016 Memories of Bali with ArtSHINE Gallery Chippendale
- 2015 Body of Works Bundanoon Club, Southern Highlands
- 2020 Winner Still Life SGAS Online Exhibition
- 2020 Winer Animals and Birds SGAS Online Exhibition 2020
- 2019 Winner for Best Water Medium Australian Maritime Museum Award
- 2019 Finalist Bayside Arts Festival
- 2018 Winner of Russian Theme Section Russian Club Sydney
- 2018 Highly Commended Traditional Watercolour St George Art Society
- 2016 Winner 1st prize Watercolour Oatley 101 Society of Artists
- 2015 Art on Board Honourable Mention Prize ArtSHINE Gallery Chippendale
- 2015 Highly Commended Watercolour St George Art Society
- 2014 Highly Commended Continuum Art Society Hazelhurst Exhibition
- 2014 Finalist and President's Choice Drummoyne Art Society
- 2014 Second Prize Continuum Art Society (Pastel)
- 2013 CASS Finalist Maritime Museum
- Has donated paintings for the McGrath Foundation, Illawarra Beekeepers Association, the Farmers of NSW and Response for Life and Chris O'Brien Lifehouse hospital for cancer patients.

